DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Upon information and belief, comes now plaintiff, NATALIE BALYASNY, on behalf of herself and others similarly situated, alleges as follows:

2006 NOV 29 PM 3:15
CLERK U.S. DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT CALIF.
LOS ANGELES

FILED

INTRODUCTION AND CERTAIN DEFINITIONS

1
2       1. This is an action for violation of federal and state wage 3 and hour laws by and on behalf of former and current employees of 4 Defendants, referred to below as "Covered Employees." The Covered
5 Employees include plaintiff NATALIE BALYASNY. Pursuant to a 6 decision, policy and plan, these employees are unlawfully classified 7 by Defendants as exempt from laws requiring overtime pay, but 8 actually were and are non-exempt and entitled to overtime pay.

9       2. In this pleading, the term "Covered Employees" means all 10 persons who have been, are, or in the future will be employed by any 11 of the Defendants in any job whose title is or was referred to by 12 any of the following titles, and employees who performed 13 substantially the same work as employees with those titles 14 (discovery may reveal additional titles and employees that should 15 be included):

- 16       a.       Pharmaceutical Sale Representative 1 (PSR1)
- 17       b.       Pharmaceutical Sale Representative 2 (PSR2)
- 18       c.       Pharmaceutical Sale Representative 3 (PSR3)

19 and who were employed during the statute of limitations period for 20 the particular claim for relief in which the term Covered Employees 21 is used, including time during which the statute of limitation was 22 or may have been tolled or suspended. The above job positions are 23 referred to herein as "Covered Positions."

24       3. In this pleading, "Defendants" means "defendants and each 25 of them" and refers to the defendants named in the particular claim 26 for relief in which the word "Defendants" appears. Defendants 27 include BAYER CORPORATION and all domestic affiliates and 28 subsidiaries.

1 4. The allegations in this pleading are made without any 2 admission that, as to any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the 3 burden of pleading, proof, or persuasions. Plaintiff reserves all 4 rights to plead in the alternative.

5
6 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7 5. This Court has original federal question jurisdiction under 8 28 U.S.C. §1331 because this case is brought under the Fair Labor 9 Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§201, et seq. ("FLSA"). This Court has 10 supplemental jurisdiction over the state laws, presently consisting 11 of the laws of California, but possibly consisting of the laws of 12 other states, as may be revealed in discovery. The state law claims 13 are so related in this action within such original jurisdiction that 14 the form part of the same case or controversy under Article III of 15 the United States Constitution.

16 6. Venue is proper in this District because a substantial part 17 of the events and omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in 18 this District. Venue is proper in this District also because there 19 is personal jurisdiction in this District over all Defendants.
20 Presently and at all times, Defendants have conducted substantial, 21 continuous and systematic commercial activities in this District.

22
23 PARTIES

24 7. Defendant BAYER CORPORATION ("BAYER") is a foreign 25 corporation organized and existing under the laws of Indiana, with 26 its United States headquarters in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
27 Together with the other Defendants, BAYER does business in all fifty 28 states, including California and the United Stated Territories.

1 8. Plaintiff NATALIE BALYASNY ("Plaintiff") is a California
2 resident and was employed by Defendants in Los Angeles County, 3 California from February 2000 to April 2005 as a PSR1. Plaintiff
4 worked hours in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek and eight 5 (8) hours per day, without receiving overtime compensation as 6 required by federal and/or state law.

7 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges at 8 all relevant times each defendant, directly or indirectly, or 9 through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and/or other 10 Covered Employees, and exercised control over the wages, hours and 11 working conditions of Plaintiff and Covered Employees. Plaintiff 12 is informed and believes and thereon alleges, that, at all relevant 13 times, each defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint 14 venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, 15 affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or 16 predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and 17 was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint 18 enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or 19 all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct 20 with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiff is informed 21 and believes and thereon alleges that each defendant acted pursuant 22 to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that 23 each defendant knew or should have know about, and authorized, 24 ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the 25 conduct of all other Defendants.

26
27 FACTS

28 10. Plaintiff's consent to sue under the FLSA §16 is attached

1 to this Complaint as Exhibit "1."

2 11. Upon information and belief, Defendants employ thousands 3 of pharmaceutical sales representatives in the United States, and 4 hundreds in the State of California.

5 12. Plaintiff and Covered Employees were paid a salary plus a 6 bonus for work performed.

7 13. Specifically, upon information and belief, Defendants'
8 managers, with the knowledge and consent of corporate management, 9 systemically violated the law throughout California and the United 10 States, in the following respects:

- 11 a) Failing to pay employees overtime compensation for 12 hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week; 13 and 14 b) Failing to maintain accurate records of employees' 15 time.
16 c) Failing to pay Class members overtime compensation for 17 hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day.

