Mr. Fields joined RBCCM during April 2007 and is responsible for the Senior Living Sector. Prior to joining RBCCM, Dave led UBS's not-for-profit Senior Living Finance Practice for the prior four years. His banking experience in the Senior Living Industry spans over 20 years and encompasses over 150 financings providing over $5.0 billion to senior living projects including start-up and existing CCRCs, nursing homes and assisted living facilities. These assignments encompass a variety of functions including facility development, expansion and acquisition as well as asset divestiture, debt restructuring and corporate bankruptcy advisory within the sector. During Dave's six-year tenure at UBS, the firm ranked as a top-three senior managing underwriter of Senior Living bond issues with an average volume of over $225 million per year.

In addition to bond financing, Mr. Fields has been involved in the restructuring of over 30 distressed CCRC's and long term care facilities nationally. These engagements include serving as investment banker or financial advisor to borrowers, sponsors, debtors, bondholders, banks and trustees totaling over $1.5 billion of debt.

Prior to joining UBS, Mr. Fields spent 8 years as an investment banker at Herbert J. Sims & Co., Inc. based in Westport, Connecticut. While at Sims, in addition to covering the Northeast, Mr. Fields initiated the development of the Ohio and West Coast markets and developed and managed Sims' reinvestment and derivative advisory practice.

Mr. Fields graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Optical Engineering from the University of Rochester and a Masters of Business Administration from the Graduate Management Institute of Union University in Schenectady, New York.
