hearings on the relief requested in the Cash Collateral Motion (collectively, the “Interim Hearings”), and (iii) scheduling a final hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion to consider entry of a final order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 4001 (the “Final Hearing”); and upon the Interim Hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion held on July 14, 2017, after which the Court entered a stipulation authorizing the Debtor’s use of Cash Collateral (as defined below) on an interim basis through and including August 18, 2017 [ECF No. 40] (the “First Agreed Interim Order”) and scheduling a further Interim Hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion for August 16, 2017; and upon the Interim Hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion held on August 16, 2017, after which the Court entered a stipulation authorizing the Debtor’s use of Cash Collateral (as defined below) on an interim basis through and including September 1, 2017 [ECF No. 166] (the “Second Agreed Interim Order”) and scheduling a further Interim Hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion for August 30, 2017; and after the Interim Hearing on August 30, 2017, after which the Court entered a stipulation authorizing the Debtor’s use of Cash Collateral (as defined below) on an interim basis through and including September 15, 2017 [ECF No.] (the “Third Agreed Interim Order”) and scheduling a further Interim Hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion for September 13, 2017; and upon the Interim Hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion held on September 13, 2017, after which the Court entered a stipulation authorizing the Debtor’s use of Cash Collateral (as defined below) on an interim basis through and including September 29, 2017 [ECF No. 219] (the “Fourth Agreed Interim Order”) and scheduling a further Interim Hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion for September 27, 2017; and upon the Interim Hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion held on September 27, 2017, after which the Court entered a stipulation authorizing the Debtor’s use of Cash Collateral (as defined below) on an interim basis through and including November 17, 2017 [ECF No. 233] (the “Fifth Agreed Interim Order”, which together with the First Agreed Interim Order, Second Agreed Interim Order, Third Agreed Interim Order, Fourth Agreed Interim Order and this Sixth Interim Order are referred to hereinafter as “Cash Collateral Orders”) and scheduling a further Interim Hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion for November 15, 2017; and after the Interim Hearing on November 15, 2017, the Court finds, on an interim basis, subject to the terms and conditions hereof, that (i) the Interim Relief requested in the Cash Collateral Motion is in the best interests of the Debtor, its estate and its creditors; (ii) the Interim Relief is necessary to provide the Debtor with sufficient cash and liquidity to avoid immediate and irreparable harm during the term of this order; (iii) in accordance with Rule 4001(a), (b) and (d) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), due and proper notice of the Cash Collateral Motion and the Interim Hearings has been given, and no other or further notice is necessary with respect to the Interim Relief; and (iv) upon the record herein, including, without limitation, statements of counsel and certain of the factual assertions raised in the Affidavit of Dana M. Weston in Support of First Day Motions and Applications [ECF No. 12], Berkadia Commercial Mortgage LLC’s Objection to the Cash Collateral Motion [ECF No. 380], United States’ Objection to the Cash Collateral Motion [ECF 381] and First-Citizens Bank & Trust’s Objection to the Cash Collateral Motion [ECF 385], after due deliberation thereon, good and sufficient cause exists for the entry of this sixth interim order granting the Interim Relief as set forth herein (this “Sixth Interim Order”).

Therefore, THE COURT HEREBY FINDS AND CONCLUDES that:

Background

A. The Motion is GRANTED and is incorporated by reference in this Sixth Interim Order, as interim findings, subject to further hearings from the Court.

B. On July 10, 2017 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor commenced this Chapter 11 case (the “Chapter 11 Case”) by filing a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq., as amended (the “Bankruptcy Code”), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of North Carolina (the “Court”).

C. The Debtor continues to operate its business and manage its properties as debtor in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in this Chapter 11 Case. On July 24, 2017, the Office of the United States Bankruptcy Administrator for the Middle District of North Carolina appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors (the “Committee”) pursuant to Section 1102(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

D. The Court has jurisdiction, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b) and 1334, over the Chapter 11 Case, and over the persons and property affected hereby. Consideration of the Cash Collateral Motion constitutes a core proceeding as defined in 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). The statutory predicates for the relief sought herein are sections 105, 361, 363 and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, and Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a), (b) and (d) and 6003.