18 14. As set forth above, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants.
19 During this time, Plaintiff on a regular basis worked over forty 20 (40) hours per week and eight (8) hours per day. Plaintiff
21 sustained substantial losses from Defendants' failure to pay her 22 overtime compensation.

23 15. Upon information and belief, other employees who worked for 24 Defendants throughout California and the United States and who are 25 FLSA Collective Plaintiffs and/or members of the Class were 26 subjected to the same policies and practices and have sustained 27 similar losses of compensation for numerous hours worked on behalf 28 of Defendants.

1 16. Defendants, through their corporate management deliberately
2 trained, supervised, instructed, and authorized managerial employees 3 to engage in the above unlawful practices and have ratified their 4 actions thereafter, in order to enhance corporate profits and reduce 5 their labor costs.

6
7 FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

8 17. Plaintiff brings the First Claim for Relief as a collective 9 action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. §216(b), on behalf
10 of all Covered Employees employed by Defendants on or after the date
11 that is three years before the filing of the Complaint in this case 12 as defined herein ("FLSA Collective Plaintiffs").

13 18. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the other FLSA 14 Collective Plaintiffs are and have been similarly situated, have had 15 substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have 16 been subject to Defendants' decision, policy, plan and common 17 policies, programs, practices, procedures, protocols, routines, and 18 rules (1) willfully failing and refusing to pay them at the legally 19 required time an a half rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours 20 per workweek, (2) willfully and inaccurately classifying them as 21 exempt from overtime pay even though Defendants were aware that the 22 FLSA Collective Plaintiffs were non-exempt and entitled to overtime 23 pay, and (3) willfully failing to keep records required by the FLSA.
24 The claims of Plaintiff stated herein are essentially the same as 25 those of the other FLSA Collective Plaintiffs.

26 19. The First Claim for Relief is properly brought under and 27 maintained as an opt-in collective action pursuant to §16(b) of the 28 FLSA, 29 U.S.C. 216(b). The FLSA Collective Plaintiffs are readily

1 ascertainable. For purpose of notice and other purposes related to 2 this action, their names and addresses are readily available from 3 the Defendants. Notice can be provided to the FLSA Collective 4 Plaintiffs via first class mail to the last address known to 5 Defendants.

6
7 RULE 23 CLASS ALLEGATIONS - CALIFORNIA

8 20. Plaintiff BALYASNY ("Plaintiff") brings the California
9 Claims for Relief, pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 10 ("FRCP") Rule 23, on behalf of all persons who were, are, or will 11 be employed by Defendants on or after the date that is four (4)
12 years before the filing of the Complaint in this case (the "Class 13 Period").

14 21. The proposed class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is 15 defined as all persons who have been, are, or in the future will be 16 employed in California by Defendants in any of the "Covered 17 Positions." All said persons, including Plaintiff, are referred to 18 herein as the "Class." The Class members are readily ascertainable.
19 The number and identity of the Class members are determinable from 20 the records of Defendants. The hours assigned and worked, the 21 positions held, and the rates of pay for each Class member are also 22 determinable from Defendants' records. For purposes of notice and 23 other purposes related to this action, their names and addresses are 24 readily available from Defendants. Notice can be provided by means 25 permissible under said FRCP 23.

26 22. The proposed Class is so numerous that joinder of all 27 members is impracticable, and the disposition of their claims as a 28 class will benefit the parties and the court. Although the precise

1 number of such persons is unknown, and the facts on which the 2 calculation of that number are presently within the sole control of 3 Defendants, upon information and belief, there are more than two 4 hundred (200) members of the Class.

5 23. Plaintiff's claims are typical of those claims which could 6 be alleged by any member of the Class, and the relief sought is 7 typical of the relief which would be sought by each member of the 8 Class in separate actions. All the Class members were subject to 9 the same corporate practices of Defendants, as alleged herein, of 10 failing to pay overtime compensation and failing to maintain 11 accurate records. Defendants' corporate-wide policies and practices 12 affected all Class members similarly, and Defendants benefitted from 13 the same type of unfair and/or wrongful acts as to each Class
14 member. Plaintiff and other Class members sustained similar losses, 15 injuries and damages arising from the same unlawful policies, 16 practices and procedures.

17 24. Plaintiff is able to fairly and adequately protect the 18 interests of the Class and has no interests antagonistic to the 19 Class. Plaintiff is represented by attorneys who are experienced 20 and competent in both class action litigation and employment 21 litigation and have previously represented plaintiffs in wage and 22 hour cases.

