GLOBAL NOTES AND STATEMENT OF LIMITATIONS, METHODOLOGIES, AND DISCLAIMERS REGARDING CETERO'S SCHEDULES OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES AND STATEMENTS OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

The Schedules of Assets and Liabilities (collectively, the “Schedules”) and the Statements of Financial Affairs (collectively, the “Statements” and, together with the Schedules, the “Schedules and Statements”) filed by Contract Research Solutions, Inc. and its affiliated debtors as debtors in possession (collectively, “Cetero”) were prepared pursuant to section 521 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and Rule 1007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, by management of Cetero, with the assistance of Cetero’s advisors, and are unaudited.

These “Global Notes and Statement of Limitations, Methodologies, and Disclaimers Regarding Cetero’s Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs” (collectively, the “Global Notes”) are incorporated by reference in, and comprise an integral part of, the Schedules and Statements, and should be referred to and considered in connection with any review of the Schedules and Statements.

While Cetero’s management has made reasonable efforts to ensure that the Schedules and Statements are as accurate and complete as practicable under the circumstances, based on information that was available to it at the time of preparation, subsequent information

The Schedules and Statements have been signed by Michael T. Murren, Chief Financial Officer of Contract Research Solutions, Inc. In reviewing and signing the Schedules and Statements, Mr. Murren necessarily relied upon the efforts, statements, and representations of Cetero's personnel and advisors. Mr. Murren has not (and could not have) personally verified the accuracy of each such statement and representation, including, without limitation, statements and representations concerning amounts owed to creditors, classification of such amounts, and creditor addresses.

These Global Notes are in addition to any specific notes contained in the Schedules and Statements. The fact that Cetero has prepared Global Notes or specific notes with respect to any information in the Schedules and Statements and not to other information in the Schedules and Statements should not be interpreted as a decision by Cetero to exclude the applicability of such Global Notes or specific notes to any information in the Schedules and Statements.

Disclosure of information in one or more Schedules, one or more Statements, or one or more exhibits or attachments to the Schedules or Statements, even if incorrectly placed, shall be deemed to be disclosed in the correct Schedules, Statements, exhibits, or attachments.

1. Description of the Chapter 11 Cases and “As Of” Information Date.

On March 26, 2012 (the “Petition Date”), Cetero filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Bankruptcy Court”). Cetero’s chapter 11 cases (the “Chapter 11 Cases”) have been consolidated for the procedural purpose of joint administration under In re Contract Research Solutions, Inc., et al Case No. 12-11004 (Bankr. D. Del.). Cetero continues to operate its business and manage its properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. The information provided in the Schedules and Statements about assets and liabilities, except as otherwise noted, represents information as of the Petition Date. Certain assets, such as investments in subsidiaries and other intangible assets, are listed at unknown amounts because the net book values may differ materially from fair market values. Amounts ultimately realized may vary from net book value (or other value listed) and such variance may be material. Accordingly, Cetero reserves all of its rights to amend or adjust the value of each asset set forth herein. In addition, the amounts shown for total liabilities exclude items identified as “unknown” or “undetermined,” and, thus, ultimate liabilities may differ materially from those stated in the Schedules and Statements.

