DEBTOR’S MOTION FOR ENTRY OF INTERIM AND FINAL ORDERS
(I) APPROVING SALE PROCEDURES FOR THE SALE OF THE DEBTOR’S
RESIDENTIAL PORTFOLIO AND (II) APPROVING SUCH SALES OF THE DEBTOR’S RESIDENTIAL PORTFOLIO FREE AND CLEAR OF LIENS, CLAIMS, ENCUMBRANCES AND OTHER INTERESTS

TO THE HONORABLE ROBERT E. GROSSMAN, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Dowling College (“Dowling” or the “Debtor”), debtor and debtor-in-possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 case (the “Chapter 11 Case”), by and through its proposed attorneys, Klestadt Winters Jureller Southard & Stevens, LLP, hereby files a motion for the entry of interim and final orders substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Sale Order”) (i) approving sale procedures substantially in the form attached as Schedule 1 to the Sale Order for the sale of the Debtor’s portfolio of ancillary, mostly residential, real property and any personal property located thereon (the “Residential Portfolio”) and (ii) approving the sale of the Residential Portfolio free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, security interests and other interests pursuant to a proposed Purchase Agreement (as hereinafter defined) to the Buyers (as hereinafter defined) (the “Motion”). The Debtor requests an interim order to consummate the sale of six (6) parcels within the Residential Portfolio where special circumstances exist. Due to creditor restraints served on the Debtor under state law before the Petition Date, the Debtor was unable to consummate these transactions prepetition and all six (6) parcels have closing dates under existing purchase contracts that have passed. Many of the buyers for these parcels have expressed increasing concern and frustration with the status of their transactions. For three of these parcels, the buyers have interest rate locks for acquisition financing that are at risk of expiring before a final hearing on the Motion can be held. Under these circumstances, the Debtor believes there is a material chance one or more of these transactions will fail absent expedited relief. The Debtor also seeks interim relief to maintain marketing efforts for the remaining Residential Portfolio that were in process as of the Petition Date to avoid damaging the overall marketing effort for the Residential Portfolio pending further order from this Court.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The Debtor is seeking through this Motion authority to sell thirty two (32) non-contiguous parcels of predominantly residential property owned by the Debtor and scattered through the neighborhood adjacent to the Debtor’s former main campus located at 150 Idle Hour Boulevard, Oakdale, New York 11769 (the “Oakdale Campus”). Twenty four of these parcels were utilized as residential properties and either rented to third party tenants or occupied by faculty. Seven were used in the Debtor’s operations. One of the parcels is vacant land. A schedule setting forth the addresses of the Residential Portfolio is attached hereto as Exhibit B. The Debtor is seeking authority to sell the Residential Portfolio to potential buyers (the “Buyers” and each a “Buyer”), pursuant to a proposed form of purchase agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”). A copy of the Purchase Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit C¹.

2. To provide confidence and comfort to all of the Debtor’s stakeholders concerning this sales effort, including creditors and existing and prospective Buyers, the Debtor seeks entry of the Sale Order authorizing the Debtor to (i) proceed to a closing with those Buyers currently under contract (the “Pending Sales”) and (ii) enter into postpetition contracts for the sale of any parcel in the Residential Portfolio and to close on such sales (the “Future Sales”). Toward that end, the Debtor requests that the Court authorize the Residential Sale Procedures (as hereinafter defined), which will permit the closing of the Residential Portfolio without the need for a specific hearing for each sale, in the event that the Creditors’ Committee and the Secured Parties (as hereinafter defined) consent to such sale.

3. The Debtor submits that the ability to sell the Residential Portfolio free and clear of all liens, claims and encumbrances, security interests and other interests is of paramount importance to the successful liquidation of the Debtor.

JURISDICTION

4. The Court has jurisdiction over this Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

5. The statutory predicates for the relief sought herein are Sections 105(a) and 363(b), (d) and (f), 365, 1107 and 1108 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and General Order 557 of the Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York.

BACKGROUND

A. General.

6. On November 29, 2016 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York (the “Court”).

7. The Debtor continues to manage its property as a debtor in possession pursuant to Sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. No trustee, examiner or creditors’ committee has been appointed in this Chapter 11 Case.

9. The factual background relating to the Debtor’s commencement of this Chapter 11 Case and the facts and circumstances supporting the relief requested herein are set forth in greater detail in the Declaration of Robert S. Rosenfeld, Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtor, Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-4 in Support of First Day Motions (the “First Day Declaration”).