E. The Debtor is a North Carolina non-profit corporation that owns and operates a 108-bed general acute care community hospital (the “Hospital”) in a 22-acre campus located at 117 East Kings Highway, Eden, North Carolina (the “Hospital Real Property”). Within the Hospital Real Property, the Debtor also owns and operates a 121-bed skilled nursing facility. In addition to the Hospital Real Property, the Debtor also owns several other parcels of real property located in Eden that are contiguous to, or in the general vicinity of, the Hospital Real Property (collectively, the “Additional Real Property”). The Additional Real Property is as follows:

Property Name	Location
Women’s Health Center	522 S. Van Buren Road, Eden, North Carolina

Thompson Street Building	515 Thompson Street, Eden, North Carolina

Smith McMichael Cancer Center	516 S. Van Buren Road, Eden, North Carolina
Medical Office Building No. 1	518 S. Van Buren Road, Eden, North Carolina
Medical Office Building No. 2	520 S. Van Buren Road, Eden, North Carolina
Wright Diagnostic Center	618 Pierce Street, Eden, North Carolina

The Debtor's Capital Structure

a. 2005 Bond Transaction

F. On June 15, 2005, the Debtor issued FHA-insured North Carolina Medical Care Commission Mortgage Revenue Bonds, Series 2005 of $47,675,000 (the "Series 2005 Bonds") to fund the costs of certain capital improvements of the Hospital's healthcare facilities and to refinance certain of its then-existing debt. The Series 2005 Bonds were issued pursuant to the Health Care Facilities Finance Act, Chapter 131A of the North Carolina General Statutes, as amended, and a Trust Indenture, dated as of June 15, 2005, between the North Carolina Medical Commission (the "Commission") and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (as successor to Wachovia Bank, N.A.), as Trustee (the "Trustee").

G. The proceeds of the Series 2005 Bonds were loaned by the Commission to the Debtor pursuant to a Loan Agreement, dated as of June 1, 2005, between the Commission and the Debtor. The obligations of the Debtor were evidenced by a Deed of Trust Note, dated as of June 15, 2005 (the "Series 2005 Note") from the Debtor to the Trustee for the Series 2005 Bonds. The Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD"), acting by and through the Federal Housing Commissioner ("FHA"), insured the advancement of funds pursuant to Section 242 of Title II of the National Housing Act, as amended. The Debtor entered into an FHA Regulatory Agreement, a Building Loan Agreement with Trustee, and certain other documents delivered to FHA and the Trustee, as beneficiary. In September 2008, final endorsement required by HUD was completed.

b. 2012 Refinance with Berkadia

H. In late 2012, the Debtor refinanced its Series 2005 Note obligations with a third-party commercial mortgage company, Berkadia Commercial Mortgage, LLC (“Berkadia”). The purpose of the refinance was to reduce the then-existing debt service payments.

I. On December 14, 2012, the Debtor executed a promissory note in favor of Berkadia in the amount of $40,566,294 (the “Berkadia Note”). The proceeds of the Berkadia loan were put into an escrow account that was used to service the existing Series 2005 Bonds until they were eligible to be redeemed in May 2015.

J. Under the terms of the Berkadia Note, the interest rate on the new loan is a fixed rate of 3.59%. Principal and interest payments are due monthly until the Berkadia Note matures in April 2032. As of the Petition Date, the amount outstanding under the Berkadia Note is approximately $33,848,885.

K. In conjunction with its refinancing, the Debtor entered into a new Regulatory Agreement with HUD (the “HUD Regulatory Agreement”). The Debtor was required to establish a Mortgage Reserve Fund (the “MRF”) with the Trustee. The MRF provides, subject to HUD approval, funds to, among other things, cure or prevent a default, engage a consultant, or implement a turnaround plan for the Debtor. The Debtor is required to make quarterly payments to the MRF which, when coupled with investment income, will equal certain required levels of debt service funds. As of the Petition Date, the MRF had a balance of approximately $5,347,588.80.

