Chapter 11

Etienne Estates At Washington LLC,

Case No.

Debtor.

DECLARATION PURSUANT TO LOCAL RULE 1007-4

Johanna MI. Francis declares the following under penalties of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746:

1. I am the member and manager of Etienne Estates LLC, which is the majority member and manager of the Etienne Estates At Washington LLC (the "Debtor"). I submit this Declaration pursuant to Rule 1007-2 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules, to provide background information regarding the Debtor's assets, the circumstances prompting the Chapter 11 filing, and the Debtor's strategies for reorganization.

(A) The Debtor's Assets

2. The Debtor owns certain real property at 301 Washington Avenue, Brooklyn, NY (hereinafter the "Property"). I have resided at the Property my entire life, as has my fourteen year old son. I also maintain personal offices at the Property for my wholly owned companies as well as those entities which I manage for my extended family, although for all intents and purposes, the Property constitutes my primary residence. 3. The Property is subject to a highly disputed mortgage held by First Central Savings Bank ("FCSB") on which there is claimed a principal balance of $1,786,726.62. In reality, the FCSB mortgage is plagued by numerous defects and is the product of predatory lending practices and shoddy recording and paperwork characteristic of the MERS registration system.

(B) Material Events Leading up to the Bankruptcy

4. The Property has been the subject of foreclosure proceedings since 2011, although for the last several years, the foreclosure laid dormant after the Debtor and I interposed an answer to the foreclosure complaint, challenging multiple procedural and substantive aspects of the alleged mortgage.

5. Beginning in mid-2013, I entertained settlement discussions with FCSB and its counsel in an attempt to reach a negotiated restructuring of the mortgage, including waiver of all accrued interest and other charges. These discussions involved FCSB's chairman, Joseph Pistilli. At the time, I was hoping to receive a significant dividend in connection with my claims and equity interest in The Arc Building LP ("Arc"), a companion Chapter 11 case. Last May, Arc closed on a sale of commercial real property in Manhattan for $12 million, and funded its own Chapter 11 plan, resulting in a net balance of approximately $3,380,000, which is now available for distribution to insiders, including my claims and interests.

6. While I pursued a settlement with FCSB in good faith, the proposed documents prepared by FCSB did not accurately reflect the understandings we had reached. After months of discussions, the settlement collapsed last fall.

7. In recent weeks, FCSB has sought to turn up the heat on me, and moved for the appointment of a receiver, even though the Property constitutes my residence, and there are no tenants. Since the loan in question was structured by FCSB as a residential home equity line of credit, or HELOC, there is no basis for the appointment of a receiver, as FCSB well knows. Additionally, I recently learned that, without notice to me, FCSB previously obtained the ex parte appointment of a Referee to compute, even though my answer to the complaint was filed, replete with numerous affirmative defenses.

8. As necessary, I intent to challenge the validity and priority of FCSB's claims on several grounds, including (i) FCSB is relying on a MERS mortgage that is not supported by an original note; (ii) FCSB is seeking to enforce an unrecorded consolidated mortgage and assignment documents from entities which did not have standing to make the purported assignments; and (iii) all of the loan documents contain conflicting statements as to the identity of the borrower, and listing me personally as co-owner.

9. The Arc insiders are now proceeding with mediation and arbitration to determine final entitlement to the net sale proceeds. This proceeding should be completed in the next few months, and I expect to receive a sizeable recover based on asserted claims in excess of $2.0 million for pre- and post-petition services to Arc. My distribution in ARC can be used to restructure the allowed debt owed to FCSB after objections and proper adjustments. My goal is to retain my home for the benefit of my son and I.

10. In the interim, to protect the Property, I have elected to file a Chapter 11 petition to preserve the status quo. My personal interests in the ARC mediation and arbitration are being represented by Ronald Terenzi, Esq. of Stagg, Terenzi, Confusione & Wabnik, LLP. I requested that Goldberg Weprin Finkel Goldstein LLP represent me in this Chapter 11 case because the firm handled the prior Chapter 11 case of Arc, which is now ready to be closed, and participated in the aborted settlement negotiations with FCSB.

(C) Capital Structure

11. The Debtor's sole alleged secured creditor is FCSB.

12. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007(d), a list containing the names and addresses of the creditors holding unsecured claims against the Debtor is being filed herewith.

13. Although the Property is 200 years old and requires renovations, it is still worth more than the disputed secured claim asserted by FCSB. A specific value will be determined after an appraisal, as necessary.

14. The current roster of the Debtor's members are as follows: (i)90% held by Etienne Estates LLC (a single-member LLC owned by me); and (ii)10% owned by Francis Family Investments LLC.

(D) Reorganization Strategy

15. My anticipated recovery in the Arc case will dictate the final reorganization strategy. I envision challenging FCSB's secured claim on multiple grounds, with a view of restarting negotiations that give proper deference to the myriad issues plaguing FCSB's standing and the overall enforceability of the loan.

16. Finally, I note that this case is not being filed as a "single asset real estate" case. I am advised by counsel that the definitional provisions in Section 101(51B) of the Bankruptcy Code specifically exclude residential property with fewer than four units, such as the Property herein.