2. General Reservation of Rights. Reasonable efforts have been made to prepare and file complete and accurate Schedules and Statements; however, inadvertent errors, inaccuracies, and omissions may exist. Cetero reserves all rights to amend or supplement the Schedules and Statements from time to time, in all respects, as may be necessary or appropriate, including, without limitation, the right to amend the Schedules and Statements with respect to claim (“Claim”) description, designation, or the Cetero entity against which the Claim is asserted; dispute or otherwise assert offsets or defenses to any claim reflected in the Schedules and Statements as to amount, liability, priority, status, classification or otherwise; subsequently designate any Claim as “disputed,” “contingent,” or “unliquidated”; or object to the extent, validity, enforceability, priority, or avoidability of any Claim. Any failure to designate a Claim in the Schedules and Statements as “disputed,” “contingent,” or “unliquidated” does not constitute an admission by Cetero that such Claim or amount is not “disputed,” “contingent,” or “unliquidated.” Listing a Claim does not constitute an admission of liability by the Cetero entity against which the Claim is listed or any other Cetero entity. Furthermore, nothing contained in the Schedules and Statements shall constitute a waiver of rights with respect to the Chapter 11 Cases, including, without limitation, issues involving Claims, substantive consolidation, defenses, equitable subordination, and/or causes of action arising under the provisions of chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and any other applicable laws to recover assets or avoid transfers. In addition, although Cetero may have scheduled claims of various creditors as secured claims, except as otherwise agreed pursuant to a stipulation or order entered by the Bankruptcy Court that is or becomes final, Cetero reserves all rights to dispute or challenge the secured nature of any such creditor’s claim or the characterization of the structure of any such transaction or any document or instrument (including, without limitation, any intercompany agreement) related to such creditor’s claim. Any specific reservation of rights contained elsewhere in the Global Notes does not limit in any respect the general reservation of rights contained in this paragraph.

3. Basis of Presentation. For financial reporting purposes, prior to the Petition Date, Cetero prepared financial statements on a consolidated basis that were audited annually through the year ended December 31, 2010. No audit has been conducted of the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2011. Combining the assets and liabilities set forth in the Schedules and Statements would result in amounts that would be substantially different from financial information that would be prepared on a consolidated basis under Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (“GAAP”). Therefore, the Schedules and Statements do not purport to represent financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP, nor are they intended to reconcile fully with the consolidated financial statements prepared by Cetero. Unlike the consolidated financial statements, the Schedules and Statements reflect the assets and liabilities of each separate Cetero entity, except where otherwise indicated. Information contained in the Schedules and Statements has been derived from Cetero’s books and records and historical financial statements. Moreover, given, among other things, the uncertainty surrounding the collection and ownership of certain assets and the valuation and nature of certain liabilities, to the extent that Cetero shows more assets than liabilities, this is not an admission that the Cetero was solvent as of the Petition Date or at any time prior to the Petition Date. Likewise, to the extent Cetero shows more liabilities than assets, this is not an admission that Cetero was insolvent as of the Petition Date or any time prior to the Petition Date.

4. Comprehensive Enterprise. Cetero’s financial affairs are complex, and it operates its business as a comprehensive enterprise. Before the Petition Date, Cetero maintained a centralized cash management and disbursement system in the ordinary course of its business (the “Cash Management System”). Disbursements under the Cash Management System are controlled primarily by personnel located at Cetero’s headquarters. As a result, certain payments in the Schedules and Statements may have been made prepetition by one legal entity on behalf of another legal entity through the operation of the Cash Management System or otherwise as a result of Cetero's operations. Further, due to the nature of Cetero's operations, certain Claims set forth in one legal entity's Schedules and Statements may more appropriately be an obligation of another Cetero entity. Although efforts have been made to set forth payable amounts and Claims on the Schedules and Statements of the correct Cetero entity, Cetero reserves the right to modify or amend the Schedules and Statements to attribute open payable amounts and Claims to a different Cetero entity, if necessary or appropriate.

5. Confidential or Sensitive Information. There may be instances in which certain information in the Schedules and Statements has been redacted due to the nature of an agreement between Cetero and a third-party, concerns about the confidential or commercially sensitive nature of certain information, or concerns for the privacy of an individual. Cetero has made reasonable efforts to ensure that the alterations or redactions will be limited to only what is necessary or appropriate to protect Cetero or third-parties and to provide interested parties with sufficient information to discern the nature of the listing.