L. Berkadia asserts a perfected first priority security interest in certain of the Debtor’s real property, including the Hospital Real Property, the Wright Diagnostic Center, and the Smith McMichael Cancer Center (collectively, the “Berkadia Real Property”) by virtue of a Deed of Trust and Assignment of Rents, Profits, and Income filed on December 12, 2012 at Book 1447, Page 31, in the Registry of Deeds of Rockingham County, North Carolina (the “Berkadia Deed of Trust,” and together with the Berkadia Note, the “Berkadia Secured Financing Agreements”).

M. Berkadia and HUD assert, together, a perfected first priority security interest in, among other things, the Debtor’s accounts receivable, general intangibles, and health care insurance receivables (collectively, the “Berkadia and HUD Personal Property” and together with the Berkadia Real Property, the “Berkadia Prepetition Collateral”) by virtue of that certain Security Agreement dated December 14, 2012 and a UCC Financing Statement filed with the North Carolina Secretary of State, File No. 20120114847A, on December 13, 2012. Together, the Berkadia Real Property and the Berkadia and HUD Personal Property shall constitute the Prepetition Collateral.

N. The Berkadia Note is insured by the FHA, an organizational unit of HUD, pursuant to a commitment of insurance for refinancing under the provisions of sections 242/241 and 223(a)(7) of Title II of the National Housing Act, issued to InnoVative Capital, LLC by roger E. Miller, Agent of the Federal Housing Commissioner, dated November 20, 2012, assigned to Berkadia, as amended by that certain letter from Roger E. Miller, Agent for the Federal Housing Commissioner, to InnoVative Capital, LLC dated December 12, 2012 (the “FHA Commitment”). The FHA insurance endorsement is subject to compliance with the requirements and regulations and terms and conditions of a Regulatory Agreement dated December 14, 2012.

O. The Debtor owes approximately $1.3 million to First-Citizens Bank & Trust Company (“First-Citizens”) pursuant to a promissory note (the “First-Citizens Note”), and that debt is purportedly secured by a first priority security interest on the Dayspring Building and the Thomson Street Building, and an assignment of leases and rents to the Dayspring Building and the Thomson Street Building, by virtue of a Deed of Trust filed on November 1, 2007 at Book 1335, Page 2151, in the Registry of Deeds of Rockingham County, North Carolina (the “First-Citizens Deed of Trust,” and together with the First-Citizens Note, the “First-Citizens Secured Financing Agreements and Assignments”). In addition, First-Citizens alleges contract and common law setoff rights against the Debtor’s First-Citizens deposit accounts. The real property, rents, and First-Citizens deposit accounts subject to the First-Citizens Deed of Trust shall be referred to as the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral.

P. The Debtor is not aware of any other asserted liens or security interests against its real property, accounts receivable, general intangibles, health care insurance receivables, or rents, the proceeds of which would constitute “cash collateral” as that term is defined in the Bankruptcy Code (“Cash Collateral”).

Q. Without prejudice to the rights of any other party (but subject to the limitations thereon described below in Paragraph 21), the Debtor acknowledges and stipulates that, in accordance with the terms of the Berkadia Secured Financing Agreements, the Debtor is truly and justly indebted to Berkadia, without defense, counterclaim, or offset of any kind, and that as of the Petition Date, (i) the Debtor was liable to Berkadia in respect of loans made, and certain accrued and unaccrued interest, costs and fees, pursuant to the Berkadia Secured Financing Agreements in the aggregate amount of no less than $33,848,885 (exclusive of certain interest and fees accrued and unpaid thereon and other costs, expenses and indemnities), and (ii) pursuant to the Berkadia Secured Financing Agreements, the Debtor is liable to Berkadia for accrued and unpaid interest, commitment fees, attorneys’ and advisors’ fees, Expenses and other out-of-pocket expenses, costs and indemnities (collectively, subsections (i) and (ii) of this section are the “Berkadia Note Obligations”).