23 25. A class action is superior to other available methods for 24 the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy - 25 particularly in the context of wage and hour litigation where 26 individual class members lack the financial resources to vigorously 27 prosecute a lawsuit against corporate defendants. Class action 28 treatment will permit a large number of similarly situated persons

1 to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, 2 efficiently, and without the unnecessary duplication of efforts and 3 expense that numerous individual actions engender. Because the 4 losses, injuries and damages suffered by each of the individual
5 Class members are small in the sense pertinent to a class action 6 analysis, the expenses and burden of individual litigation would 7 make it extremely difficult or impossible for the individual Class
8 members to redress the wrongs done to them. On the other hand, 9 important public interests will be served by addressing the matter
10 as a class action. The adjudication of individual litigation claims 11 would result in a great expenditure of court and public resources; 12 however, treating the claims as a class action would result in a 13 significant savings of these costs. The prosecution of separate 14 actions by individual members of the Class would create a risk of 15 inconsistent and/or varying adjudications with respect to the 16 individual members of the Class, establishing incompatible standards
17 of conduct for Defendants and resulting in the impairment of class 18 members' rights and the disposition of their interests through 19 actions to which they were not parties. The issues in this action 20 can be decided by means of common, class-wide proof. In addition, 21 if appropriate, the court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods 22 to efficiently manage this action as a class action.

23 26. Upon information and belief, Defendants and other employers 24 throughout the state violate the California Labor Law. Current 25 employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of 26 direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of 27 bringing claims because doing so can harm their employment, future
28 employment, and future efforts to secure employment. Class actions

1 provide class members who are not named in the complaint a degree 2 of anonymity which allows for the vindication of their rights while 3 eliminating or reducing these risks.

4 27. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class
5 which predominate over any questions affecting only individual class 6 members, including:

- 7 a) Whether Defendants employed or jointly employed 8 Plaintiff and the Class within the meaning of the 9 California law.
- 10 b) What proof of hours is sufficient where Defendants 11 failed in their duty to maintain time records.
- 12 c) What were the policies, practices, programs,
13 procedures, protocols and plans of Defendants regarding 14 payment of overtime wages.
- 15 d) What were the policies, practices, programs,
16 procedures, protocols and plans of Defendants regarding 17 payment of wages for all hours worked.
- 18 e) Whether Defendants failed and/or refused to pay 19 Plaintiff and the Class premium pay for hours worked in 20 excess of forty (40) per workweek or eight (8) hours 21 per workday within the meaning of California law.
- 22 f) What are and were the policies, practices, programs,
23 procedures, protocols and plans of Defendants regarding 24 the types of work and labor for which Defendants did 25 not pay the Class members at all.
- 26 g) At what common rate, or rates subject to common methods
27 of calculation, was and is Defendants required to pay
28 the Class members for their work.

1 h) What are the common conditions of employment and in the 2 workplace, such as record keeping, breaks, and policies 3 and practices regarding labor budgeting, that affect 4 whether the Class was paid at overtime rates for 5 overtime work.

6 I) Whether Defendants compensated class members that 7 terminated their employment all wages owed them 8 immediately upon the termination of their employment as 9 required by California law.

10 j) Whether Defendants provided Plaintiff with rest periods
11 and meal breaks as required by California law.

12
13 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

14 (FLSA Overtime and Record

15 Keeping Violations, 29 U.S.C. §§201 et seq.

16 Brought by Plaintiffs on Behalf of Themselves

17 and the FLSA Class Members)

18 28. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and other FLSA Collective 19 Plaintiffs, realleges and incorporate by reference all previous 20 paragraphs.

21 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 22 at all relevant times, each Defendant has been, and continues to be, 23 an "employer" engaged in interstate "commerce" within the meaning
24 of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §203. At all relevant times, each Defendant
25 has employed, and continues to employ the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs 26 as "employee[s]" within the meaning of the FLSA. At all relevant 27 times, each defendant has had gross operating revenues in excess of 28 $500,000.

1           30. Throughout the statute of limitations period covered by 2 these claims, Plaintiff and the other FLSA Collective Plaintiffs 3 regularly worked in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek and 4 continue to do so.

5           31. At all relevant times, Defendants have had, and continues 6 to operate under a decision, policy and plan, and under common
7 policies, programs, practices, procedures, protocols, routines and 8 rules of willfully failing and refusing to pay the Covered Employees 9 at time and a half rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per 10 workweek, and willfully failing to keep records required by the FLSA 11 even though the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs have been and are 12 entitled to overtime.

13           32. At all relevant times, Defendants willfully, regularly and 14 repeatedly failed, and continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and the 15 FLSA Collective Plaintiffs at the required overtime rates, one and 16 a half times their regular hourly rates, for hours worked in excess 17 of forty (40) hours per workweek.

18           33. At all relevant times, Defendants willfully, regularly and 19 repeatedly failed, and continue to fail to make, keep and preserve 20 accurate records required by the FLSA with respect to Plaintiff and 21 the other FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, including records sufficient 22 to the accurately determine the wages and hours of employment 23 pertaining to Plaintiff and the other FLSA Collective Plaintiffs.

