ORDER AUTHORIZING CONTINUED USE OF CASH COLLATERAL[Ref. Dkt. No. 4]

CAME ON THIS DAY, the Debtors' Joint Motion for Continued Use of Cash Collateral, and the Court, having considered the pleadings on file and argument of counsel, it is:

ORDERED that the Debtors are authorized to use their cash collateral subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Order for necessary business expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business in the categories and amounts listed in the attached Exhibit "A" pending further order of this court, and that any amounts listed in the budget for any period that are unused in any category may be used in another category for any subsequent period so long as the total amount of expenses is not exceeded; and it is further

ORDERED that any lender with a valid lien and security interest in the collateral owned by the Debtors (collectively “Lenders”), shall continue to have the same liens, encumbrances and security interests in the cash collateral generated or created post filing, plus all proceeds, products, accounts, or profits thereof, as existed prior to the filing date (the “Adequate Protection Liens”); and it is further

ORDERED that the Debtors will continue to keep all collateral of the Lenders fully insured against all loss, peril, and hazard with substantially similar coverage as in the past; it is further

ORDERED that, at the request of a Lender, the Debtors will provide to the Lenders copies of all insurance policies currently in force; it is further

ORDERED that the Debtors shall keep the Lenders’ collateral free and clear of post-petition liens, encumbrances, and security interests except for such claims as may accrue but are not currently owed such as ad valorem and similar taxes; provided, however, that nothing in this Interim Order shall prohibit the Debtors from seeking credit pursuant to section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; and it is further ORDERED that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Adequate Protection Liens are subject and subordinate to a carve-out of funds (the “Carve Out”) for all fees required to be paid to: (i) the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, (ii) the Office of the United States Trustee pursuant to Section 1930(a) of Title 28, United States Code, and (iii) all fees and expenses of the Debtors’ counsel approved by the Court. However, the Carve Out shall not be construed as a claim against the Lenders nor as a lien or other encumbrance on any of the Debtors’ real property or tangible personal property; and it is further

ORDERED that all of the Lenders' rights under the loan documents, applicable non-bankruptcy law, and the Bankruptcy Code are hereby reserved; and it is further