6. Claims and Causes of Action. Despite their reasonable efforts to identify all known assets, Cetero may not have listed all of its claims, potential claims, causes of action, or potential causes of action against third-parties as assets in the Schedules and Statements, including, without limitation, causes of actions arising under the provisions of chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and any other applicable laws to recover assets or avoid transfers. Cetero reserves all of its rights with respect to any claim, cause of action (including avoidance actions), controversy, right of setoff, cross claim, counterclaim, or recoupment and any claim on contracts or for breaches of duties imposed by law or in equity, demand, right, action, lien, indemnity, guaranty, suit, obligation, liability, damage, judgment, account, defense, power, privilege, license, and franchise of any kind or character whatsoever, whether known or unknown, fixed or contingent, matured or unmatured, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, disputed or undisputed, secured or unsecured, assertable directly or derivatively, whether arising before, on, or after the Petition Date, in contract or in tort, in law or in equity, or pursuant to any other theory of law (collectively, "Causes of Action") Cetero may have, and neither these Global Notes nor the Schedules and Statements shall be deemed a waiver of any Claims or Causes of Action or in any way prejudice or impair the assertion of such Claims or Causes of Action.

7. Recharacterization. Cetero has made reasonable efforts to characterize, classify, categorize, and designate correctly the Claims, assets, liabilities, executory contracts, unexpired leases, interests, and other information listed in the Schedules and Statements. However, due to the complexity and size of Cetero's business, Cetero may have improperly characterized, classified, categorized, or designated certain information. Cetero thus reserves all of its rights to recharacterize, reclassify, recategorize, or redesignate information listed in the Schedules and Statements as necessary or appropriate as additional information becomes available, including, without limitation, whether contracts or leases identified herein were executory or unexpired as of the Petition Date or remain executory or unexpired postpetition, and whether a lease should be recharacterized as a financing and not a true lease.

8. Court Orders. Pursuant to certain orders of the Bankruptcy Court entered in the Chapter 11 Cases on or about March 27, 2012 and April 24, 2012 (the "First Day Orders”), Cetero was authorized, but not directed, to pay or otherwise satisfy, among other amounts, certain prepetition Claims of employees, suppliers, and taxing authorities. Accordingly, these liabilities may have been or may be satisfied in accordance with such First Day Orders and, therefore, generally are not listed in the Schedules and Statements. Regardless of whether such Claims are listed in the Schedules and Statements, to the extent such Claims are paid pursuant to an order of the Bankruptcy Court, including, without limitation, the First Day Orders, Cetero reserves all rights to amend or supplement the Schedules and Statements as is necessary or appropriate.

9. Liabilities. Cetero has sought to allocate liabilities between the prepetition and postpetition periods based on the information and research that was conducted in connection with the preparation of the Schedules and Statements. As additional information becomes available and further research is conducted, the allocation of liabilities between prepetition and postpetition periods may change. Cetero reserves the right to amend or supplement the Schedules and Statements as they deem necessary or appropriate in this regard.

10. Excluded Assets and Liabilities. Cetero has excluded certain categories of assets, tax accruals, and liabilities from the Schedules and Statements, including, without limitation, goodwill, accrued salaries, employee benefit accruals, accrued accounts payable, and deferred gains. In addition, certain immaterial assets and liabilities may have been excluded.

11. Leases. Cetero has not included in the Schedules and Statements the future obligations of any capital leases or operating leases. To the extent that there was an amount outstanding as of the Petition Date, the creditor has been included on Schedule F of the Schedules.

12. Intellectual Property Rights. Exclusion of certain intellectual property shall not be construed to be an admission that such intellectual property rights have been abandoned, have been terminated, otherwise have expired by their terms, or have been assigned or otherwise transferred pursuant to a sale, acquisition, or other transaction. Conversely, inclusion of certain intellectual property shall not be construed to be an admission that such intellectual property rights have not been abandoned, have not been terminated, otherwise have not expired by their terms, or have not been assigned or otherwise transferred pursuant to a sale, acquisition, or other transaction. Accordingly, Cetero reserves all of its rights with respect to the legal status of any and all intellectual property rights.

13. Property and Equipment. Unless otherwise indicated, owned property (including, without limitation, real property) and equipment are stated at net book value. Cetero may lease furniture, fixtures, and equipment from certain third-party lessors. Any such leases are set forth in the Schedules and Statements. Nothing in the Schedules and Statements is or shall be construed as an admission as to the determination as to the legal status of any lease (including, without limitation, whether any lease is a true lease or a financing arrangement), and Cetero reserves all of its rights with respect thereto.

