Case No. 16-20056

DIME SAVINGS BANK AND
RCN CAPITAL, LLC
Respondents

SEPTEMBER 29, 2016

INTERIM ORDER AUTHORIZING USE OF CASH COLLATERAL AND PROVIDING ADEQUATE PROTECTION PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. SECTION 363(c)(2)(B)

THIS MATTER came before the Court upon the Debtor's Motion for Interim Authority to Use Cash Collateral, the Court having considered arguments of counsel and all interested parties present before the Court, there being no objection to the relief sought, and there being due and sufficient notice therefor for use of cash collateral, the Court makes the following findings and conclusions:

1. On January 15, 2016 Nautilus Development, Inc. (hereafter the "Debtor"), filed a voluntary petition for the relief afforded by Chapter II, Title 11, U.S.C. Section 1101, et seq., in this Court. In accordance with Section 1107 and Section 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtor was authorized to continue to operate and manage its business as a Debtor-In-Possession. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in these proceedings.

2. It is essential to the Debtor's business and operations to use cash generated from its rental payments from its properties so as to continue to pay ordinary course business expenses. Without court authority to use the cash collateral, the Debtor will suffer harm and be forced to terminate operations and abort any chance for successful reorganization. The absence of authority to use cash collateral will more than likely result in terminated operations and the loss of the going concern value to the Debtor's estate.

3. A. Secured creditor Dime Bank, a/k/a Dime Savings Bank claims a duly perfected non-avoidable first position security interest in certain of the Debtor's real properties located in Groton, North Stonington and Preston Connecticut. This includes cash collateral associated with the real properties as defined at 11 USC 363(a), "cash collateral". Debtor does not contest the assertion of the security interest in the real properties and the associated cash collateral."

B. Secured creditor RCN Capital, LLC has claimed a duly perfected non-avoidable security interest in the Debtor's property in Groton, Connecticut. This includes cash collateral associated with the real properties as defined at 11 USC 363(a), "cash collateral". Debtor does not contest the assertion of the security interest in the real properties and the associated cash collateral."

4. This Court finds that it is in the best interest of the Debtor, the secured creditors and all creditors and parties in interest, and to avoid harm to the Debtor, that the use by the Debtor of the secured creditor's cash collateral on the terms and conditions set forth herein, be approved, and the court hereby concludes as follows:

a. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 363 (c) (2) (B), and subject to the further terms and condition set forth herein, the Debtor is hereby authorized to use cash collateral on a interim basis, which cash collateral the Debtor concedes is subject to the security interests of Dime Savings Bank. The Debtor may use cash collateral to meet all necessary business expenses incurred in the ordinary course of its business and U.S. Trustee's statutory fees. The use of cash collateral is necessary to continue the operations and for the benefit of the estate.

b. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 363 (c) (2) (B), and subject to the further terms and condition set forth herein, the Debtor is hereby authorized to use cash collateral on a interim basis, which cash collateral the Debtor concedes is subject to the security interests of RCN Capital, LLC. The Debtor may use cash collateral to meet all necessary business expenses incurred in the ordinary course of its business and U.S. Trustee's statutory fees. The use of cash collateral is necessary to continue the operations and for the benefit of the estate.

c. In exchange for use of cash collateral by the Debtor said secured creditor, Dime Savings Bank is hereby granted replacement liens as provided in 11 U.S.C. Section 361 (2) in all after-acquired property of the Debtor from this property, and that said liens shall be of equal extent and priority to that which Dime Savings Bank enjoyed with regard to the said property at the time the Debtor filed its Chapter 11 petition.