B. Residential Portfolio and Prepetition Marketing.

10. The Residential Portfolio serves as collateral for three (3) series of bonds issued by or for the benefit of the Debtor: (a) a series of revenue bonds issued for the benefit of the Debtor by the Suffolk County Industrial Development Agency in 1996 (the “Series 1996 Bonds”); (b) a series of revenue bonds issued for the benefit of the Debtor by the Town of Brookhaven Industrial Development Agency in 2002 (the “Series 2002 Bonds”); and (c) a series of revenue bonds issued by the Debtor in 2015 (the “Series 2015 Bonds” and, collectively with the Series 1996 Bonds and Series 2002 Bonds, the “Secured Obligations”).

11. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtor, in consultation with UMB Bank, National Association, as indenture trustee for the Secured Obligations, and certain institutional holders of the Secured Obligations (each a “Secured Party” and collectively, the “Secured Parties”), commenced marketing of the Residential Portfolio. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtor hired Douglas Elliman (the “Residential Agent”) as its real estate broker to market and sell the Residential Portfolio. Contemporaneously with the filing of the instant Motion, the Debtor is filing an application to retain Douglas Elliman to continue to market and sell these assets.

12. This process has been robust and portions of the Residential Portfolio have been listed for sale since March, 2016. The marketing effort has included detailed market analysis to price each parcel that has been listed for sale, extensive marketing through print and electronic platforms, and traditional “open house” marketing. These ongoing efforts have resulted in eight (8) fully negotiated and executed pre-petition contracts (each a “Pre-Petition Sales Contract”) for the Pending Sales.

C. Post Petition Marketing and Sale.

13. To facilitate the Pending Sales and as set forth more fully in Schedule 1 to the Sale Order², the Debtor proposes residential sale procedures (the “Residential Sale Procedures”) authorizing the Debtor to, in general terms:

- a. consummate the Pending Sales in accordance with the Pre-Petition Sales Contracts;
- b. apply any deposits made with the Debtor as provided under the Pre-Petition Sales Contracts; and
- c. pay closing costs when consummating Pending Sales that are customarily satisfied by sellers in real estate transactions in Suffolk County, New York out of gross proceeds thereof, including state transfer taxes (if necessary), property condition disclosure reimbursement payments and, subject to the terms of any order by this Court approving the Debtor's retention of the Residential Agent, fees, commissions and expenses of the Residential Agent ("Ancillary Sale Costs").

14. With respect to the remaining properties within the Residential Portfolio, the Debtor proposes that the Residential Sale Procedures authorize the Debtor to, in general terms:

- a. continue marketing the Residential Portfolio in consultation with the Secured Parties in a manner consistent with the pre-petition marketing effort for these assets;
- b. provide notice promptly to (a) counsel to the Secured Parties, (b) counsel to any statutory committee, and (c) any other party asserting a lien of record against the associated property (collectively, the "Sale Notice Parties") after any proposed sale of assets that comprises the Residential Portfolio becomes subject, after the date hereof, to an agreed-upon form of purchase and sale agreement (each a "Post-Petition Sales Contract");
- c. consummate any sale described in a notice to Sale Notice Parties in accordance with the applicable Post-Petition Sales Contract absent objection by Sale Notice Parties to the proposed sale price thereunder on or before the date that is ten (10) days after the date notice is given;
- d. apply any deposits made with the Debtor as provided under any such Post-Petition Sales Contracts; and
- e. pay Ancillary Sale Costs in consummating sales from the Residential Portfolio.

15. To the extent there are unresolved objections as to the proposed sale price for any transaction contemplated by a Post-Petition Sales Contract, the Debtor shall seek further relief from this Court.

16. Pursuant to General Order 557, the Court is asked to take notice of the following "extraordinary provision" of the proposed Residential Sale Procedures:

Relief from Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h). The proposed form of Sale Order contains a waiver of the stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

THE DEBTOR SHOULD BE AUTHORIZED TO SELL THE RESIDENTIAL PORTFOLIO

17. The Debtor believes – in an exercise of informed business judgment – that the sale of the Residential Portfolio is in the best interests of the Debtor, its creditors and the Debtor’s estate. Under the circumstances of this Chapter 11 case, this Court should approve these sales.

