Anita Lal (the “Debtor”) hereby moves the court for the following relief, in three parts.

The Debtor requests entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1 (the “Sale Procedures Order”), under 11 U.S.C. §§ 105 and 363 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002, 6004 and 6006: (a) approving bidding procedures in connection with the proposed sale (the “Sale”) of her 50% interest in a lease (the “Lease”) for the commercial premises located at 14843 Dumfries Road, Manassas, Virginia (the “Demised Premises”) ¹ and the assets located upon the Demised Premises (the “Assets”), or in the alternative, her 50% membership interest (the “Interest”) in 234 Auto & Truck Salvage Yard, LLC, a Virginia limited liability company (the “LLC”) (where Lease, the Assets, and the Interest are the “Proposed Assets”) to a valid third party or parties making a highest bid for the Proposed Assets as selected by the Debtor following the auction process described in this motion (the “Motion”); (b) scheduling a hearing date, a bidding deadline and an auction date in connection with the Sale; and (c) approving the manner of notice thereof; and following the auction process sought to be implemented through Part I, the Debtor requests that this court conduct a hearing (the “Sale Hearing”) to consider entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 3, (the “Sale Order”), under 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 365, and 1146(c) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6004 and 6006: (a) approving of the sale of the Proposed Assets free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, rights and interests and the assumption and assignment of the Lease and the Interest; and (b) granting such other relief as may be necessary or appropriate to consummate the sale. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtor additionally requests leave to assume the Lease.

In support thereof, the Debtor respectfully represents as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. On July 17, 2017, (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.
2. The Debtor continues to operate her affairs as debtor in possession pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 1107 and 1108. No Trustee or examiner has been appointed.
3. This Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334.
4. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b)(2)(a), (b), (e), (m), and (n).
5. The statutory predicates for the relief requested are 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 365, and 1146(c) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002 and 6004.

BACKGROUND

6. On or around September 14, 2014, the Debtor and Adeela Ahmad ("Ahmad") entered into the Lease [a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 4].
7. Around the time of the Lease, the Debtor and Ahmad formed the LLC.
8. The Debtor and Ahmad are the sole members of the LLC, where each of the Debtor and Ahmad hold a 50% membership interest in the LLC.
9. The records of the State Corporation Commission (the "SCC") reflect that the LLC is active and in good standing. At some point, Ahmad filed papers with the SCC to reinstate the certificate of organization for the LLC. Ahmad did not have the authority to reinstate the certificate of organization for the LLC. The certificate of organization for the LLC is invalid.
10. The business of the LLC is to purchase used and inoperable motor vehicles, to sell them for parts, and after a vehicle's value for parts has been depleted, to sell the remainder of such vehicle for scrap. When a vehicle is to be sold for scrap, it is "crushed" by the LLC as to maximize the number of vehicles that can be transported on a flat bed truck.

11. The LLC conducts its business as a sub-tenant of the Debtor and Ahmad under a parcel lease.

12. The Debtor desires to assume the Lease as its terms are below market and thus, valuable. The Debtor expects that there will be several offers for the assignment of the Lease and for the remaining Proposed Assets. The Debtor is now asking the Court to approve assumption of the Lease and the Interest, and then assign the Proposed Assets to the highest bidder at an auction held by the Court. The proceeds of the sale will be used to fund the Debtor's plan of reorganization.

13. Specifically excluded from the Proposed Assets shall be all claims of the Debtor against Ahmad and any person acting in concert with her arising from or relating to any breach of fiduciary duty by Ahmad and any conversion or misappropriation of the assets of the LLC by Ahmad and any person acting in concert with her.

14. Additionally excluded from the Proposed Assets shall be all proceeds from the sale of vehicle parts or "crushed" vehicles sold before entry of the Sale Order.

ARGUMENT AND AUTHORITY

15. A assets may be sold free and clear of liens, claims, encumbrances, rights and interests. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(f), a Debtor may sell all or any part of a debtor's property free and clear of any and all liens, claims, encumbrances, rights or interests in such property if (1) such a sale is permitted under applicable non-bankruptcy law, (2) the party asserting such a lien, claim or interest consents to such sale, (3) the interest is a lien and the purchase price for the property is greater than the aggregate amount of all liens on the property, (4) the interest is the subject of a bona fide dispute or (5) the party asserting the lien, claim or interest could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest. 11 U.S.C. § 363(f); In re Elliot, 94 B.R. 343, 345 (E.D. Pa. 1988) (§ 363(f) written in disjunctive; court may approve sale “free and clear” provided at least one of the subsections is met).

16. With respect to the provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 363(f)(5), this Court should note that Ahmad has in fact requested a judicial dissolution of the LLC in a complaint she filed before the Fairfax County Circuit Court.² Moreover, as set forth in the Adversary Complaint styled as Anita Lal v. Adeela Ahmad, et al.; U.S. Bankruptcy Court, E.D., Va. Docket No. 1;17-ap-10198, judicial dissolution has in fact been requested before this Court.

17. Likewise, the nature of Ahmad’s interest in any of the Proposed Assets does not preclude a sale of the Proposed Assets because all the conditions required by 11 U.S.C. § 363(h) (to the extent they apply) are met; specifically: (1) a partition in kind of the Proposed Assets is impractical; (2) the sale of the estate’s undivided interest in the Proposed Assets would realize significantly less for the estate than a sale of the Proposed Assets free and clear of any liens, claims, or interests; (3) the benefit of the estate for the sale of the Proposed Assets outweighs the detriment, if any, to any co-owner; and (4) the Proposed Assets are not used in the production, transmission, or distribution, for sale, of electric energy or of natural or synthetic gas for heat, light, or power.

