

Harrison Denman

Partner, New York

T +1 212 819 2567

E hdenman@whitecase.com

Biography

Overview

Harrison Denman is a partner in the Firm's Financial Restructuring and Insolvency Group. He has extensive experience in various aspects of bankruptcy law, including the representation of creditors in both Chapter 11 proceedings and out-of-court restructurings. Prior to joining White & Case, Mr. Denman clerked for Judge James M. Peck of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York. Mr. Denman was selected for 2014, 2015 and 2016 as a Superlawyers NY Metro Rising Star and for 2016 as an Outstanding Young Restructuring Lawyer by Turnarounds and Workouts.

Bars and Courts

New York State Bar

US District Court for the Southern District of New York

Education

JD, Cornell University Law School

BA, University of Pennsylvania

Languages

English

Spanish

Experience

Financial Restructuring and Insolvency

Speaking Engagements

"Legal Trends within Bankruptcy and Restructuring", May 24, 2016: panel at the 9th Annual Debtwire Investors Summit, (Panelist)

Publications

A Tale of Two Debtors: Lehman Brothers and the Availability of Equitable Subordination in the 'Dueling Debtor' Context, NYU Journal of Law & Business, Vol. 9, No. 1, Fall 2012

Awards & Recognition

Superlawyers NY Metro Rising Star, 2016, 2015, 2014

Benchmark Litigation Under 40 Hot List – 2016

Outstanding Young Restructuring Lawyer, Turnarounds & Workouts, 2016
