Aman Equipment, Inc. and Chad Aman V. Interstate Equipment Sales and Rentals, Inc., Joe Campbell, North Georgia Equipment Sales, LLC, and Wendell Spell

Filed in the Superior Court of Hall County, State of Georgia

Date filed: 6/2/09

This action is a byproduct of Interstates involvement as a victim in a large scale ponzi scheme, run by Wendell Spell that originated out of Lawrenceville, Georgia. Aman Equipment contends in his complaint that Interstate is guilty of fraud, conversion, unjust enrichment, aiding and abetting conversion, vicarious liability and breach of contract. Our involvement with Aman started when Interstate received $70,000 via wire from Aman Equipment. Interstate thought we were being funded for two machines we had sold to Wendell Spell. Aman thought he was funding Interstate for a machine Interstate had that was being sold to Aman by Spell. The machine Spell represented to Aman that Interstate had to sell never existed. Interstate has refused to return the money because it is our contention that we were being funded for units Interstate legitimately sold to Spell. Interstate is represented by Donald L. Swift III.
