U.S.C. § 363(f)(4) which authorizes the sale of property free of liens, wherein there is a bona-fide dispute as to the amount of the lien. Specifically, the Debtor calculates the maximum amount owed to the secured creditor to be approximately $1,605,000, based upon the amount set forth in the Real Property Declaration of Wenqiang Bian, under oath, executed on 3/24/17, and filed in this court, Docket 36. This amount is roughly consistent with what the Debtor's calculations as to the balance, without regard to various setoffs. This exact amount should be determined either by court hearing or agreement of the parties. A dispute has arisen as to the amount of the claim, as on May 1, 2017, Bian filed a proof of claim showing a secured claim of $2,666,216. It is requested that this court order all proceeds of sale kept either in escrow or in Debtor's counsel's trust account until this court determines the amount owed to the secured creditor, or agreement is reached between the parties. The funds should be held until this court rules on the adversary litigation filed in this case, challenging the amount of the claim.

I. THE COURT CAN SELL THE PROPERTY FREE OF LIENS

11 U.S.C. §363f provides as one of the grounds to authorize a sale of property free of the interests of creditors as follows:

"(f) The trustee may sell property under subsection (b) or (c) of this section free and clear of any interest in such property of an entity other than the estate, only if—"(4) such interest is in bona fide dispute;"

In this case, "bona-fide" means "genuine" or real. This amount is disputed because we have the Debtor stating that the amount lent was only $875,000, and the $1,750,000 note which was executed was done so to cover future funds to be advanced, and Bian stating that the Debtor "promised to double his money". Debtor is aware that Bian has advanced funds to pay the first, and claims to have paid it off. However, Debtor has seen no proof of the exact amount paid. This dispute can be seen in the claims litigation which has been filed in this case. The Debtor has objected to Bian's claims. Adversary No. 8:17-ap-01082-MW.

The sale in this case will create a fund from which the court can rule on ownership of the funds.

II. THE PROPOSED SALES

These sales are being presented to the court for confirmation, and the court is requested to confirm the highest one, subject to overbid. There are two sales, both of which propose to pay the Debtor in cash, meaning that the Debtor is not being asked to carry back financing. Sale A to Hassan Assi is for $2,150,000. Sale B is to Neelkanth Hospitality for $2,250,000.

Both sales are presented in case either potential buyer fails to perform. The court is requested to confirm the sale with the highest dollar value, in cash, subject to overbid, under the following rules:

1. At least seven calendar days before the sale confirmation, each overbidder must present proof, satisfactory to Debtor, through Debtor's counsel, that the overbidder has sufficient funds to close escrow in accordance with the overbid within 10 days of court confirmation. Each overbid must come with $20,000 in certified funds, which shall be returned if the overbid is rejected. If the overbid is accepted, it shall be forfeited to the Debtor if the overbidder fails to close in said 10 days. Each overbidder must bid not less than $50,000 more than the previously accepted highest bid. There are no contingencies in the overbid. The property is sold free of the liens of Wenqiang Bian, whether denominated as a first or second trust deed. The proceeds of sale will be used to pay property taxes accrued to date, of approximately $35,000.

¹⁰riginally, there was to be presented to the court a proposed sale for $1,950,000 down, with a $750,000 promissory note, which would be junior to a new first. This bidder has dropped out of the running. Henceforth, nothing other than all cash bids are being accepted.

- 2. Each overbidder must provide to Debtor, through his counsel, proof of the identity of the overbidder, along with proof of the ability to purchase the property. This information is requested in addition to the information requested section 1 above.
 - 3. All overbids must be all cash. This means there can be no carry back seller financing.
- 4. If Wenqiang Bian wishes to bid, he may do so using the sum of $1,605,000-$60,000 retained by him in fund control, or net $1,545,000 as a credit bid. Any other sums must be paid in cash, and all other rules regarding overbids apply to this creditor.
- 5. All overbid sales are without any warranties by Debtor, as the property is being sold "as-is, where-is", with no representations of fact or law from the Debtor.