R. Without prejudice to the rights of any other party (but subject to the limitations thereon described below in Paragraph 21), the Debtor acknowledges and stipulates that under the Berkadia Secured Financing Agreements and as security for repayment of the Berkadia Note Obligations, the Debtor granted to Berkadia and HUD security interests in, and liens upon, the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral.

S. Without prejudice to the rights of any party (but subject to the limitations thereon described below in Paragraph 21), the Debtor acknowledges and stipulates that Berkadia’s security interests in, and liens on, the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral were properly perfected and are valid and enforceable first priority liens on and security interests in the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral. The Debtor further acknowledges that the Debtor’s cash on hand and cash equivalents as of the Petition Date that constitute proceeds of the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral are cash collateral of Berkadia and HUD within the meaning of Section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Berkadia Cash Collateral”). Berkadia and HUD are entitled, pursuant to Sections 361 and 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, to adequate protection of their interests in the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral, including for the use of Berkadia Cash Collateral, the use, sale, or lease of the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral other than Berkadia Cash Collateral, and for the imposition of the automatic stay.

T. In accordance with Section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral includes, without limitation, all proceeds, products and profits of the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral, whether existing before or after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Case.

U. Without prejudice to the rights of any other party (but subject to the limitations thereon described below in Paragraph 21), the Debtor acknowledges and stipulates that, in accordance with the terms of the First-Citizens Secured Financing Agreements and Assignments, the Debtor is truly and justly indebted to First-Citizens, without defense, counterclaim, or offset of any kind, and that as of the Petition Date, (i) the Debtor was liable to First-Citizens in respect of loans made, and certain accrued and unaccrued interest, costs, and fees, pursuant to the First-Citizens Secured Financing Agreements and Assignments in the aggregate amount of $1,309,165.95 (exclusive of certain interest and fees accrued and unpaid thereon and other costs, expenses and indemnities), and (ii) pursuant to the First-Citizens Secured Financing Agreements and Assignments, the Debtor is liable to First-Citizens for accrued and unpaid interest, commitment fees, attorneys' and advisors' fees, Expenses and other out of pocket expenses, costs and indemnities (collectively, subsections (i) and (ii) of this section are the "First-Citizens Note Obligations").

V. Without prejudice to the rights of any other party (but subject to the limitations thereon described below in Paragraph 21), the Debtor acknowledges and stipulates that under the First-Citizens Secured Financing Agreements and Assignments and as security for repayment of the First-Citizens Note Obligations, the Debtor granted to First-Citizens security interests in, and liens upon, the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral.

W. Without prejudice to the rights of any party (but subject to the limitations thereon described below in Paragraph 21), the Debtor acknowledges and stipulates that First-Citizens' security interests in, and liens on, the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral were properly perfected and are valid and enforceable first priority liens on and security interests in the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral. The Debtor further acknowledges that the Debtor's cash on hand and cash equivalents as of the Petition Date that constitute proceeds of the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral are cash collateral of First-Citizens within the meaning of Section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code (the “First-Citizens Cash Collateral”). First-Citizens is entitled, pursuant to Sections 361 and 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, to adequate protection of its interests in the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral, including for the use of First-Citizens Cash Collateral, the use, sale, or lease of the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral other than the First-Citizens Cash Collateral, and for the imposition of the automatic stay.

X. In accordance with Section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral includes, without limitation, all proceeds, products and profits of the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral, whether existing before or after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Case.

Y. The Debtor acknowledges and stipulates that, subject to the following exceptions, as of the Petition Date, all of the Debtor’s cash and cash equivalents (the “Available Cash”) are the proceeds, products, and profits of the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral and/or the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral. The exceptions are (1) income from Medical Office Building No. 1, Medical Office Building No. 2, and the Women’s Health Center; and (2) restricted donations from donors (collectively, the “Excepted Cash”).

