SUMMARY OF THE PLANS

JD Holdings¹ has proposed its Joint and Consolidated Chapter 11 Plans of Reorganization for all Debtors (the “Plans”).² This Disclosure Statement contains information relating to the history of the Debtors and their business operations, events which occurred during the Chapter 11 Cases, and a summary of the Plans and their terms, and the actions Debtors need to take to effectuate the Plans.

The Plans provide for a sale of the Debtors’ Assets (including Equity Interests) free and clear of Liens and Claims (except as set forth in the Plans) pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 105, 363, 365 and 1129 (among others) to JD Holdings pursuant to the APA. In consideration, JD Holdings shall pay all Allowed Claims in full in Cash on the Effective Date, except for any Assumed Loans (whether assumed pursuant to the terms of existing agreements or new agreements, which shall be paid in accordance with their terms), and contribute certain Cash and Non-Hotel Assets to a new Charitable Trust to honor Mr. Hammons’ charitable intent (in an amount that would increase if Debtors cease their attacks on JD Holdings and cooperate in Confirmation and implementation of the Plans).

There are no contingencies to the implementation of the Plans after Confirmation.

Because all Holders of Allowed Claims are Unimpaired, they are deemed to accept the Plans, and no voting on the Plans is required. Similarly, because all Equity Interests shall remain outstanding and be transferred to JD Holdings, such Equity Interests are Unimpaired and are deemed to accept the Plans, such that no voting on the Plans is required. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any party in interest may object to Confirmation.

¹ Capitalized terms in this Disclosure Statement have the same meaning as set forth in Section I.A and other provisions of the Plans. The rules of construction set forth in Section I.B of the Plans are incorporated herein by reference. To the extent there is any conflict or inconsistency between this Disclosure Statement and the Plans, the Plans shall govern.

² In an abundance of caution, JD Holdings states that the submission of the Plans and this Disclosure Statement is not intended to be, and should not be construed as, an admission that venue in the Bankruptcy Court is proper with respect to any current or future proceedings that may arise in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, the 2005 Transaction, or the ROFR.

I. INTRODUCTION

JD Holdings submits this Disclosure Statement pursuant to section 1125(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for use in consideration of the Plans. A copy of the Plans is attached hereto as Appendix 1 and incorporated herein by reference.

This Disclosure Statement contains summaries of the Plans and certain information related to the Plans, certain statutory provisions, and certain events that have occurred and circumstances that have existed before and during the Chapter 11 Cases.

II. DEBTORS AND RELATED ENTITIES

A. Debtor Entities

The JQH Trust, either directly or indirectly, owns 100% of the Equity Interests in each of the other 75 Debtors. A list of all Debtors is attached hereto as Appendix 2 and incorporated herein by reference.

B. JQH Non-Debtor Entities

Based upon information provided by the Debtors, JD Holdings understands that the JQH Trust also holds, directly or indirectly, equity interests approximately 30 JQH Non-Debtor Entities. A list of all JQH Non-Debtor Entities is attached hereto as Appendix 3 and incorporated herein by reference.

III. HISTORY OF THE DEBTORS AND EVENTS LEADING TO COMMENCEMENT OF THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

A. Overview of the Debtors' Prepetition Business Operations

The Debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases consist of the JQH Trust and 75 of its directly or indirectly wholly-owned Affiliates. The JQH Trust is administered by two successor trustees – the long-time business colleague of John Q. Hammons and Chief Executive Officer of John Q. Hammons Hotels Management, LLC (“JQH Management”), Jacqueline Dowdy, and Gregory Groves, Senior Vice President and General Counsel of JQH Management. The Debtors state that their business operations are divided into the ownership and operation of the Hotel Assets owned in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by the JQH Trust (collectively, the “Hotel Operations”), and the ownership and operation of the Non-Hotel Assets owned in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by the JQH Trust (collectively, the “JQH Trust Operations”).

1. The Hotel Operations

The JQH Trust and certain Debtors own or lease the Hotel Assets. The Hotel Assets are located in Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia. Several of the Hotels Assets include large convention centers and some Hotel Assets include other amenities. The Hotel Assets are comprised of approximately 8,400 guest rooms and more than one million square feet of meeting space.

The Hotels Assets are operated under various hotel brands pursuant to franchise agreements with Hilton Worldwide (Embassy Suites by Hilton), Marriott International (Marriott, Renaissance, Courtyard by Marriott, Residence Inn, and Sheraton) and Intercontinental Hotel Group (Holiday Inn Express), except for two Hotel Assets that are operated independently without a franchise with a third-party brand.

JQH Management, a Debtor and wholly-owned Affiliate of the JQH Trust, operates and manages the Hotel Assets. JQH Management employs more than 4,000 people in connection with the Hotel Operations. Most of the employees are located at the Hotel Assets, but some management employees are located regionally or at JQH Management's offices in Springfield, Missouri.

In addition, John Q. Hammons Accounting Services, LLC, a non-Debtor and wholly-owned Affiliates of the JQH Trust ("JQH Accounting") provides accounting services for the Hotel Operations.

The Hotel Operations include offering food and beverage services, including alcoholic beverages. The liquor licenses for the Hotel Assets are held by separate Entities that are wholly-owned Affiliates of the JQH Trust (the "Catering Companies"). Most (but not all) of these Catering Companies are Debtors.

2. JQH Trust Operations

JQH Trust also directly owns numerous and varied other Non-Hotel Assets, including more than 30 parcels of undeveloped real estate in 11 states (Arkansas, Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Texas, and Utah). The JQH Trust purports to be one of the largest owners of real estate in Springfield, Missouri, where its buildings include: (i) the Enterprise Building; (ii) a Mini Storage facility; (iii) Hammons Field (the home of the Springfield Cardinals, the AA Texas League affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals); (iv) Kinser House; (v) the John Q. Hammons Missouri Sports Hall of Fame; and (vi) the Jordan Valley Car Park (a parking garage with 970 spaces). The JQH Trust also owns residential properties in Springfield, Missouri and Walnut Creek, California, and a Learjet 45XR airplane.

JQH Trust also directly or indirectly owns equity interests in approximately 30 other Entities that are not Debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases (the "JQH Non-Debtor Entities"). The JQH Non-Debtor Entities, directly or indirectly, own and/or operate various other assets, including: (1) 100% interests in Catering Companies for some Hotel Operations; (2) 100% interest in JQH Accounting, which provides accounting and related services to the Hotel Operations; (3) a minority interest (16.5% profit interest, 20% loss and capital interest) in the Harrah's hotel and casino in Joliet, Illinois; (4) a 50% interest in W&H Realty, LLC, which owns, directly or indirectly, a 100% interest in four hotels, and a 25% interest in six hotels, located throughout the Midwest; (5) a 100% interest in an office building occupied by JQH Management (among others) in Springfield, Missouri; (6) a 50% interest in the office building occupied by JQH Accounting (among others) in Cincinnati, Ohio; (7) a 100% interest in the Hammons Tower in Springfield, Missouri; (8) the Highland Springs Country Club and land for related residential development in Springfield, Missouri; (9) the Tiffany Greens golf course and land for related residential development in Kansas City, Missouri; (10) the U.S. Federal Courthouse in Springfield, Missouri; (11) retail buildings leased to three restaurants in Springfield, Missouri; (12) several parcels of vacant land; and (13) the rights to the film “The Great American West.”

