EXHIBIT B Disclosure Statement Order

I. INTRODUCTION

Gawker Media LLC (“Gawker Media”), Gawker Media Group, Inc. (“GMGI”), and Gawker Hungary Kft. (“Gawker Hungary”), as debtors and debtors in possessions (collectively, the “Debtors” or the “Company”), submit this disclosure statement (this “Disclosure Statement”) pursuant to section 1125 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) to Holders of Claims against and Equity Interests in the Debtors in connection with the solicitation of acceptances of the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Gawker Media Group, Inc., Gawker Media LLC, and Gawker Hungary Kft. (as may be amended, supplemented, and modified from time to time, the “Plan”),³ dated September 30, 2016. The Plan provides for the liquidation of the Debtors and the resolution of all Claims against and Equity Interests in each of the three Debtors in these chapter 11 cases (the “Bankruptcy Cases”), and constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan of liquidation for each Debtor. Each Class of Claims against or Equity Interests in the Debtors shall be deemed to constitute a separate Class of Claims against and Equity Interests in the relevant Debtor, as applicable, and each such Class shall vote as a single separate Class for such Debtor, as applicable, and the confirmation requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code must be satisfied separately with respect to each of the Debtors.

THE DEBTORS EACH BELIEVE THAT THE COMPROMISES AND SETTLEMENTS CONTEMPLATED UNDER THE PLAN ARE FAIR AND EQUITABLE, MAXIMIZE THE VALUE OF THE DEBTORS’ ESTATES, AND PROVIDE THE BEST RECOVERY TO CLAIM AND EQUITY INTEREST HOLDERS.

THE INDEPENDENT DIRECTOR OF GMGI, FOR GMGI ITSELF, AND FOR GMGI TO TAKE ACTION AS THE MANAGER OF GAWKER MEDIA AND THE MANAGER OF GAWKER HUNGARY, HAVE APPROVED THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THE PLAN AND DESCRIBED IN THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT, AND THE DEBTORS EACH RECOMMEND THAT ALL HOLDERS OF CLAIMS OR EQUITY INTERESTS WHOSE VOTES ARE BEING SOLICITED SUBMIT BALLOTS TO ACCEPT THE PLAN.

II. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Debtors in these Bankruptcy Cases are GMGI and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary. Prior to filing for bankruptcy, the Company was a privately-held, online media company whereby Gawker Media operated seven distinct media brands with corresponding websites under the names Gawker, Deadspin, Lifehacker, Gizmodo, Kotaku, Jalopnik, and Jezebel (the “Websites”), using certain intellectual property and other intangible assets owned by and licensed from Gawker Hungary. While Gawker is the most well-known brand and website, the six other brands identified above represented approximately 85% of revenues. The Debtors also license their web content internationally to third parties that run similar websites based on the Company’s brands, such as Gizmodo en Espanol, Gizmodo Australia, Kotaku Australia, and Lifehacker Australia. Gawker Media’s primary source of revenue was earned through sales of advertising space on the Websites.

Historically, the Company’s financial health was good; it survived the 2008-2009 recession and was profitable from 2010 until 2015. However, despite its longrunning success and commendable growth trajectory, the Company suffered from substantial legal expenses and a recent Florida State court judgment totaling more than $130 million. While the Company believes that the judgment will be overturned on appeal, it could not meet conditions for a stay pending appeal set by the Florida state court and therefore execution of the judgment was possible. Accordingly, the Company sought immediate chapter 11 relief.

On June 10, 2016, Gawker Media filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Gawker Media Petition Date”). On June 12, 2016, GMGI and Gawker Hungary each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively with the Gawker Media Petition Date, the “Petition Dates”). The Debtors continue to operate their businesses as debtors and debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in the Bankruptcy Cases.

The chapter 11 process provides the Debtors with breathing room from execution on the Florida state court judgment and the opportunity to negotiate with creditors regarding a plan of liquidation that will enable the Debtors to address creditor claims, including through an appeal of that judgment. The Florida judgment and other pending litigation made it unrealistic for the Debtors to reorganize their business, so, at the outset of the Bankruptcy Cases, the Debtors sought and received approval from the Bankruptcy Court to enter an agreement with a stalking horse bidder and commence an auction process to sell their assets in order to generate proceeds that could be used to satisfy Claims against and Equity Interests in the Debtors. Additionally, the Debtors retained a chief restructuring officer to oversee and coordinate with the Debtors' officers and management a rapid and successful sale that would yield the highest and best outcome for all stakeholders. GMGI also appointed an Independent Director with no prior relationship with, or financial interest in, the Debtors to oversee, among other things, the sale process, the negotiation and prosecution of the plan(s) of liquidation, and make any decisions with respect thereto.

As a result of extensive marketing efforts by the Debtors and their advisors, a second bidder emerged and an auction was held on August 16, 2016 at the offices of Ropes & Gray LLP. At the conclusion of the auction, the Debtors, in consultation with the Committee determined that the successful bidder was Unimoda LLP ("Unimoda"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Univision Communications Inc., with a bid of $135 million in cash (plus other consideration) to acquire substantially all of the Debtors' assets as set forth in further detail below. On August 22, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the proposed Unimoda Sale. The Unimoda Sale closed on September 9, 2016. Since then, the Debtors have held discussions regarding terms of a potential consensual plan of liquidation for the Debtors with the Committee, major preferred equity holders and the Second Lien Lender, but have not yet reached definitive agreements.

The Plan incorporates a proposed intercompany settlement of disputes among the Debtors regarding the appropriate allocation of proceeds from the Unimoda Sale and various liabilities among them. The proposed Plan also includes a resolution of disputes regarding the outstanding Second Lien Make-Whole Claims in exchange for subordinating portions of the otherwise Disputed, Secured Second Lien Lender claims to general unsecured creditors at each Debtor entity, as well as release and resolution of certain disputed claims or causes of action among the Debtors.

III. SUMMARY OF THE PLAN

This summary does not contain all of the information that is important to you and is qualified in its entirety by the more detailed information included elsewhere in this Disclosure Statement and in the accompanying Plan.

Background Information: The Bankruptcy Code requires acceptance by creditors holding at least two-thirds in dollar amount and a majority in number of allowed claims in at least one Impaired Class of each Debtor, counting only those claims actually voting to accept or reject the Plan.

Voting Record Date: The Voting Record Date is October 31, 2016. Only holders of Claims or Equity Interests in Classes 1A, 1C, 1D(ii), 1E, 2A, 2C, 2D, 2F, 3A, 3D(ii), and 3E as of the Voting Record Date are entitled to vote on the Plan. The Debtors reserve the right to establish a later Voting Record Date if the Debtors decide to extend the Voting Deadline.

Voting Deadline; Extension; Termination; Amendments: The Voting Deadline is December 5, 2016. If the Debtors extend the Voting Deadline, the term Voting Deadline will mean the latest time and date as to which the solicitation of votes on the Plan is extended. Any extension of the Voting Deadline will be followed as promptly as practicable by notice of the extension.

Voting Procedures: Any holder of a Claim or Equity Interest as of the Voting Record Date should deliver a properly completed Ballot to the Voting Agent so that it is actually received on or before the Voting Deadline.

Revocation or Withdrawal of Ballots: Any holder of a Claim or Equity Interest may withdraw their Ballot(s) up until the Voting Deadline. Following the Voting Deadline, Ballots may not be withdrawn.

Voting Agent: Prime Clerk LLC.

The Plan: The Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan of liquidation for each Debtor. As a result, for the Plan to become effective and for the Debtors to make any distributions thereunder, the Bankruptcy Court must confirm the Plan with respect to each Debtor, individually. If any Claim against or Equity Interest in any of the Debtors is Impaired, for the Bankruptcy Court to confirm the Plan with respect to that Debtor by consent of an Impaired Class, the Bankruptcy Code requires that the applicable Debtor must receive votes to approve the Plan prior to the Voting Deadline from holders of Impaired Claims, that constitute (i) at least two-thirds in amount of the Claims of the holders in such Impaired Class of Claims who actually cast votes in respect of the Plan and (ii) more than one-half in number of the holders of such Impaired Class of Claims who actually cast votes with respect to the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan with respect to any of the Debtors so long as one Impaired Class of Claims against such Debtor votes to accept the Plan and the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to such Debtor.

If the Plan is confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, holders of Claims and Equity Interests will receive, in full satisfaction and discharge of such Claim against or Equity Interest in the Debtors, the treatment provided for in the Plan and summarized in the section entitled Treatment of Claims and Equity Interests below.

Effectiveness of the Plan: The Effective Date will not occur, and distributions will not be made under the Plan, unless the Debtors have received the requisite votes to accept the Plan under the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Court has confirmed the Plan as satisfying the requirements set forth in section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the other conditions to effectiveness set forth in Section 6.02 of the Plan have been satisfied. The Debtors cannot assure you that they will receive the requisite votes to accept the Plan under the Bankruptcy Code, that the Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan, or that the other conditions to effectiveness of the Plan will be satisfied.