III. VALUATION OF THE PROPERTY

This property may have a value of potentially $3,140,000. Both Debtor and the secured creditor Mr. Bian have agreed on this number. Bian stated that this was the value in his Proof of Claim. (Claim 4-1). Debtor has an MAI appraisal for this sum. Nevertheless, this sale is taking place in the context of this bankruptcy case, wherein Debtor is under court order to sell the property by August 31, 2017. There is attached a declaration regarding value from Kris Wismer, President of the Debtor. There is also attached an opinion of Homesmart Realty West that these sales represent the value of the property at this time, based on current market conditions, and based upon the need to immediately sell this property this month. This property has been extensively marketed, both in the MLS, Loopnet, and through the efforts of Homesmart Realty West. These two sales are at $2,150,000 and $2,250,000 are presented to the court, and represent the highest amount attainable, in Debtor's opinion and in the opinion of the Broker. However, there is provided a provision for overbid to permit the highest and best price to be obtained.

IV. RECOVERY TO DEBTOR

The debtor provides the following estimate of recovery in this case for the Debtor and the creditors. Note, these numbers are estimates. In particular, they are based upon assumptions regarding the size of the claim of the secured creditor, Wengiang Bian. Mr. Bian's claim is based on the assumption that he can recover only his actual loan, plus the advance he made on the former first trust deed, approximately $641,000--the amount set forth in his Real Property Declaration, rather than his Proof of Claim.

These estimates are set forth in the declaration of Kris Wismer. Sale A after paying all creditors and taxes will pay the Debtor $176,825. Sale B would provide net to debtor $231,925.

IV. CONCLUSION

These sales are in the best interest of the creditors and the estate as they provide for recovery to all parties; The creditors are paid in full, including Mr. Bian, and the Debtor receives a net after tax recovery. For this reason, the court is respectfully requested to approve the sale on the terms set forth herein. There is allowed the opportunity for others to overbid these sales.

Alan M. Lu	ya, Esq.,	Attorney for	Blue
Light Capit	al Corp., I	Debtor-in-Pos	ssession

DECLARATION OF KRIS WISMER

I, Kris Wismer, declare that I am the President of the Debtor Blue Light Capital Corp. If called as a witness, I could competently testify to the facts contained herein. I have personally been involved in the marketing of the property at 2200-2000 Felicita, Escondido, CA. A true and correct copy of the legal description of the property is attached as Exhibit 1. I have been involved personally in attempts to sell this property, and I am familiar with its value. I have personally worked to obtain the development entitlements necessary to sell this property. Furthermore, I have personally spoken to buyers and developers, and city officials regarding the project. I am therefore personally familiar with the issues regarding development.

We have had extensive buyer contact, and at this point we have two potential sales of this property, Sale A for $2,150,000 to Hassan Assi, and Sale B for $2,250,000 to Neilkanth Hospitality, LLC. These are attached hereto as Exhibits 2 and 3 respectively. In my opinion, these sales represent the value of the property, given the court's order to sell the property by August 31, 2017. The two sales are presented out of an abundance caution, in case either buyer does not go forward for any reason. The court is requested to confirm the highest sale, subject to the overbid procedure set forth in the motion.

There is a bona-fide dispute as to the amount owed to the secured creditor Wenqiang Bian.

Blue Light Capital received $875,000 only from Mr. Bian, who has withheld $60,000 of this sum in a fund control account. The promissory note was made for a larger amount ($1,750,000) to cover additional advances to be made by Mr. Bian. No such advances were ever made. Mr. Bian has made contradictory statements regarding his claim. In his Real Property Declaration attached to a Motion for Relief from Stay he stated, under oath, that the amount owed was $1,605,000. However, on May 1, 2017, he stated that the amount owed was $2,666,216 in a Proof of Claim filed in this case. This claim was challenged in Adversary 8:17-ap-01082-MW. This dispute constitutes the factual basis for this court to find a bona-fide dispute and sell the property free of liens.

The expected recovery set forth in this motion is as follows:

Sale A

Gross Proceeds	$2,150,000.00
Est. Gain	$306,892.00
Fed. Corp. Taxes	$102,938.00
State Corp. Taxes	$27,129.00
Wenqiang Bian Secured Lien	$1,602,601.00
Creditors	$97,162.00
Property Taxes	$35,845.00
Brokers Commission	$107,500.00
Net Expenses:	$1,937,330.00
Net to Debtor	$176,825.00

Sale B for $2,250,000 would produce another $100,000 in gross proceeds, figuring an additional $5,000 in commissions, and a proportionate increase in estimated state and federal taxes (marginal rates 42% approx. would produce an net recovery as follows: $95,000-39,900=$55,100. Again, these numbers are approximate. The estimate of taxes and sales expenses are based on the sale price and the estimated gain. These estimated numbers come from the Debtor's information, and the tax estimate was provided by Richard McLean, C.P.A.

consent of Brokers.