14. Estimates. To prepare and file the Schedules in accordance with the deadline established in the Chapter 11 Cases, Cetero was required to make certain estimates and assumptions that affected the reported amounts of assets and liabilities. Cetero reserves all rights to amend or supplement the reported amounts of assets and liabilities to reflect changes in those estimates or assumptions.

15. Classifications. (i) Listing a claim on Schedule D as “secured,” (ii) listing a claim on Schedule E as “priority,” (iii) listing a claim on Schedule F as “unsecured,” or (iv) listing a contract or lease on Schedule G as “executory” or “unexpired,” does not constitute an admission by Cetero of the legal rights of any entity, or a waiver of Cetero’s right to recharacterize or reclassify such claim, contract or lease.

Although a Cetero entity may have scheduled claims of various creditors as secured claims for informational purposes, no current valuation of Cetero’s assets in which such creditors may have a lien has been undertaken. Subject to any and all orders of this Court, Cetero reserves all rights to dispute or challenge the secured nature of any such creditor’s claims or the characterization of the structure of any transaction or any document or instrument related to such creditor’s claim.

16. Fiscal Year. Cetero’s fiscal year ends on December 31.

17. Currency. Unless otherwise indicated, all amounts are reflected in U.S. dollars.

18. Umbrella or Master Agreements. Contracts and leases listed in the Schedules and Statements may be umbrella or master agreements that cover relationships with some or all of the Cetero entities. Where relevant, such agreements have been listed in the Schedules and Statements only of the Cetero entity that signed the original umbrella or master agreement. Other Cetero entities, however, may be liable instead of, or together with, such Cetero entity on account of such agreements and Cetero reserves all rights to amend or supplement the Schedules and Statements to reflect changes regarding the liability of Cetero with respect to such agreements, if necessary or appropriate.

19. Insiders. Cetero has attempted to include all payments made on or within the 12 months before the Petition Date to any individual or entity deemed an “insider.” For these purposes, “insider” is defined as (1) any individual or entity owning 5% or more of the voting or equity securities of Cetero, (2) any individual that has served as either an officer or director of Cetero within the 12 months before the Petition Date, or (3) any entity related to any of the foregoing. The listing of a party as an “insider,” however, is not intended to be nor should be construed as a legal characterization of such party as an insider and does not act as an admission of any fact, Claim, right, or defense, and all such rights, Claims, and defenses are hereby expressly reserved.

20. Officers and Directors. Cetero operates as a consolidated enterprise. As such, references to officers and directors and their positions in the Schedules and Statements may be to their positions with Contract Research Solutions, Inc, the ultimate parent of the Cetero entities.

21. Totals. All totals that are included in the Schedules and Statements represent totals of all the liquidated amounts listed in the Schedules and Statements. To the extent there are unliquidated, unknown, or otherwise undetermined amounts, the actual total may be different than the listed total. The description of an amount as “unknown,” or “undetermined” is not intended to reflect upon the materiality of such amount.

22. Setoffs. Cetero incurs certain offsets and other similar rights during the ordinary course of business. Offsets in the ordinary course can result from various items, including, without limitation, intercompany transactions, pricing discrepancies, returns, warranties, and other disputes between Cetero and the entities with whom Cetero engages in business. These offsets and other similar rights are consistent with the ordinary course of business in Cetero’s industry and are not tracked separately. Therefore, although such offsets and other similar rights may have been accounted for when certain amounts were included in the Schedules, offsets are not independently accounted for and, as such, are excluded from the Schedules and Statements.

23. Schedule B-16. Cetero has presented its accounts receivable totals on a gross basis, and the amounts remain subject to offset and credits. All accounts receivable on Schedule B16 are subject to reduction on account of bad or uncollectable accounts.