Z. The Debtor acknowledges and agrees that, except for the Excepted Cash, all of the Debtor’s Available Cash held on the Petition Date together with any cash or cash equivalent proceeds of the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral received on or after the Petition Date shall constitute Berkadia Cash Collateral and/or the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral.

AA. Without prejudice to the rights of any party (but subject to the limitations thereon described below in Paragraph 21), the Debtor acknowledges and agrees that (i) the Berkadia

Note Obligations and the First-Citizens Note Obligations constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Debtor, enforceable in accordance with the terms of the Berkadia Secured Financing Agreements and the First-Citizens Secured Financing Agreements and Assignments (other than in respect of the stay of enforcement arising from Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code), (ii) no offsets, defenses or counterclaims exist to the currently outstanding Berkadia Note Obligations or the First-Citizens Note Obligations, (iii) the liens and security interests of Berkadia, HUD, and First-Citizens (the “Lenders”) are first priority, valid, enforceable, perfected, and not subject to avoidance, subordination, or challenge; and (iv) no portion of the Berkadia Note Obligations or the First-Citizens Note Obligations is subject to avoidance, subordination, or disallowance pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law.

BB. Subject to the provisions of Paragraph 23 hereof, upon entry of this Sixth Interim Order, in light of the Lenders’ agreement to subordinate their rights of payment, liens, and super-priority/priority claims to the Carve-Out (as defined herein) and to also carve out from their liens and super-priority administrative claim rights under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and their proceeds, to the extent set forth below, Berkadia and HUD are entitled to and shall receive with respect to the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral and any Berkadia Replacement Collateral, and First-Citizens is entitled to and shall receive with respect to the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral and any First-Citizens Replacement Collateral, a waiver of the provisions of Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

The Debtor’s Need for Use of Cash Collateral

CC. An immediate need exists for the Debtor to have access to the Berkadia Cash Collateral and the First-Citizens Cash Collateral in order to continue its operations, meet its payroll, and other necessary, ordinary course business expenditures, administer and preserve the value of its estate, and maintain adequate access to cash in amounts customary and necessary for companies of this size in this industry to maintain customer and vendor confidence. The ability of the Debtor to finance its operations by way of working capital requires its access to cash resources, the absence of which would immediately and irreparably harm the Debtor, its estate, and its creditors. The Debtor requires these cash resources to operate its businesses, preserve the confidences of vendors, suppliers and customers, and to preserve the value of its businesses.

DD. The Debtor has requested that, pursuant to Section 363(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Lenders consent to the Debtor's use of Berkadia Cash Collateral and First-Citizens Cash Collateral and the Debtor's use, sale, and lease of the other Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral and First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral in the ordinary course of business pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Sixth Interim Order during the Interim Cash Collateral Period (as defined below). The Debtor acknowledges and agrees that the Lenders are entitled to adequate protection pursuant to Sections 361 and 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to Berkadia Cash Collateral, First-Citizens Cash Collateral, and other Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral and First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral, including, without limitation, to compensate the Lenders for any loss or diminution in the value of Berkadia Cash Collateral, First-Citizens Cash Collateral, or other Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral and First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral resulting from the Debtor's use of Berkadia Cash Collateral or First Citizen Cash Collateral, the use, sale or lease of other Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral and First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral in the ordinary course of business and the imposition of the automatic stay during the Interim Cash Collateral Period.

EE. Subject to the entry, and continued effectiveness, of this Sixth Interim Order, the Lenders have consented to the Debtor's use of Berkadia Cash Collateral, First-Citizens Cash

Collateral, and use, sale or lease of other Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral and First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral in the ordinary course of business during the Interim Cash Collateral Period. The foregoing notwithstanding, nothing in this Sixth Interim Order shall be construed as limiting or prohibiting the Lenders from objecting to any relief sought by the Debtor in the Chapter 11 Case, including, without limitation, any DIP Financing¹ or any motion for the further use of Berkadia Cash Collateral or First-Citizens Cash Collateral, other than the entry of this Sixth Interim Order and any Further Order entered on the Cash Collateral Motion (“Further Order”), provided such final order is on terms acceptable to the Lenders.