If the Bankruptcy Court confirms the Plan and it becomes effective, the terms of the Plan will bind every holder of a Claim against or Equity Interest in the Debtors, whether or not such holder voted to accept the Plan.

Treatment of Claims and Equity Interests: The table below summarizes each Class of Claims and Equity Interests in the Plan for each Debtor, the treatment of each Class, the projected aggregate amount of Claims or Equity Interests comprising each Class, and the range of projected recoveries of each Class.

The Gawker Media Distribution Date will be designated by the Plan Administrator promptly following such time as all there remain no Disputed Claims Against Gawker Media. GMGI Distribution Dates will be designated by the Plan Administrator in its sole discretion, when a Distribution is made to holders of claims against GMGI as a result of distributions to GMGI from Gawker Media or Gawker Hungary, Allowance or Disallowance of Disputed Claims against GMGI, or as the Plan Administrator may otherwise determine.

Plan Supplement: The Debtors will file the Plan Supplement not later than five days before the earlier of the (i) Voting Deadline and (ii) deadline for objections to Confirmation of the Plan (or such later date as may be approved by the Bankruptcy Court). It is anticipated that the Plan Supplement will include, among other things, the form of Plan Administrator Agreement.

Risk Factors: Prior to deciding whether and how to vote on the Plan, each holder of a Claim or Equity Interest should consider carefully all of the information in this Disclosure Statement, especially the “Risk Factors” described in Article XI hereof.

IV. THE DEBTORS’ BUSINESS OPERATIONS AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

Since its inception in 2002 as a single blog operated from Nick Denton’s apartment, the Company grew into a network of seven branded news and lifestyle Websites, each with millions of readers. Historically, the Company’s financial health was good; it survived the 2008-2009 recession and was profitable from 2010 until 2015. However, despite its longrunning success and commendable growth trajectory in 2016, the Company incurred significant legal expenses and had awarded against it the Bollea Judgments of more than $130 million in the Bollea I Case. While the Company believes that the Bollea Judgments will be overturned on appeal, it could not post the $50 million bond required by the Florida state court to stay execution of the judgments while the appeal is pending. Accordingly, the Company sought immediate chapter 11 relief.

A. Overview of the Debtors’ Business

The Debtors in these Bankruptcy Cases include GMGI and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary. Prior to filing for bankruptcy, the Company was a privately-held, online media company whereby Gawker Media operated seven distinct media brands with corresponding websites under the names Gawker, Deadspin, Lifehacker, Gizmodo, Kotaku, Jalopnik, and Jezebel (the “Websites”), using certain intellectual property and other intangibles owned by and licensed from Gawker Hungary. While Gawker is the most well-known brand and website, the six other brands identified above represented approximately 85% of revenues. The Debtors also license their web content internationally to third parties that run similar websites based on the Company’s brands, such as Gizmodo Australia, Kotaku Australia, and Lifehacker Australia. The Debtors’ primary source of revenue was earned through sales of advertising space on the Websites. Additional information about each of the Websites is available in the First Day Declaration.

Prior to filing for bankruptcy, Gawker Hungary, the Debtors’ subsidiary operated in Hungary, owned the proprietary publishing and discussions platform and intellectual property used by Gawker Media’s brands and the Websites (collectively, the “Gawker Hungary Assets”). Gawker Media had an exclusive license of the Gawker Hungary Assets and intercompany arrangements with Gawker Hungary to enable the affiliates to maximize use of their complementary assets and employees.

To facilitate Gawker Media's use of Gawker Hungary's intellectual property, web domains, and proprietary publishing platform, Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary were party to several intercompany agreements, each as described herein.

B. Intercompany Arrangements Between Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary

Gawker Hungary's IP License to Gawker Media. First, pursuant to a Master License Agreement, dated as of January 1, 2011 (the "Master License Agreement"), between Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary, Gawker Media obtained an exclusive license to use certain brand elements, including trademarks, trade names, and service marks, as well as associated goodwill, websites, web addresses, and URLs, patents, copyrights, works of authorship, trademarks, and related intellectual property. Under the terms of the Master License Agreement, Gawker Media agreed to pay Gawker Hungary a quarterly license fee determined by the amount of revenue received or receivable by Gawker Media over the twelve month calendar year beginning January 1 and ending December 31.

Gawker Media's Services to Gawker Hungary. Second, pursuant to a Development Agreement, dated as of January 1, 2007 (as amended on January 21, 2013, the "Development Agreement"), by and between Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary, Gawker Media provided certain development services to Gawker Hungary, including designing, developing, and testing scalable software to serve as a publishing and content management platform for Gawker Hungary's properties and other websites, handling of content produced by users of the platform (i.e., posts, comments, video, photos, etc.), providing for the storage of media related to content production and aggregation and display of content sourced from external resources, providing security and authentication systems to ensure authenticity of user generated content, and providing Gawker Hungary with information and assistance as is necessary to allow Gawker Hungary to sell advertising. Under the terms of the Development Agreement, Gawker Hungary agreed to pay Gawker Media for the direct costs of the services provided plus 5%. Unless terminated by one party upon material breach by the other party, the term of the Development Agreement expires on December 31, 2022.

Gawker Hungary's Services to Gawker Media LLC. Third, pursuant to an Intercompany Services Agreement, dated as of January 1, 2012 (the "Gawker Hungary Services Agreement"), by and between Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary, Gawker Hungary agreed to perform certain editorial services, content creation services, and other services for Gawker Media. Under the terms of the Intercompany Services Agreement, Gawker Media agreed to pay Gawker Hungary for the costs of services provided plus 5%.

C. The Debtors' Primary Assets

1. GMGI Assets

GMGI's principal assets are its direct 100% ownership of Gawker Hungary and Gawker Media. GMGI does not have real estate holdings, significant cash on deposit, or other fixed assets.

2. Gawker Media Assets

Gawker Media's share of the Company's value derived from the Websites' content, primarily from selling advertising on the Websites and earning revenue from sales of products that Gawker Media wrote about or promoted on the Websites. Advertising on the Websites accounts for approximately 75% of Gawker Media's revenue per year, as compared to all other sources combined, which accounted for approximately 25% of gross revenue. Advertising revenue was primarily earned by serving display, content and video advertisements on the site. Non-advertising revenue was primarily earned via links to products users could purchase on other sites, which in turn paid the Gawker Media an affiliate fee or commission. The Gawker Media had an in-house sales team that sold advertising space on the Websites, and the Gawker Media also engaged a number of third-party sellers to sell its unsold advertising inventory on open exchanges. The Website advertisers who purchased traditional ad space were not subject to long-term contracts. The company used standard "insertion orders" that followed the standards established by the Interactive Advertising Bureau. For custom ad campaigns, the ad purchases typically spanned one quarter or possibly two quarters. For regular, non-custom ad purchases, the duration of the ad on the Websites was usually 30 to 60 days.

Gawker Media also derived a small portion of its revenue from international licensing of the content from the Websites. For example, Gawker Media licensed the content of its Gizmodo Website to entities in Brazil, Europe and Japan, and those international entities in turn use the Gizmodo content for their own websites using rich site summary (RSS) feeds.

3. Gawker Hungary Assets

Gawker Hungary's assets were primarily comprised of its ownership of the intellectual property and other intangible assets that it licensed to Gawker Media.

4. The Unimoda Sale Proceeds

Substantially all of the Debtors' assets described in the foregoing paragraphs were sold in the Unimoda Sale described in greater detail in Article 6.C. below. The Debtors received $135 million in cash proceeds from the purchase price in the asset sale. The Unimoda Sale expressly excluded from the acquired assets the "gawker.com" internet domain name and Website content related to the Gawker Website (collectively, the "Gawker.com Assets"), which the Plan contemplates will be liquidated by the Plan Administrator for the benefit of the Debtors' creditors and equity holders.

5. Other Assets

Prior to the Unimoda Sale, Gawker Media had available cash on hand of $12.9 million, Gawker Hungary had available cash on hand of $0.3 million and GMGI had cash on hand of $8,000.

D. The Debtors' Capital Structure and Prepetition Indebtedness

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors had approximately $21.2 million of outstanding funded indebtedness, comprised of the First Lien Term Loan and Second Lien Term Loan (each, as defined herein). The Debtors were also obligated on a posted, but not drawn, letter of credit collateralized by a cash deposit of approximately $5.6 million (the "First Lien Letter of Credit").

