STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. §112 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

Re: Chapter 11

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Grier:

This letter is sent as a result of our meeting whereby you expressed interest in retaining our firm to represent you in a potential case to be initiated under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. If retained, our firm will prepare and file your petition, statement of affairs, schedules, plan and disclosure statement and an attorney will attend all hearings in connection to the bankruptcy case.

In consideration of the legal services to be rendered by the firm you agree to pay $12,000.00 plus $1,039.00 filing fee in the form of a cashier's check. This will need to be paid before the date a petition is filed on your behalf which initiates a case under the Bankruptcy Code. We will not accept postdated checks. This retainer is a deposit to bill against for the Chapter 11 services and any unearned fees will be returned or applied as instructed by the court. The amount of this retainer should not be considered an estimate of the extent of attorneys fees that may be incurred as each case is unique and the circumstances of some cases necessitate more attention and, as a result, more attorneys fees and expenses are incurred.

In addition, you will be responsible for all expenses, including but not limited to the following: excessive postage, copies, long distance telephone calls, court costs, the addition of any creditors after the filing of said bankruptcy, motion to avoid liens, motions concerning your exemptions, redemption of property or reaffirmation of debt, including any hearings on the foregoing.

It is understood and agreed that the firm has not been retained or employed to represent you in any litigation or contested matter which may be presently pending, or which may be commenced after the date of this agreement either in state, federal or bankruptcy court. Should you request representation in any litigation, it is understood that any such legal services will be in addition to those described above and will be billed to you at the rate of $275.00 per hour and will require the deposit of an additional retainer or other satisfactory means for the payment of additional services.

It is understood that the retention of this law firm and the fee charges herein are only for work to be done to the limit of this proceeding. Upon the obtaining of a Discharge from the Court the case shall be deemed to be completed and this file will be closed.

Attorneys fees incurred shall be paid within 30 days of receipt of an invoice or Court order approving the same. Unpaid balances shall bear interest at the rate of 1.5% per month (18% per annum). In the event suit is brought to collect any unpaid attorney's fees, the undersigned agrees to pay all costs of collection, including a reasonable attorney's fee. It is further agreed that venue for any suit brought for the collection of attorney's fees shall be proper if brought in Greene County, Missouri.

Client File Retention

- A. It is understood and agreed that the client file is property of the client and that the file will be returned to the client upon completion of the case or matter herein, provided that client shall be required to execute a receipt for same.
- B. In the event that client does not elect to have the client's file returned upon completion of the representation in the case or matter, it is agreed that the law firm/attorneys shall have no obligation to preserve and retain same for more than five years after the date of completion of the representation in the case or matter and which date shall be the last date for which said law firm billed for services in said case or matter.
- C. In the event that client does not elect to have client's file returned upon completion of the representation client shall pay a one time service charge of $25.00 to have said file stored by the law firm and which shall also cover any costs incurred for said law firm to access said file for any purpose during the five year period referred to in paragraph #2 hereof.

 - e. That no items in the file with intrinsic value shall be destroyed.
 - f. That the method of destruction shall be done in a manner that preserves client confidentiality.