FF. The Interim Relief requested herein is, subject to the terms and conditions hereof, necessary, essential and appropriate for the continued operations of the Debtor’s businesses and the preservation of its estate and the value of the Debtor’s businesses.

GG. Good and sufficient cause has been shown for the entry of this Sixth Interim Order. Among other things, the entry of this Sixth Interim Order is in the best interests of the Debtor, its creditors, and its estate because it will enable the Debtor to (i) continue operating its businesses and avoid an immediate shutdown of operations, (ii) meet obligations for payroll, necessary expenditures, and other operating expenses, (iii) pay necessary fees and professional expenses under the Bankruptcy Code and make payments authorized under other orders entered by the Court, (iv) obtain needed goods and services, (v) retain vendor, patient and employee confidence, and (vi) maintain adequate cash resources customary and necessary for hospitals of this size, thereby avoiding immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtor’s estate.

¹ The term “DIP Financing” means any debtor-in-possession financing facility, cash loans or liquidity facility provided to the Debtor pursuant to Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code secured by liens on and against property of the Debtor’s estate. Any party that provides the Debtor with DIP Financing shall be referred to as a “DIP Lender”.

HH. Prior notice of the Interim Hearing for entry of this Sixth Interim Order and the Interim Relief requested in the Cash Collateral Motion was provided by the Court to the Master Service List², including (i) the office of the United States Bankruptcy Administrator for the Middle District of North Carolina; (ii) all known parties asserting liens on the Debtor's assets; (iii) counsel to Berkadia; (iv) counsel to HUD; (v) counsel to First-Citizens; and (vi) proposed counsel to the Committee. Requisite, due and proper notice has been provided in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 4001, which notice is sufficient for all purposes under the Bankruptcy Code and no other notice need be provided for entry of this Sixth Interim Order.

II. The Debtor has requested immediate entry of this Sixth Interim Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 6004(g), and the Lenders have consented to the Interim Relief contained herein. Good and sufficient cause has been shown for the entry of this Sixth Interim Order.

NOW, based upon the Cash Collateral Motion of the Debtor and the record before the Court with respect to the Cash Collateral Motion made by the Debtor at the Interim Hearing, and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED effective immediately that:

1. The Cash Collateral Motion is GRANTED with respect to the Interim Relief on the terms and conditions set forth herein and the findings and conclusions above are incorporated by reference in this Sixth Interim Order.

2. (a) So long as no breach of the termination provisions pursuant to Section 16 hereof has occurred, this Sixth Interim Order shall remain in effect until the earliest of (i) the close of business on December 15, 2017, (ii) the conclusion of the further hearing on the Cash Collateral Motion authorizing the Debtor's continued use of Berkadia Cash Collateral and First-

² As defined in the Order Establishing Certain Notice and Case Management Procedures [ECF No. 49].

Citizens Cash Collateral (the “Further Hearing”), or (iii) the breach of the termination provisions provided in Paragraph 16 of this Sixth Interim Order (such period, as it may be extended pursuant to the following proviso, the “Interim Cash Collateral Period”). The Debtor’s ability and authorization to use Berkadia Cash Collateral and First-Citizens Cash Collateral during the Interim Cash Collateral Period shall at all times be subject to the termination provisions of Paragraph 16 of this Sixth Interim Order.

(a) During the Interim Cash Collateral Period, the Debtor waives any right to seek relief under the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, under Sections 105(a) and 363(c)(2), to the extent any such relief would in any way restrict or impair the rights and remedies of the Lenders as set forth in this Sixth Interim Order; provided, however, (i) after the occurrence of a termination event set forth in Paragraph 16 hereof, the Debtor may seek entry of an Order authorizing the use of Cash Collateral over the Lenders’ objection; (ii) at any time, the Debtor may seek to sell the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral and/or the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral; and (iii) with respect to sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) above, the Lenders reserve all rights and remedies, under the Bankruptcy Code, this Sixth Interim Order or otherwise, including, without limitation, the right to object to such relief. If the Debtor, or any other person, challenges the expiration or termination of the Interim Cash Collateral Period, any such objector’s remedy shall be limited to requesting a hearing before the Court, with at least three (3) business days’ written notice to the Lenders. In any such hearing, the sole issue before the Court shall be whether the Interim Cash Collateral Period expired or was terminated pursuant to the terms of this Sixth Interim Order.

