Prior to joining Teneo, Mr. Williams was a Managing Director in the Global Restructuring Advisory Group of Duff & Phelps Securities, LLC (formally, Chanin Capital Partners). Mr. Williams has more than 21 years of restructuring experience advising companies and their stakeholders in distressed situations.

Mr. Williams has advised clients across a broad range of industries both in and outside of the court process in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Mr. Williams joined Duff & Phelps with the merger of Chanin Capital Partners. Prior to Duff & Phelps and Chanin Capital Partners, Mr. Williams was a Director at the New York office of Zolfo Cooper, LLC, where he developed and implemented financial and operational restructuring plans in turnaround and distressed situations, in addition to the preparation of debt and equity valuations of distressed companies.

Prior to Zolfo Cooper, Mr. Williams was a Vice President at a restructuring firm located in Ontario and a senior manager at KPMG Inc., where he was responsible for planning and executing financial and operational restructurings, and receivership/bankruptcy engagements. Additionally, Mr. Williams was involved in the Corporate Finance Division of these companies, where he specialized in the area of divestitures.

Mr. Williams received his B.S. in business administration from Carleton University. He is also a Certified Public Accountant, a member of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants and was a practicing Trustee in bankruptcy in Ontario.

He holds the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) Series 7 and 63 licenses and is a FINRA registered representative.