18. Bankruptcy Code Section 363 authorizes the use, sale or lease of the Debtor’s assets. 11 U.S.C. § 363.

19. Bankruptcy courts routinely authorize estate property sales under Section 363(b) when there a legitimate business reason. See In re Lionel Corp., 722 F.2d 1063, 1071 (2d Cir. 1983). Courts generally defer to debtors’ sound business judgment in these matters. See, e.g., In re MF Global, Inc., 535 B.R. 596, 605 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2015).

20. A debtor generally satisfies this business judgment standard when it acts on an informed basis, in good faith, and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the company. In re Integrated Res., Inc., 147 B.R. 650, 656 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (quoting Smith v. Van Gorkom, 488 A.2d 858, 872 (Del. 1985)).

21. Bankruptcy Code Section 105(a) further supports bankruptcy asset sales. Under Section 105(a), “[t]he court may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of [the Bankruptcy Code].” 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).

22. There is ample justification to sell the Residential Portfolio in this Chapter 11 Case: the Debtor has ceased all meaningful business as an educational institution and otherwise. Pursuant to separate motions filed or to be filed with the Court, the Debtor will seek authority to sell or otherwise dispose of all of its other assets and to ultimately make distributions to its creditors in accordance with their rights under state and other applicable law.

23. In addition, this Motion complies with Section 363(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to Section 363(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, a transfer of property by a not-for-profit entity must be made in compliance with applicable nonbankruptcy law governing such transfer. See 11 U.S.C. § 363(d). An insolvent not-for-profit corporation that is seeking to sell all or substantially all of its assets is required, pursuant to Sections 510 and 511 of the New York Not-for-Profit Corporation Law, to obtain approval of such sale transaction from either the state court or bankruptcy court. The New York Not-for-Profit Corporation Law does not define what constitutes “all or substantially all” of the assets of a corporation. However, the Residential Portfolio, when considered as a whole, or individually, does not amount to “all or substantially all” of the Debtor’s assets such that court approval is necessary.

THE DEBTOR SHOULD BE AUTHORIZED TO IMPLEMENT SALE PROCEDURES APPROPRIATE FOR THE RESIDENTIAL PORTFOLIO

24. The proposed Residential Sale Procedures should be approved as well. Sale procedures are commonplace in bankruptcy sales when they maximize the value of assets, and otherwise enhance the sale process. See In re Metaldyne Corp., 409 B.R. 661, 667-70 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009); In re Cormier, 382 B.R. 377, 388 (Bankr. W.D. Mich. 2008); In re O’Brien Env’tl. Energy, Inc., 181 F.3d 527, 535-37 (3d Cir. 1999); see also Integrated Res., 147 B.R. at 656-57.

25. The proposed Residential Sale Procedures here will facilitate the Debtor’s efforts to maximize recoveries from the Residential Portfolio while safeguarding the interests of stakeholders in this Chapter 11 Case.

A. The Residential Sale Procedures Are a Valid Exercise of the Debtor's Business Judgment.

26. The Residential Sale Procedures should be approved as a valid exercise of the Debtor's business judgment. Courts in the Second Circuit typically approve sale procedures where they represent an informed "business judgment". See Integrated Res., 147 B.R. at 657-58 (to evaluate bid protections, courts should employ the business judgment rule, which proscribes judicial second-guessing of the corporate debtor's actions taken in good faith, absent self-dealing, and in the exercise of honest judgment); see also Metaldyne Corp., 409 B.R. at 669-70; In re First Republic Group Realty, LLC, Case No. 09-13983-MG, 2010 Bankr. LEXIS 3191, 2010 WL 3638032 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Aug. 18, 2010) (approving sale procedures upon finding that the sale constituted the exercise of the debtor's sound business judgment).

27. Courts in the Second Circuit have observed that when a debtor articulates a reasonable basis for its business decisions (as distinct from a decision made arbitrarily or capriciously), courts will "generally not entertain objections". In re Johns-Manville Corp., 60 B.R. 612, 616 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986).

28. Here, the Residential Sale Procedures were developed in consultation with the Debtor's financial and legal advisors, including the Residential Agent, and through arm's-length negotiations with the Secured Parties who are aligned with the Debtor in their desire to maximize proceeds from sale of the Residential Portfolio.