Good Faith, Reliance and Conduct

3. The Debtor, the Lenders, and their respective agents, advisors, and employees have acted in good faith in negotiating, consenting, and agreeing to the Debtor’s use of Berkadia

Cash Collateral and First-Citizens Cash Collateral and the use, sale, and lease of other Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral and First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral in the ordinary course of business as contemplated and provided by this Sixth Interim Order. The negotiation of the terms and provisions of this Sixth Interim Order has been conducted at arm's length, and the Court finds that such terms and conditions are fair and reasonable, under the circumstances, and reflect the Debtor's exercise of reasonable business judgment consistent with the Debtor's fiduciary duties.

4. To the extent Berkadia or HUD is not secured in the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral and to the extent that First-Citizens is not secured in the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral, the Lenders shall not have Replacement Liens (as defined below) or a Super-Priority Claim (as defined below) with regard to any use of cash or cash equivalents that is not found to be their Cash Collateral pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. In the event that any Court of competent jurisdiction determines, in a final non-appealable order, that the Lenders were undersecured or unsecured as of the Petition Date, and not entitled to be paid interest, fees, and related charges post-petition, then (i) the Debtor's obligations to make all payments and to comply with all other terms and conditions established by this Sixth Interim Order shall not terminate or abate, but all such payments of interest, fees, and related charges paid during the Interim Cash Collateral Period shall be applied to the secured principal amount of the Berkadia Note Obligations or the First-Citizens Note Obligations as of the Petition Date, or as may otherwise be provided in such order, and (ii) the Lenders shall be entitled to a hearing before the Court with at least three (3) business days' written notice to the Debtor and its counsel, re-examining the adequate protection of their secured interests in the Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral, the First-Citizens Pre-Petition Collateral, the First-Citizens Replacement Collateral

(as defined below), and Berkadia Replacement Collateral (as defined below), and the authority of the Debtor to use Berkadia Cash Collateral and First-Citizens Cash Collateral.

5. In exercising any of its rights or remedies, as and when permitted pursuant to this Sixth Interim Order, the Berkadia Secured Financing Agreements, or the First-Citizens Secured Financing Agreements and Assignments, the Lenders shall not be deemed to be in control of the operations of the Debtor.

6. Based on the findings set forth in this Sixth Interim Order, and the Lenders' reliance in good faith on the terms thereof, if any of the provisions of this Sixth Interim Order are hereafter modified, vacated, or stayed by an order of this Court or another court, such stay, modification, or vacation shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any claim, lien, security interest, or priority authorized for the Lenders' benefit that is granted or attaches prior to the effective date of such stay, modification or vacation, and any use of Berkadia Cash Collateral or First-Citizens Cash Collateral or the use, sale, or lease of other Berkadia Pre-Petition Collateral or First-Citizens Pre-Petition Cash Collateral in the ordinary course of business by the Debtor pursuant to this Sixth Interim Order prior to the effective date of such modification, stay, or vacation shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Sixth Interim Order.

Authorized Use of Berkadia Cash Collateral

7. Cash Collateral. The Debtor is hereby authorized to use Berkadia Cash Collateral and First-Citizens Cash Collateral during the Interim Cash Collateral Period, subject to the conditions and limitations set forth herein.

8. Authorized Uses of Cash Collateral. The Debtor may use Berkadia Cash Collateral and First-Citizens Cash Collateral during the Interim Cash Collateral Period, to pay only the ordinary and reasonable expenses of operating its business that are necessary to avoid