24. Schedule D (Creditors Holding Secured Claims). Except as otherwise agreed pursuant to a stipulation or order entered by the Bankruptcy Court that is or becomes final, Cetero and/or their estates reserve their right to dispute or challenge the validity, perfection, or immunity from avoidance of any lien purported to be granted or perfected in any asset to a creditor listed on Schedule D of any Cetero entity. In certain instances, a Cetero entity may be a co-obligor, co-mortgagor, or guarantor with respect to claims listed in the Schedules of other Cetero entities, and no claim set forth on Schedule D of any Cetero entity is intended to acknowledge claims of creditors that are otherwise satisfied or discharged by other entities. The descriptions provided in Schedule D are intended only to be a summary. Reference to the applicable loan agreements and related documents and determination of the creditors’ compliance with applicable law is necessary for a complete description of the collateral and the nature, extent, and priority of any liens. Nothing in the Global Notes or the Schedules and Statements shall be deemed a modification or interpretation of the terms of such agreements or related documents. Except as specifically stated herein, real property lessors, utility companies, and other parties that may hold security deposits have not been listed on Schedule D. Cetero has not included on Schedule D entities that may believe their claims are secured through setoff rights, deposits posted by or on behalf of Cetero, or inchoate statutory lien rights.

The claims listed in Schedule D arose or were incurred on various dates. In certain instances, the date on which a claim arose is not easily determinable. Although reasonable efforts have been made to identify the date of incurrence of each claim, determining the date upon which each claim in Schedule D was incurred or arose would be unduly burdensome and cost prohibitive and, therefore, Cetero does not list a date for each claim listed on Schedule D.

25. Schedule E (Creditors Holding Unsecured Priority Claims). The listing of any claim on Schedule E does not constitute an admission by Cetero that such claim is entitled to priority treatment, including, under section 507 of the Bankruptcy Code. Cetero reserves all of its rights to dispute the amount and/or the priority status of any claim on any basis at any time.

The claims listed in Schedule E arose or were incurred on various dates. In certain instances, the date on which a claim arose is not easily determinable. Although reasonable efforts have been made to identify the date of incurrence of each claim, determining the date upon which each claim in Schedule E was incurred or arose would be unduly burdensome and cost prohibitive and, therefore, Cetero does not list a date for each claim listed on Schedule E.

Further, the Bankruptcy Court entered a first day order granting authority to Cetero to pay certain prepetition employee wage and other obligations in the ordinary course (the “Employee Wage Order”). Pursuant to the Employee Wage Order, Cetero believes that any priority employee claims for prepetition amounts have been or will be satisfied, and such satisfied amounts are, therefore, not listed on Schedule E.

26. Schedule F (Creditors Holding Unsecured Nonpriority Claims).

Cetero has used its reasonable efforts to list all general unsecured claims against Cetero on Schedule F based upon Cetero’s books and records. Schedule F does not include certain deferred credits, deferred charges, deferred liabilities, accruals, or general reserves. Such amounts are general estimates of liabilities and do not represent specific claims as of the Petition Date; however, such amounts are reflected on Cetero’s books and records as required in accordance with GAAP.

Schedule F does not include certain reserves for potential unliquidated contingencies that historically were carried on Cetero’s books as of the Petition Date; such reserves were for potential liabilities only and do not represent actual liabilities as of the Petition Date.

The claims listed in Schedule F arose or were incurred on various dates. In certain instances, the date on which a claim arose is not easily determinable. Although reasonable efforts have been made to identify the date of incurrence of each claim, determining the date upon which each claim in Schedule F was incurred or arose would be unduly burdensome and cost prohibitive and, therefore, Cetero does not list a date for each claim listed on Schedule F.

Schedule F contains information regarding potential and pending litigation involving Cetero. In certain instances, the Cetero entity that is the subject of the litigation is unclear or undetermined. To the extent that litigation involving a particular Cetero entity has been identified, however, such information is contained in the Schedule for that Cetero entity.

Schedule F reflects the prepetition amounts owing to counterparties to executory contracts and unexpired leases. Such prepetition amounts, however, may be paid in connection with the assumption, or assumption and assignment, of an executory contract or unexpired lease. In addition, Schedule F does not include rejection damage claims of the counterparties to the executory contracts and unexpired leases that have been or may be rejected to the extent such damage claims exist.

Except in certain limited circumstances, Cetero has not scheduled contingent and unliquidated liabilities related to guaranty obligations on Schedule F. Such guaranties are, instead, listed on Schedule H.