- 9.2 All of the contingencies specified in subparagraphs (a) through (m) of paragraph 9.1 are for the benefit of, and may be waived by, Buyer, and may be elsewhere herein referred to as "Buyer's Contingencies."
- 9.3 If any of Buyer's Contingencies or any other matter subject to Buyer's approval is disapproved as provided for herein in a timely manner ("Disapproved Item"), Seller shall have the right within 10 days following the receipt of notice of Buyer's disapproval to elect to cure such Disapproved Item prior to the Expected Closing Date ("Seller's Election"). Seller's failure to give to Buyer within such period, written notice of Seller's commitment to cure such Disapproved Item on or before the Expected Closing Date shall be conclusively presumed to be Seller's Election not to cure such Disapproved Item. If Seller elects, either by written notice or failure to give written notice, not to cure a Disapproved Item, Buyer shall have the right, within 10 days after Seller's Election to either accept title to the Property subject to such Disapproved Item, or to terminate this Agreement. Buyer's failure to notify Seller in writing of Buyer's election to accept title to the Property subject to the Disapproved Item without deduction or offset shall constitute Buyer's election to terminate this Agreement. The above time periods only apply once for each Disapproved Item. Unless expressly provided otherwise herein, Seller's right to cure shall not apply to the remediation of Hazardous Substance Conditions or to the Financing Contingency. Unless the Parties mutually instruct otherwise, if the time periods for the satisfaction of contingencies or for Seller's and Buyer's elections would expire on a date after the Expected Closing Date, the Expected Closing Date shall be deemed extended for 3 business days following the expiration of: (a) the applicable contingency period(s), (b) the period within which the Seller may elect to cure the Disapproved Item, or (c) if Seller elects not to cure, the period within which Buyer may elect to proceed with this transaction, whichever is later.
- 9.4 The Parties acknowledge that extensive local, state and Federal legislation establish broad liability upon owners and/or users of real property for the investigation and remediation of Hazardous Substances. The determination of the existence of a Hazardous Substance Condition and the evaluation of the impact of such a condition are highly technical and beyond the expertise of Brokers. The Parties acknowledge that they have been advised by Brokers to consult their own technical and legal experts with respect to the possible presence of Hazardous Substances on the Property or adjoining properties, and Buyer and Seller are not relying upon any investigation by or statement of Brokers with respect thereto. The Parties hereby assume all responsibility for the impact of such Hazardous Substances upon their respective interests herein.

- (f) If the Property is located in California, an affidavit executed by Seller to the effect that Seller is not a "nonresident" within the meaning of California Revenue and Tax Code Section 18662 or successor statutes.  - (g) If applicable, a bill of sale, duly executed, conveying title to any included personal property to Buyer.
 - (h) If the Seller is a corporation, a duly executed corporate resolution authorizing the execution of this Agreement and the sale of the Property.
 - 10.3 Buyer shall deliver to Seller through Escrow:

Instead, in such circumstances in order to reserve its rights to proceed Buyer need only provide Escrow with evidence establishing that the required monies were available.

In the event there is a Purchase Money Deed of Trust in this transaction, the policy of title insurance shall be a joint protection policy insuring both Buyer and Seller.

IMPORTANT: IN A PURCHASE OR EXCHANGE OF REAL PROPERTY, IT MAY BE ADVISABLE TO OBTAIN TITLE INSURANCE IN CONNECTION WITH THE CLOSE OF ESCROW SINCE THERE MAY BE PRIOR RECORDED LIENS AND ENCUMBRANCES WHICH AFFECT YOUR INTEREST IN THE PROPERTY BEING ACQUIRED. A NEW POLICY OF TITLE INSURANCE SHOULD BE OBTAINED IN ORDER TO ENSURE YOUR INTEREST IN THE PROPERTY THAT YOU ARE ACQUIRING.

