

Christopher K. Kiplok
Partner

Christopher K. Kiplok is a partner in Hughes Hubbard's corporate reorganization and litigation departments. He is a member of the firm's Executive Committee and serves as administrative partner for the corporate reorganization group. His practice includes judicial and out of court insolvency matters and financial litigation, with a particular expertise in the liquidation of brokerage firms. Mr. Kiplok routinely briefs congressional committees, domestic and foreign regulators, self regulatory organizations, and industry groups, is a regular panelist and lecturer on topics including "too big to fail" insolvencies, cross border bankruptcies, and complex financial litigation, and he has testified before the ABI Reform Commission on potential amendments to the Safe Harbor provisions. Mr. Kiplok is a co-author of the treatise Collier on Bankruptcy, chairs the City Bar's subcommittee on financial firm failure, and he is recognized by Chambers and Legal 500 as one of the country's leading lawyers. He serves on the boards of Greenwich House, Inc. and the Barrow Street Nursery School, and he holds a J.D. from NYU Law School and a B.S.F.S. from Georgetown University.
