In re: Manana Restaurant 2 LLC — Bky File No. 26-32517
Chapter 11

Debtor.

ORDER AUTHORIZING INTERIM USE OF CASH COLLATERAL AND GRANTING ADEQUATE PROTECTION

This case came on for hearing on the Expedited Hearing and for Interim and Final Orders Authorizing Use of Cash Collateral and Granting Adequate Protection filed by Manana Restaurant 2, LLC ("Debtor"). Based on the motion and the file and having determined that the Debtor's offer of adequate protection constitutes adequate protection of the secured parties' interests under 11 U.S.C. §§ 361 and 363,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Debtor's motion is granted.

2. The Debtor's request for expedited relief is granted.

3. The Debtor is authorized to use cash collateral in accordance with the terms of the projections filed in support of the Motion through the Interim Period.

4. The Debtor is authorized and directed to grant adequate protection to CRF Small Business Loan Company, LLC on the terms set forth in the motion. The replacement liens granted by the Debtor to those claimants claiming an interest in cash collateral shall have the same dignity, priority and effect as their respective prepetition interests, if any.

5. The adequate protection payments offered in the motion may be made by the Debtor to CRF Small Business Loan Company, LLC.

6. Those certain existing deposit agreements between the Debtors and its existing depository and disbursement banks (collectively, the “Banks") shall continue to govern the post-petition cash management relationship between the Debtors and the Banks, and that all of the provisions of such agreements, including, without limitation, the termination and fee provisions, shall remain in full force and effect;

7. Each of the Debtor’s Banks are authorized to debit the Debtor’s accounts in the ordinary course of business without the need for further order of this Court for: (i) all checks drawn on the Debtor’s accounts which are cashed at such Bank’s counters or exchanged for cashier’s checks by the payees thereof prior to the Petition Date of August 3, 2026; (ii) all checks or other items deposited in one of Debtor’s accounts with such Bank prior to the Petition Date which have been dishonored or returned unpaid for any reason, together with any fees and costs in connection therewith, to the same extent the Debtor was responsible for such items prior to the Petition Date; and (iii) all undisputed prepetition amounts outstanding as of the date hereof, if any, owed to any Bank as service charges for the maintenance of the Cash Management System;

8. Any of the Debtor’s Banks may rely on the representations of the Debtor with respect to whether any check or other payment order drawn or issued by the Debtor prior to the Petition Date should be honored pursuant to this or any other order of this Court, and such Bank shall not have any liability to any party for relying on such representations by the Debtor as provided for herein;

9. Either the Debtor or the Banks may, without further Order of this Court, implement changes to the cash management systems and procedures in the ordinary course of business pursuant to terms of those certain existing deposit agreements, including, without limitation, the opening and closing of bank accounts."

10. Except to the extent specifically set forth herein, all objections to the entry of this Order are hereby overruled.

11. The final hearing authorizing use of cash collateral will be heard Tuesday, September 8, 2026, at 2:00 p.m. in Courtroom 2B, 316 North Robert Street, St. Paul, MN 55101, or via Webex at