11. Prorations and Adjustments.

- 11.1 Taxes. Applicable real property taxes and special assessment bonds shall be prorated through Escrow as of the date of the Closing, based upon the latest tax bill available. The Parties agree to prorate as of the Closing any taxes assessed against the Property by supplemental bill levied by reason of events occurring prior to the Closing. Payment of the prorated amount shall be made promptly in cash upon receipt of a copy of any supplemental bill.
- 11.2 Insurance. WARNING: Any insurance which Seller may have maintained will terminate on the Closing. Buyer is advised to obtain appropriate insurance to cover the Property.
- 11.3 Rentals, Interest and Expenses. Scheduled rentals, interest on Existing Notes, utilities, and operating expenses shall be prorated as of the date of closing.

- 12.2 Buyer hereby acknowledges that, except as otherwise stated in this Agreement, Buyer is purchasing the Property in its existing condition and will, by the time called for herein, make or have waived all inspections of the Property Buyer believes are necessary to protect its own interest in, and its contemplated use of, the Property. The Parties acknowledge that, except as otherwise stated in this Agreement, no representations, inducements, promises, agreements, assurances, oral or written, concerning the Property, or any aspect of the occupational safety and health laws, Hazardous Substance laws, or any other act, ordinance or law, have been made by either Party or Brokers, or relied upon by either Party hereto.
- 12.3 In the event that Buyer learns that a Seller representation or warranty might be untrue prior to the Closing, and Buyer elects to purchase the Property anyway then, and in that event, Buyer waives any right that it may have to bring an action or proceeding against Seller or Brokers regarding said representation or warranty.
- 12.4 Any environmental reports, soils reports, surveys, and other similar documents which were prepared by third party consultants and provided to Buyer by Seller or Seller's representatives, have been delivered as an accommodation to Buyer and without any representation or warranty as to the sufficiency, accuracy, completeness, and/or validity of said documents, all of which Buyer relies on at its own risk. All such inspections and tests and any other work conducted or materials furnished with respect to the Property by or for Buyer shall be paid for by Buyer as and when due and Buyer shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless Seller and the Property of and from any and all claims, liabilities, losses, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), damages, including those for injury to person or property, arising out of or relating to any such work or materials or the acts or omissions of Buyer, its agents or employees in connection therewith.

- 17.1 This Agreement supersedes any and all prior agreements between Seller and Buyer regarding the Property.
- 17.2 Amendments to this Agreement are effective only if made in writing and executed by Buyer and Seller.

THEREFORE, IF, AFTER THE SATISFACTION OR WAIVER OF ALL CONTINGENCIES PROVIDED FOR THE BUYER'S BENEFIT, BUYER BREACHES THIS AGREEMENT, SELLER SHALL BE ENTITLED TO LIQUIDATED DAMAGES IN THE AMOUNT OF $21,000. 24. Disclosures Regarding The Nature of a Real Estate Agency Relationship.