18. A sale free and clear of liens, claims, encumbrances, rights and interests is necessary to maximize the value of the Proposed Assets. A sale subject to liens, claims and interests likely would not occur or would result in a lower purchase price and be of substantially less benefit to the Debtor’s estate.

19. A sale free and clear of liens, claims, rights, and interests is appropriate under the circumstances because any lien, claim or interest in the Proposed Assets that exists immediately prior to the closing of the Sale will attach to the Sale proceeds with the same validity, priority, force and effect as it had prior to such Sale. Thus, the Sale satisfies 11 U.S.C. § 363(f)(1).

20. In addition, a trustee or debtor may assume and assign executory contracts and unexpired leases in accord with 11 U.S.C. § 365. 11 U.S.C. § 365(b) requires that the Debtor cure or provide adequate assurance that the Debtor promptly will cure, any defaults that existed under the executory contract or executory contract sought to be assumed, other than those defaults relating to insolvency, bankruptcy, other financial conditions of the debtor or penalty rates imposed by debtor's failing to perform nonmonetary obligations under the executory contract or lease. With respect to those executory contracts and unexpired leases that any purchaser and the Debtor decide should be assumed by the Debtor and assigned to such purchaser, the Debtor shall either cure, cause the Purchaser to cure, or provide adequate assurance that the Debtor will promptly cure the pre-petition defaults, if any, under such contracts and leases in accord with 11 U.S.C. § 365(b). The Debtor also will provide the counter-parties to such contracts and leases with adequate assurance of future performance by the Purchaser under those contracts and leases in accord with 11 U.S.C. § 365(f).

PART I - SALE PROCEDURE ORDER

21. The Debtor seeks to obtain the greatest value for the Proposed Assets. The Debtor believes that the proposed auction sale is fair and reasonable and expects that the marketplace will provide a good offer. Accordingly, the Debtor asserts that good cause exists to expose the Lease and the remaining Proposed Assets to sale at a public auction (the "Auction"), thereby maximizing the value obtained for the Proposed Assets. To implement the foregoing, as the first part of this Motion, the Debtor requests that the Court hold a hearing on shortened notice and, at that hearing, enter the Sales Procedure Order.

22. Attached to the proposed Sales Procedures Order as Attachment 1 is a copy of the Debtor's proposed Bidding and Sale Procedures (the "Procedures"), a copy of which attached as Exhibit 5. The Debtor believes that the proposed Procedures carefully balance the Debtor's interests in: (i) preserving the opportunity to attract good offers for the valuable lease; and (ii) expediting the sale process.

23. The Procedures are fair and reasonable, reflect the exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with the Debtor's fiduciary duties, and represent the best method to maximize the value to the estate of the Proposed Assets. See Four B. Corp. v. Food Barn Stores, 107 F.3d 558, 564-65 (8th Cir. 1997) (primary objective in bankruptcy sale is to enhance value of estate); In re Atlanta Packaging Products, 99 B.R. 124, 131 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 1988) (same).

24. Entry of this Sale Procedures Order is in the best interests of the estate, creditors and interest holders because it will, among other things, retain for the estates the prospect for a successful sale and will enable the Debtor to solicit competing offers. Entry of the Sales Procedure Order will encourage, rather than hamper, bidding by assuring all interested bidders that the Auction will be conducted in a controlled, but fair and open fashion that promotes interest in the Auction by financially capable bidders who are likely to close a transaction, while simultaneously discouraging offers from bidders the Debtor does not believe are capable or likely to consummate a transaction. See In re Integrated Resources, 147 B.R. at 656-56 (deference is to be given to business judgment regarding procedures to be used in selling assets from the estate); In re 995 Fifth Ave. Assocs., 96 B.R. at 28 (same).

25. The Debtor proposes to mail notice of the Sale Procedures Order, the Auction and the Sale Hearing to (i) the Office of the U.S. Trustee; (ii) all parties listed on the matrix in this case; (iii) all federal, state and local regulatory or taxing authorities or recording offices which have a reasonably known interest in the relief requested by the Motion; (iv) all parties known to have expressed a bona fide interest in acquiring the Proposed Assets; and (v) all entities who have filed a notice of appearance and request for service of papers in these cases.

26. To maximize the value of the Proposed Assets, the Debtor requests that this Court exercise its inherent authority pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105, order that, immediately upon entry of this Sales Procedures Order: (a) Ahmad cease and desist from the sale of any “crushed” vehicles (as to ensure that there is a sufficient inventory on hand for a potential purchaser) immediately upon entry of the Sales Procedures Order; (b) assets located upon the Demised Premises be removed after entry of the Sales Procedures Order; and (d) Ahmad immediately provide any potential purchaser with full, correct, and complete records of the business affairs of the LLC.

27. No prejudice will arise to either Ahmad or the LLC as the daily revenue from parts sales and entry fees will easily cover the expenses for rent, general operating expenses, and daily labor.

28. The Debtor further requests that this Court order that Ahmad vacate and surrender possession of the Demised Premises in favor of any purchaser within such time as this Court may deem appropriate, but in no event later than entry of the Sale Order.

PART II - SALE ORDER

29 As the second part of this Motion, the Debtor requests that, following the selection of the Purchaser through the auction process, the Court enter the Sale Order, empowering the Debtor to consummate the transactions contemplated herein.

30. The Debtor believes that the proposed auction sale reflects the exercise of her sound business judgment and a proper exercise of her fiduciary duties.