1. First Lien Term Loan

On September 24, 2012, Gawker Media entered into a loan and security agreement (as subsequently amended, the "First Lien Credit Agreement") with Silicon Valley Bank (the "First Lien Lender"), pursuant to which the First Lien Lender agreed to provide to Gawker Media a term loan facility in the aggregate principal amount of $7.7 million (the "First Lien Term Loan") and the First Lien Letter of Credit. The Debtors and Mr. Denton also executed certain security, pledge and guaranty agreements and other documentation in connection with the First Lien Obligations. The First Lien Obligations were guaranteed by GMGI and Gawker Hungary. The First Lien Obligations were also secured on a first priority basis by liens on substantially all of the assets of the Debtors.

As of the Petition Date, approximately $6.2 million plus accrued interest, fees, and other charges was outstanding under the First Lien Credit Agreement (the "First Lien Obligations"). On June 16, 2016, the First Lien Obligations were paid in full pursuant to the Interim DIP Order.

2. Second Lien Term Loan

On January 21, 2016, GMGI entered into a loan and security agreement (the "Second Lien Loan and Security Agreement") with US VC Partners LP ("Second Lien Lender"), a Delaware limited partnership, pursuant to which Second Lien Lender agreed to extend a term loan facility to GMGI in the initial amount of $15 million (the "Second Lien Term Loan"). The Second Lien Credit Agreement purports to require the payment of a make-whole amount in the event (a "Second Lien Make-Whole Event") that prior to the Maturity Date, the Second Lien Term Loan obligations are accelerated or otherwise become due, in each case, in respect of any Event of Default (as defined in the Second Lien Credit Agreement), including, but not limited to, the occurrence of a bankruptcy or insolvency event (the "Second Lien Make-Whole Provision").

The Second Lien Obligations are guaranteed by Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary. The Second Lien Obligations are secured, pursuant to the Second Lien Loan and Security Agreement, by a second priority lien on substantially all of the assets of GMGI, Gawker Media, and Gawker Hungary.

As of the Petition Date, approximately $15 million plus accrued interest was outstanding under the Second Lien Credit Agreement (the "Second Lien Obligations"). In addition, as a result of the filing of the bankruptcy cases, a Second Lien Make-Whole Event occurred and the Second Lien Lender alleges a Claim pursuant to the Second Lien Make-Whole Provision. On September 10, 2016, pursuant to the Section 2.5(b)(i) of the Unimoda APA, the Second Lien Obligations were paid in full out of the Purchase Price received at the closing of the Unimoda Sale. The Second Lien Lender continues to assert a Claim relating to the Second Lien Make-Whole Provision.

3. Intercompany Debt

As of the Petition Date, Gawker Media had $13 million in outstanding intercompany debt owed to Gawker Hungary and $250,000 in outstanding intercompany debt owed to GMGI. This intercompany debt consisted of the following as follows:

- First Gawker Hungary Promissory Note. Pursuant to the Amended and Restated Subordinated Promissory Note, dated as of January 21, 2016 (the "First Gawker Hungary Promissory Note"), Gawker Media promised to pay $8 million to Gawker Hungary, with interest on the outstanding principal amount payable at the rate of 1.75%, compounded annually. The January 2014 Promissory Note matures on the earliest of (i) January 10, 2019, (ii) the signing by Gawker Media of an agreement to sell substantially all of its assets, provided that GMGI's stockholders hold or control less than 50% of the voting power of the surviving or acquiring entity, and (iii) the consummation of the first public offering of the common stock of Gawker Media, Gawker Hungary, or GMGI. There is currently $8 million outstanding on the January 2014 Promissory Note.
- Second Gawker Hungary Promissory Note. Pursuant to the Amended and Restated Subordinated Promissory Note, dated as of January 21, 2016 (the "Second Gawker Hungary Promissory Note" and, together with the January 2014 Promissory Note, the "Gawker Hungary Promissory Notes"), Gawker Media promised to pay $5 million to Gawker Hungary, with interest on the outstanding principal amount payable at the rate of 1.75%, compounded annually. The January 2015 Promissory Note matures on the earliest of (i) January 10, 2020, (ii) the signing by Gawker Media of an agreement to sell substantially all of its assets, provided that GMGI's stockholders hold or control less than 50% of the voting power of the surviving or acquiring entity, and (iii) the consummation of the first public offering of the common stock of Gawker Media, Gawker Hungary, or GMGI. There is currently $5 million outstanding on the January 2015 Promissory Note.
- GMGI Promissory Note. Pursuant to the Amended and Restated Subordinated Promissory Note, dated as of January 21, 2016 (the "GMGI Promissory Note"), Gawker Media promised to pay $250,000 to GMGI, with interest on the outstanding principal amount payable at the rate of 2.00%, compounded annually. The GMGI Promissory Note matures on the earliest of (i) December 31, 2020, (ii) the signing by Gawker Media of an agreement to sell substantially all of its assets, provided that GMGI's stockholders hold or control less than 50% of the voting power of the surviving or acquiring entity, and (iii) the consummation of the first public offering of the common stock of Gawker Media, Gawker Hungary, or GMGI. There is currently $250,000 outstanding on the GMGI Promissory Note.
- Intercompany Receivables. In the ordinary course of the Debtors' intercompany arrangements, the Debtors have also accrued intercompany receivables owing to one another. As of January 1, 2016, (i) Gawker Hungary had approximately $10.2 million in accounts receivable from Gawker Media, (ii) Gawker Media had approximately $3.1 million in accounts receivable from Gawker Hungary, and (iii) GMGI had approximately 0.1 million in accounts receivable from Gawker Media.

4. Unsecured Debt and Potential Unsecured Claims

The Debtors do not have funded unsecured debt. The largest potential unsecured claims are disputed claims arising from the Bollea Judgment (described below) and other pending litigations against Gawker Media (excluding the Bollea Claims, the "Article Lawsuits"). In general, the Bollea Judgment and Article Lawsuits arise from claims for invasion of privacy, defamation or related torts based on articles written for and published by a Gawker Media Website. The aggregate amount of damages asserted by plaintiffs or awarded to plaintiffs exceeds $250 million. A summary of the Bollea Judgment and Article Lawsuits is below.

E. Employees

As of the Petition Date and the date of this Disclosure Statement, GMGI does not have any employees.

As of the Petition Date, Gawker Media employed approximately 192 full-time salaried employees (the "Salaried Employees") and 3 hourly employees (the "Hourly Employees," together with the Salaried Employees, the "U.S. Employees"). The U.S. Employees loosely fit into three departments (i) editorial – 104 employees; (ii) business – 52 employees; and (iii) technology and operations – 39 employees. As of March 1, 2016, 102 of the Salaried Employees were covered by a three-year collective bargaining agreement (the "CBA") expiring on February 28, 2019, with the Writers Guild of America, East (the "WGAE").

As of the Petition Date, Gawker Hungary employed 25 individuals, who provide technology and programming, editorial, and administrative services (the "Hungarian Employees," together with the "U.S. Employees," the "Employees").

Following the Unimoda Sale, all of the Debtors' employees except Mr. Denton were offered employment by UniModa and all but one of those employees accepted such employment.

V. EVENTS LEADING TO THE CHAPTER 11 FILINGS

A. Bollea Judgment

The Bollea litigation arises out of a publication on Gawker.com of an article (the "Hogan Story") commenting on a video depicting plaintiff Terry Gene Bollea, the professional wrestler and entertainer known as "Hulk Hogan," having sexual relations with Heather Clem, the wife of his then-best friend, radio disk jockey Bubba Clem, along with brief and highly edited video excerpts (the "Excerpts"). Bollea at times challenged both the publication of the Hogan Story and the Excerpts, but by the time of trial had narrowed his claim to focus only on the Excerpts.

Bollea's claims consist of causes of action for, among other things, publication of private facts, intrusion upon seclusion, intentional infliction of emotional distress, violation of plaintiff's common law right of publicity and violation of Florida's wiretap act. Bollea initially sued a number of defendants, but only three defendants were left at the time of trial: Gawker Media LLC, Nick Denton, and A.J. Daulerio (the author of the Hogan Story).

Bollea initially sued in federal court. Bollea tried on several occasions to obtain preliminary injunctive relief to have the video removed, but the federal judge (Hon. James Whittemore) denied each of the motions, relying on the First Amendment. See, e.g., Bollea v. Gawker Media LLC, 2012 WL 5509624 (M.D. Fla. Nov. 14, 2012); Bollea v. Gawker Media LLC, 913 F. Supp. 2d 1325 (M.D. Fla. 2012). Thereafter, Bollea dismissed his federal action and re-filed his claims in state court (the "Bollea I Lawsuit"). The state court entered a temporary injunction, which was then stayed and reversed by Florida's Second District Court of Appeal. See Gawker Media LLC v. Bollea, 129 So. 3d 1196 (Fla. 2d DCA 2014). The appeals court unanimously reversed the injunction on the basis that the Hogan Story and Excerpts addressed a matter of public concern and were protected by the First Amendment. Id. at 1200-02. Despite this ruling, the trial court denied the defendants' motions to dismiss and for summary judgment.

