

Bankruptcy & Business Reorganizations

The Bankruptcy & Business Reorganizations Practice of Foley & Lardner LLP is one of the nation's oldest, largest, and most prestigious. Our highly regarded attorneys have extensive experience in all aspects of bankruptcy law and practice, and continue to garner recognition for their services and successes.

In 2013, Chambers USA ranked Foley's Bankruptcy & Business Reorganizations Practice in Band 5 for Illinois. In its 2010 edition, Legal 500 reported, "Clients confirm the 'level of service is outstanding' and that the lawyers are 'proactive, thoughtful, and keep the business client fully informed of the status of their matters.'"

Foley's Bankruptcy & Business Reorganizations Practice is national, with a unique breadth of senior practitioners and generalists as well as lawyers with significant experience in particular industries. The practice includes attorneys from Foley's offices in Boston, Chicago, Detroit, Los Angeles, Madison, Miami, Milwaukee, New York, Orlando, San Diego, Tallahassee, Tampa, and Washington, D.C.

Our attorneys regularly represent parties in all aspects of bankruptcy law, from pre-filing workouts on behalf of companies and creditors to Chapter 11 engagements on behalf of debtors, creditors, creditors' committees, indenture trustees, equityholders, bondholders, contract parties, debtor-in-possession (DIP) lenders, asset purchasers, institutional creditors, claims purchasers, professional advisors, examiners and trustees, and various other parties in interest. These engagements have included public and private debtors with revenues ranging from multiple millions of dollars to multiple billions of dollars, sales of debtor assets, litigation involving insiders and affiliates of debtors, and other significant adversary proceedings. We regularly handle creditors' rights litigation, including collection and foreclosure matters and enforcement of security interests, and are skilled in assisting creditors in obtaining early payment of claims. Our attorneys also have experience with cross-border insolvencies and cases under Chapter 15 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Our attorneys work integrally with the firm's other practices, including a number of the firm's industry-focused practices, forming multidisciplinary industry restructuring teams in such areas as:

- » Automotive
- » Air/transportation
- » Energy and utilities
- » Financial services/securities
- » Health care
- » Heavy industry and next-generation manufacturing
- » High-tech/intellectual property
- » Corporate trust and bondholders' rights
- » Real estate, including sub-prime and homebuilding
- » Retail
- » Sports and recreation
- » Telecommunications

For More Information

For more information on the Bankruptcy & Business Reorganizations Practice and its capabilities, visit us online or contact Harold L. Kaplan in our New York or Chicago office at hkaplan@foley.com.

Foley.com