

Schedule A¹

1. Any documents, analysis, or internal reports regarding leverage, liquidity and dividend policies at Halla Korea;
2. Halla Korea historical financial statements and quarterly/annual reports, 2006 to present;
3. Halla Korea cash flow and balance sheet forecasts that tie to the Debtors' consolidated model;
4. Halla Korea business plan(s), including, but not limited to, 2006 to present – including income statement, balance sheet, and cash flow statement(s);
5. Any documents reflecting the amount of debt at Halla Korea (specifically, the amount, maturity, interest rate and amortization);
6. Any analyses that shows that Halla Korea cannot support more debt;
7. Any analyses concluding that increases in Halla Korea's debt capacity were not feasible due to the following: customer concerns; market perception; tax consequences; minority shareholder issues; and/or director liability;
8. Any documents with respect to allocation of Visteon's U.S. overhead that will be charged to Halla Korea from present – 2013;
9. Anticipated Halla Korea dividends to Visteon, annually, from present – 2013;
10. All customer, supplier or other agreements between Halla Korea and Hyundai-Kia, from 2006 - present;
11. All communications between Halla Korea and Hyundai-Kia, or Halla Korea and Visteon relating to leverage, liquidity and debt capacity for Halla Korea;
12. All communications between Halla Korea and Hyundai-Kia, or Halla Korea and Visteon regarding dividends from Halla Korea;
13. All communications between Halla Korea and Hyundai-Kia, or Halla Korea and Visteon regarding the potential sale of any Visteon ownership interest in Halla Korea;
14. All communications between Halla Korea and Hyundai-Kia, or Halla Korea and Visteon regarding the reorganization of the Debtors; and

15. All documentation relating to Hyundai-Kia's expectations for the financial condition / liquidity / capital structure / leverage of Halla Korea.

Schedule B

1. Halla Korea's financial condition, liquidity, capital structure, projections and leverage;
2. Halla Korea's policies regarding dividends and leverage;
3. Halla Korea's relationship with Hyundai-Kia; and
4. Visteon's Plan, including but not limited to, discussions with Visteon regarding cash repatriation and dividends from Halla Korea.