B. Events Leading to the Chapter 11 Cases

These Chapter 11 Cases were commenced by the Debtors one month before the trial on claims asserted by JD Holdings in the Delaware Court of Chancery (the “Delaware Court”) regarding the ROFR (the “Delaware Litigation”). Debtors have conceded that they commenced the Chapter 11 Cases to avoid going to trial in the Delaware Litigation because they were “pretty darned sure [they] would lose” on JD Holdings’ claim of specific performance to purchase the Hotel Assets. In the Debtors’ proposed disclosure statement [ECF No. 1583] (the “Debtors’ Disclosure Statement”), Debtors also conceded that Debtors commenced the Chapter 11 Cases “to enable them[selves] to be relieved from the misinterpretation of the ROFR provisions and pre-trial order of the Delaware Chancery Court,” among other things. Debtors’ Disclosure Statement at 12.

As part of a complex transaction in 2005 in which John Q. Hammons Hotels, Inc., a public company, was taken private (the “2005 Transaction”), the Debtors and JD Holdings executed a right of first refusal agreement (the “Original ROFR”) pursuant to which JD Holdings holds a right to purchase certain Assets of the Debtors, including the Hotel Assets (the “ROFR Assets”). In December 2008, JD Holdings and certain Debtors executed an amendment to the Original ROFR (the “ROFR Amendment”; the Original ROFR and the ROFR Amendment are referred to collectively as the “ROFR”).

The ROFR provides that if a Debtor defaults on its obligations under the ROFR in a material respect with regarding to a ROFR Asset, then JD Holdings is entitled to purchase that related ROFR Asset at a price that is 80% of the price otherwise payable thereunder. In addition, under the ROFR Amendment, in exchange for JD Holdings waiving certain past breaches and modifying a right regarding the assumption of the existing financing for the ROFR Assets, Debtors agreed to provide JD Holdings with subordinate seller financing of up to 22.5% of the purchase price of any ROFR Assets that JD Holdings elected to purchase pursuant to the ROFR.

John Q. Hammons died on May 26, 2013. In October 2014, the Delaware Court issued an order confirming that the ROFR contained a deadline by which all of the ROFR Assets had to be sold for cash, and that deadline was, at the latest, 30 months after Mr. Hammons’ death. These sales would have triggered the rights of JD Holdings to purchase each of the ROFR Assets. Any resulting net cash proceeds would have been available to fund the JQH Trust and the charitable trust required to be created upon his death, but which Mr. Groves and Ms. Dowdy still have not created.

Debtors disagreed with the Delaware Court’s October 2014 ruling. Debtors did not sell any of the ROFR Assets by the date that JD Holdings contends was the contractually mandated deadline, and as a result, on October 19, 2015, JD Holdings filed a Supplemental Complaint in the Delaware Litigation seeking specific performance of its rights under the ROFR, i.e., to purchase each of the ROFR Assets pursuant to the terms of the ROFR, including at a 20% discount, resulting from Debtors’ material breach of the ROFR and with seller financing from the Debtors.

On the same day that JD Holdings filed its Supplemental Complaint, it also filed a motion for an order to prevent Debtors from taking actions that would impair JD Holdings' rights under the ROFR. The Delaware Court held a hearing on October 28, 2015, at which it found that JD Holdings had a reasonable probability of succeeding on the merits of its claim, and that the equities lay with JD Holdings. The Delaware Court determined that "the defendants are currently in breach [of the ROFR], that they have been in breach for some time because they have made zero efforts to attempt to comply with their mandatory sell-for-cash obligation, and that the deadline by which their compliance with the mandatory sell-for-cash obligation has come and gone." The Delaware Court also referred to the Debtors as "serial and ongoing breachers" of their contractual obligations, and found that "equitable ownership [of the ROFR Assets] lies with" JD Holdings.

The Delaware Court then entered an order preventing Debtors from taking any action "outside of the ordinary course of business as to any of the properties or assets" subject to the ROFR absent JD Holdings' consent or further order from the Court (the "Status Quo Order"). The parties spent the next nine months preparing for trial. They exchanged hundreds of thousands of pages of documents, took dozens of depositions, and exchanged over 60 expert reports.

On June 26, 2016 (the "Petition Date"), just one month before the Delaware Litigation was scheduled to go to trial, Debtors commenced these Chapter 11 Cases.

If the Debtors had chosen to accept the Delaware Court's opinion with respect to their sale obligations and not breach their obligations under the ROFR several years ago, these Chapter 11 Cases would not have been necessary, Debtors would have avoided substantial and unnecessary expenses of litigation and the Chapter 11 Cases, and all parties could have been paid in the ordinary course of business without delay. Debtors have alleged that they were not in breach of their obligations under the ROFR under various theories, but no Court has ruled in favor of Debtors with respect to any such allegations.

C. Other Litigation as of the Petition Date

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors also were involved in litigation with SFI Belmont, LLC ("SFI Belmont") in the Circuit Court of Cook County in Chicago, Illinois regarding the Debtors' alleged breaches of non-monetary covenants in a loan agreement between the parties. SFI Belmont was seeking monetary damages in excess of $140 million.

IV. THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

Since the Petition Date, the Debtors have continued to operate as debtors in possession subject to the supervision of the Bankruptcy Court and the Office of the United States Trustee. While the Debtors are authorized to operate in the ordinary course of business, transactions out of the ordinary course of business require Bankruptcy Court approval. In addition, the Bankruptcy Court has supervised the Debtors' employment of attorneys and other professionals as required by the Bankruptcy Code.

An immediate effect of the filing of the Debtors' bankruptcy petitions was the imposition of the automatic stay under section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code which, with limited exceptions, enjoined the commencement or continuation of all collection efforts by creditors, the enforcement of Liens against the Debtors' Assets and litigation against the Debtors.

A. Significant Events During the Chapter 11 Cases

1. First Day Orders

The Debtors filed several motions on the Petition Date seeking the relief provided by certain so-called “first day orders.” First day orders are intended to ensure a seamless transition between the Debtors’ prepetition and post-petition business operations by approving certain normal business conduct that may not be specifically authorized under the Bankruptcy Code or as to which the Bankruptcy Code requires prior approval by the Bankruptcy Court. The first day orders in the Chapter 11 Cases addressed, among other things: (a) the use of certain alleged cash collateral and providing adequate protection with such amounts to be used for general business purposes during the course of the Chapter 11 Cases; (b) the payment and reimbursement for the Debtors’ employees of the accrued prepetition wages and employee benefit Claims; (c) the continuation and maintenance of the Debtors’ existing centralized cash management system, prepetition insurance policies, customer practices, and employee benefit programs; (d) the payment of prepetition sales, use and other tax obligations; (e) the continuation of utility services during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases; and (f) the payment of pre-petition claims of certain critical vendors identified by the Debtors.

