Schedule A/B: Assets - Real and Personal Property

12/15

Disclose all property, real and personal, which the debtor owns or in which the debtor has any other legal, equitable, or future interest. Include all property in which the debtor holds rights and powers exercisable for the debtor's own benefit. Also include assets and properties which have no book value, such as fully depreciated assets or assets that were not capitalized. In Schedule A/B, list any executory contracts or unexpired leases. Also list them on Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (Official Form 206G).

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. At the top of any pages added, write the debtor's name and case number (if known). Also identify the form and line number to which the additional information applies. If an additional sheet is attached, include the amounts from the attachment in the total for the pertinent part.

For Part 1 through Part 11, list each asset under the appropriate category or attach separate supporting schedules, such as a fixed asset schedule or depreciation schedule, that gives the details for each asset in a particular category. List each asset only once. In valuing the debtor's interest, do not deduct the value of secured claims. See the instructions to understand the terms used in this form.

Attention: Mr. Jim Becker

Re: Retention of Our Law Firm

Dear Mr. Becker

It is with pleasure getting to speak with you Yesterday regarding our firm's willingness to perform certain legal services described below. Subject to the terms herein set forth, it is our understanding that our engagement as your attorney is for the purpose of representing J. Becker Management, Inc. and its affiliated entities ("JBM") in the matters relating to its financial predicament and possibly any proceeding to be commenced, if deemed necessary an appropriate by both our firm and yours (the "Legal Services".)

Rendering the Legal Services, it is important that both the attorney and the client understand the terms of the engagement and what each anticipates from the other. It is our understanding and expectation that the following will be applicable to the lawyer/client relationship between us unless subsequently provided to the contrary in writing:

1. Scope and Assignment of Duties. The scope of our duties will include the representation of JBM with regard to representing you in determining the appropriate method for negotiating debt relief for the several entities after taking into account their incorporation status and financial condition and other generally required matters arising therefrom. We will attempt deliver these services in an efficient manner whenever possible. This engagement does not include services which may require representation in adversary proceedings which must be agreed upon separately, if that need shall arise.

2. Termination of Engagement. You may terminate our engagement for any reason, whatsoever, upon written notice to us. Upon termination and upon payment of our fees, we will deliver to you such of your papers and property as you request; however, we will retain our own files. You will be expected to pay any costs which we may reasonably incur on your behalf. Termination of our services will not affect your responsibility to pay for our legal services rendered and all out of pocket disbursements incurred up to the date of termination and for the purpose of delivering your files to you.

3. Charges. We will normally charge for services based upon the type of services rendered and the reasonable value of those services. Although time is the primary consideration, other factors, including time limitations imposed by you or your circumstances, the novelty and difficulty of the questions, the experience, reputation and ability of the lawyer performing those services, the amount involved, the results obtained, and other considerations may affect the charge for our services. We cannot assess at this time exactly what services will be employed, so we cannot provide any further fee assessment or agreements at this time. Of course, those will be discussed and agreed upon as we navigate through the process.

4. Standard Billing and Payment Procedures. In accordance with our practices, we request a retainer prior to commencing work on your case which will be credited against the fees above and below described, either against future billings or as security to payment as we, in our sole discretion, determine. We request an initial retainer of $2,000 upon the signing of this agreement. We will keep track of our time and invoice you, not more than monthly based upon our customary hourly rates, which may be modified annually, customary in January of the following year. Our present hourly rates are $475.00 for me and $375.00 for Jonathan. If we employ associates for the purpose of assisting on your case, their hourly rates will not exceed ours as published here.

5. Arbitration. In the event of a conflict between us with respect to the Legal Services or the billings and charges therefore, including but not limited to claims of errors or omissions, the same shall be submitted to binding arbitration in Chicago, Illinois, pursuant to the Rules of the America Arbitration Association.

Depending on which Chapter is ultimately employed it will be necessary for you to sign another retainer agreement to be filed with court. Its terms are intended to be similar to those contained in this letter

We are most pleased to have the opportunity to represent you. If this letter accurately confirms your understanding and agreement of the terms of our engagement, please so signify the same by executing a copy of this letter and returning it to us along with the payment of the requested retainer and we will commence our work and research of the law and facts upon receipt of the data we have requested.

Very truly yours,

THE GOLDING LAW OFFICES, P.C.