The trial proceeded in March 2016. A jury found Gawker Media liable for $115 million in compensatory damages and $15 million in punitive damages, for a total of $130 million (the "Bollea Judgment"). An additional $10 million of punitive damages was assessed against Mr. Denton separately, and an additional $100,000 of punitive damages was assessed against Mr. Daulerio separately. The defendants filed motions for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, and for a new trial or remittitur of damages, and the plaintiff filed a motion for entry of judgment. Those motions were heard on May 25, 2016, and the Florida state court denied the defendants' motions and entered final judgment on June 7, 2016.

Gawker Media appeared before the trial court again on June 10, 2016, to request a stay of the judgment pending appeal, without the bond required by Florida law. At the hearing, the trial court ruled that it would enter an order proposed by the plaintiff that would permit the plaintiff to begin the process of executing on the Bollea Judgment by securing liens on Gawker Media's property. The Florida trial court also denied Gawker Media a temporary stay of any length to pursue its appellate rights. Accordingly, Gawker Media filed its petition for relief under the Bankruptcy Code on an emergency basis. Prior to seeking bankruptcy protection, Gawker Media noticed an appeal of the Bollea Judgment in the Florida court. Based on the repeated prior rulings by the appellate court in the defendants' favor, including on the dispositive First Amendment issue, Gawker Media believes that the Bollea Judgment will be reversed or, at a minimum, substantially reduced on appeal.

B. Article Lawsuits

In addition to the Bollea Judgment, Gawker Media is also a defendant in the following Article Lawsuits:

- Huon v. Denton, et al., No. 11-cv-03054 (N.D. Ill.) and on appeal No. 15-3049 (7th Cir.) (the "Huon Litigation"). Gawker Media, Nick Denton, Gabrielle Darbyshire and Irin Cameron are defendants in this suit, which asserts causes of action for defamation and related torts arising from an article published by Gawker and from third-party user comments posted on Gawker's website. The article at issue reported on plaintiff's filing of a lawsuit against another publisher, Above the Law, over its report about an Illinois criminal proceeding in which Huon was charged with rape and acquitted by a jury. The trial court dismissed the case against each Gawker defendant (including the individuals). Huon appealed the decision and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit heard argument on May 31, 2016. Gawker Media consented to the Court's lifting the stay for the limited purpose of allowing the Seventh Circuit to render its decision. Huon is seeking at least $100 million in damages.
- Ashley Terrill v. Gawker Media LLC, et al., No. 16-CV-00411 (S.D.N.Y.) (the "Terrill Litigation"). Gawker Media, Sam Biddle, John Cook, and Nick Denton are defendants in this suit for defamation, breach of confidence, breach of contract, intentional interference with prospective economic advantage, fraudulent misrepresentation, and negligent hiring and retention. The suit arises from an article regarding plaintiff's investigation into a former executive for the dating application Tinder, and plaintiff's belief that she was being harassed for undertaking the investigation. The Terrill Litigation is currently pending in the Southern District of New York. The Court has not set a briefing schedule for Defendants' motion to dismiss. Plaintiff is seeking at least $10 million in damages.

- Ayyadurai v. Gawker Media LLC, et al., No. 16-CV-10853 (D. Mass.) (the "Ayyadurai Litigation"). Gawker Media, Nick Denton, Sam Biddle, and John Cook are defendants in this suit for libel, intentional interference with prospective economic advantage, intentional infliction of emotional distress, and negligent hiring and retention. The suit arises from publication of three articles regarding the plaintiff's claims to have invented e-mail. The complaint is filed in the District of Massachusetts. The plaintiff is seeking at least $35 million in damages.
- Charles C. Johnson, et al. v. Gawker Media LLC, et al., No. 15CECG03734 (Cal. Super. Ct. Fresno Cty.) (the "Johnson Litigation"). Gawker Media, J.K. Trotter, and Greg Howard are defendants in this suit for defamation, injurious falsehood, invasion of privacy, and conspiracy to interfere with civil rights. The suit arises from three articles regarding plaintiff's behavior. The complaint was filed in Superior Court of California, County of Fresno, but Defendants have not been served. The plaintiff is seeking at least $24 million in damages.
- Bollea v. Buchwald, et.al., No. 16-002861-CI (Fla. 6th Jud. Cir. Pinellas Cty.) (the "Bollea II Litigation"). Gawker Media is a defendant in this suit for intentional interference with contractual relations and intentional infliction of emotional distress, arising from an alleged leak of a sealed transcript containing racially charged statements by plaintiff. Plaintiff also has asserted claims against third parties, who are unrelated to the Debtors, for invasion of privacy, public disclosure of private facts, intrusion upon seclusion, intentional infliction of emotion distress, intentional interference with contractual relations, violation of a Florida Statute prohibiting the dissemination of private oral communications, civil conspiracy, and intentional interference with contractual relations and advantageous business relationships. Shortly before the Petition Date, the appellate court in Florida recently issued an order for plaintiff to show cause for why Gawker Media's petition for a writ recusing the trial judge should not be granted.
- Williams v. The MLB Network, No. A-1674-14T3 (N.J. Super. Ct. Camden Cty.) (the "Williams Litigation"). Gawker Media was a defendant in this defamation suit arising from a blog post regarding the plaintiff's behavior at a baseball game, currently pending in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Camden County, Law Division. The Court entered summary judgment in Gawker Media's favor on June 1, 2016.
- Mail Media Inc. d/b/a Mail Online v. Gawker Media LLC and James King., No. 159134/2015 (N.Y. Sup. Ct., N.Y. Cty.) (the "Mail Media Litigation"). Gawker Media and James King are in this defamation suit arising from a blog post regarding journalistic practices used by the website The Daily Mail, currently pending in the Supreme Court for the State of New York, County of New York.
- Threatened Litigation Demands. In addition to the Article Lawsuits where complaints are pending, the Debtors also received a number of litigation "demand letters" alleging illegal conduct by the Debtors, with an implicit or explicit threat that the demanding party intends to take some form of legal action.

C. Appointment of Independent Director

On May 24, 2016, Mr. Scott Tillman (the "Independent Director"), joined the GMGI's board of directors (the "GMGI Board"). Mr. Tillman had no prior relationship with any of the Debtors and no financial interest in any of the Debtors. Since the Petition Date, Mr. Tillman has participated in Board meetings and been an active participant with respect to the sale process formulation, negotiation and prosecution of the plans of liquidation, and allocations among Debtors.

VI. EVENTS DURING THE BANKRUPTCY CASES

On June 10, 2016, Gawker Media filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Petition Date”). On June 12, 2016, GMGI and Gawker Hungary each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors continues to operate their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these Bankruptcy Cases.

A. First Day Pleadings and Other Case Matters

1. First and Second Day Pleadings

To facilitate the commencement of these Bankruptcy Cases and minimize disruption to the Debtors’ operations, the Debtors filed certain motions and applications with the Bankruptcy Court on the Petition Date or shortly thereafter seeking certain relief summarized below. The relief sought in the “first day” and “second day” pleadings facilitated the Debtors’ seamless transition into chapter 11 and aided in the preservation of the Debtors’ going-concern value. The first and second day pleadings filed by the Debtors and approved by the Bankruptcy Court include the following:

a. Cash Management Systems

To enable the Debtors to maintain to access their cash and continue in the ordinary course of business during these chapter 11 case, on June 13, 2016, the Debtors filed the Debtors’ Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders Authorizing the Debtors to Continue Using the Debtors’ Bank Accounts, Business Forms and Cash Management System, and Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 12]. On June 16, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Interim Order Authorizing the Debtors to Continue Using the Debtors’ Bank Accounts, Business Forms, and Cash Management System, and Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 40]. On July 13, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court granted the relief requested on a final basis [Docket No. 92].

b. Employee Wages and Benefits

On June 16, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the relief requested on an interim basis [Docket No. 44]. On June 20, 2016, the Debtors filed a supplemental motion requesting entry of a order granting the relief request on a final basis [Docket No. 56]. The Bankruptcy Court extended its grant of relief on an interim basis on July 13, 2016 [Docket No. 91] and August 11, 2016 [Docket No. 170]. Following the closing of the Unimoda Sale, on September 21, 2016, the Debtors withdrew the request for entry of an order granting the relief request on a final basis [Docket No. 285].

c. Taxes and Fees

The Debtors believed that, in some cases, certain taxing, regulatory, and governmental authorities had the ability to exercise rights and remedies if the Debtors failed to remit certain taxes and fees. Accordingly, on June 13, 2016, the Debtors filed the Debtors’ Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders Authorizing Payment of Income Taxes, Sales and Use Taxes and Hungarian Taxes [Docket No. 14]. The Bankruptcy Court granted the relief requested on an interim basis on June 16, 2016 [Docket No. 45] and on a final basis on July 13, 2016 [Docket No. 90].