- 24.1 The Parties and Brokers agree that their relationship(s) shall be governed by the principles set forth in the applicable sections of the California Civil Code, as summarized in paragraph 24.2.
- 24.2 When entering into a discussion with a real estate agent regarding a real estate transaction, a Buyer or Seller should from the outset understand what type of agency relationship or representation it has with the agent or agents in the transaction. Buyer and Seller acknowledge being advised by the Brokers in this transaction, as follows:
- (a) Seller's Agent. A Seller's agent under a listing agreement with the Seller acts as the agent for the Seller only. A Seller's agent or subagent has the following affirmative obligations: (1) To the Seller: A fiduciary duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty, and loyalty in dealings with the Seller. (2) To the Buyer and the Seller: a. Diligent exercise of reasonable skills and care in performance of the agent's duties. b. A duty of honest and fair dealing and good faith. c. A duty to disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of the property that are not known to, or within the diligent attention and observation of, the Parties. An agent is not obligated to reveal to either Party any confidential information obtained from the other Party which does not involve the affirmative duties set forth above.
- (b) Buyer's Agent. A selling agent can, with a Buyer's consent, agree to act as agent for the Buyer only. In these situations, the agent is not the Seller's agent, even if by agreement the agent may receive compensation for services rendered, either in full or in part from the Seller. An agent acting only for a Buyer has the following affirmative obligations. (1) To the Buyer: A fiduciary duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty, and loyalty in dealings with the Buyer. (2) To the Buyer and the Seller: a. Diligent exercise of reasonable skills and care in performance of the agent's duties. b. A duty of honest and fair dealing and good faith. c. A duty to disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of the property that are not known to, or within the diligent attention and observation of, the Parties. An agent is not obligated to reveal to either Party any confidential information obtained from the other Party which does not involve the affirmative duties set forth above.
- (c) Agent Representing Both Seller and Buyer. A real estate agent, either acting directly or through one or more associate licenses, can legally be the agent of both the Seller and the Buyer in a transaction, but only with the knowledge and consent of both the Seller and the Buyer. (1) In a dual agency situation, the agent has the following affirmative obligations to both the Seller and the Buyer: a. A fiduciary duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty and loyalty in the dealings with either Seller or the Buyer. b. Other duties to the Seller and the Buyer as stated above in their respective sections (a) or (b) of this paragraph 24.2. (2) In representing both Seller and Buyer, the agent may not without the express permission of the respective Party, disclose to the other Party that the Seller will accept a price less than the listing price or that the Buyer will pay a price greater than the price offered. (3) The above duties of the agent in a real estate transaction do not relieve a Seller or Buyer from the responsibility to protect their own interests. Buyer and Seller should carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express their understanding of the transaction. A real estate agent is a person qualified to advise about real estate. If legal or tax advice is desired, consult a competent professional.
- (d) Further Disclosures. Throughout this transaction Buyer and Seller may receive more than one disclosure, depending upon the number of agents assisting in the transaction. Buyer and Seller should each read its contents each time it is presented, considering the relationship between them and the real estate agent in this transaction and that disclosure. Buyer and Seller each acknowledge receipt of a disclosure of the possibility of multiple representation by the Broker representing that principal. This disclosure may be part of a listing agreement, buyer representation agreement or separate document. Buyer understands that Broker representing Buyer may also represent other potential buyers, who may consider, make offers on or ultimately acquire the Property. Seller understands that Broker representing Seller may also represent other sellers with competing properties that may be of interest to this Buyer. Brokers have no responsibility with respect to any default or breach hereof by either Party. The Parties agree that no lawsuit or other legal proceeding involving any breach of duty, error or omission relating to this transaction may be brought against Broker more than one year after the Date of Agreement and that the liability (including court costs and attorneys' fees), of any Broker with respect to any breach of duty, error or omission relating to this Agreement shall not exceed the fee received by such Broker pursuant to this Agreement; provided, however, that the foregoing limitation on each Broker's liability shall not be applicable to any gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Broker.
- 24.3 Confidential Information. Buyer and Seller agree to identify to Brokers as "Confidential" any communication or information given Brokers that is considered by such Party to be confidential.
- 25. Construction of Agreement. In construing this Agreement, all headings and titles are for the convenience of the Parties only and shall not be considered, a part of this Agreement. Whenever required by the context, the singular shall include the plural and vice versa. This Agreement shall not be construed as if the plural and vice versa.

ASSOCIATION

OF REALTORS®

("Property").