The claims of individual creditors for, among other things, goods, services, or taxes listed on Cetero's books and records may not reflect credits or allowances due from such creditors. Cetero reserves all of their rights in respect of such credits or allowances. The dollar amounts listed also may be exclusive of contingent or unliquidated amounts.

Certain creditors owe amounts to Cetero and, as such, may have valid setoff and recoupment rights with respect to such amounts. Although Cetero may have taken setoffs into account when scheduling the amounts owed to creditors, Cetero has not independently accounted for or reviewed the validity of any such setoff or recoupment rights and hereby reserves all rights to challenge such setoff and recoupment rights. Nevertheless, in listing the claims of such creditors in the Schedules, Cetero may have factored in the amounts owed by such creditors to Cetero and has reduced the claims listed in the Schedules accordingly. In other cases, Cetero has not reduced the claims in the Schedules to reflect any such right of setoff or recoupment, although, where practicable, Cetero has indicated that the claims in the Schedules are contingent in recognition of a potential setoff or recoupment. The listing of any claim in the Schedules or amount owed at a net value is not a waiver of any right to challenge the creditor's right to setoff, recoup, or net amounts owed against amounts that may be owed to any Cetero entity.

Trade Payables listed on Schedule F contain the prepetition liability information available to Cetero as of the Petition Date and reflect payments made to vendors subsequent to the Petition Date related to prepetition obligations in accordance with the First Day Orders. In the ordinary course of its business, Cetero may be involved in pending or threatened litigation and claims arising in the ordinary course of its business. These matters may involve multiple plaintiffs and defendants, some or all of whom, including Cetero, may assert cross claims and counter claims against other parties. Because all such claims are contingent, disputed or unliquidated, such claims have not been marked as co-debtor on Schedule F.

In addition, pursuant to the Employee Wage Order, Cetero believes that any nonpriority employee claims for prepetition amounts have been or will be satisfied, and such satisfied amounts are, therefore, not listed on Schedule F.

27. Schedule G (Executory Contracts). While Cetero's existing books, records, and financial systems have been relied upon to identify and schedule executory contracts at each of the Cetero entities, and although reasonable efforts have been made to ensure the accuracy of Schedule G, inadvertent errors, omissions, or over inclusions may have occurred. Cetero does not make, and specifically disclaims, any representation or warranty as to the completeness or accuracy of the information set forth on Schedule G. Cetero hereby reserves all of their rights to dispute the validity, status, or enforceability of any contract, agreement, or lease set forth in Schedule G and to amend or supplement Schedule G as necessary or appropriate. The contracts, agreements, and leases listed on Schedule G may have expired or may have been modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time by various amendments, restatements, waivers, estoppel certificates, letters, memoranda, and other documents, instruments, and agreements that may not be listed therein despite Cetero's use of reasonable efforts to identify such documents. Further, unless otherwise specified on Schedule G, each executory contract or unexpired lease listed thereon shall include deemed to include all exhibits, schedules, riders, modifications, declarations, amendments, supplements, attachments, restatements, or other agreements made directly or indirectly by any agreement, instrument, or other document that in any manner affects such executory contract or unexpired lease, without respect to whether such agreement, instrument, or other document is listed thereon.

In some cases, the same supplier or provider appears multiple times in Schedule G. This multiple listing is intended to reflect distinct agreements between the applicable Cetero entity and such supplier or provider.

In the ordinary course of business, Cetero may have issued numerous purchase orders for supplies, product, and related items, which, to the extent that such purchase orders constitute executory contracts, are not listed individually on Schedule G. To the extent that goods were delivered under purchase orders prior to the Petition Date, vendors' claims with respect to such delivered goods are included on Schedule F if applicable.

As a general matter, certain of the Cetero entities' executory contracts and unexpired leases could be included in more than one category. In those instances, one category has been chosen to avoid duplication. Further, the designation of a category is not meant to be wholly inclusive or descriptive of the entirety of the rights or obligations represented by such contract or lease.