d. Utilities

Section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code protects debtors from utility service cutoffs upon a bankruptcy filing while providing utility companies with adequate assurance that the debtors will pay for postpetition services. To ensure uninterrupted utility service, on June 13, 2016, the Debtors filed the Debtors’ Motion for Entry of an Order

(A) Prohibiting Utility Companies from Discontinuing, Altering, or Refusing Service, (B) Deeming Utility Companies to Have Adequate Assurance of Payment, and (C) Establishing Procedures for Resolving Requests for Additional Service [Docket No. 17], seeking the Bankruptcy Court's approval of procedures for, among other things, determining adequate assurance for utility providers and prohibiting utility providers from altering, refusing or discontinuing services without further order by the Bankruptcy Court. On July 13, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court granted the relief requested [Docket No. 88].

e. Insurance

In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors maintain nine insurance policies (the "Insurance Policies") covering a variety of matters including, without limitation, general commercial liability insurance, non-owned and hired automobile insurance, errors and omissions insurance, directors and officers insurance, and employment practices insurance. The Debtors are required to pay premiums under the Insurance Policies (the "Premiums"), based on a rate established and billed by each insurer. Accordingly, on June 13, 2016, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders Authorizing, But Not Directing, the Debtors to (A) Continue Insurance Coverage Entered into Prepetition, (B) Renew or Purchase New Insurance Policies in the Ordinary Course of Business, and (C) Pay All Prepetition Obligations Relating Thereto [Docket No. 16]. The Bankruptcy Court granted the relief requested on an interim basis on June 16, 2016 [Docket No. 46] and on a final basis on July 13, 2016 [Docket No. 89].

2. Procedural and Administrative Motions

To facilitate a smooth and efficient administration of these Bankruptcy Cases and reduce the administrative burdens associated therewith, on June 16, 2016 the Bankruptcy Court also entered procedural and administrative orders, including the: (a) Order Directing Joint Administration of Related Chapter 11 Cases [Docket No. 41]; (b) Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Prepare a List of Creditors in Lieu of Submitting a Formatted Mailing Matrix and (B) File a Consolidated List of the Debtors' 50 Largest Unsecured Creditors and (II) Approving the Form and Manner of Notifying Creditors of Commencement of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases [Docket No. 43]; (c) Order Extending Deadline for the Debtors to File Schedules and Statements of Assets and Liabilities [Docket No. 42]. Additionally, on July 13, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Establishing Certain Notice, Case Management, and Administrative Procedures and Omnibus Hearing Dates [Docket No. 93]. On July 14, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court entered order further extending the time for the Debtors to file their schedules and statement of assets and liabilities [Docket No. 102].

a. Ordinary Course Professionals

In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors retain various attorneys and other ordinary course professionals (collectively, "OCPs") who render a wide range of services to the Debtors in a variety of matters unrelated to these Bankruptcy Cases, including litigation, regulatory, labor and employment, intellectual property, general corporate, franchise, and other matters that have a direct impact on the Debtors' day-to-day operations. To prevent disruption to these services, on June 20, 2016, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing the Retention and Compensation of Certain Professionals Utilized in the Ordinary Course of Business [Docket No. 53]. On July 13, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court granted the relief requested [Docket No. 86].

3. Retention of Restructuring Professionals

The Debtors also filed several applications and obtained authority to retain various professionals to assist the Debtors in carrying out their duties under the Bankruptcy Code as debtors-in-possession in these Bankruptcy Cases. The Bankruptcy Court approved the retention and employment of the following advisors:

- (a) Prime Clerk LLC ("Prime Clerk"), as Claims and Noticing Agent [Docket No. 100] and Administrative Advisor to the Debtors [Docket No. 99];
- (b) Ropes & Gray LLP ("Ropes & Gray") as Counsel to the Debtors [Docket No. 101];

- (c) Opportune LLP (“Opportune”), to provide a chief restructuring officer and certain additional personnel to the Debtors [Docket No. 98];
- (d) Houlihan Lokey (“Houlihan”), as Investment Banker to the Debtors [Docket No. 97]; and
- (e) Citrin Cooperman LLP as Independent Auditor and Accounting Services Provide to the Debtors [Docket No. 268].

4. Retention of Special Counsel

The Debtors also filed several applications and obtained authority to retain various special counsel to represent the Debtors in the Article Lawsuits.. The Bankruptcy Court approved the retention and employment of the following advisors:

- (a) Brannock & Humphries as Special Litigation Counsel to the Debtors [Docket No. 287];
- (b) Levine Sullivan Koch & Schulz, LLP as Special Litigation Counsel to the Debtors [Docket No. 288]; and
- (c) Thomas & LoCicero as Special Litigation Counsel to the Debtors [Docket No. 289].

On July 13, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals [Docket No. 94].

5. Postpetition Financing

Shortly after the Petition Date, the Debtors filed a motion (the “DIP Motion”) requesting interim and final approval of postpetition financing of up to $22 million (the “DIP Facility”), comprised of a $17 million term loan (the “DIP Term Loan”) and a $5 million revolving credit facility (the “DIP Revolving Loan”), pursuant to (i) that certain Financing Agreement (as such agreement may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof and hereof, the “DIP Financing Agreement”), by and among Gawker Media, as borrower, GMGI and Gawker Hungary, as guarantors, Cerberus Business Finance LLC (“CBF”), as administrative and collateral agent (the “DIP Agent”), and CBF or one or more of its affiliates party thereto (the “DIP Lender” and, together with the DIP Agent, the “DIP Secured Parties”), and (ii) all guarantees and other agreements, documents, and instruments to be executed and/or delivered with, to, or in favor of the DIP Secured Parties (all documents comprising the DIP Facility, each as may be amended restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof and hereof, collectively, the “DIP Loan Documents”). An interim order granting the DIP Motion was entered on June 16, 2016 [Docket No. 38] (the “Interim DIP Order”), which authorized the Debtors to, among other things, (i) borrow up to $14 million of the DIP Term Loan, (ii) use approximately $12.3 million of the proceeds of the DIP Term Loan to repay the First Lien Obligations and (iii) use cash collateral on the terms set forth therein. A final order granting the DIP Motion was entered on July 8, 2016 [Docket No. 81] (the “Final DIP Order”), which authorized the Debtors to, among other things, access the full amount of the DIP Facility. In total, the Debtors borrowed $17 million in aggregate funds through the DIP Facility (including any interest or other fees thereon, the “DIP Facility Obligations”).

6. Appointment of the Creditors’ Committee and Its Advisors

On June 24, 2016, the U.S. Trustee appointed the Committee [Docket No. 62]. The Committee is composed of the following members (collectively, the “Committee Members”):

- (a) Terry Gene Bollea;
- (b) Shiva Ayyadurai; and
- (c) Ashely A. Terrill.

The Committee also filed several applications and obtained authority to retain various professionals to assist the Committee in carrying out its duties under the Bankruptcy Code, including:

- (a) Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, as Counsel to the Committee [Docket No. 184];
- (b) Deloitte Financial Advisory Services LLP, as Financial Advisor to the Committee [Docket No. TBD];
- (c) Mourant Ozannes, as Special Foreign Counsel to the Committee [Docket No. 265]; and
- (d) Reczicza Dentons Europe, as Special Counsel to the Committee [Docket No. 293].

To facilitate the Committee's representation of the interests of all creditors in these Bankruptcy Cases, the Committee filed the Motion of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors for an Order Providing that the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors is not Authorized or Required to Provide Access to Confidential Information of the Debtors or to Privileged Information [Docket No. 162].

7. Preliminary Injunction Proceedings.

On the Petition Date, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 4] and initiated an adversary proceeding (Case No. 16-01085-smb) seeking (i) issuance of a preliminary and permanent injunction enjoining (a) the Article Lawsuits, pending the termination of the automatic stay, as against certain non-Debtor parties who were also parties to the Article Lawsuits, including Nick Denton and certain current or former employees of the Company including John Cook, A.J. Daulerio, Gabrielle Darbyshire, Irin Carmon, Greg Howard, JK Trotter, and Sam Biddle (the "Individual Defendants") and (b) the plaintiffs in the Article Lawsuits from taking further action in the Article Lawsuits and from taking further action in any other existing litigation or filing further claims against Mr. Denton or any Individual Defendant where the conduct alleged was in the course of, and within the scope of, Mr. Denton's or the Individual Defendant's employment with the Debtor, absent approval of the Bankruptcy Court and/or (ii) extension of the automatic stay imposed by section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code to stay the Article Lawsuits as against Mr. Denton and the Individual Defendants (collectively, the "Injunction Request"). On June 10, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court entered a temporary restraining order with respect to the Article Lawsuits [Docket No. 2; Case No. 16-01085-smb], which extended through the date scheduled for a hearing on the Injunction Request [Docket No. 19; Case No. 16-01085-smb], which was extended by consent of the parties through July 19, 2016. The Bankruptcy Court held a hearing on July 19, 2016 to consider the Injunction Request. The Debtors withdrew the injunction request with respect to the Huon Litigation and the Johnson Litigation. The Bankruptcy Court entered an injunction regarding the Terrill Litigation and the Ayyadurai Litigation that expired on September 3, 2016. On July 25, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order denying the Injunction Request and vacating the temporary restraining order with respect to the Bollea Litigation and lifting the stay of the Bollea Litigation as to Nick Denton and A.J. Daulerio [Docket No. 52; Case No. 16-01085-smb]. On August 1, 2016, as a result of the denial of the Injunction Request and a denial of a stay of the judgment pending appeal by the Florida court, Mr. Denton filed for chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, which remains pending [Case No. 16-12239-smb].

