¹ Marc S. Kirschner served as Chapter 11 Trustee (the "RCM Trustee") of Refco Capital Markets, Ltd. ("RCM") from April 12, 2006, until his discharge as RCM Trustee by order of the Bankruptcy Court entered on April 12, 2007. NOTE 1—Petition for Relief under Chapter 11

On October 17, 2005, Refco Inc. and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates each filed a petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Court"). Refco Inc. filed jointly with the following direct and indirect subsidiaries: Bersec International LLC, Kroeck & Associates LLC, Marshall Metals, LLC, New Refco Group Ltd., LLC, Refco Administration, LLC, Refco Capital Management, LLC, Refco Capital Markets, Ltd., Refco Capital Trading LLC, Refco Capital LLC, Refco Capital Holdings, LLC, Refco F/X Associates, LLC, Refco Finance Inc., Refco Financial, LLC, Refco Fixed Assets Management, LLC, Refco Global Capital Management LLC, Refco Global Finance Limited, Refco Global Futures, LLC, Refco Global Holdings, LLC, Refco Group Ltd., LLC, Refco Information Services, LLC, Refco Mortgage Securities, LLC, Refco Regulated Companies, LLC, and Summit Management, LLC (collectively, the "Initial Debtors"). On June 5, 2006 three additional subsidiaries and affiliates (Westminster-Refco Management LLC ("Westminster"), Refco Managed Futures, LLC ("Futures"), and Lind-Waldock Securities LLC ("Lind-Waldock")) filed petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and on October 16, 2006 one additional subsidiary and affiliate (Refco Commodity Management, Inc. ("RCMI")) filed a petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (together Westminster, Futures, Lind-Waldock, and RCMI the "Additional Debtors") (the Initial Debtors and the Additional Debtors, collectively, the "Debtors"). On June 9, 2006 and November 15, 2006, the Court entered orders authorizing the joint administration of the Additional Debtors' cases with the Initial Debtors' cases. The Debtors remain in possession of their assets and properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code for all cases, except Refco Capital Markets, Ltd. (05-60018), in which a Chapter 11 trustee has been appointed. Certain subsidiaries of Refco Inc., consisting principally of its regulated subsidiaries, are not debtors (collectively, the "Non-Debtors") in this bankruptcy proceeding.

NOTE 2—Effectiveness of Plan of Reorganization

On December 15, 2006, the Court entered an order (the "Confirmation Order") confirming the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Refco, Inc. and Certain of its Direct and Indirect Subsidiaries (the "Plan"). The Plan became effective on December 26, 2006 (the "Effective Date"). Pursuant to the Confirmation Order, RJM, LLC was appointed Plan Administrator of Reorganized Refco, as defined under Section 1.194 of the Plan (the "Refco Plan Administrator") and Mr. Kirschner was appointed RCM Plan Administrator. Capitalized terms herein and not defined or otherwise referenced herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Plan.

NOTE 3—Basis of Presentation

On October 9, 2005, after consultation by the Audit Committee with Refco Inc.'s ("Refco") independent accountants, Refco determined that its financial statements, as of, and for the periods ended, February 28, 2002, February 28, 2003, February 28, 2004, February 28, 2005, and May 31, 2005, taken as a whole, for each of Refco Inc., Refco Group Ltd., LLC and Refco Finance Inc. should no longer be relied upon. As a result of these events, Refco is unable to issue financial statements at the time of this filing. In lieu of presenting comprehensive financial statements, Refco has prepared the attached Schedule of Cash Receipts and Disbursements by Debtor. This statement has been prepared on the cash basis of accounting. This schedule eliminates certain intercompany payments (i.e. between the Debtors and other Refco entities) and intra-company transfers (i.e. transfers between different accounts held by the same Debtor) made by the Debtors as these transfers have been made to facilitate and effectuate the provisions of the Plan and do not constitute distributions of the Debtors' assets to third parties.

("RCMI"), RCMI was merged into Refco Inc. and the Debtors finalized the liquidation of Refco Global Finance Limited, a Bermuda Company. 1. The RCC serves as the paying agent for certain Non-Debtors.
2. The $4,000 in receipts for RCM includes interest income. During the second quarter, the Contributing Debtors made an interim distribution of the RCM Cash Distribution of $11.6 million to RCM. Emergence to Date, the Contributing Debtors have distributed $612.9 million to RCM, net of $15 million RCM Wind-Down Reserve. RCM's $1.1 million in disbursements includes distributions to creditors ($893,000) and payment of operating expenses, including professional fees. Cash balances at June 30, 2010 and March 31, 2010 included approximately $1.6 million and $2.0 million, respectively, related to outstanding checks from the Interim Distributions of Assets in Place and Additional Property. The June 30, 2010 cash balance also included the 502(h) Special Reserve, as defined in the Eighth Interim Distribution of Additional Property, of $3.0 million and the Disputed Claims Reserve of approximately $1.6 million. On February 24, 2010, the Bankruptcy Court approved the RCM Plan Administrator's Motion to distribute the 502(h) Special Reserve. The reserve will be distributed accordingly in the next Interim Distribution of Additional Property.
3. The $1.52 million in receipts for Refco Capital LLC consists of distributions received from non-Debtor Singapore entities ($1.5 million) and recoveries of miscellaneous assets, including interest income. Intercompany disbursements represent an interim distribution to RCM of the RCM Cash Distribution ($11.6 million). The $858,000 in disbursements includes the payment of operating expenses. In December 2009, RCM and the Contributing Debtors entered into an agreement with Refco, LLC whereby Refco, LLC distributed substantially all its excess cash reserves to the Contributing Debtors. In return, RCM and the Contributing Debtors agreed that the Contributing Debtors would no longer allocate certain estate costs, including document storage, to Refco, LLC. As a result, the Contributing Debtors increased the reserve for wind-down costs for the amounts, which would have been otherwise allocable to, and paid by, Refco, LLC. Disbursements during the quarter include approximately $335,000 of costs, which would have been allocable to Refco, LLC. The cash balances at June 30, 2010 and March 31, 2010 include Reserves for Disputed Claims and wind-down costs.
4. The $1,000 in receipts for Refco F/X Associates, LLC represents interest income. $1.66 million in disbursements represents catch-up payments to claims allowed during the quarter ($1.58 million) as well as operating expenses and professional fees.
5. The $4,000 in disbursements represents payments made on account of the Eighth Interim Distribution to Allowed Contributing Debtor Class 5a Unsecured Claims. Cash at June 30, 2010 and March 31, 2010 included $13,700 and $17,700, respectively, in outstanding checks from the 8th Interim Distribution to Allowed Claims.
