Daniel A. Fliman represents debtors, creditors, shareholders, boards, investors and purchasers in distressed contexts. He has particular experience representing stakeholders such as principals, hedge funds and financial institutions with interests in companies positioned for turnaround. Mr. Fliman often represents clients that require substantial influence in the direction of a reorganization and he works closely with his clients to provide valuable solutions for maximizing the recovery on their interests.

Mr. Fliman is the author of the 2016 New York Law Journal article "Introduction to Ad Hoc Committees in Distressed Situations," and the 2014 New York Law Journal article "The Bankruptcy Automatic Stay: A Guide for Commercial Litigators."

Recently, Mr. Fliman has been recognized on the Benchmark Litigation 2016 Under 40 Hot List. He has also been named a 2016 "Outstanding Young Restructuring Lawyer" by Turnaround and Workouts. He has also been recognized as a New York Metro Super Lawyer in 2016. In 2015, Mr. Fliman was highlighted in The Legal 500's guide to outstanding attorneys nationwide for Corporate Restructuring (including bankruptcy). He was also recognized as a "Rising Star" in the 2013-2014 editions of New York Metro Super Lawyers.
