

Leonid Frenkel

Triage Capital Management

Leonid Frenkel, age 69, founded Triage Capital Management in 1994. He is the Managing Member and Chief Investments office of Triage Management LP, the General Partner of Triage Capital Management L.P. and Triage Capital Management, B, L.P. Previously, he was a member of the general partner of OTA Limited partnership, for which Triage Management manages its Special Situation Companies portfolio, a position he held with OTA Limited Partnership (or its predecessor companies) since its formation in 1985.

Prior to 1985, Mr. Frenkel is a graduate of Kiev University with a Masters Degree in Engineering. Designed and supervised construction of residential buildings, chemical plants and nuclear plants in the U.S.

In addition, he also took business and accounting classes at Columbia University and Drexel University. He has extensive investment experience (30 years) in bankruptcies, reorganization and restructuring of major U.S. corporations. Mr. Frenkel's responsibilities include investment strategies, which incorporate bankruptcies, high yield, distressed, arbitrage and equity investments.