2. JD Holdings’ Motion to Dismiss

In July 2016, JD Holdings moved to dismiss the Chapter 11 Cases (the “Motion to Dismiss”) on the grounds that they were not properly commenced. JD Holdings argued that (i) JQH Trust is not a “debtor” within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code because it is not a “business trust” as Congress understood that term when it added it to the Bankruptcy Code in 1978, and (ii) the other Debtors’ cases were commenced without requisite authority under state law, because the Status Quo Order entered in the Delaware Litigation required JD Holdings’ (or the Delaware Court’s) consent before they could take any action outside of the ordinary course of business, which included commencing these Chapter 11 Cases (these items are referred to collectively as the “Dismissal Issues”).

On January 13, 2017, Debtors filed motions for summary judgment on the Motion to Dismiss. On February 17, 2017, JD Holdings filed cross-motions for summary judgment. On September 13, 2017, the Bankruptcy Court denied the Motion to Dismiss and JD Holdings’ request for summary judgment, and granted Debtors’ request for summary judgment [ECF No. 1297] (the “Dismissal Order”). JD Holdings appealed the Dismissal Order to the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel of the Tenth Circuit (the “BAP”) and sought an expedited hearing for such appeal. The Debtors opposed the BAP’s consideration of the appeal, arguing that it was an interlocutory order, and further objected to any effort to expedite the resolution of that appeal. The BAP accepted JD Holdings’ appeal stating that “[t]he issue of whether the Debtors were eligible to file bankruptcy is . . . too important to be denied review” (In re John Q. Hammons Fall 2006, LLC, et al., BAP No. 17-43, ECF No. 13 at 2 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. Nov. 7, 2017)), but rejected its request for expedition. The appeal is now fully briefed, and the BAP next will schedule a date for oral arguments.

3. Rejection of the ROFR

On August 16, 2016, the Debtors filed a motion to reject the ROFR (the “Rejection Motion”) [ECF No. 338]. In the Rejection Motion, Debtors argued that having to sell the ROFR Assets at the discounted price with subordinate seller financing would be “devastating” to them, and result in a loss of value to the Debtors that would compensate no creditor other than JD Holdings. Debtors further argued that enforcing the ROFR “would be to assure that JD Holdings alone would receive value.”

The Bankruptcy Court granted Debtors’ request to reject the ROFR on December 13, 2016 (the “Rejection Order”) [ECF No. 694]. JD Holdings appealed the Rejection Order to the BAP, arguing primarily that entry of the Rejection Order was inappropriate given the Dismissal Issues. The BAP affirmed the Rejection Order on December 28, 2017. JD Holdings has appealed the Rejection Order to the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit.

4. The Claims Bar Date

On September 28, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court entered its Claims Bar Date Order setting December 23, 2016 as the Claims Bar Date. As of the Claims Bar Date, the Debtors received over 600 filed Claims.

5. Asset Sales

Since the Petition Date, the Bankruptcy Court has approved eight sales of parcels of real estate in Middleton, Wisconsin (to JD Holdings), Lindon, Utah, and Springfield, Missouri.

V. SUMMARY OF TREATMENT OF CLAIMS AND EQUITY INTERESTS

As summarized below and set forth more fully in the Plans, the Plans provide for (i) the payment of all Allowed Claims in full in Cash on the Effective Date, except for any Assumed Loans (whether assumed pursuant to the terms of the existing agreements and/or pursuant to new agreements to do so, which shall be paid in accordance with their terms); (ii) contributions of Cash and Non-Hotel Assets by JD Holdings to a new Charitable Trust; and (iii) the transfer of all Equity Interests, such that all Equity Interests shall remain outstanding.

A. Administrative Claims and Priority Claims

1. Administrative Claims

The Plans provide for payment of Allowed Administrative Claims, including Professional Compensation Claims, in full on the date, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable, that is the later of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) the date such Administrative Claim becomes an Allowed Claim or otherwise becomes payable under the Plans.

2. Priority Tax Claims

The Plans provide for payment of Allowed Priority Tax Claims in full on the date, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable, that is the later of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) the date

Following the Effective Date, JD Holdings shall pay the U.S. Trustee Fees for each quarter (including any part thereof) until the first to occur of the Chapter 11 Cases being converted, dismissed, or closed.

B. Classification and Treatment of Claims and Equity Interests

The categories listed below summarize the Plans' classification of Claims against, and Equity Interests in, each of the Debtors for all purposes, including Confirmation and Plans Distributions. Under the Plans, (a) Classes 1, 2, 3 and 4 are Unimpaired, (b) the Holders of Claims and Equity Interests in such Classes are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plans pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, and (c) such Holders are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plans, but nonetheless may object to Confirmation.

1. Class 1 – Other Priority Claims

Each Allowed Other Priority Claim shall be paid in full on the later of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) the date such Other Priority Claim becomes an Allowed Claim or otherwise becomes payable under the Plans.

2. Class 2 – Secured Claims

Each Allowed Secured Claim (other than Assumed Loans³) shall be paid in full on the later of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) the date such Secured Claim becomes an Allowed Claim or otherwise becomes payable under the Plans, unless such Holder of an Allowed Secured Claim agrees to extend the term of the loan on terms, or accept other treatment, mutually agreeable to such Holder and JD Holdings.

³ Certain loans, including a loan originated by Goldman Sachs Mortgage Company secured by Liens on seven Hotel Assets, (the "Goldman 7 Loan") and a loan originated by Prudential Mortgage Capital Company, LLC secured by Liens on one of the Hotel Assets (the "Prudential Loan"), which have several years remaining until maturity, are assumable by JD Holdings under the terms of the respective loan agreements. However, since the Goldman 7 Loan and Prudential Loan are securitized, the assumption process may take some time and requires the cooperation of the Debtors, cooperation that has not existed to date. As part of the Confirmation process, JD Holdings will seek an order from the Court requiring such cooperation and/or directing the assumption of the Goldman 7 Loan and Prudential Loan. All loans that JD Holdings intends to assume will be identified in the Plans Supplement. If any such loan is assumed, it shall constitute an Assumed Loan under the Plans. If any such loan is not assumed, it shall be treated as a Class 2 Secured Claim, subject to Allowance.