31. Approval of the relief requested in this Motion, the Sale contemplated thereby, is in the best interests of the Debtor, her creditors, the estate, and other parties in interest.

32. To the best of the Debtor's knowledge, the Purchaser has not paid or offered to pay any compensation to any prospective bidder for the Proposed Assets, nor does the Purchaser have any agreement or other arrangement with any prospective bidder. A successful bidder at the auction is a buyer in good faith of the Proposed Assets under 11 U.S.C. § 363(m) and is entitled to the protections afforded thereby. See In re UPI, 1992 U.S. Bankr. LEXIS 842, at *3 (Bankr. S.D. N.Y. 1992).

33. 11 U.S.C. § 1146(c) provides that the making or delivery of an instrument under a confirmed Chapter 11 plan or reorganization may not be taxed under any laws imposing a stamp or similar tax. Courts have construed § 1146(c) to include transfers under § 363 if done in furtherance of effectuating a Chapter 11 plan. See Director of Revenue, State of Delaware v. CCA Partnership, 70 B.R. 696 (Bankr. D. Del. 1987), aff'd, 833 F.2d 304 (3d Cir. 1987); see also In re Jacoby Bender, 758 F.2d 840 (2nd Cir. 1985) (rejecting taxing authority's argument that a sale under § 363 was not a transfer under a Chapter 11 plan); In re Permar Provisions, 79 B.R. 530, 534 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1987) (sale of property one year prior to confirmation was exempt under § 1146(c) where sale proceeds were distributed to secured and unsecured creditors). The holding of the Fourth Circuit in In re NVR, LP, 189 F.3d 442 (4th Cir. 1999), should not be construed as holding to the contrary. In that case, a home builder which sold real estate and improvements in the ordinary course of business during the bankruptcy was held not to be entitled to a refund of recordation and transfer taxes paid on each of those transfers because those pre-confirmation sales of property were not transfers under a plan of reorganization within meaning of § 1146(c). Contrary to the circumstances in NVR, the sale of the Proposed Assets to the Purchaser is far from a mere continuation of the Debtor's business in the ordinary course, but represents a liquidation of the business as a prerequisite to, and an integral element of, the Debtor's ability to confirm and consummate a plan of liquidation. The Debtor intends to use the net proceeds of the sale to satisfy liens and claims asserted against the Debtor in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and a plan of liquidation that the Debtor will seek to have confirmed in these cases. Thus, the transfer of the Proposed Assets pursuant to the Sale should not be subject to taxation under any federal, state, local, municipal or other law imposing or purporting to impose a stamp tax or similar tax in accordance with 11 U.S.C. §§ 1146(c) and 105(a).

34. Owing to and in consideration of the fact that Ahmad may be entitled to a share of the proceeds arising from any Sale, the Debtor requests that this Court determine the procedure for a distribution of these proceeds.

CONCLUSION

Wherefore, the Debtor respectfully requests that the Court: (1) enter the proposed Sales Procedures Order to: (a) approve the bidding procedures in connection with the proposed Sale of the Lease for the Demised Premises and the Assets, or in the alternative, the Interest in the LLC to a valid third party or parties making a highest bid for the Proposed Assets as selected by the Debtor following the auction process described, above; (b) scheduling a hearing date, a bidding deadline and an auction date in connection with the Sale; (c) approving the manner of notice thereof; (d) enter such order as may be appropriate to preserve and protect the value of the Proposed Assets; (2) after entry of any Sales Procedure Order, following the auction process sought to be implemented, the Debtor requests that this conduct a Sale Hearing to consider entry of the proposed Sale Order, under 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 365, and 1146(c) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6004 and 6006: (a) approving of the sale of the Proposed Assets free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, rights and interests and the assumption and assignment of the Lease and the Interest; and (b) granting such other relief as may be appropriate to consummate the sale; and (c) make such further order as may be appropriate to adequately protect the interest of Ahmad in any sales proceeds to which she may be entitled; and (3) approving the Debtor's assumption of the Lease and granting such other and further relief as the nature of its cause requires.

IN RE: ANITA LAL)	Case No. 17-12444-BFK
)	Chapter 11
Debtor)

ORDER (A) APPROVING SALE PROCEDURES, (B) SCHEDULING A BIDDING DEADLINE AND HEARING TO CONSIDER APPROVAL OF SALE, AND (C) APPROVING THE MANNER OF NOTICE THEREOF

Upon the Debtor's Motion, dated October 9, 2017, (the "Motion"), for (I) Entry of a Sale Procedures Order (A) Approving Bidding Procedures, (B) Scheduling a Hearing Date and a Bidding Deadline, and (C) Approving Notice (collectively, "Part I of the Motion"), and (II) Entry of an Order Approving Sale Free & Clear of Liens and Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases ("Part II of the Motion"), and the Court having determined that the relief requested in Part I of the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtor's, the estate, the creditors and other parties in interest; and upon the hearing held on October 24, 2017, (the "Hearing"); and after due deliberation thereon; and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor;

IT IS HEREBY FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:

- A. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter and over the property of the Debtor and its bankruptcy estate pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a) and 1334. Venue in this District for these Chapter 11 cases and the Motion is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.
- B. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(a), (n) and (o).
- C. Appropriate notice of the relief sought in Part I of the Motion, as to content, service, and time based upon the particular circumstances of this case, has been given and no other or further notice is required.
- D. Good and sufficient reasons have been shown for approving (i) the manner of notice of the Motion, the Auction, the Bidding Procedures (in the form of Attachment 1 hereto) and the Sale Hearing to be distributed to creditors and other parties in interest, including prospective bidders, and (ii) the Bidding and Sale Procedures (the “Procedures”) (as defined therein).