29. The Debtor's business judgment in crafting the Residential Sale Procedures is reflected in the demonstrable benefits the Residential Sale Procedures will bring to the Debtor's sales effort. The Residential Sale Procedures are mindful of the Debtor's obligations to recover proceeds for distribution to stakeholders and as set forth above, each parcel is priced for sale only after a detailed market analysis is performed. The Residential Sale Procedures then use this market analysis to leverage the existing, well developed, well understood sales market for residential property. The Residential Sale Procedures are specifically mindful that most potential buyers for these assets are consumers who are familiar with general home-buying procedures, but are likely poorly versed in bankruptcy-specific Section 363 sales.

30. There are otherwise demonstrable benefits to the Residential Sale Procedures since any failure to consummate Pending Sales in accordance with Pre-Petition Sale Contracts may cause defaults under Pre-Petition Sale Contracts and possible termination thereof. That would expose the Debtor to uncertain timing and transaction pricing that may ultimately materialize for affected parcels. Authority to consummate the Pending Sales without material delay is also crucial to the Debtor's ability to monetize the overall Residential Portfolio. There are at any given moment dozens of residential properties for sale in Oakdale and the immediate vicinity; any material delay in completing these sales (or other result that prevents the Debtor from consummating Pending Sales on their existing terms) may brand the Debtor in the marketplace as a difficult transaction partner, leaving the Debtor at a disadvantage compared to competing sellers of similar properties in the same neighborhood.

B. The Residential Sale Procedures Are Consistent With Procedures Other Bankruptcy Courts Have Approved To Sell Residential Property And Similar Assets.

31. The Residential Sale Procedures are also consistent with sale programs numerous bankruptcy courts have tailored to residential real property Portfolio s. See e.g., In re Towers of Channelside, Case No. 08-bk-939-KRM (Bankr. M.D. Fla. Feb. 1 & 15, 2008) [D.E. # 31 & 54]; In re Cabi Downtown LLC, Case No. 09-27168-BKC-LMI (Bankr. S.D. Fla. Aug. 27, 2009) [D.E. #51]; In re TOUSA, Inc., Case No. 08-10928-JKO (Bankr. S.D. Fla. Jan. 31, 2008) [D.E.

#110]; and In re WCI Communities, Inc., Case No. 08-11643-KJC (Bankr. D. Del. Aug. 5, 2008) [D.E. # 61].

32. Other bankruptcy courts have approved procedures to liquidate residential portfolios with many of the same features the Debtor is requesting here, including:

- a. authority to consummate home sales that, like the Pending Sales, were negotiated at arms-length pre-petition;
- b. global procedures for additional marketing and sales of remaining home Portfolios after the petition date;
- c. authority to consummate sales of other homes after “negative notice” to core parties to protect interests of other case stakeholders; and
- d. streamlined timing, including relief from Bankruptcy Rules 6003 and 6004.

33. The Residential Sale Procedures are also consistent with the streamlined rules courts frequently approve for the sale of “ancillary” and “de minimis” assets. See In re Borders Group, Inc., 453 B.R. 477 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011) (approving streamlined asset sale procedures for assets sold at prices up to $1 million); In re Mesa Air Group, Case No. 10-10018-MG (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Feb. 25, 2010) [D.E. #371] (approving streamlined asset sale procedures for assets sold at prices up to $750,000); In re Eastman Kodak Company, et al., Case No. 12-10202-MEW (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Feb. 28, 2012) [D.E. #445] (approving streamlined asset sale procedures for assets sold at prices up to $3 million). As noted, the Debtor’s primary assets include two (2) large former educational campuses that supported its former core business as a private four (4) year college. Bankruptcy courts have routinely recognized the value of simplified procedures to liquidate “non-core” assets that, like the Residential Portfolio, strike an appropriate balance for all stakeholders.

THE RESIDENTIAL PORTFOLIO SHOULD BE SOLD FREE AND CLEAR OF ALL LIENS, CLAIMS, INTERESTS AND ENCUMBRANCES

34. The sales contemplated by this Motion and the proposed Residential Sale Procedures should be free and clear of all liens, claims, interests and encumbrances pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(f). That relief is appropriate for the Residential Portfolio since potential homebuyers may not proceed if the Debtor cannot deliver clean title at closing.

35. Section 363(f) permits sales of property free and clear of liens, claims, interests and encumbrances when any one of five conditions is satisfied, including:

- a. applicable non-bankruptcy law permits sale of such property free and clear of such interest;
- b. the affected entity consents;
- c. such interest is a lien and the price at which such property is to be sold is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on such property;
- d. such interest is in bona fide dispute; or
- e. the affected entity could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest.

See 11 U.S.C. § 363(f).

