STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. 3. Charges. We will normally charge for services based upon the type of services rendered and the reasonable value of those services. Although time is the primary consideration, other factors including time limitations imposed by you or circumstances, the novelty and difficulty of the questions, the experience, reputation and ability of the lawyer performing those services, the amount involved, the results obtained and other considerations may affect the charges for our services. At the present time our hourly rates for attorney's time range from $300.00 per hour to $420.00 per hour. Where appropriate we will attempt to use paralegal services which are billed at a rate lower than those for attorney services. We will expect prompt payment upon the issuance of statements for services and costs.

Payment of that billing is due upon your receipt of our invoice. However, once a bankruptcy proceeding is commenced future payments will necessarily be subject to the approval of applications to the bankruptcy court seeking approval of the same in accordance with Bankruptcy Code requirements. Those applications may occur periodically or at the conclusion of the case. . We are requesting a retainer of $25,000.00 to be paid prior to the commencement of the bankruptcy proceedings. We are asking for an initial retainer of $5,000.00 (as part of and not in addition to the $25,000.00 request) to commence work on the preparation of the filings. It will be applied against any outstanding legal fees and costs and expenses at the time services are completed and it may be applied as credit, at our sole discretion or as the bankruptcy court directs, or on interim statements and will be applied against any final invoice on the matter. Any unused portion will be refunded to you. In the event that any portion of the requested retainer is applied against an interim invoice, we retain the right to request that the retainer be refreshed.

6. Review of Statements. To minimize the likelihood of errors or misunderstandings, you agree to review each statement promptly and advise us of any questions or disagreements you may have regarding it. Absent such advice within thirty (30) days after rendering the statement, it is understood and agreed that you will be deemed to have reviewed the statement and accept it as correct.

7. Collection Procedures. In the event of non-payment, it is our practice to refer the matter to other attorneys for collection. If we or if we institute proceedings ourselves, we shall be entitled to costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

8. Arbitration. In the event of a conflict between us with respect to the Legal Services or the billings and charges therefore, including but not limited to claims of errors or