E. The proposed Procedures carefully balance the Debtor’s interests in: (i) preserving the opportunity to attract higher and better offers, and (ii) expediting the sale process.

F. Based on the record presented to the Court at the Hearing, the Procedures are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor’s exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with her fiduciary duties, and represent the best method for maximizing the value to the estate of the Lease.

G. This Court concludes that entry of this Sale Procedures Order is in the best interests of the Debtor, the estate, the creditors and other parties in interest because it will, among other things, retain for the estates the prospect of a successful sale, while enabling the Debtor to solicit competing offers in accordance herewith.

H. The notice procedures proposed in the Motion are reasonably calculated to provide sufficient notice of the Sale to creditors and other parties in interest, and those persons and entities interested in bidding on the Proposed Assets.

I. Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, and upon the record made before this Court at the Hearing, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor; it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

8. The most favorable transaction, which may be represented by one or more Qualifying Bids, as reasonably determined by the Debtor, shall be submitted to the Court for approval at the Sale Hearing. In the event of a dispute regarding the most favorable transaction, such dispute shall be resolved by the Court.

9. The Debtor is hereby authorized and empowered to take such steps, expend such sums of money and do such other things as may be necessary to implement and effect the terms and requirements established by this Sale Procedures Order.

10. The notice of the Motion and the Sale Hearing described in the Motion shall be good and sufficient, and any requirements for other or further notice are waived and dispensed with pursuant to Fed. R. All findings of facts and conclusions of law made by the Court at the Sale Hearing are incorporated herein; and based upon the foregoing, and upon the record made before this Court at the Sale Hearing, it is therefore

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. Part II of the Motion be, and it hereby is, granted in all respects.
2. All objections and responses to the Motion that have not been overruled, withdrawn, waived or settled, and all reservation of rights included therein, are hereby denied on the merits except as otherwise provided for in the record at the Sale Hearing.

6. Subject to the payment by successful qualified bidder to Debtor pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363 of the consideration provided for in the Sale, the sale of the Proposed Assets to the said party shall constitute a legal, valid and effective transfer of the Proposed Assets and shall vest the successful qualified bidder with all right, title and interests of the Debtor in and to the Proposed Assets.

7. The successful qualified bidder is a good faith purchaser entitled to the protections of 11 U.S.C. § 363(m) with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Sale, and, accordingly, the reversal or modification on appeal of the authorization provided herein to consummate the sale of the Proposed Assets will not affect the validity of the sale, unless such authorization as granted herein is duly stayed pending such appeal prior to the Closing.

8. The Purchase Price for the Proposed Assets is fair and reasonable, constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the assets purchased, and the transactions contemplated by the Sale are not subject to challenge under 11 U.S.C. § 363(n).

against the Proposed Assets shall not have delivered to the Debtor prior to the Closing, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate parties, termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, or releases of all Liens or other interests which the person or entity has with respect to the Proposed Assets, the Debtor is hereby authorized to execute and file such statements, instruments, releases and other documents on behalf of the person or entity with respect to the Proposed Assets, and the successful bidder is hereby authorized to file, register or otherwise record a certified copy of this Sale Order, which, once filed, registered or otherwise recorded, shall constitute evidence of the release of all Liens and Claims against or in the Proposed Assets of any kind or nature whatsoever.

16. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Sale or related instruments or as otherwise provided in this Sale Order, the successful bidder shall have no liability or responsibility for any liability or other obligation of the Debtor arising under or related to the Proposed Assets. Without limiting the effect of the foregoing, the transfer of the Proposed Assets and the assignment of the Assumed Lease do not and will not subject the successful bidder to any liability for claims against the Debtor or the Proposed Assets, arising prior to the Closing Date, including, but not limited to, claims for successor or vicarious liability, by reason of such transfer under the laws of the United States, any state, territory or possession thereof or the District of Columbia applicable to such transactions. The successful bidder shall not be deemed, as a result of any action taken in connection with the Sale, to: (a) be the successor of the Debtor; (b) have, de facto or otherwise, merged with or into the Debtor; (c) be a mere continuation or substantial continuation of the Debtor or the enterprise of the Debtor; or (d) be responsible for any liability of the Debtor or for payment of any benefit accruing to the Debtor, except as specifically provided for in the Sale or in this Sale Order.

the agreements executed in connection therewith; (b) to compel delivery of the Proposed Assets to the successful bidder; (c) to enforce the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Lease; (d) to resolve any disputes arising under or related to the Sale; and (e) to interpret, implement and enforce the provisions of this Sale Order.

18. Nothing contained in any chapter 11 plan confirmed in these cases or the order of confirmation confirming any chapter 11 plan, nor any order dismissing any case or converting it to chapter 7 liquidation shall conflict with or derogate from the provisions of the Sale, any documents or instrument executed in connection therewith, or the terms of this Sale Order.

19. Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6004(g), 6006(d) and 7062, this Sale Order shall not be stayed for ten (10) days after entry, and notwithstanding any provision of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rules to the contrary, this Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry.

20. This Order shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the successful bidder the Debtor and its respective successors and assigns, including but not limited to the Debtor or any chapter 7 trustee that may be appointed in any of these cases.