- 1. IMPORTANCE OF PROPERTY INVESTIGATION: The physical condition of the land and improvements being purchased is not quaranteed by either Seller or Brokers. You have an affirmative duty to exercise reasonable care to protect yourself, including discovery of the legal, practical and technical implications of disclosed facts, and the investigation and verification of information and facts that you know or that are within your diligent attention and observation. A general physical inspection typically does not cover all aspects of the Property nor items affecting the Property that are not physically located on the Property. If the professionals recommend further investigations, including a recommendation by a pest control operator to inspect inaccessible areas of the Property, you should contact qualified experts to conduct such additional investigations.
- 2. BROKER OBLIGATIONS: Brokers do not have expertise in all areas and therefore cannot advise you on many items, such as those listed below. If Broker gives you referrals to professionals, Broker does not guarantee their performance.
- 3. YOU ARE STRONGLY ADVISED TO INVESTIGATE THE CONDITION AND SUITABILITY OF ALL ASPECTS OF THE PROPERTY, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO THE FOLLOWING. IF YOU DO NOT DO SO, YOU ARE ACTING AGAINST THE ADVICE OF BROKERS.
 - A. GENERAL CONDITION OF THE PROPERTY, ITS SYSTEMS AND COMPONENTS: Foundation, roof (condition, age, leaks, useful life), plumbing, heating, air conditioning, electrical, mechanical, security, pool/spa (cracks, leaks, operation), other structural and nonstructural systems and components, fixtures, built-in appliances, any personal property included in the sale, and energy efficiency of the Property.
 - B. SQUARE FOOTAGE, AGE, BOUNDARIES: Square footage, room dimensions, lot size, age of improvements and boundaries. Any numerical statements regarding these items are APPRO XMATIO NS O NLY and have not been verified by Seller and cannot be verified by Brokers. Fences, hedges, walls, retaining walls and other barriers or markers do not necessarily identify true Property boundaries.
 - C. WOOD DESTROYING PESTS: Presence of, or conditions likely to lead to the presence of wood destroying pests and organisms.
 - D. SOIL STABILITY: Existence of fill or compacted soil, expansive or contracting soil, susceptibility to slippage, settling or movement, and the adequacy of drainage.
 - E. WATER AND UTILITIES; WELL SYSTEMS AND COMPONENTS; WASTE DISPOSAL: Water and utility availability, use restrictions and costs. Water quality, adequacy, condition, and performance of well systems and components. The type, size, adequacy, capacity and condition of sewer and septic systems and components, connection to sewer, and applicable fees.
 - F. ENVIRONMENTAL HAZARDS: Potential environmental hazards, including, but not limited to, asbestos, lead-based paint and other lead contamination, radon, methane, other gases, fuel oil or chemical storage tanks, contaminated soil or water, hazardous waste, waste disposal sites, electromagnetic fields, nuclear sources, and other substances, materials, products, or conditions (including mold (airborne, toxic or otherwise), fungus or similar contaminants).
 - G. EARTHQUAKES AND FLOODING: Susceptibility of the Property to earthquake/seismic hazards and propensity of the Property to flood.
 - H. FIRE, HAZARD AND OTHER INSURANCE: The availability and cost of necessary or desired insurance may vary. The location of the Property in a seismic, flood or fire hazard zone, and other conditions, such as the age of the Property and the claims history of the Property and Buyer, may affect the availability and need for certain types of insurance. Buyer should explore insurance options early as this information may affect other decisions, including the removal of loan and inspection contingencies.
 - BUILDING PERMITS, ZONING AND GOVERNMENTAL REQUIREMENTS: Permits, inspections, certificates, zoning, other governmental limitations, restrictions, and requirements affecting the current or future use of the Property, its development or size.
 - RENTAL PROPERTY RESTRICTIONS: Some cities and counties impose restrictions that limit the amount of rent that can be charged, the maximum number of occupants, and the right of a landlord to terminate a tenancy. Deadbolt or other locks and security systems for doors and windows, including window bars, should be examined to determine whether they satisfy legal requirements.
 - K. SECURITY AND SAFETY: State and local Law may require the installation of barriers, access alarms, self-latching mechanisms and/or other measures to decrease the risk to children and other persons of existing swimming pools and hot tubs, as well as various fire safety and other measures concerning other features of the Property.
 - L. NEIGHBORHOOD, AREA, SUBDIVISION CONDITIONS; PERSONAL FACTORS: Neighborhood or area conditions, including schools, law enforcement, crime statistics, registered felons or offenders, fire protection, other government services, availability, adequacy and cost of internet connections or other technology services and installations, commercial, industrial or agricultural activities, existing and proposed transportation, construction and development that may affect noise, view, or traffic, airport noise, noise or odor from any source, wild and domestic animals, other nuisances, hazards, or circumstances, protected species, wetland properties, botanical diseases, historic or other governmentally protected sites or improvements, cemeteries, facilities and condition of common areas of common interest subdivisions, and possible lack of compliance with any governing documents or Homeowners' Association requirements, conditions and influences of significance to certain cultures and/or

POSSIBLE REPRESENTATION 30 PMORE THAN ONE BUYER OR SELLER - DISCLOSURE AND CONSENT

(C.A.R. Form PRBS, 11/14)

A real estate broker (Broker), whether a corporation, partnership or sole proprietorship, may represent more than one buyer or seller. This multiple representation can occur through an individual licensed as a broker or salesperson or through different individual broker's or salespersons (associate licensees) acting under the Broker's license. The associate licensees may be working out of the same or different office locations.