36. If the Residential Sale Procedures are approved, Section 363(f) will be satisfied as to the Secured Parties, who are consenting to these procedures and will, subject to an order that reflects these procedures, consent to the anticipated sales of the Residential Portfolio. See 11 U.S.C. § 363(f)(2); In re Jones, 548 B.R. 658, 662 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y. 2016) (approving sale free and clear of first mortgagee's lien per mortgagee's consent pursuant to Section 363(f)(2)); In re United Puerto Rican Food Corp., 41 B.R. 565, 574 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1984) (free and clear sale proper if lienholder consents).

37. Section 363(f) will be satisfied as to any other parties that may assert liens, claims, interests or encumbrances against the Residential Portfolio or any portion thereof as well. The Residential Portfolio will be sold, based on the marketing effort, for amounts the Debtor believes, in the exercise of its business judgment, will reflect its fair market value. Further, any interest in the Residential Portfolio asserted by parties other than the Secured Parties is subordinate to the Secured Parties' rights. Unless and until proceeds arising from the sale of the Residential Portfolio are sufficient to satisfy the claims of the Secured Parties in full, any other parties asserting liens are, in fact, unsecured. See In re Chrysler LLC, 405 B.R. 84, 89 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009) (authorizing Section 363 sale because, among other reasons, the liquidation value of the collateral was lower than the sale price and the full value of the collateral was being distributed to the secured lenders).

REQUEST FOR INTERIM RELIEF AND WAIVER OF BANKRUPTCY RULES 6003 AND 6004

38. The Debtor believes interim relief is appropriate (1) to permit the Debtor to consummate six (6) of the eight (8) Pending Sales per the terms of the Pre-Petition Sales Contracts pending entry of a final order on the Motion and (2) to allow the Debtor to continue its existing marketing efforts for the balance of the Residential Portfolio, pending the entry of a final order, with respect to the relief requested herein.

39. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 6003, the Court may permit sales of assets in this case within the first twenty (20) days after the Petition Date when such relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm. See Bankruptcy Rule 6003.

40. Relatedly, the Court may grant relief from Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), which otherwise requires that an order authorizing the sale of property other than cash collateral is stayed until the expiration of fourteen (14) days after entry of the order. See Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

41. The Debtor believes relief from the limitations in Bankruptcy Rules 6003 and 6004(h) - that would otherwise frustrate the relief sought in this Motion - is in the best interest of the Debtor, its creditors and the Debtor's estate.

42. As set forth above, any failure to timely consummate Pending Sales may cause defaults under the Pre-Petition Sales Contracts or otherwise cause the termination of Pending Sales.

43. To strike an appropriate balance between the possibly competing interests of stakeholders, the Debtor is limiting its requests to consummate Pending Sales as part of interim relief to the following parcels where the sale date has already lapsed and where, in at least some cases, the buyer has informed the Debtor it is facing expiration of a rate lock:

Parcel Address:	Contract Price:	Outside Closing Date:
64 Van Bomel Ave.	$323,500	October 6, 2016
138 Central Ave.	$335,000	September 30, 2016
102 Connetquot Ave.	$561,500	September 15, 2016
115 Idle Hour Blvd.	$327,500	November 14, 2016
99 Idle Hour Blvd.	$284,000	November 4, 2016
80 Chateau Blvd.	$295,000	November 4, 2016

44. As is reflected in the First Day Declaration, the Debtor's professionals have informed the Debtor that each of these transactions is at risk already, and any further delay may result in the loss of these opportunities.

45. Failure to approve the Residential Sale Procedures on an interim basis may also harm on-going negotiations regarding the remaining Residential Portfolio by forcing the Debtor and other stakeholders to stand down pending approval by this Court. Perhaps most concerning, as set forth above, any failure to consummate the Pending Sales may jeopardize confidence in the residential broker and buyer community and imperil the disposition process for the Residential Portfolio.

46. Accordingly, the Debtor requests the Court waive Bankruptcy Rule 6003's limitation on asset dispositions during the initial days of this proceeding, and enter an interim order substantially in the form of Exhibit A. The Debtor similarly requests the Court waive Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h)'s stay so that the closing for each of the Residential Portfolio may occur as soon as possible.

MOTION PRACTICE

47. This Motion includes citations to the applicable rules and statutory authorities upon which the relief requested herein is predicated, and a discussion of their application to this motion.