21. Because the Sale and the proceeds resulting therefrom are an integral part of any plan of reorganization to be confirmed in this case, each and every federal, state and local governmental agency, department or entity is hereby directed to accept the filing of any and all documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to implement, effectuate or consummate the transactions contemplated by the Sale and this Sale Order.

22. The provisions of this Sale Order are nonseverable and mutually dependent.

14. Access to Premises.

a. The Landlord reserves for itself and its representatives the right to enter upon the Demised Premises at all reasonable hours for the purpose of inspecting the same,

b. Landlord may, within ninety (90) days next preceding the expiration of the Lease term, enter the Demised Premises, to place and maintain notices for lettering, free from hindrance or control of Tenant, and to show the premises to prospective tenants thereof at times which will not unreasonably interfere with Tenant's business. In the event Tenant does not discharge such lien or liens within ten (10) days after Tenant is requested to do so in writing by landlord, then Landlord may, but shall be under no obligation to pay off any such lien or liens, and such payments by Landlord, together with interest thereon at the rate of twenty percent (20%) per annum from the date of any such payment, shall be deemed to be Additional Rent hereunder and shall be due from Tenant to Landlord on the first day of the month following the payment of such respective sums and expenses.

18 Subordination. Tenant covenants and agrees to subject and subordinate this Lease, upon request of Landlord, to any paramount lease, deed of trust or other financing method that may now or hereafter affect the Demised Premises, and all renewals, modification, consolidations, replacements, and extensions thereof provided that any such paramount lease, deed of trust or other financing arrangements to which this Lease is subordinated, contains a provision that such subordination shall not adversely affect Tenant's right to use and occupancy hereunder so long as Tenant is not in default under any of the provisions hereof. To effect subordination on the aforesaid terms and in connection with such financing, Tenant agrees to execute promptly any certificate, assignment of rents or other document that Landlord may request.

19. Assignment of Lease. Tenant will not assign, transfer, mortgage or otherwise encumber this Lease or sublet or rent (or permit occupancy or use of) the Demised Premises, or any part thereof, without obtaining the prior written consent of landlord, nor shall any assignment or transfer of this Lease or the right of occupancy hereunder be effectuated by operation of law or otherwise without the prior written consent of Landlord. The consent by Landlord to any assignment or subletting shall not be construed as a waiver or release of Tenant from the terms of any covenant or obligation under this Lease, nor shall the collection or acceptance of rent from any such assignee, subtenant or occupant constitute a waiver or release of Tenant of any covenant or obligation under this Lease, nor shall any such assignment or subletting be construed to relieve Tenant from obtaining the consent in writing of Landlord to further assignment or subletting. In the event that Tenant defaults hereunder, Tenant hereby assigns to Landlord the rent due from any subtenant, assignee or any other occupant holding the premises or any portion thereof under the Tenant, and hereby authorizes each such subtenant to pay said rent directly to the Landlord. In the event Tenant desires to sublet all or a portion of the Demised Premises, Tenant shall give to Landlord thirty (30) days written notice of Tenant's intentions to do. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of said notice, Landlord shall have the right to sublet that portion of the Demised Premises from the Tenant at the same rent stipulated herein. If Tenant desires to sublet all of the Demised Property, Landlord shall also have the right to terminate this Lease on a date to be agreed upon by Landlord and Tenant. In the event Landlord has not exercised its right to sublet all or a portion of the Demised Premises, Tenant may sublet all or a portion of the Demised Premises after first obtaining the written consent of the Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. For purposes of this Paragraph, if Tenant is a partnership or corporation, a change in the ownership thereof that exceeds, during the term of this Lease, forty percent (40%) shall be deemed an assignment of this Lease.

20. Parking Areas.omit

21. Signs. The Tenant agrees not to install, place or cause to be placed any exterior advertising signs or awnings upon the premises, not to place advertising signs or posters without the consent of the landlord. All signs agreed to by the Landlord shall also conform to all applicable codes and regulations, and all rules and regulations of the governing body.

22. Remedies of Landlord.

a. Landlord may terminate this Lease upon ten (10) days written notice to Tenant upon the happening of any one or more of the following events: (i) the institution in a court of competent jurisdiction of proceedings for the reorganization, liquidation, or involuntary dissolution of Tenant or any guarantor, and if said proceedings are not dismissed, and any receiver, trustee or liquidator appointed therein discharged, within thirty (30) days after the institution of said proceedings; (ii) the insolvency of the Tenant or any guarantor or the making by Tenant or guarantor of an assignment or composition for the benefit of its creditors; (iii) the levying of a writ of execution or attachment on or against the property of Tenant or any guarantor; (iv) the taking of any action for the voluntary dissolution of Tenant, of any guarantor, of its consolidation with or merger into another corporation; (v) the failure of Tenant or any guarantor to pay an installment of rent or any other payment, or charge herein provided of when due; and (vi) the violation by Tenant of or its failure to perform any covenant or agreement herein contained, if such continues after ten (10) days written notice from Landlord, or, if it cannot be cured within such ten (10) days, if the Tenant does not within such period commence to cure such violation or failure and thereafter diligently complete the same.

b. Upon termination of this Lease, Landlord may reenter the Demised Premises with or without process of law, using such force as may be necessary, and remove all persons and chattels therefrom and Landlord shall not be liable for damages or otherwise by reason of re-entry or termination of this Lease or shall such re-entry or termination waive, bar or in any way prejudice any other remedies available to Landlord. Notwithstanding such termination the liability of Tenant for the rent provided for herein shall not be extinguished for the balance of the Lease term remaining after said termination, and Landlord shall be entitled to recover immediately as liquidated damages an amount equal to the rent for the said balance of the Lease term, less the rents actually received by Landlord from the Demised Premises during the balance of the Lease terms.