24           34. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the FLSA Collective 25 Plaintiffs, seeks damages in the amount of their respective unpaid 26 overtime compensation, liquidated (double) damages as provided by 27 the FLSA for overtime violations, attorneys' fees and costs, and 28 such other legal and equitable relief as this Court deems just and 1 proper.

2
3 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

4 (California Unfair Competition Law,

5 Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §17200 et seq.)

6 35. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the Class, realleges
7 and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs.

8 36. The foregoing conduct, as alleged, violates the California
9 Unfair Competition Law ("UCL"), Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §17200 et 10 seq. Section 17200 of the Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code prohibits unfair 11 competition by prohibiting, inter alia, any unlawful or unfair 12 business acts or practices.

13 37. Defendant committed acts of unfair competition, as defined 14 by the UCL, by, among other things, engaging in the acts and 15 practices described herein. Defendants' conduct as herein alleged 16 has damaged Plaintiff and the Class by wrongfully denying their 17 earned wages, and therefore was substantially injurious to 18 Plaintiff.

19 38. Defendants' course of conduct, acts, and practices in 20 violation of California laws constitute a separate and independent 21 violation of the UCL. Defendants' conduct described herein violates 22 the policy or spirit of such laws or otherwise significantly 23 threatens or harms competition.

24 39. The harm to Plaintiff and the Class in being wrongfully 25 denied lawfully earned wages outweighs the utility, if any, of 26 Defendants' policies or practices and, therefore, Defendants' 27 actions described herein constitute an unfair business practice or 28 act within the meaning of the UCL.

1 40. The unlawful and unfair business practices and acts of 2 Defendant, as described above, has injured Plaintiff and the Class 3 in that they were wrongfully denied the payment of earned 4 compensation, both at their regular rate and overtime wages.

5 41. Plaintiff and the Class seek recovery of attorneys' fees 6 and costs of this action to be paid by Defendant, as provided by the 7 UCL and applicable law.

8 42. Plaintiff and the Class seek damages in the amount of the 9 respective unpaid regular hourly wages for hours of work up to forty 10 (40) hours per week and their unpaid overtime for all hours of work 11 in excess of forty (40) hours per week and/or eight (8) hours per 12 day, attorneys' fees, and cost of suit and such other legal and 13 equitable relief from Defendants' unlawful and willful conduct as 14 the Court deems just and proper.

15
16 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

17 (California Overtime Provisions

18 Cal. Wage Order No. 4;

19 Cal. Labor Code §§510, 1194, and 1194.5

20 43. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the Class, realleges
21 and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs.

22 44. It is unlawful under California law for an employer to 23 suffer or permit an employee to work without paying wages for all 24 hours worked, including overtime wages for work in excess of eight 25 (8) hour workdays and/or forty (40) hour workweeks.

26 45. Plaintiff and the Class were not properly compensated for 27 hours that she worked in excess of eight (8) hours per weekday 28 and/or forty (40) hours per week.

1 46. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful
2 conduct, as set forth herein, Plaintiff and the Class have sustained
3 damages, including loss of earnings, in an amount to be established
4 at trial.

5 47. Plaintiff and the Class seek damages in the amount of the 6 respective unpaid overtime compensation, plus penalties, as provided 7 by state law, prejudgment interest, and costs and attorneys' fees, 8 pursuant to statute, and such other legal and equitable relief as 9 the Court deems just and proper.

10
11 FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

12 (California Waiting Period Penalties,

13 Cal. Labor Code §§201-203

14 Brought by Plaintiffs on Behalf of

15 Themselves and the Class)

16 48. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the Class, realleges
17 and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs.

18 49. A California employer must compensate an employee that 19 terminates her employment not later than 72 hours thereafter.

20 50. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and members of the Class
21 whose employment terminated the overtime compensation they were owed 22 within 72 hours of the termination of their employment.

23 51. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful
24 conduct, as set forth herein, Plaintiff and the Class have sustained
25 damages, including loss of earnings, in an amount to be established
26 at trial.

27 52. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to seek penalties
28 under Labor Code §203 equal to their regular rate of pay for period

1 of thirty (30) days.

2
3 FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

4 (California Record-Keeping Provisions,

5 Cal. Wage Order No. 4;

6 Cal. Labor Code §§226, 1174, & 1174.5

7 Brought by Plaintiffs on Behalf of

8 Themselves and the Class)

9 53. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the Class, realleges
10 and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs.

11 54. By failing to record, report, and/or compensate Plaintiff 12 and the Class for compensable time performed before and after their 13 regularly scheduled shifts, Defendants have failed knowingly and 14 intentionally to make, keep, maintain, and preserve records with 15 respect to each of its employees sufficient to determine their 16 wages, hours, and other conditions and practice of employment in 17 violation of Labor Code §§226(a), 1174(d) and the IWC Wage Order.

18 55. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to and seek injunctive