NOTICE

48. As of the filing of this Motion, no trustee, examiner or creditors' committee has been appointed in this Chapter 11 Case. Notice of this Motion will be given to: (a) United States Trustee; (b) the Debtor's material prepetition and post-petition secured lenders or any agent therefore; (c) the holders of the 20 largest unsecured claims; (d) the following taxing and regulatory authorities: (i) the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of New York, (ii) the Attorney General of the State of New York, (iii) United States Department of Education, (iv) New York State Department of Education, (v) the Internal Revenue Service, (vi) the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance, and (vii) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (e) all other parties requesting notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002; (f) all parties who are known to assert a lien, claim, encumbrance or other interests on any portion of the Debtor's assets; and (g) all parties identified by the Debtor as potentially having an interest in acquiring any homes in the Residential Portfolio. The Debtor submits that no other notice need be given.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

49. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE the Debtor respectfully requests that the Court enter an order substantially similar to the proposed order, attached hereto as Exhibit A, (i) authorizing, on an interim basis, the consummation of the six (6) Pending Sales described herein free and clear of all liens, claims, interests and encumbrances; (ii) establishing, on an interim basis, the Residential Sale Procedures to continue to market and negotiate (but not, pending entry of a final order, consummate) sales for the Residential Portfolio, free and clear of all liens, claims, interests and encumbrances; (iii) scheduling a final hearing on the Motion; (iv) waiving the requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 6003 and 6004 as set forth herein; (v) entering a final order, substantially in the form of the Interim Order; and (vi) granting such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

(c) If there is a water meter on the Premises, Seller shall furnish a reading to a date not more than 30 days before Closing and the unfixed meter charge and sewer rent, if any, shall be apportioned on the basis of such last reading.

(d) If at the date of Closing the Premises are affected by an assessment which is or may become payable in annual installments, and the first installment is then a lien, or has been paid, then for the purposes of this contract all the unpaid installments shall be considered due and shall be paid by Seller at or prior to Closing.

(e) Any errors or omissions in computing apportionments or other adjustments at Closing shall be corrected within a reasonable time following Closing. This subparagraph shall survive Closing.

19. Allowance for Unpaid Taxes, etc. Seller has the option to credit Purchaser as an adjustment to the purchase price with the amount of any unpaid taxes, assessments, water charges and sewer rents, together with any interest and penalties thereon to a date not less than five business days after Closing, provided that official bills therefor computed to said date are produced at Closing.

20. Use or Purchase Price to Remove Encumbrances. If at Closing there are other liens or encumbrances that Seller is obligated to pay or discharge, Seller may use any portion of the cash balance of the purchase price to pay or discharge them, provided Seller shall simultaneously deliver to Purchaser at Closing instruments in recordable form and sufficient to satisfy such liens or encumbrances of record, together with the cost of recording or filing said instruments. As an alternative Seller may deposit sufficient monies with the title insurance company employed by Purchaser acceptable to and required by it to assure their discharge, but only if the title insurance company will insure Purchaser's title clear of the matters or insure against their enforcement out of the Premises and will insure Purchaser's Institutional Lender clear or such matters. Upon reasonable prior notice (by telephone or otherwise), Purchaser shall provide separate certified or official bank checks as requested to assist in clearing up these matters.

21. The Examination; Seller's Inability to Convey; Limitations of Liability. (a) Purchaser shall order an examination of title in respect of the Premises from a title company licensed or authorized to issue title insurance by the New York State Insurance Department or any agent for such title company promptly after the execution of this contract or, ~~if this contract is subject to the mortgage contingency set forth in paragraph 8, after~~

~~a mortgage commitment has been accepted by Purchaser.~~ Purchaser shall cause a copy of the title report and of any additions thereto to be delivered to the attorney(s) for Seller promptly after receipt thereof.