c. In the event of any breach hereunder by Tenant, Landlord may immediately or at any time thereafter, without notice, cure such breach for the account and at the expense of Tenant. If Landlord at any time, by reason of such breach, is compelled to pay or elects to pay any sum of money or do any act that will require the payment of any sum of money, or is compelled to incur any expenses, including reasonable attorneys fees, in instituting or prosecuting any action or proceeding to enforce Landlord's rights hereunder, the sum or sums paid by Landlord, with interest thereon at the rate of twenty (20%) percent per annum from the day of payment thereof, shall be deemed to be Additional Rent hereunder and shall be due from Tenant to Landlord of the first day of the month following the payment of such respective sums or expenses.

d. When this Lease is terminated in accordance with this Paragraph, Tenant will yield up possession to Landlord on the date of termination, and failing so to do, will pay as liquidated damages for each day possession is withheld, an amount equal to double the amount of the daily base rent, computed on a thirty (30) day month basis.

e. In order to secure the performance of Tenant's obligation under this lease, Tenant hereby grants to Landlord, in addition to any statutory lien available to Landlord, a lien on all vehicles, cars, trucks and equipment, furniture, furnishings, equipment, fixtures, merchandise and other personal property placed on the leased premises by Tenant. Tenant hereby specifically waives any and all exemptions allowed by law; and such lien may be enforced on the nonpayment of any installment of rent by the taking and selling of such property, in the same manner as in the case of chattel mortgages on default thereunder; said sale to be made upon ten (10) days notice serviced upon the Tenant by posting upon the Demised Premises or by leaving same at this place of residence; or such lien may be enforced in any other lawful manner at the option of the Landlord.

f. All rights and remedies of Landlord herein enumerated shall be cumulative and none shall exclude any other right or remedy allowed by law and said rights and remedies may be exercised and enforced concurrently and whenever and as often as occasion therefor arises. Any base rent, Additional Rent or other payment or charge herein provided for may be recovered by the Landlord from the Tenant by distress action or by any legal process as may at the time be in operation and force in like cases relating to proceedings between landlords and tenants.

23. Storage or Tenant's Property. If on termination of this Lease by expiration or otherwise, or on abandonment of the Demised Premises, Tenant shall fail to remove any of Tenant's property from the Demised Premises, Tenant hereby authorizes Landlord, at Landlord's option, to cause such property to be removed and placed in storage or on such termination, to sell such property at public or private sale, with ten (10) days notice, and to apply the proceeds thereof, after payment of all expenses of removal, storage and sale, to the indebtedness, if any, of the Tenant to Landlord, the surplus, if any, to be paid to Tenant upon demand. Landlord shall in no event be responsible for the value, accounting, preservation or safekeeping of such property. Landlord's inventory of abandoned or stored property shall be final and incontestable, Tenant shall pay to the Landlord upon demand, any and all expenses incurred in such removal and all storage charges against such property so long as the same shall be in the Landlord's control.

24. Tenant Holding Over. If Tenant shall not immediately surrender the Demised Premises on the day after the end of the Lease term hereby created, then Tenant shall, by virtue of this Agreement, become a tenant by the month at 1.50 times the rental agreed to be paid as aforesaid, commencing said monthly tenancy with the first day next after the end of the Lease term above; and said Tenant as a monthly tenant, shall be subject to all of the conditions and covenants of this Lease as though the same had originally been a monthly tenancy. Each party hereto shall give to the other at lease thirty (30) days written notice to quit the Demised Premises, except in the event of non-payment of rent in advance or of the other Additional Rents provided for hereto in which event Tenant shall not be entitled to any notice to quit, the usual (30) days notice to quit being expressly waived; provided, however, that in the event that Tenant shall hold over after the expiration of the Lease term aforesaid, then at any time prior to the acceptance of the rent by Landlord from Tenant, as monthly Tenant hereunder, Landlord, at its election or option, may re-enter and take possession of the Demised Premises forthwith, without process, or by any legal action or process in force in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

25. Rights Reserved by Landlord. Landlord shall have the following rights, exercisable without notice and without liability to Tenant for damage or injury to property, person or business and without effecting an eviction, constructive or actual, or disturbance of Tenant's use of possession or giving rise to any claims for set-off or abatement of rent.

- a. To change the building's name or street address;
- b. To install, affix and maintain any and all signs.
- C omit
- d. To retain at all times, and to use in appropriate instances, keys to all doors within and into the Demised Premises; and
- e. To make repairs or alterations, improvements, whether structural or otherwise, and for such purposes to enter upon the Demised Premises, and, during the continuance of any of said work, to temporarily suspend services and facilities, all without abatement of rent or affecting any of Tenants obligations hereunder, so long as the Demised Premises are reasonable accessible.

26. Notices and Demands. Any notice or demand required or permitted under this Lease, shall be in writing and shall be sent by registered or certified mail to Tenant at the address of the Demised Premises and to Landlord at the address than fixed for the payment of rent, and either party may, by like notice at any time and from time to time designate a different address to which notice shall be sent. Notices given in accordance with these provisions shall be deemed given when mailed.