8. Claims Bar Dates

On July 21, 2016 the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 502 and 503, Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002 and 3003(c)(3), and Local Rule 3003-1 for Entry of Order (I) Establishing a Deadline to File Proofs of Claim, Certain Administrative Claims, and Procedures Relating Thereto, and (II) Approving the Form and Notice Thereof [Docket No. 127]. With this motion, the Debtors sought to fix a deadline for filing proofs of claim of September 19, 2016 and a deadline for filing certain administrative claims between the Petition Date and July 31, 2016, inclusive, of September 29, 2016 (the "First General Administrative Claims Bar Date") in these Bankruptcy Cases, as well as a separate deadline for governmental units to file proofs of claims of December 9, 2016 (the "Government Claims Bar Date" and, together with the General Claims Bar Date and the General Administrative Claims Bar Date, the "Claims Bar Dates"), and to establish procedures for the filing of proofs of claim and the provision of appropriate notice of the Claims Bar Dates to potential claimants. On August 11, 2016, the Bankruptcy

Court granted the relief requested, fixing the deadline for filing proofs of claim of September 29, 2016 [Docket No. 168].

On September 21, 2016, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of Order (I) Establishing a Deadline to File Certain Administrative Claims and Procedures Relating Thereto, and (II) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof [Docket No. 281]. With this motion, the Debtors sought to fix a deadline for filing certain administrative claims between August 1, 2016 and September 30, 2016, inclusive, of November 15, 2016.

B. The Appointment of Special Board Committee

On August 2, 2016, the GMGI Board adopted a resolution appointing a special committee (the "Special Board Committee"), comprised only of the Independent Director, with exclusive responsibility for, among other things, oversight with respect to the sale process and ultimate approval of any sale transaction on behalf of each Debtor, and allocation of proceeds from any sale of the Debtors' assets and any related intercompany payments and litigation. In that capacity, the Special Board Committee also has authority over the process for negotiating, formulating, and approving the Debtors' proposed plans of liquidation and any related settlements.

On September 1, 2016, the Debtors filed an application seeking authorization to retain Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP ("Akin Gump") as special counsel to the Special Board Committee, effective nunc pro tunc to August 3, 2016 [Docket No. 239]. On September 12, 2016, the Committee objected to the proposed terms of Akin Gump's retention [Docket No. 260], and the parties are holding discussions to try to reach a consensual resolution.

C. Sale of Substantially All of the Debtors' Assets

The Debtors commenced these Bankruptcy Cases with a goal of selling substantially all of their assets as a going concern (the "Assets"). To that end, the Debtors entered into the Stalking Horse APA with ZDGM LLC (the "Stalking Horse Bidder"), an affiliate of Ziff Davis, LLC, a leading global digital-media company operating in the technology, gaming, entertainment and lifestyle verticals. In the Stalking Horse APA, the Stalking Horse Bidder agreed to (i) purchase the Assets for $90 million in cash, (ii) assume certain liabilities of the Business, and (iii) provide offers of employment to substantially all of the Debtors' employees on substantially the same terms and conditions under which they are currently employed.

On July 8, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order (I) Authorizing and Approving Bidding Procedures, Breakup Fee and Expense Reimbursement, (II) Authorizing and Approving the Debtors' Performance of Pre-Closing Obligations Under the Stalking Horse Asset Purchase Agreement, (III) Approving Notice Procedures, (IV) Scheduling a Sale Hearing and (V) Approving Procedures for Assumption and Assignment of Certain Contracts and Leases and Determining Cure Amounts [Docket No. 82] (the "Bidding Procedures Order"). The Bidding Procedures Order, among other things, approved the Stalking Horse APA, specified procedures regarding the assumption and assignment of the Debtors' executory contracts and unexpired leases, and scheduled an auction (the "Auction") for the sale of the Assets (the "Unimoda Sale"). The Stalking Horse APA remained subject to higher or otherwise better offers. To that end, the Debtors, in conjunction with their advisors and acting in accordance with the Bid Procedures Order, continued to engage in an extensive sale and marketing process of the Assets.

Pursuant to the Bidding Procedures Order, the Auction was conducted on August 16, 2016 at the New York offices of Ropes & Gray LLP. The Debtors' extensive marketing efforts bore fruit as one additional approved bidder and the Stalking Horse Bidder participated in the Auction. At the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtors, in consultation with the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") determined that the successful bidder was UniModa, LLC ("Unimoda"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Univision Communications Inc. Unimoda bid $135 million in cash to acquire substantially all of the Assets, specifically excluding the Gawker.com Assets, and irrevocably agreed to assume certain of the Debtors' executory contracts and unexpired leases for which the Debtors could otherwise face considerable rejection damages claims, including the CBA with the WGAE and the Debtors' commercial lease for their main office space. Unimoda also made offers of employment to all the Debtors' employees, except Nick Denton, on substantially the same terms and conditions under which they are currently employed. The Debtors and Unimoda agreed upon the terms of an asset purchase agreement for the sale of the Assets to Unimoda (the "Unimoda APA").

On August 22, 2016, after a hearing to consider approval of the Unimoda Sale was held on August 18, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order (I) Authorizing the Sale of Substantially All of the Debtors' Assets Free and Clear of All Claims, Liens, Rights, Interests and Encumbrances, (II) Approving and Authorizing the Debtors' Entry Into the Asset Purchase Agreement and (III) Authorizing the Debtors to Assume and Assign Certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases [Docket No. 214] (the "Sale Order").

On September 9, 2016 (the "Sale Closing Date"), the closing of the Unimoda Sale occurred pursuant to the Unimoda APA. On that date, Unimoda, as purchaser, made the Cash Payment (as defined in the Unimoda APA) in the amount of $135 million to the Debtors, subject certain closing adjustments. Pursuant to Section 2.5(b) of the Unimoda APA and consistent with the Sale Order, on the closing date, Unimoda made payments in cash to the DIP Lender and Second Lien Lender to satisfy in full the DIP Facility Obligations and the Second Lien Obligations (excluding alleged Claims relating to the Second Lien Make-Whole Provision), respectively. Following the Closing Date, the Debtors held $1.0 million in an escrow account. All amounts held in escrow remain subject to the Unimoda APA.

VII. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN SETTLEMENTS

From the inception of the Bankruptcy Cases, the Debtors have understood that the eventual allocation of sale proceeds among the Debtors' estates and the resolution of other intercompany disputes would be central to potential settlements and negotiation with respect to a chapter 11 plan. These issues materially affect the recoveries of parties in interest in these cases and would take significant time and expense to fully litigate and resolve absent settlement.

Prior to the Unimoda Sale, the board of directors of GMGI formed a special committee and delegated to it authority to address substantially all matters, including any settlement regarding asset value allocation. This necessarily involved the formulation of a plan. As described above, the GMGI board appointed a single member to constitute that special committee, Mr. Scott Tillman, who was not a director until May 2016, and thus not involved in the events regarding, or the litigation of, the Bollea I Lawsuit, which lead to the filing of these Bankruptcy Cases. The special committee considered and approved the Plan Settlements from the perspective of each estate, and the proposed Plans of liquidation on behalf of GMGI, and directed GMGI to approve the plan for both Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary. The special committee received advice of counsel from Akin Gump and financial professionals in connection with making these determinations.

The Debtors propose and support the Plan Settlements described below because it provides for the fair and equitable resolution of numerous issues, which the Debtors believe is in the best interests of parties in interest as a whole. In accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and pursuant to the terms of the Plan, at and as part of the hearing on confirmation of the Plan, the Debtors will request that the Bankruptcy Court approve the Plan Settlements as fair and equitable and in the best interests of the Debtors' estates.

The Debtors believe the Plan Settlements are in the best interests of the various parties in interest and the Debtors' estates for several reasons. First, as discussed more extensively below, the outcomes of the potential intercompany disputes and litigation that are being settled are uncertain. Second, the Plan Settlements take into account the risks and potential recoveries related to each of the intercreditor and the debtor-creditor issues described herein. Finally, the Plan Settlements best address the competing considerations that arise because the vast majority, if not all, of the claims in these cases are all litigation claims or indemnification claims related to such claims, and are primarily against one of the three Debtors, Gawker Media.