3. Class 3 – General Unsecured Claims

Each Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall be paid in full on the later of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) the date such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim or otherwise becomes payable under the Plans.⁴

4. Class 4 – Equity Interests⁵

Holders of Equity Interests shall not receive separate consideration for such Equity Interests. Such Equity Interests will be transferred as set forth in Article VI of the Plans.

VI. CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTION

On the Effective Date, JD Holdings will establish a Charitable Trust to honor Mr. Hammons' charitable intent. JD Holdings will contribute to the Charitable Trust (a) $2.0 million in Cash and (b) all the Debtors' interests in one or more Non-Hotel Assets designated by JD Holdings on or before the Effective Date having a value totaling not less than [$3.0] million⁶ free and clear of all Liens.

In addition, JD Holdings would contribute to the Charitable Trust additional Non-Hotel Assets as designated by JD Holdings, of no less than [$15] million in value⁷ free and clear of all Liens, if Debtors and their Affiliates, the JQH Non-Debtor Entities and the estate of John Q. Hammons, and their respective principals, trustees, beneficiaries, shareholders, partners, members, directors, officers, employees and other persons or entities under their control (collectively, the "Debtor Parties"), voluntarily cooperate in obtaining the Confirmation Order, closing the Sale and other Plans Transactions, and implementing the Plans, as follows:

- (i) None of the Debtors Parties Files an objection to the Disclosure Statement or Plans, or opposes Confirmation, or in any manner, directly or indirectly, takes or fails to take any actions, or otherwise work with, consult, encourage or otherwise assist any other Entity to take or fail to take any action that would or would reasonably be expected to prevent, delay, impede, interfere with, or otherwise could be adverse to, obtaining approval of the Disclosure Statement or Plans, or obtaining the Confirmation Order, as determined by JD Holdings in its reasonable judgment;

⁴ JD Holdings and SFI Belmont have reached an agreement in principle (subject to definitive documentation and final approvals), pursuant to which SFI Belmont would receive less than payment in full on account of its Claim. Pursuant to such agreement, SFI Belmont would receive Cash on the Effective Date anticipated to be approximately $46 million, with additional consideration to be paid over time.

⁵ JD Holdings understands that all Equity Interests in Debtors other than JQH Trust are held by other Debtors and that there are no Equity Interests in JQH Trust. In addition, Debtors also own certain Equity Interests in JQH Non-Debtor Entities.

⁶ The value of such additional Non-Hotel Assets shall be based on Debtors' valuations as set forth in the Debtors' Disclosure Statement and supported by the underlying appraisal and other documents (without a 10% markup).

⁷ The value of such additional Non-Hotel Assets shall be based on Debtors' valuations as set forth in the Debtors' Disclosure Statement and supported by the underlying appraisals and other documents (without a 10% markup).

- (ii) The Debtor Parties take all such actions, or not take such actions, as necessary or appropriate, or as requested by JD Holdings, to obtain the approval of the Disclosure Statement and Plans, and the Confirmation Order, and provide JD Holdings and its representatives access to review all books, records and other information (including all electronic records) with respect to the Debtors and Non-Debtor JQH Entities, as determined by JD Holdings in its reasonable judgment;
- (iii) The Confirmation Date occurs no later than April 21, 2018, and the Effective Date occurs no later than July 5, 2018; and
- (iv) The Debtors perform all of their obligations under the Plans and Plans Documents and otherwise comply with the terms of the Plans and Plans Documents, until the closing of all Plan Transactions contemplated by the APA, as determined by JD Holdings in its reasonable judgment.

VII. EFFECT OF CONFIRMATION

A. Actions Required by Confirmation Order

The Confirmation Order shall be deemed to (i) authorize, among other things, the Sale and other Plans Transactions and the implementation of the Plans, and (ii) require the Debtors to execute the APA and other Plans Documents, and all other documents and instruments, and take all other actions, as required under these Plans or that JD Holdings otherwise determines are necessary or appropriate to consummate the Sale and other Plans Transactions and implement the Plans. On and after the Confirmation Date, JD Holdings may take, or require Debtors to take, all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect the Sale and other Plans Transactions and the implementation of the Plans.

Upon execution of the APA pursuant to the Confirmation Order, JD Holdings would deposit $50 million into escrow, to be disbursed to the Debtors in the event that JD Holdings does not close the Sale within 75 days after the Confirmation Date; provided, however, the deposit shall not be forfeited if the failure to close the Sale results from a breach by the Debtors or failure of a closing condition in the APA or other Plans Documents, or an appeal of the Confirmation Order. Forfeiture of such deposit shall be the sole remedy for JD Holdings' failure to close the Sale and implement the Plans.

B. Actions During the Interim Period

During the Interim Period:

- (i) The Debtors Parties shall continue, and cause their Affiliates, to operate the Assets in the ordinary course consistent with Debtors' past custom and practice and the industry standards for the operation of similar Assets and Debtors' operating budget for 2018 (the "Ordinary Course of Business"), including (i) maintaining the inventories at levels maintained in the Ordinary Course of Business; (ii) performing maintenance and repairs in the Ordinary Course of Business, and commencing or continuing any capital projects scheduled in the capital budget for the Assets; (iii)

taking or ceasing such action as is necessary, appropriate or advisable to cure any violation of applicable laws; (iv) renewing all licenses and permits before their expiration; (v) maintaining all existing insurance policies; (vi) not making any alterations or improvements at the Assets, or demolishing any of the Assets, other than in the Ordinary Course of Business or as provided in Debtor's capital expenditures budget for the relevant period; (viii) not removing any property from the Assets, other than in the Ordinary Course of Business; and (ix) not taking, or causing or permitting to be taken, any action that could impair Debtors' title to any of the Assets or create any Lien or encumbrance on the Assets; (x) complying with all leases, convention center agreements, franchise agreements, operating agreements, management agreements, licenses and permits; (xi) amending, extending, renewing or terminating any leases, agreements, licenses or permits, except in the Ordinary Course of Business, without JD Holdings' prior written consent; (xi) not entering into any new leases or agreements with respect to the Assets, without JD Holdings' prior written consent, unless such leases or agreements are terminable by JD Holdings without any termination fee, penalty or other amount upon not more than 30 days' notice; (xii) not entering into any agreement or understanding with Insiders, without JD Holdings' prior written consent; and (xiii) not paying bonuses or other amounts in excess of base salary to any employees of Debtors;