27. Condominium Regime. omit

28. General.

- a. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be deemed or construed by the parties hereto or by any third party to create the relationship of principal and agent or partnership or of joint venture or of any association between Landlord and Tenant other than the relationship of Landlord and Tenant. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision hereof shall not affect or impair any other provisions. The necessary grammatical changes required to make the provisions of the lease apply in the plural sense where there is more than one tenant and to either corporations, associations, partnerships or individuals, males or females, shall in all instances be assumed as though in each case fully expressed. The federal law of the United States of America, and in the absence of controlling federal law, laws of the State of Virginia shall govern the validity, performance and enforcement of this Lease.

b. This Lease contains the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and each party acknowledges that it did not, in entering into this Lease, rely upon any representations or promises made by or on behalf of the other except as expressly set forth herein.

c. In the event that the Tenant is a corporation or a partnership, or any other business association aside from an individual, the Landlord may, at his option, require that the principals of the said corporation, partnership or business association, personally guarantee the performance of the said corporation, partnership or other business association under this Lease. In the event that the Landlord exercises its option under this Paragraph, the principals of the corporation, partnership or other business association shall within five (5) days cause their signatures and the signatures of their spouses to be affixed to an appropriate guarantee agreement, and said agreement shall be delivered within five (5) days to the Landlord at the address as designated by Landlord.

29. Successors and Assigns. The terms, covenants and conditions hereof shall be binding upon and inure to the successors in interest and assigns of the parties hereto.

30. No Option. The submission of this Lease for examination does not constitute a reservation of or option for the Demised Premises except as expressly set forth herein, and this Lease becomes effective only upon execution and delivery thereof by Landlord.

31. Quiet Enjoyment. Landlord covenants and agrees with Tenant that upon Tenant paying the rent and Additional Rent and observing and performing all the terms, covenants and conditions, of Tenant's part to be observed and performed, Tenant may peaceably and quietly enjoy the Demised Premises subject, nevertheless, to the terms and conditions of this Lease, and to the mortgages and deeds of trust on the terms and conditions herein before mentioned.

32. Waiver of Trial by Jury. Landlord and Tenant each agree to and they hereby do waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim brought by either of the parties hereto against the other on any matters whatsoever arising out of or in any way connected with this lease, the relationship of Landlord and Tenant. Tenant's use or occupancy of said Demised Premises and/or any claim of injury or damage, and any statutory remedy.

33. Governing Law. This Lease shall be construed and governed by the federal law of the United States of American, and in the absence of controlling federal law, in accordance with laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Should any provision of this Lease an/or its conditions be illegal or not enforceable under federal law or the laws of the said state, such provisions shall be considered severable, and the remaining portions of this Lease and its conditions shall remain in full force and effect and be binding upon the parties as though such provisions had never been included.

BIDDING AND SALE PROCEDURES

These Bidding and Sale Procedures (these "Procedures") set forth the process by which the Debtor shall conduct a sale by auction (the "Auction") of all or any combination of the Proposed Assets (as more particularly described in the Sale Motion [Docket Entry No. ____])

These Procedures were approved by Order dated _____, 2017 (the "Sales Procedures Order") [Docket Entry No. ____] of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, Alexandria Division (the "Bankruptcy Court")

The following Procedures shall apply to the Auction:

1. The Debtor shall consider as highest and best offers (the "Bids") only those offers that meet the following requirements:

(A) Bid Deadline. A "Qualified Bidder" (as defined, below) that desires to make a bid shall deliver written copies of its bid to John P. Forest, II, counsel for the debtor, c/o StahlZelloe, P.C., 11350 Random Hills Rd., Suite 700, Fairfax, VA 22030 not later than such date and time as is specified in the Sales Procedures Order (the "Bid Deadline"). The Debtor may extend the Bid Deadline in its sole discretion, but shall have no obligation to do so. If the Debtor extends the Bid Deadline, it shall promptly notify all Qualified Bidders of such extension.

(B) Bid Requirements. A bid is a letter from a Qualified Bidder stating that the Qualified Bidder offers to purchase the Lease upon the terms and conditions including price, terms, and assets to be acquired, that the Qualified Bidder proposes and the Qualified Bidder's offer is irrevocable until the earlier of 48 hours after the closing of the sale of the Proposed Assets or such date as is specified in the Bidding Procedures Order. Two or more separate bids together shall not constitute a Qualified Bid. A Qualified Bidder shall accompany its bid with written evidence of a commitment for financing or other evidence of ability to consummate the transaction. The Debtor will consider a bid only if the bid provides overall value for the Proposed Assets of at least Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000). In addition, the Debtor will consider a bid only if the bid:

(i) is on terms that, in the Seller's reasonable business judgment, are not materially burdensome or conditional;

(ii) is not conditioned on obtaining financing or on the outcome of unperformed due diligence by the bidder with respect to the assets sought to be acquired;

(iii) does not request or entitle the bidder to any break-up fee, termination fee, expense reimbursement or similar type of payments; and

(iv) is received by the Bid Deadline, except that the Debtor may waive this requirement in writing. A bid received from a Qualified Bidder that meets the above requirements is a "Qualified Bid." A Qualified Bid will be valued based upon factors such as the net value provided by such bid and the likelihood and timing of consummating such transaction.

(C) Deposit Requirement. All initial Bids shall be accompanied by a deposit of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) (the "Deposit") payable by wire transfer to counsel for the Debtor (or to such other qualified escrow agent as may be agreed by the Debtor and any prospective purchaser). Such deposit shall be retained and either: (i) applied toward the purchase price; (ii) be paid over as liquidated damages; or refunded; provided, however, that the application of the deposit as liquidated damages or the refund of the deposit shall require entry of an order by the Bankruptcy Court to effectuate such treatment.

(D) Auction.

