12 LEAP FORWARD GAMING, INC.,
13 Debtor-in-Possession.

CASE NO. 16-50850-BTB
CHAPTER 11

14 AMENDMENT TO (Proposed)
15 DISCLOSURE STATEMENT OF LEAP
16 FORWARD GAMING, INC.

17 Hearing Date: September 6, 2016
18 Hearing Time: 2:00 p.m.

19 _____/
20 Leap Forward Gaming, Inc. (the “Debtor” or “LFG”), debtor and debtor-in-possession,
21 amends proposed Disclosure Statement, DE 51, to include, in Section 3a. the following:

22 Pre Petition Litigation

23 In addition to the litigation with IGT described below, at the Petition Date, LFG was a
24 party to three lawsuits:

- 25 1. LFG v. Andrew Novotak, Jr., Case No. CV15-02014, Second Judicial District
26 Court, Washoe County;
- 27 2. Andrew Novotak, Jr. v. LFG, Ali Saffari, Case No. CV15-02420, Second Judicial 28 District Court, Washoe County; and
3. Peerless Indemnity Insurance Company v. LFG, Saffari, Cobb, and Cunningham,
Case No. 2:15-cv-02390-APG-CWH, United States District Court, Las Vegas.

1 Civil actions 1 and 2 have been consolidated and as of the Petition Date, documents have
2 been exchanged in accordance with NRC 16.1.

3 In these cases, LFG's claims against Novotak are essentially contingent assets which LFG
4 may pursue against Novotak. [Note: on August 24, 2016, the parties to these consolidated actions
5 participated in a voluntary settlement conference conducted by retired District Court judge Brent
6 Adams. No settlement was reached. Following that conference, LFG consented to the lifting of 7 the automatic stay to permit Novotak to pursue claims in state court on the condition that any
8 recovery would be limited to available insurance proceeds, if any.
9

10 In the event the settlement conference is unsuccessful, LFG reserves the right to pursue its 11 affirmative claims against Novotak.

12 Civil action 3, Peerless Indemnity v. LFG, et al. is a declaratory relief action pending in 13 federal court. Peerless seeks a determination that LFG, Safari, Cobb and/or Cunningham are not
14 entitled to coverage under a Commercial General Liability Policy or a Commercial Umbrella
15 Liability Policy.

17 LFG has not filed an answer to the Peerless action; however, in the event it is required to 18 do so, available coverage is deemed by LFG to be an asset of the bankruptcy estate.