Multiple Buyers: Broker (individually or through its associate licensees) may be working with many prospective buyers at the same time. These prospective buyers may have an interest in, and make offers on, the same properties. Some of these properties may be listed with Broker and some may not. Broker will not limit or restrict any particular buyer from making an offer on any particular property whether or not Broker represents other buyers interested in the same property.

Multiple Sellers: Broker (individually or through its associate licensees) may have listings on many properties at the same time. As a result, Broker will attempt to find buyers for each of those listed properties. Some listed properties may appeal to the same prospective buyers. Some properties may attract more prospective buyers than others. Some of these prospective buyers may be represented by Broker and some may not. Broker will market all listed properties to all prospective buyers whether or not Broker has another or other listed properties that may appeal to the same prospective buyers.

Dual Agency: If Seller is represented by Broker, Seller acknowledges that broker may represent prospective buyers of Seller's property and consents to Broker acting as a dual agent for both seller and buyer in that transaction. If Buyer is represented by Broker, buyer acknowledges that Broker may represent sellers of property that Buyer is interested in acquiring and consents to Broker acting as a dual agent for both buyer and seller with regard to that property.

In the event of dual agency, seller and buyer agree that: (a) Broker, without the prior written consent of the Buyer, will not disclose to seller that the Buyer is willing to pay a price greater than the offered price; (b) Broker, without the prior written consent of the seller, will not disclose to the buyer that seller is willing to sell property at a price less than the listing price; and (c) other than as set forth in (a) and (b) above, a dual agent is obligated to disclose known facts materially affecting the value or desirability of the property to both parties.

Offers not necessarily confidential: Buyer is advised that seller or listing agent may disclose the existence, terms, or conditions of buyer's offer unless all parties and their agent have signed a written confidentiality agreement. Whether any such information is actually disclosed depends on many factors, such as current market conditions, the prevailing practice in the real estate community, the listing agent's marketing strategy and the instructions of the seller.

Buyer and seller understand that Broker may represent more than one buyer or more than one seller and even both buyer and seller on the same transaction and consents to such relationships.

Seller and/or Buyer acknowledges reading and understanding this Possible Representation of More Than One Buyer or Seller. Disclosure and Consent and agrees to the agency possibilities disclosed.

DECLARATION OF GREGORY ALLEN GARDNER REGARDING VALUE OF PROPERTY

I, Gregory Allen Gardner, declare that I am a salesperson under the California broker's license of Homesmart Realty West, Inc. (Hereinafter, Homesmart) If called as a witness, I could competently testify to the facts contained herein.

This declaration relates to the following property:

APN: 238-102-41 & 238-102-45 MLS#: 170005659 LoopNet Listing ID#: 19972466 Real Estate Agent: Greg Gardner, California (Department of Real Estate # 01379440)

Real Estate Broker: HomeSmart Realty West, DRE# 01905908

Homesmart is duly licensed by the California Department of Real Estate. I am duly licensed as a salesperson. All real estate licenses are in good standing and unrestricted, and have been so since the beginning of this case.

This property consists of approximately 7 acres in Escondido, California. The property is vacant land, and it is being sold as property on which a hotel may be developed. I am aware of the issues regarding the suitability of the property for development, and the questions and concerns which a prospective buyer might have before purchasing the property. In particular, I am personally familiar with the status of existing approvals, and the steps needed. I was hired before bankruptcy to market the property. I am aware of the types of work which must be done, and I am familiar with the personnel in the city who must approve the project on a technical and engineering basis. I have been in close contact with Kris Wismer, President of Blue Light Capital Corp., regarding the actions needed to obtain the various entitlements necessary to develop a hotel on the property.

We have no conflict of interest, nor adverse interests to the Debtor. We are not creditors or equity security holders of the Debtor Blue Light Capital, nor otherwise involved with the management or employment of Debtor. We have never been employees or officers of the Debtor.

As a result of these efforts, there are two sales which are being brought to this court for approval by this court. One for $2,150,000 and the other for $2,250,000. These are all cash sales, and the court may accept the better of these transactions. These sales represent, in my opinion, based on my extensive marketing of the property, sales which are at fair market value, given the need to close escrow by August 31, 2017. Both represent the best ability to sell this property under these circumstances.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed at ______ California on August 4, 2017.
