John P. Brincko

President

John P. Brincko's background includes 40 years of executive, financial, and operational management experience. Since forming his firm in 1979, Mr. Brincko and his associates have provided personalized advisory and interim management services to financially troubled companies and their investors. He has served as president and chief executive officer of over 50 companies, ranging in sales from $50 million to $3 billion+. His experience encompasses turnarounds, mergers and acquisitions, investment feasibility, cost reduction programs, and divestitures.

Mr. Brincko recently served as CRO of Franchise Pictures, a motion picture production company that has released over 70 films, Director of EMAK Worldwide, Inc. and sole member of EMAK's Special Litigation Committee, and CRO of Spansion, Inc., the largest flash memory solution company (Brincko Group was nominated for two M&A Advisor 2011 Annual Turnaround Awards for its work in connection with the bankruptcy reorganization of Spansion). He also recently served as financial advisor to Special Devices, Inc. and was appointed Chapter 11 Trustee of National Consumer Mortgage LLC and Metabolife International, Inc. In addition, Mr. Brincko has served as CRO to a leading consumer food company, President and CEO of Consolidated Freightways, an independent worldwide transportation and logistics company, CEO of CalComp Technology, Inc., a publicly traded subsidiary of Lockheed Martin, and CEO of Strouds, a publicly traded specialty bed, bath, and linen retailer, which he sold to an investor group. Mr. Brincko has also served as President and CEO of Mossimo, Inc., a NYSE fashion apparel manufacturer and retailer. Furthermore, he was President and COO of Barneys New York, the upscale retailer of men's and women's clothing and accessories, culminating in a sale to debt holders.

Prior to forming his own firm, Mr. Brincko was senior vice president, chief financial officer, and acting chief operating officer of Max Factor. He also held executive management positions with American Home Products, International Paper Company, Peat Marwick Mitchell, and Grey Advertising.

Mr. Brincko holds a BBA degree in accounting from the Bernard Baruch School of Business Administration, City University of New York.