Although there is a judgment against Gawker Media, the Bollea Judgment, that state law judgment is not merely subject to an appeal of factual findings in that case. Instead, the Bollea Judgment is in the unusual posture of being based on a ruling that Gawker Media publication was not speech protected under the First Amendment, when two other courts (including the exact same state appellate court that will consider the judgment) have already (as part of proceedings regarding injunctive relief) ruled against the plaintiff on that same key legal issue. Consequently, a similar appellate ruling on that same legal issue would likely result in a reversal of the Bollea

Judgment, or at least a significant reduction of that judgment. Because of the procedural posture of the case, the Debtors are presently not able to seek any ruling from the bankruptcy court on the judgment itself, but the bankruptcy court can take into account the particular posture of the case solely in connection with weighting the fairness of the Plan Settlements.

Further, regardless of the eventual outcome of the disputes resolved by the Plan Settlements, continued litigation would result in substantial cost to the estates. For example, the Committee has indicated it will seek to undertake a full forensic accounting analysis for many years of the Debtors' operations. The Debtors believe that the cost of litigating the intercompany disputes would be between $9-12 million.

A. The Disputes Resolved by the Plan Settlements

This centerpiece of the Plan, and one of its principal benefits to creditors and equityholders, includes a resolution of numerous and substantial disputes that exist among the bankruptcy estates. Those disputes pose substantial costs and risks for many creditors, including those with claims arising from the Article Lawsuits (the "Publication Plaintiffs") even if they prevail in litigation regarding their respective disputed claims. The disputes also pose substantial costs and risks for equityholders, even if Gawker Media prevails in litigation with all Publication Plaintiffs and there are no such creditors.

The potential disputes and causes of action being resolved pursuant to the Plan Settlements include: (a) allocation of the purchase price obtained for the Debtors' assets in connection with the Unimoda Sale, (b) the allocation of the DIP Loan debt and repayment thereof, (c) the allocation of Second Lien Term Loan between guarantors, (d) the allocation of administrative expenses, including professional fees paid or incurred prior to the closing of the Unimoda Sale, (d) the allocation of administrative expenses, including professional fees, incurred subsequent to that closing through the Effective Date, (e) the allocation of reserves for post-Effective-Date expenses, (f) the enforceability of a $3.75 million make-whole amount claimed by the Second Lien Lender against all three Debtors, (g) claims of Gawker Media against GMGI and its directors and officers, (h) the Intercompany claims held by Gawker Hungary against Gawker Media, (i) the Intercompany claim held by GMGI against Gawker Media, and (j) contentions that there should be substantive consolidation of the Debtors' estates, veil piercing, alter ego or other similar claims.

The various disputes are described below.

Unimoda Sale Purchase Price Allocation among Debtors' Estates

The Unimoda Sale had a cash purchase price of $135 million, subject to certain closing adjustments (the "Purchase Price"). Unimoda purchased assets, some of which were owned by Gawker Hungary and some of which were owned by Gawker Media. The Sale Order provides that the Purchase Price would be deposited in a single bank account in the United States and held in the name of Gawker Media. The Sale Order also provides that this deposit shall not be deemed to have any effect on the allocation of the Purchase Price to Gawker Hungary or Gawker Media; i.e. the question of how much Purchase Price was paid for the assets of each of the two seller Debtor estates (the "Purchase Price Allocation").

As described above, at the time of its founding, much of the Debtors' operations were in Hungary. The majority of all software development, including critical work on the discussion system, among other things, occurred in Hungary, by employees of Gawker Hungary. Gawker Hungary was the Debtor that owned the various URLs under which the Debtors operated their major web content platforms. All of the Debtors' trademarks were owned by Gawker Hungary, except one, which was a not a trademark used in attracting viewers to the Debtors' URL websites.

In 2011 the Debtors undertook an evaluation of the economic terms under which Gawker Hungary could license the use of its intangible assets to Gawker Media (the "License Agreement"). The Debtors engaged the firm of Mayer Brown LLP to evaluate and provide an opinion regarding the arms-length terms of that contract (the "Transfer Pricing Opinion").

The Transfer Pricing Opinion developed a range for an arms-length royalty rate between Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary. The License provides for a royalty calculated in four tiers, depending on the “Cumulative Annual Revenue” (as defined in the License) of Gawker Media. For such revenue (a) up to $3.0 million, 5% royalty, (b) above $3.0 million up to $6.0 million, $150,000 plus 10% of such tier revenue, (c) above $6.0 million up to $9.0 million, $450,000 plus 15% of such tier revenue, and (d) above $30 million, $150,000 plus 24% of such tier revenue.

There are two other intercompany agreements between Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary. Under a Development Agreement amended on January 1, 2013, Gawker Hungary purchases certain services from Gawker Media, for which Gawker Media pays an amount equal to direct costs plus 5%. Under an Intercompany Services Agreement dated January 1, 2012, Gawker Media pays for various services from Gawker Hungary, an amount also equal to direct costs plus 5%.

These economic agreements that Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary arrived at reflect an approximate allocation of the value of assets of two-thirds of the value attributable to Gawker Hungary assets, and one-third of the value attributable to Gawker Media assets. The Debtors believe that this allocation continues to reflect the relative value attributable to Gawker Hungary, on the one hand, and Gawker Media, on the other, as of the closing of the Unimoda Sale. The six major brands sold to Unimoda (Jalopnik, Jezebel, Deadspin, Lifehacker, Gizmodo and Kotaku) reflect the value of the URLs, trademarks, brands and other intangible assets that Gawker Hungary owns. The Committee maintains that this is not a reflection of the relative allocation of value and that most, if not all, of the value should be allocated to the Gawker Media estate.

The dispute over Unimoda Purchase Price allocation has significant consequences for both creditors and equityholders. If the allocation is one-third to Gawker Media and two-thirds to Gawker Hungary, taking into account other cash and before any paydown of secured debt and administrative costs, it results in approximately $60.0 million of distributable value to Gawker Media and $92.9 million of distributable value to Gawker Hungary. At the outside range of potential outcomes, even if 100% of the asset allocation were to Gawker Media, the unsecured creditors at Gawker Media would have potential of recourse (if their claims are Allowed after all appeals) to approximately $75.2 million. On the other hand, if the allocation were resolved in favor of Gawker Hungary (two-thirds to Gawker Hungary, the position the Debtors expect equityholders would take) Gawker Media creditors would have recourse only to approximately $16.0 million.

The Intercompany Claims

Prior to the beginning of 2015, Gawker Media made periodic payments to Gawker Hungary for balances due under the Intercompany Agreements. At various times, Gawker Hungary loaned amounts back to Gawker Media which were memorialized in the Gawker Hungary Intercompany Notes. Since the beginning of 2015, Gawker Media has received invoices from Gawker Hungary for balances due under the Intercompany Agreements, which have accrued into a receivables balance. Under that certain Amended and Restated Subordinated Promissory Note, dated as of January 21, 2016, Gawker Media promised to pay $8 million to Gawker Hungary, with interest on the outstanding principal amount payable at the rate of 1.75%, compounded annually. Under that certain Amended and Restated Subordinated Promissory Note, dated as of January 21, 2016, Gawker Media promised to pay $5.0 million to Gawker Hungary, with interest on the outstanding principal amount payable at the rate of 1.75%, compounded annually. Under that certain Amended and Restated Subordinated Promissory Note, dated as of January 21, 2016, Gawker Media promised to pay $250,000 to GMGI, with interest on the outstanding principal amount payable at the rate of 2.00%, compounded annually. As of January 1, 2016, (i) Gawker Hungary had approximately $10.2 million in accounts receivable from Gawker Media, (ii) Gawker Media had approximately $3.1 million in accounts receivable from Gawker Hungary, and (iii) GMGI had approximately $0.1 million in accounts receivable from Gawker Media. The net balance of these intercompany promissory notes and accounts receivable as of December 31, 2016, totaled intercompany obligations of approximately $20.1 million from Gawker Media to Gawker Hungary and $0.1 million from Gawker Media to GMGI (collectively with intercompany receivables accruing from January 1, 2016 through the Petition Date, the “Intercompany Obligations”).

Gawker Hungary could assert that the Intercompany Obligations are general unsecured claims against Gawker Media that share pari passu with any recovery of creditors at Gawker Media. So, for example, even if the asserted litigation claims were valid (a conclusion with which the Debtors disagree) and aggregated to, for example, $180 million, the Intercompany Notes would materially dilute the recovery of unsecured creditors, by more than 10%. Gawker Hungary would also assert that these valid general unsecured claims are senior in bankruptcy to any punitive damages claims against Gawker Media.