- (ii) The Debtor Parties shall permit JD Holdings to take such actions with respect to the Assets as JD Holdings deems necessary or advisable to facilitate the transition of the operation of the Assets at closing of the Sale pursuant to which the employees, agents and representatives designated by JD Holdings shall have unrestricted access to the Assets and Debtors' offices in Springfield, Missouri, during normal business hours to facilitate the transition of the management and operation of the Assets upon closing of the Sale, including, the right to review all books, records and other information (including all electronic records) with respect to the Assets in Debtors' possession, provided that neither JD Holdings nor the Sale Lender shall be deemed to have assumed any management or operational responsibilities prior to closing of the Sale by virtue of such activities and shall not have the right to direct any of Debtors' employees or otherwise have any right to make any decisions for or on behalf of Debtors with respect to the operation of the Assets;
- (iii) The Debtor Parties provide all financial statements and other reports, documents, notices and information to JD Holdings and access to the Assets that Debtors otherwise would be required to provide to any of its lenders under the applicable loan agreements with Debtors for Assets secured by any Liens, or as requested by JD Holdings for such Assets that are not secured by any Liens, and any such documents and information requested by JD Holdings;
- (iv) JD Holdings shall have the right to conduct, or engage a third-party to conduct, a forensic audit of all books and records of Debtors and its Affiliates and the Assets for any time period, and the Debtor Parties shall cooperate fully in such forensic audit;

- (v) The Debtor Parties shall take all such actions, or not take such actions, necessary or appropriate to consummate the Sale and all other Plans Transactions and implement the Plans, including permitting JD Holdings and its lenders, agents and representatives to communicate directly with any ground lessors, franchisors, governmental authorities and other third-parties, obtaining all consents, approvals, estoppel certificates and other documents, materials or information as requested by any lenders, ground lessors, franchisors, governmental authorities or other third parties, or as JD Holdings reasonably determines necessary or appropriate, to consummate the assumption of the Assumed Loans, the Sale and other Plans Transactions; and
- (vi) The Debtor Parties shall not in any manner, directly or indirectly, take or fail to take any actions, or otherwise work with, consult, encourage or otherwise assist any other Entity to take or fail to take any action that would or would reasonably be expected to prevent, delay, impede, interfere with, or otherwise could be adverse to, the consummation of the Sale and any other Plans Transactions or implementation of the Plans, including any appeal relating to the Plans.

VIII. IMPLEMENTATION OF THE SALE AND OTHER PLANS TRANSACTIONS

A. Overview

The Plans contemplate a sale of all Assets (including Equity Interests) free and clear of Liens and Claims (except as set forth in these Plans) pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 105, 363, 365 and 1129 (among others) to JD Holdings pursuant to the APA. In consideration, JD Holdings shall pay all Allowed Claims in full in Cash on the Effective Date, except for any Assumed Loans (whether pursuant to the terms of the existing agreements and/or pursuant to new agreements to do so, which shall be paid in accordance with their terms), and contribute certain Cash and Non-Hotel Assets to a new Charitable Trust as set forth in Article V hereof. At or prior to the Effective Date, JD Holdings may elect to leave certain Non-Hotel Assets with the JQH Trust.

JD Holdings shall be obligated to proceed to closing of the Sale pursuant to the APA following the Confirmation Order becoming a Final Order, except in the event of an appeal of the Confirmation Order, a breach by Debtors, and certain other customary sale conditions to be set forth in the APA. The APA contemplates a series of closings, starting on the Effective Date.

As part of the Plans, JD Holdings will subordinate its Claims arising from to the ROFR to the payment of all Allowed Claims. Accordingly, a determination of the amount of JD Holdings' Claims arising from the ROFR, and all litigation relating thereto, will not be needed or affect the Plans Distributions to other Holders of Claims. The subordination of JD Holdings' Claims arising from the ROFR shall become effective upon consummation of the Sale and implementation of the Plans, and shall be subject to Debtor's compliance with these Plans.

JD Holdings will have a limited period of time until the Claims Objection Bar Date in which to (1) identify the Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and (2) determine to what Claims, if any, an objection would be Filed. All Claims to which an objection is not Filed will be deemed Allowed. If a Claim objection is Filed, the undisputed portion of that Claim will be deemed Allowed, entitled to payment along with all other Allowed Claims upon the Effective Date of the Plans or as soon thereafter as is practicable, and the disputed portion of that Claim will not be paid until such dispute is resolved by settlement or adjudication and determined to be an Allowed Claim. Prior to the Effective Date, JD Holdings will identify what Assets, if any, it will not purchase as part of the Sale or other Plans Transactions, in which case the JQH Trust shall retain any such Assets.

As set forth more fully below, some of Debtors' debts are assumable by a purchaser of the related Assets. Upon Confirmation, Debtors shall cooperate fully and take all steps necessary to effectuate such assumptions by JD Holdings, and the lenders relating thereto shall be obligated to perform as required by the respective loan agreements. JD Holdings shall work with the lenders of such loans to ensure timely assumption.

G. Employment of Debtors' Employees

Upon consummation of the Sale and Other Plan Transactions, JD Holdings or its Affiliates will offer employment to all of the approximately 4,000 employees of Debtors, including JQH Management (and in particular, all employees at the Hotel Assets), except that (i) JD Holdings intends to terminate the employment of Jacqueline Dowdy (current CEO of JQH Management) and Gregory Groves (currently General Counsel of JQH Management) from each and every position they hold with any of the Debtors (with the exception of their role as successor trustees of the JQH Trust) and reserves the right to File an objection to any Claims related to such employment contracts, and (ii) JD Holdings will retain all of the other approximately 50 employees at JQH Management's offices in Springfield, Missouri and regionally for a transition period after

XII. MODIFICATION, AMENDMENT, REVOCATION OR WITHDRAWAL OF PLANS

JD Holdings reserves the right to revoke or withdraw the Plans prior to the Confirmation Date and to File subsequent chapter 11 plans.

XIII. RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

The Court would retain any jurisdiction it has to the maximum extent possible to interpret the Plans, its Confirmation Order, and all matters relating thereto.

XIV. CERTAIN RISK FACTORS TO BE CONSIDERED

Holders of a Claims and Equity Interests should read and carefully consider the following factors, as well as the other information set forth in this Disclosure Statement (and the documents filed herewith and/or incorporated by reference herein), before deciding whether to support or object to Confirmation.

A. Non-Confirmation of the Plans

Although JD Holdings believes the Plans will satisfy all requirements necessary for Confirmation, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion or that modifications or amendments to the Plans will not be required for Confirmation.

B. Possible Objections to the Plans

Although JD Holdings believes the Plans comply with all relevant Bankruptcy Code provisions, there can be no guarantee that a party in interest will not file an objection to Confirmation.

C. Non-Occurrence of the Effective Date

Although JD Holdings believes that the Effective Date will occur no later than 75 days after the Confirmation Date, there can be no assurance as to the timing of the Effective Date. If the Effective Date does not occur by such date, then the Confirmation Order may be vacated, in which event no distributions would be made under the Plans, the Debtors and all Holders of Claims and Equity Interests would be restored to the status quo as of the day immediately preceding the Confirmation Date, and the Debtors' obligations with respect to Claims and Equity Interests would remain unchanged.

D. Conversion to Chapter 7

If no plan of reorganization is confirmed, or if the Bankruptcy Court otherwise finds that it would be in the best interest of Holders of Claims and Equity Interests, the Chapter 11 Cases may be converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, pursuant to which a trustee would be appointed or elected to liquidate the Debtors' assets for distribution in accordance with the procedures established by the Bankruptcy Code.

