In re:	Case No. 26-bk-16091
Quick Prints, LLC	Chapter 11, Subchapter V
Debtor. /

FINAL ORDER GRANTING DEBTOR'S
EMERGENCY MOTION FOR AUTHORIZATION TO USE CASH COLLATERAL

THIS CASE came on for hearing on June 16, 2026, at 1:30 p.m. ("Hearing") on consideration of the Emergency Motion for Authorization to Use Cash Collateral (Doc. No. 12) ("Motion") filed by Quick Prints, LLC, the above-captioned debtor and debtor in possession ("Debtor"), and the Interim Orders Granting Debtor's Emergency Motion for Authorization to Use Cash Collateral (Doc. No. 33 and 46). For the reasons stated at the Hearing and recorded in open court, which shall constitute the Court's decision as set forth herein, it is

ORDERED:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on a final basis as set forth herein.

2. Cash Collateral Authorization. Subject to the provisions of this Order, the Debtor is authorized to use cash collateral as defined in the Motion. This authorization will continue until further order of the Court. Except as authorized in this Order, the Debtor is prohibited from using cash collateral. However, expenditures in excess of the line items in the budget or not on the budget will not be deemed to be unauthorized use of cash collateral, unless the recipient cannot establish that the expense would be entitled to administrative expense priority if the recipient had extended credit for the expenditure.

3. Debtor Obligations. The Debtor shall timely perform all obligations of a debtor in possession required by the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the orders of the Court.

4. Replacement Liens. The U.S. Small Business Administration ("SBA"), and any other secured creditor (collectively, "Secured Creditors"), shall have perfected post-petition replacement liens against the prepetition collateral to the same extent and with the same validity and priority as their alleged prepetition liens, without the need to file or execute any document as may otherwise be required under applicable non-bankruptcy law.

5. Superpriority Claims. Subject to Bankruptcy Code section 507(b), the Secured Creditors shall have allowed superpriority administrative expense claims to the extent that the Adequate Protection provided herein is insufficient to protect the Secured Creditors against diminution in value of their interests in the Cash Collateral resulting from the Debtor's use thereof.

6. Reporting. The Debtor shall provide to the Secured Creditors: (i) monthly operating reports of cash receipts and disbursements, and (ii) such additional information reasonably requested regarding the Debtor's operating performance and liquidity, subject to confidentiality and privilege considerations.

7. Insurance. The Debtor shall maintain insurance coverage customarily maintained in the ordinary course for its property in accordance with its obligations under the loan and security documents with the SBA.

8. Without Prejudice. This Order is without prejudice to: (i) any subsequent request by a party in interest to modify adequate protection or restrictions on use of cash collateral; (ii) any other right or remedy which may be available to any creditor; and (iii) any challenges by the Debtor as to the validity, priority, or extent of any lien(s) asserted by any creditor in the above-captioned bankruptcy case.

9. Creditors Committee. The provisions of this Order are without prejudice to the rights of the U.S. Trustee to appoint a committee or any rights of a duly appointed committee to challenge the validity, priority or extent of any lien(s) asserted against collateral.

10. Enforcement. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this Order.

11. Immediate Effect. This Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon entry, and the 14-day stay period contemplated in Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, shall not apply.
