

Abe Han -- Managing Director -- GLC Advisors

Mr. Han was previously a Principal in GLC Merchant Banking where he primarily focused on distressed investing and workouts. Prior to GLC Merchant Banking, Mr. Han was an Executive Director in UBS's Restructuring and Leveraged Finance Groups based in New York where he was responsible for the execution and structuring of restructuring, alternative capital, leveraged loan and high yield bond transactions. Prior to joining UBS, Mr. Han was the Steel Division Manager for Hyundai Corp. (USA).

Mr. Han has worked with companies and their creditors on a number of assignments including bankruptcy reorganizations, out-of-court workouts, M&A, financing transactions and recapitalizations.

Mr. Han has served on Star Tribune's official unsecured creditors committee in bankruptcy and previously sat on PRC's Board of Directors representing the pre-petition 2nd lien lender class. Mr. Han holds a gaming license with the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Han was selected by The M&A Advisor as one of the "40 Under 40".

Mr. Han holds an MBA from Northwestern University and a BA degree from Rutgers University.

Notable transactions include:

- $4.2 billion restructuring of Jefferson County, Alabama (pending)
- $2.7 billion restructuring of Visteon
- $725 million restructuring of Wastequip, Inc.
- $780 million restructuring of Rivers Casino
- €298 million restructuring of Heckler & Koch Beteiligungs GmbH
- $483 million restructuring and sale of American Safety Razor
- £75 million restructuring and sale of Hampson Aerospace