Cetero hereby reserves all of their rights, claims, and causes of action with respect to the contracts, agreements, and leases listed on Schedule G, including the right to dispute or challenge the characterization or the structure of any transaction, document, or instrument related to a creditor's claim, to dispute the validity, status, or enforceability of any contract, agreement, or lease set forth in Schedule G, and to amend or supplement Schedule G as necessary or appropriate. Inclusion of any agreement on Schedule G does not constitute an admission that such agreement is an executory contract or unexpired lease, and Cetero reserves all rights in that regard, including, without limitation, that any agreement is not executory, has expired pursuant to its terms, or was terminated prepetition. Omission of a contract, agreement, or lease from Schedule G does not constitute an admission that such omitted contract, agreement, or lease is not an executory contract or unexpired lease. Cetero's rights under the Bankruptcy Code with respect to any such omitted contracts, agreements, or lease are not impaired by the omission.

Certain of the executory contracts and unexpired leases listed in Schedule G may have been assigned to, assumed by, or otherwise transferred to certain of the Cetero entities in connection with, among other things, acquisitions by Cetero.

Cetero has attempted to list the appropriate Cetero entities that are parties to each contract, agreement, and lease on Schedule G. However, there may be instances in which other Cetero entities that are not parties to the contracts, agreements, and leases have been the primary entities conducting business in connection with these contracts, agreements, and leases. Cetero reserves its right, upon further review, to amend or supplement Schedule G as necessary or appropriate to reflect the correct contractual counterparty.

28. Schedule H (Co-Debtors). In the ordinary course of its business, certain Cetero entities pay certain expenses on behalf of other Cetero entities. Cetero may have inadvertently omitted certain guarantees and other secondary liability claims that are included in Cetero's executory contracts, unexpired leases, secured financings, debt instruments, and other agreements. Any omission of a co-debtor or co-obligor on Schedule H or elsewhere in Cetero's Schedules does not constitute an admission that such omitted co-debtor or co-obligor is not obligated or liable under the relevant debt. Cetero's rights under the Bankruptcy Code and non-bankruptcy law with respect to any such omitted co-debtor or co-obligor are not impaired by the omission. Further, certain of the guarantees reflected on Schedule H may have expired or may no longer be enforceable. Thus, Cetero reserves its rights to amend Schedule H to the extent that additional guarantees are identified or such guarantees are discovered to have expired or become unenforceable.

In the ordinary course of its business, Cetero may be involved in pending or threatened litigation and claims arising out of certain ordinary course of business transactions. These matters may involve multiple plaintiffs and defendants, some or all of whom may assert cross claims and counter claims against other entities. Because such claims are contingent, disputed, and/or unliquidated, such claims have not been set forth individually on Schedule H. However, some such claims may be listed elsewhere in the Schedules and Statements.

Cetero also has insurance policies that potentially cover various claims. These insurance policies have been listed on Schedule G, but not on Schedule H. Not listing such insurance policies on Schedule H does not constitute an admission that such insurance carriers are not obligated or liable under the relevant policy, and Cetero's rights under the Bankruptcy Code and non-bankruptcy law with respect to any such policies are not impaired by them not being listed on Schedule H.

29. SOFA3b and SOFA3c. Receipts and disbursements are made through a centralized and consolidated cash management system. In certain circumstances, payments made are listed by the Cetero entity making such payment, notwithstanding that certain payments will have been made on behalf of another Cetero entity.

Due to confidentiality concerns and because of prepetition wage payments made pursuant to Bankruptcy Court authority, the list of payments under Statement 3b does not include payments for wages, compensation, or expenses made to non-executive employees, contract employees, or temporary employees in the ordinary course of business. To the extent that such an employee is a creditor, that employee may be entitled to priority treatment in accordance with section 507 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Certain of the payments listed on Statement 3b and 3b were made on behalf of employees in the form of, among other things, wage garnishments, employee savings program and employee benefits, and 401(k) contribution

30. SOFA8. Cetero occasionally incurs losses for a variety of reasons, including theft and property damage. Certain of these losses may not have been tracked, and, thus, Cetero has only listed losses that were identifiable in its books and records.

31. SOFA9. Amounts paid to professionals may include amounts paid for debt counseling or bankruptcy or otherwise.