E. Lack of Cooperation by Debtors

Throughout the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors have not provided JD Holdings with access to all information JD Holdings has requested, and have not cooperated with JD Holdings as needed to consummate a transaction. In addition, Debtors' financial reporting has not provided parties in interest with sufficient information to permit such parties to understand Debtors' performance and operations. For the consummation of the Sale and other Plans Transactions and implementation of the Plans to occur by the Effective Date, Debtors will need to provide access to such information and cooperate with JD Holdings as described in Section VII.D.

F. Pending Appeals

As noted in Section IV.A.2, JD Holdings has appealed the Dismissal Order. If the BAP reverses the Dismissal Order before the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Plans may become null and void.

XV. CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN

The following is a general summary of certain material federal income tax consequences that implementation of the Plans may have on Holders of Claims and Equity Interests. This summary does not discuss all aspects of federal income taxation that may be relevant to the Debtors, to a particular Holder in light of its individual investment circumstances, or to certain Holders subject to special treatment under the federal income tax laws (for example, tax-exempt organizations, foreign corporations or individuals who are not citizens or residents of the United States). This summary also does not discuss any aspects of state, local or foreign taxation.

This summary is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "IRC"), the Treasury regulations (including temporary regulations) promulgated thereunder, judicial authorities and current administrative rulings, all as in effect on the date hereof and all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect) by legislation, administrative action or judicial decision. Moreover, due to a lack of definitive judicial or administrative authority or interpretation, substantial uncertainties exist with respect to various tax consequences of the Plans as discussed herein. JD Holdings has not requested a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") with respect to these matters, and no opinion of counsel has been sought or obtained by JD Holdings with respect thereto. FOR THE FOREGOING REASONS, HOLDERS OF CLAIMS AND EQUITY INTERESTS ARE URGED TO CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES (FOREIGN, FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL) OF THE PLANS. JD HOLDINGS IS NOT MAKING ANY REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES OR GUARANTEES REGARDING THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE CONFIRMATION AND CONSUMMATION

OF THE PLANS AS TO ANY HOLDER, NOR IS JD HOLDINGS RENDERING ANY FORM OF LEGAL OPINION AS TO SUCH TAX CONSEQUENCES.

The federal income tax consequences arising from implementation of the Plans to a Holder of a Claim against the Debtors will depend upon a number of factors, including whether the Holder is deemed to have participated in an exchange for federal income tax purposes, and, if so, whether such exchange transaction constitutes a tax-free recapitalization or a taxable transaction; whether the Holder's Claim constitutes a "security" for federal income tax purposes; the type of consideration received by the Holder in exchange for its Allowed Claim; and whether the Holder reports income on the accrual basis.

A Holder whose Claim is paid in full or otherwise discharged on the Effective Date will recognize gain or loss for federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the fair market value on such date of any property received by such Holder in respect of its Claim (excluding any property received in respect of a Claim for accrued interest that had not been included in income) and (ii) the holder's adjusted tax basis in the Claim (other than any Claim for such accrued interest). A Holder's adjusted tax basis in property received in exchange for its Claim will generally be equal to the fair market value of such property on such date. The holding period for any such property will begin on the day after such date.

Under the Plans, some Assets may be distributed or deemed distributed to certain Holders with respect to their Claims for accrued interest. Holders of Claims for accrued interest that previously have not included such accrued interest in taxable income will be required to recognize ordinary income equal to the fair market value of the property received with respect to such Claims for accrued interest. Holders of Claims for accrued interest that have included such accrued interest in taxable income generally may take an ordinary deduction to the extent that such Claim is not fully satisfied under the Plans (after allocating the distribution between principal and accrued interest), even if the underlying Claim is held as a capital asset. The adjusted tax basis of the property received in exchange for Claims for accrued interest will equal the fair market value of such property on such date, and the holding period for the property received in exchange for such Claims will begin on the day after such date. The extent to which consideration distributable under the Plans is allocable to interest is not clear. Holders are advised to consult their own tax advisors to determine the amount, if any, of consideration received under the Plans that is allocable to interest.

XVI. REQUIREMENTS FOR CONFIRMATION

At the Confirmation Hearing, the Bankruptcy Court will determine whether the confirmation requirements specified in section 1129(a) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied including whether:

- (i) the Plans comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code;
- (ii) JD Holdings has complied with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code;
- (iii) the Plans have been proposed in good faith and not by any means prohibited by law;

- (iv) any payment made or promised by JD Holdings or by a person issuing securities or acquiring Assets under the Plans, for services or for costs and expenses in or in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, or in connection with the Plans and incident to the Chapter 11 Cases, has been disclosed to the Bankruptcy Court, and any such payment made before Confirmation is reasonable, or if such payment is to be fixed after Confirmation, such payment is subject to the approval of the Bankruptcy Court as reasonable;
- (v) each Class of Claims either are deemed to have accepted the Plans or are Unimpaired under the Plans;
- (vi) except to the extent that the Holder of a Claim has agreed to a different treatment of such Claim, the Plans provide that Administrative Claims and Priority Claims, other than Priority Tax Claims, will be paid in full on the Effective Date, and that Priority Tax Claims will receive either payment in full on the Effective Date or deferred cash payments over a period not exceeding five years, of a value, as of the Effective Date of the Plans, equal to the Allowed amount of such Claims;
- (vii) Confirmation is not likely to be followed by the liquidation, or the need for further financial reorganization, of the Debtors or any successor to the Debtors under the Plans other than the liquidation described in the Plans; and
- (viii) all fees payable under section 1930 of title 28 of the United States Code, as determined by the Bankruptcy Court at the Confirmation Hearing, have been paid or the Plans provide for the payment of all such fees on the Effective Date of the Plans.

JD Holdings believe the Plans satisfy each of the requirements of Bankruptcy Code section 1129 for confirmation.

XVII. ALTERNATIVES TO CONFIRMATION AND CONSUMMATION

JD Holdings is not aware of any viable alternatives at this time that would pay Holders of all Allowed Claims and Equity Interests in full and avoid the risks of (a) JD Holdings' Claims being Allowed in full (which could adversely affect the recoveries of other Holders of Claims and Equity Interests), (b) a reversal by the BAP of the Dismissal Order, and (c) further deterioration of the Debtors' net operating income.

XVIII. CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

JD Holdings believes the Plans are in the best interests of all Holders of Claims and Equity Interests. Given that all Allowed Claims and Equity Interests will be paid in full under the Plans and that there are no viable alternatives that would pay all such Allowed Claim and Equity Interests in full, and further acknowledging that JD Holdings would make valuable contributions to the Charitable Trust, JD Holdings recommends that all parties in interest file a joinder in support of Confirmation.