(b)(i) If at the date of Closing Seller is unable to transfer title to Purchaser in accordance with this contract, or Purchaser has other valid grounds for refusing to close, whether by reason of liens, encumbrances or other objections to title or otherwise (herein collectively called "Defects"), other than those subject to which Purchaser is obligated to accept title hereunder or which Purchaser may have waived and other than those which Seller has herein expressly agreed to remove, remedy or discharge and if Purchaser shall be unwilling to waive the same and to close title without abatement of the purchase price, then, except as hereinafter set forth, Seller shall have the right, at Seller's sole election, either to take such action as Seller may deem advisable to remove, remedy, discharge or comply with such Defects or to cancel this contract; (ii) if Seller elects to take action to remove, remedy or comply with such Defects, Seller shall be entitled from time to time, upon Notice to Purchaser, to adjourn the date for Closing hereunder for a period or periods not exceeding 15 days in the aggregate (but not extending beyond the date upon which Purchaser's mortgage commitment, if any, shall expire), and the date for Closing shall be adjourned to a date specified by Seller not beyond such period. If for any reason whatsoever, Seller shall not have succeeded in removing, remedying or complying with such Defects at the expiration of such adjournment(s), and if Purchaser shall still be unwilling to waive the same and to close title without abatement of the purchase price, then either party may cancel this contract by Notice to the other given within 10 days after such adjourned date; (iii) notwithstanding the foregoing, the existing mortgage (unless this sale is subject to the same) and any matter created by Seller after the date hereof shall be released, discharged or otherwise cured by Seller at or prior to Closing.

(c) If this contract is cancelled pursuant to its terms, other than as a result of Purchaser's default, this contract shall terminate and come to an end, and neither party shall have any further rights, obligations or liabilities against or to the other hereunder or otherwise, except that: (i) Seller shall promptly refund or cause the Escrowee to refund the Downpayment to Purchaser and, unless cancelled as a result of Purchaser's default or pursuant to paragraph 8, to reimburse Purchaser for the net cost of examination of title, including any appropriate additional charges related thereto, and the net cost, if actually paid or incurred by Purchaser, for updating the existing survey of the Premises or of a new survey, and (ii) the obligations under paragraph 27 shall survive the termination of this contract.

22. Affidavit as to Judgments, Bankruptcies, etc. If a title examination discloses judgments, bankruptcies or other returns against persons having names the same as or similar to that of Seller, Seller shall deliver an affidavit at Closing showing that they are not against Seller.

23. Defaults and Remedies. (a) If Purchaser defaults hereunder, Seller's sole remedy shall be to receive and retain the Downpayment as liquidated damages, it being agreed that Seller's damages in case of Purchaser's default might be impossible to ascertain and that the Downpayment constitutes a fair and reasonable amount of damages under the circumstances and is not a penalty.

(b) If Seller defaults hereunder, Purchaser shall have such remedies as Purchaser shall be entitled to at law or in equity, including, but not limited to, specific performance.

24. Purchaser's Lien. All money paid on account of this contract, and the reasonable expenses of examination of title to the

Each Notice mailed shall be deemed given on the third business day following the date of mailing the same, except that any notice to Escrowee shall be deemed given only upon receipt by Escrowee and each Notice delivered in person or by overnight courier shall be deemed given when delivered, or

(c) with respect to ¶7 (b) or ¶20, sent by fax to the party’s attorney. Each Notice by fax shall be deemed given when transmission is confirmed by the sender’s fax machine. A copy of each Notice sent to a party shall also be sent to the party’s attorney. The attorneys for the parties are hereby authorized to give and receive on behalf of their clients all Notices and deliveries.

26. No Assignment. This contract may not be assigned by Purchaser without the prior written consent of Seller in each instance and any purported assignment(s) made without such consent shall be void.

27. Broker. Seller and Purchaser each represents and warrants to the other that it has not dealt with any broker in connection with this sale other than: Douglas Elliman Real Estate (“Broker”) and Seller shall pay Broker any commission earned pursuant to a separate agreement between Seller and Broker. Seller and Purchaser shall indemnify and defend each other against any costs, claims and expenses, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, arising out of the breach on their respective parts of any representation or agreement contained in this paragraph. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive Closing or, if Closing does not occur, the termination of this contract.

28. Miscellaneous. (a) All prior understandings, agreements, representations and warranties, oral or written, between Seller and Purchaser are merged in this contract; it completely expresses their full agreement and has been entered into after full investigation, neither party relying upon any statement made by anyone else that is not set forth in this contract.

(f) Seller and Purchaser shall comply with IRC reporting requirements, if applicable. This Subparagraph shall survive Closing.

(g) Each party shall, at any time and from time to time, execute, acknowledge where appropriate and deliver such further instruments and documents and take such other action as may be reasonably requested by the other in order to carry out the intent and purpose of this contract. This subparagraph shall survive Closing.

(h) This contract is intended for the exclusive benefit of the parties hereto and, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, shall not be for the benefit of, and shall not create any rights in, or be enforceable by, any other person or entity.