(i) If, prior to the Bid Deadline, the Seller has received at least two Qualified Bids, the Seller shall conduct an auction (the "Auction") with respect to the Lease and provide to all Qualified Bidders the opportunity to submit additional bids at the Auction. The Auction shall take place no later than such date and time as is specified in the Sales Procedures Order, at 11350 Random Hills Rd., Suite 700, Fairfax, VA 22030 or such later time or other place as the Seller shall notify all Qualified Bidders who have submitted Qualified Bids and expressed their intent to participate in the Auction, as set forth above, but in no event shall the Auction occur later than two Business Days prior to the Sale Hearing scheduled in the Bidding Procedures Order. Only Qualified Bidders will be eligible to participate at the Auction. At least two Business Days prior to the Auction, each Qualified Bidder who has submitted a Qualified Bid must inform the Seller whether it intends to participate in the Auction. The Seller shall provide or make available copies of any Qualified Bid(s) that the Seller believes are the highest or otherwise best offer(s) to all Qualified Bidders who intend to participate in the Auction at least one Business Day prior to the commencement thereof or as soon thereafter as is practicable.

(ii) Based upon the terms of the Qualified Bids received, the number of Qualified Bidders participating in the Auction, and such other information as the Seller determines is relevant, the Seller, in its sole discretion, may conduct the Auction in the manner it determines will achieve the maximum value for the Proposed Assets, provided that the Base Procedures are not modified. At the beginning of the Auction, a representative of the Seller shall announce the amount of the bid that is at such time determined by the Seller to be the highest and best bid. Thereafter, the following procedures (the "Base Procedures") shall apply to the bidding:

(a) all additional bids shall be in increments of not less than Twenty Five Thousand Dollars;

(b) any competing bid shall be accompanied by satisfactory evidence of committed financing or other ability to perform. The Seller may adopt such other rules for bidding at the Auction, that, in the Seller's business judgment, will better promote the goals of the bidding process and that are not inconsistent with any of the provisions of the Bidding Procedures, the Base Procedures, the Bankruptcy Code or any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered in connection herewith. Prior to the start of the Auction, the Seller will inform the Qualified Bidders participating in the Auction of the manner which the Auction will be conducted.

(iii) As soon as practicable after the conclusion of the Auction, the Seller, in consultation with its legal and financial advisors shall (a) review each Qualified Bid on the factors affecting the speed and certainty of consummating the sale, and (b) identify the highest and best bid for the Proposed Assets (the "Successful Bid," and the bidder having submitted such bid, the "Successful Bidder") and, in the event that the sale to the Successful Bidder is not consummated, the next highest and best offer (the "Backup Bid", and such bidder, the "Backup Bidder"). At the Sale Hearing, the Seller shall present the Successful Bid to the Bankruptcy Court for approval. The Deposit submitted by the Successful Bidder, together with interest thereon, shall be applied against the payment of the cash portion of the consideration upon closing of the sale of the Lease to the Successful Bidder. If the Successful Bidder fails to consummate the purchase of the Proposed Assets due to the Successful Bidder's breach of its purchase agreement with the Seller, then the Seller shall retain the Deposit of such Successful Bidder as Liquidated Damages and continue with the sale of the Proposed Assets to the Backup Bidder. Upon the earlier of _____ or three Business Days after the closing of the sale of the Proposed Assets, any Deposit (y) not applied to the purchase of the Proposed Assets or (z) not retained by the Seller due to a breach by the Successful Bidder shall, together with interest, be returned to the appropriate bidders.

(iv) Following entry of the Sales Procedures Order, the Seller shall be obligated to conduct the sale of the Proposed Assets and the Auction in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Procedures without material deviation.

2. Hearing and Sale Free and Clear of Liens. A hearing shall be held before the Bankruptcy Court in Alexandria, Virginia on _____, 2017, for the purpose of entry of an order approving the sale of the Proposed Assets to the Prevailing Bidder. Sale of the Proposed Assets to or the Prevailing Bidder shall be free and clear of any and all liens, claims, encumbrances, rights or interests of any sort whatsoever.

3. Closing. The closing of the sale of the Assets to the Prevailing Bidder will occur at the office of counsel for the Debtor in accord with the Sales Procedures Order and the Sale Order. At the date, time, and place as designated in these Orders, the Prevailing Bidder shall make payment for the Proposed Assets to counsel for the Debtor, or such other person as this Court may authorize, and the Debtor shall execute such documents and instruments as may be appropriate to transfer, sell, and assign any interest in the Proposed Assets. Counsel for the Debtor, or such other person or such other person as this Court may authorize to conduct the settlement may require that the purchase price be tendered by wire transfer.

4. Failure to Consummate Purchase. If for any reason the Prevailing Bidder fails to consummate a purchase of the Proposed Assets, or any part thereof, the offeror of the second highest and best Qualified Competing Bid for any of the same Proposed Assets will automatically be deemed to have submitted the highest and best Qualified Competing Bid.

5. Reservation of Rights; Deadline Extensions. The Debtor reserves its rights to (a) impose, at or prior to the Auction, additional terms and conditions on any sale consistent with the Bid Procedures Order; (b) extend the deadlines set forth in the Bidding Procedures, adjourn the Auction at the Auction and/or adjourn the Sale Hearing in open court without further notice; (c) withdraw from the Auction any or all of the Proposed Assets at any time prior to or during the Auction or cancel the Auction; (d) seek guidance or relief from the Bankruptcy Court as to any issues relating to the Auction; and (e) seek all relief the Debtor deems appropriate in connection with the Sale, the Debtor hereby reserving all rights not expressly waived herein.