INTRODUCTION

JD Holdings¹ hereby proposes the following plans of reorganization for the resolution of outstanding claims against, and equity interests in, all Debtors pursuant to title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1532.² Schedule 1 sets forth a list of each Debtor.

As detailed below, these Plans provide for the Sale of the Assets to JD Holdings and payment in full of all Allowed Claims against Debtors (except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Claim agrees to an alternative treatment) upon the Effective Date of the Plans or as soon thereafter as is practicable, with JD Holdings subordinating its Claims arising from the ROFR to all other Allowed Claims. In addition, JD Holdings will contribute assets to a new Charitable Trust to honor Mr. Hammons' charitable intent, even though such beneficiaries have not been identified, do not have standing under the Bankruptcy Code, and are not parties in interest. The value of assets JD Holdings will contribute to the Charitable Trust would be increased if Debtors cooperate in confirming and implementing the Plans, as set forth herein.

There are no contingencies to the implementation of these Plans after Confirmation.

ARTICLE I. DEFINED TERMS, RULES OF INTERPRETATION, COMPUTATION OF TIME, AND GOVERNING LAW

A. Defined Terms

The following capitalized terms shall have the following meanings when used herein:

1. “2005 Transaction” means the transaction in 2005 entered into by Mr. Hammons, JQH Trust, and certain of their Affiliates, in which, among other things, Jonathan Eilian and his Affiliates took private John Q. Hammons Hotels, Inc., a publicly traded company.

¹ Capitalized terms are defined in Article I hereof.

² In an abundance of caution, JD Holdings states that the submission of these Plans is not intended to be, and should not be construed as, an admission that venue in the Bankruptcy Court is proper with respect to any current or future proceedings that may arise in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, the 2005 Transaction, or the ROFR.

- (vi) The Debtor Parties shall not in any manner, directly or indirectly, take or fail to take any actions, or otherwise work with, consult, encourage or otherwise assist any other Entity to take or fail to take any action that would or would reasonably be expected to prevent, delay, impede, interfere with, or otherwise could be adverse to, the consummation of the Sale and any other Plans Transactions or implementation of the Plans, including any appeal relating to the Plans.

ARTICLE VII.
IMPLEMENTATION OF THE SALE AND OTHER PLANS TRANSACTIONS

A. Overview

The Plans contemplate a sale of all Assets (including Equity Interests) free and clear of Liens and Claims (except as set forth in these Plans) pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 105, 363, 365 and 1129 (among others) to JD Holdings pursuant to the APA. In consideration, JD Holdings shall pay all Allowed Claims in full in Cash on the Effective Date, except for any Assumed Loans (whether pursuant to the terms of the existing agreements and/or pursuant to new agreements to do so, which shall be paid in accordance with their terms), and contribute certain Cash and Non-Hotel Assets to a new Charitable Trust as set forth in Article V hereof. At or prior to the Effective Date, JD Holdings may elect to leave certain Non-Hotel Assets with the JQH Trust.

JD Holdings shall be obligated to proceed to closing of the Sale pursuant to the APA following the Confirmation Order becoming a Final Order, except in the event of an appeal of the Confirmation Order, a breach by Debtors, and certain other customary sale conditions to be set forth in the APA, as set forth more fully in the Disclosure Statement. The APA contemplates a series of closings, starting on the Effective Date.

As part of the Plans, JD Holdings will subordinate its Claims arising from the ROFR to the payment of all Allowed Claims. Accordingly, a determination of the amount of JD Holdings' Claims arising from the ROFR, and all litigation relating thereto, will not be needed or affect the Plans Distributions to other Holders of Claims. The subordination of JD Holdings' Claims arising from the ROFR shall become effective upon consummation of the Sale and implementation of the Plans, and shall be subject to Debtors' compliance with these Plans.

JD Holdings will have a limited period of time until the Claims Objection Bar Date in which to (1) identify the Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and (2) determine to what Claims, if any, an objection would be Filed. All Claims to which an objection is not Filed will be deemed Allowed. If a Claim objection is Filed, the undisputed portion of that Claim will be deemed Allowed, entitled to payment along with all other Allowed Claims upon the Effective Date of the Plans or as soon thereafter as is practicable, and the disputed portion of that Claim will not be paid until such dispute is resolved by settlement or adjudication and determined to be an Allowed Claim. Prior to the Effective Date, JD Holdings will identify what Assets, if any, it will not purchase as part of the Sale or other Plans Transactions, in which case the JQH Trust shall retain any such Assets.

As set forth more fully in the Disclosure Statement, some of Debtors' debts are assumable by a purchaser of the related Assets. Upon Confirmation, Debtors shall cooperate fully and take all steps necessary to effectuate such assumptions by JD Holdings, and the lenders relating thereto shall be obligated to perform as required by the respective loan agreements. JD Holdings shall work with the lenders of such loans to ensure timely assumption.

B. Sources of Consideration for Sale and Other Plans Transactions and Plans Distributions

JD Holdings shall (i) assume the Assumed Loans, (ii) assume the Assumed Agreements, (iii) assume and pay the Allowed Claims, and (iv) establish and contribute assets to the Charitable Trust, all as set forth above. Pursuant to these Plans, JD Holdings is purchasing all Assets. Funds to consummate the Plans Transactions shall come from JD Holdings and its affiliates and financing from third parties, including the Sale Lender pursuant to the Sale Financing Facility (as discussed in greater detail in the Disclosure Statement).

C. Provisions Governing Distributions

As of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date, the Claims Register for each of the Classes of Claims and Equity Interests as maintained by the Debtors or their respective agents, shall be deemed closed, and there shall be no further changes in the record Holders of any of the Claims or Equity Interests. Except as otherwise provided in the Plans, the Debtors and JD Holdings, as applicable, shall have no obligation to recognize any transfer of the Claims or Equity Interests occurring on or after the Distribution Record Date. Except as otherwise provided in the Plans, the Debtors and JD Holdings, as applicable, shall be entitled to recognize and deal for all purposes hereunder only with those record Holders stated on the Claims Register as of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date.

Unless otherwise provided in the Plans, on the Effective Date or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable (or if a Claim or Equity Interest is not Allowed on the Effective Date, on the date that such a Claim or Equity Interest is Allowed, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable), each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest shall receive the full amount of the Plans Distribution that such Holder is entitled to pursuant to the Plans.

D. Compliance Matters

In connection with the Plans, to the extent applicable, the Debtors and JD Holdings shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any governmental authority, and all Plans Distributions shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. The Debtors and JD Holdings reserve the right to allocate all Plans Distributions in compliance with all applicable wage garnishments, alimony, child support, and other spousal awards, liens, and encumbrances.

E. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees

Finance Letter

Goldman Sachs Mortgage Company
200 West Street
New York, New York 10282

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

February 6, 2018

JD Holdings, L.L.C.
c/o Atrium Holding Company
1114 Avenue of the Americas, 39th
New York, NY 10036
Attn: Jonathan D. Eilian

Ladies and Gentlemen:

You have advised Goldman Sachs Mortgage Company (“GSMC” and together with its affiliates, “Goldman Sachs”) that JD Holdings, L.L.C. or its affiliates (the “Company”) intends to acquire pursuant to a plan of reorganization (the “Acquisition”) all or substantially all of the real property assets (and certain related personalty) (the “Properties”) owned by The Revocable Trust of John Q. Hammons, dated December 29, 1989, as amended and restated (the “JQH Trust”), and the affiliates of JQH Trust that hold any of the Properties, certain of which are debtors and debtors in possession, in the bankruptcy cases pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Kansas (the “Court”) jointly administered as In re John Q. Hammons Fall 2006, LLC, Case No. 16-21142.11 (the “Seller”). You have advised us that the Acquisition will be financed from a combination of equity contributed by the Company in cash (the “Equity Contribution”) and indebtedness of approximately $1.0 billion (the “Loan”) to be incurred by the Company (or affiliates thereof). The Loan will be secured by (i) first mortgages on a portfolio of thirty-five hotels more fully described in the attached Exhibit A (and such other assets described on Exhibit A as Lender shall determine in its sole discretion) and (ii) pledges of the equity interests in the borrower under the Loan (the “Borrower”) in connection with any mezzanine component of the financing. You have consulted with Goldman Sachs concerning the proposed Loan.

In connection with this letter, we have relied without independent verification upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting, tax and other information reviewed by us for purposes of this letter. Based on the information available to us to date, and assuming satisfactory market conditions for commercial mortgage loans and capital markets, as applicable, and subject to the immediately succeeding paragraph and such other matters as we consider relevant, we are pleased to inform you that, as of the date hereof, we are highly confident that the structuring and syndication of the Loan can be accomplished by Goldman Sachs as part of the financing for the Acquisition as described above. We are also pleased to inform you that we have received the appropriate internal approvals to issue this letter to you.

Our ability to consummate the closing of the Loan is subject to the satisfaction of conditions customary for financings of the type contemplated hereby or otherwise deemed appropriate by Goldman Sachs for this transaction, including, without limitation, (i) the satisfactory completion of our due diligence investigation with respect to the Properties, and such due diligence investigation not disclosing any facts that would materially alter our current view with respect to the Properties taken as a whole, (ii) to the extent there exists or occurs with respect to any Property material defects (including any material matters disclosed by current engineering, environmental, seismic, title and zoning reports), or there are any circumstances or conditions with respect to any Property, the Borrower or Company that either have or are reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the value of the Loan (or of certificates issued in a rated securitization containing the Loan) or on the obligors' performance thereunder, as reasonably determined by Lender, then (x) Borrower shall covenant to correct such defects, including providing appropriate insurance as reasonably determined by Lender, promptly following the Closing Date, and (y) Lender may establish one or more special reserves in respect thereof, up to the full loan amount allocated to the applicable Property, and (iii) the Court shall have entered a confirmation order confirming a plan of reorganization, which order shall have become final and non-appealable, and both of which shall be in form and substance acceptable to Goldman Sachs in its sole discretion, which discretion shall be exercised in good faith, with respect to any provision that could affect in any manner, and in Goldman Sachs's sole determination, (a) the Properties, (b) the assets listed on Exhibit A, (c) the ability of the Company to perform its obligations in connection with the Loan, or (d) the legal rights, obligations or liabilities of Goldman Sachs in its capacity as a lender to the Company, including, for the avoidance of doubt, with respect to any provisions which, if inclusive of Goldman Sachs, would affect such rights, obligations or liabilities.. Further, at Borrower's option exercised prior to closing of the Loan, Borrower may remove from the collateral up to eight Properties, and the Loan amount will be adjusted accordingly.

Obtaining financing for the Acquisition is inherently subject to uncertainties and contingencies beyond our control; accordingly, this letter is not a commitment by GSMC or any of its affiliates to provide the Loan. Any such commitment would be subject to (i) receipt of internal Goldman Sachs committee approvals, (ii) the terms and conditions of the Loan and all related documentation being executed and delivered and satisfactory in form and substance to Goldman Sachs, (iii) the terms and conditions of the Acquisition (including purchase prices and the receipt of necessary governmental, regulatory or other third party consents and approvals), the Equity Contribution and all related documentation being in form and substance satisfactory to Goldman Sachs, and (iv) satisfaction of other conditions customary for financings of the type contemplated hereby or otherwise deemed appropriate by Goldman Sachs for this transaction. The structure, covenants and terms of the Loan will be determined by Goldman Sachs, in consultation with the Company, based on market conditions at the time of the issuance of a binding Loan commitment (if any) and on the structure and documentation of the Acquisition. Based on our experience dealing with loans similar to the Loan, and our experience closing loans with affiliates of the Company, we would expect that, once we have access to all available information relating to the Properties, and subject to the satisfaction of conditions customary for financings of the type contemplated hereby or otherwise deemed appropriate by Goldman Sachs for this transaction, we would be in a position to issue a binding commitment for the Loan within a fifteen business day period, assuming diligent cooperation by the Company with respect to the same.

This letter and any written or oral communications provided by us are exclusively for your information and assistance in evaluating the financing of the Acquisition and may not be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to with any other person or for any other purpose; nor is this letter or any such communications or information contained therein to be filed with, included in or referred to in whole or in part in any registration statement, proxy statement or any other document, except in each case in accordance with the prior written consent of Goldman Sachs.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, this letter may be shown to the Seller and its advisors and counsel, provided that the Seller, its advisors and counsel each agree to treat this letter as confidential, and may be submitted to the Court in connection with the Company's proposal relating to the Acquisition including being referenced in, and included as an exhibit to, the Company's disclosure statement to be filed with the Court in conjunction with the Company's proposed plan of reorganization.

The parties hereto agree that any suit or proceeding arising in respect of this letter or the matters discussed herein will be tried exclusively in any Federal court of the United States of America sitting in the Borough of Manhattan or, if that court does not have subject matter jurisdiction, in any state court located in the City and County of New York, and the Company hereby submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of, and to venue in, such court.

In addition, please note that Goldman Sachs does not provide accounting, tax or legal advice. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, you are authorized to disclose to any person the U.S. federal and state income tax treatment and tax structure of the potential transaction and all materials of any kind (including tax opinions and other tax analyses) provided to you relating to that treatment and structure, without Goldman Sachs imposing any limitation of any kind. However, any information relating to the tax treatment and tax structure shall remain confidential (and the foregoing sentence shall not apply) to the extent necessary to enable any person to comply with securities laws. For this purpose, "tax structure" is limited to any facts that may be relevant to that treatment.

Very truly yours,

GOLDMAN SACHS MORTGAGE