Gawker Media could assert that the Intercompany Obligations are not general unsecured claims, but there is a substantial risk that all or a substantial amount of the Intercompany Obligations would be allowed and dilute creditor recoveries at Gawker Media.

The Debtors are investigating additional intercompany claims and have been advised by the Committee that such other claims exist.

The Plan Settlements include a provision under which Gawker Hungary and GMGI waive all of their intercompany claims against Gawker Media and provides Gawker Media with additional consideration in full satisfaction of any and all intercompany claims by Gawker Media against Gawker Hungary and GMGI.

Allocation of Financing Debt Repayment

Paydown of DIP Loan. The DIP Loan was obtained at the outset of these Bankruptcy Cases. Gawker Media was the borrower, and GMGI and Gawker Hungary were guarantors. Funds were used, inter alia, for Gawker Media operations and the posting cash to backstop an approximately $5.6 million of letter of credit held by the landlord for the commercial property at Fifth Avenue in New York City, leased by Gawker Media (the "Fifth Avenue Letter of Credit"). At the closing of the Unimoda Sale, and in accordance with the DIP Financing Order, Gawker Media as borrower repaid all amounts due under the DIP Loan, totaling approximately $17.2 million.

Gawker Hungary and GMGI, as guarantors, could argue that they have no responsibility for any repayment of the DIP Loan; Gawker Media was the primary obligor under the DIP Loan documents. Gawker Media could argue that Gawker Hungary, to the extent of benefits to Gawker Hungary from the DIP Loan, should bear the burden as primary obligor, notwithstanding the documents providing that Gawker Hungary was only a guarantor. Notwithstanding the various agreements, the Plan contemplates that, as part of the Plan Settlements (including the post-confirmation loans from Gawker Hungary to Gawker Media) approximately $3.0 million of the DIP Loan paydown will be allocated to Gawker Hungary. In addition, Gawker Media will receive all of the cash released in connection with the return of the Fifth Avenue Letter of Credit.

Paydown of Second Lien Term Loan. The Second Lien Term Loan was made on January, 21, 2016 to GMGI. Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary are each guarantors of the Second Lien Term Loan. All of the funds from the GMGI borrowing were contributed to Gawker Media at the time of the loan. As described above, the sale proceeds received during these chapter 11 cases were in respect of the sale of assets of Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary, not assets of GMGI. At closing of the Unimoda Sale, the Second Lien Term Loan was paid down by approximately $16.5 million, the amount of outstanding principal, interest (including default interest) and professional fees (the "Second Lien Payoff"), but excluding the amount of an asserted make-whole premium of approximately $3.75 million (the "Second Lien Make Whole").

The respective amounts of the Second Lien Payoff that Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary paid were not determined at the time of the closing of the Unimoda Sale, with each chapter 11 estate reserving its rights. As guarantors, each would have contribution rights against the other for any amounts paid on the loan. The relevant guaranty agreement does not contain any provision stating how such contribution rights are to be allocated. Each estate might argue (based on common law or other principles) that each of them should ultimately bear 50% of the Second Lien Payoff, as some legal authority provides for guarantor contribution rights to be apportioned by the number of guarantors (in this case there are two). On the one hand, Gawker Media could instead argue (based on fraudulent conveyance or other law) that Gawker Hungary should ultimately bear the economic burden of the Second Lien Term Loan in proportion to the allocation of asset value to Gawker Hungary, and that Gawker Media should therefore have a large contribution claim unless Gawker Hungary pays more than 50% of the Second Lien Term Loan. However, creditors of Gawker Media might not prefer such an argument as it would deplete assets allocated to the Gawker Media estate. On the other hand, Gawker Hungary might argue (based on fraudulent conveyance or other law) that the proceeds of the Second Lien Term Loan were contributed to Gawker Media, that they were principally used by Gawker Media, and therefore Gawker Hungary should have a large contribution claim unless Gawker Media pays more than 50% of the Second Lien Term Loan. As part of the Plan Settlements, the Plan allocates the Second Lien Payoff 50% to Gawker Media and 50% to Gawker Hungary.

Second Lien Make-Whole Settlement

Under the documentation for the Second Lien Term Loan, each of the Debtors is liable for the $3.75 million asserted as the Second Lien Make-Whole Claims: GMGI as borrower, and Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary as guarantors. However, the Debtors dispute in its entirety the enforceability of the Second Lien Make-Whole Provision, on the grounds, among others, that it is an unenforceable penalty (and not an enforceable liquidated damage) under New York law. The Second Lien Lender disputes that, and asserts that the amount is fully enforceable and payable.

Based on the sale proceeds allocation that the Plan Settlements contemplate, the Second Lien Make-Whole Claims are treated as a disputed, fully secured claim against each of the three Debtor estates. The GMGI estate could argue that the security interest of the Second Lien Lender in the equity of Gawker Hungary could be avoided as a preferential transfer. That security interest was perfected only in early March 2016, two months after the loan was made and more than 90 days prior to the Petition Date, and the Second Lien Lender was, at the time, arguably an insider of GMGI, because a individual who is a principal of the Second Lien Lender was, at that time, also a director of GMGI. The Second Lien Lender could, however, raise several defenses to this argument. First, the perfection could be a transfer for contemporaneous new value (and therefore not avoidable), as the parties contemplated that it was contemporaneous with the closing of the Second Lien Term Loan, but the perfection steps took some time in Hungary (and the loan needed to be made quickly) but remained substantially contemporaneous within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code. Second, the Debtors would agree that at the time of this perfection, Gawker Hungary was solvent, so that GMGI was also solvent, as the trial in the Bollea I Lawsuit had not yet occurred and the value of the Debtors' assets at that time; if GMGI was solvent, a preference action would fail. Third, the Second Lien Lender could argue that it was not an insider, as there was not overlapping 20% voting equity ownership with the Debtors, and merely sharing a single director does not automatically make an entity an insider. Finally (and separately), even if the security interest were avoided, that would not eliminate the Second Lien Make-Whole Claims at GMGI. The more substantial economic effect is the argument (set forth above) that the claim is unenforceable.

The Plan Settlements contemplate that the Allowed claim will be reduced at each guarantor estate to $1.25 million, a substantially reduced portion of the $3.75 million of liability that each has. The overall liability at GMGI will likewise be reduced to not more than $2.0 million. Each estate will pay $500,000 in cash on the Effective Date to the Second Lien Lender. The Second Lien Lender also receives, as part of the Plan Settlements, subordinated claims at Gawker Media and GMGI, payable only after general unsecured creditors at such estate are paid in full. As of the filing of this Disclosure Statement, the Second Lien Lender has not agreed to such treatment.

Allocation of Administrative and other Expenses

From the Petition Date to the final date of liquidation of the Debtors' assets and distribution to parties in interest, there will be substantial costs of administration. Those costs will be dramatically greater if there is litigation over the intercompany disputes and disputes regarding the Second Lien Make-Whole Claims. There will also be substantial costs in resolving the various disputed litigation claims against the various Debtors, including the appeal of the Bollea Judgment.

For purposes of the Plan Settlements, these costs are divided into three categories: (a) costs from the Petition Date to the closing of the Unimoda Sale, (b) costs from that sale to the Effective Date (primarily anticipated costs of litigating the intercompany and Second Lien Lender disputes in the context of a plan confirmation proceeding), and (c) costs from and after the Effective Date (primarily anticipated costs of litigation claims objections and appeals, including of the Bollea Judgment). Each of these could be allocated differently as between the three Debtors' estates, primarily Gawker Media and Gawker Hungary.

The Plan settlement contemplates the following allocations of such expenses:

- For the pre-closing period, $6.0 million to Gawker Media and $11.5 million to Gawker Hungary. This includes an allocation of the breakup fee payable to the stalking horse bidder primarily to Gawker Hungary, in accordance with the Plan Settlements' allocation of Unimoda Sale proceeds to Gawker Hungary.
- For the period from closing of the Unimoda Sale to the Effective Date, $10.0 million to Gawker Media and $8.0 million to Gawker Hungary.
- For the post-Effective-Date period, $5.5 million to Gawker Media and $2.0 million to Gawker Hungary (or GMGI, if Gawker Hungary is dissolved).

Potential Fiduciary Duty Causes of Action Against GMGI and Directors & Officers

The Debtors are beginning an investigation of any claims against GMGI, or its directors and officers, for breach of fiduciary duties to Gawker Media, but have been advised that the Committee believes that such claims exist, but has been unwilling to state the basis of those claims. GMGI was at relevant times the sole member of Gawker Media, and Nicholas Denton was the sole manager of Gawker Media. Gawker Media's operating agreement does not contain any disclaimer of fiduciary duties. Gawker Media is a Delaware limited liability company and under Delaware law, managers and controlling equityholders could owe a fiduciary duty to Gawker Media. Thus Gawker Media could assert breach of fiduciary duty claims, although under Delaware law there is no particular fiduciary duty owed to creditors. GMGI has an interest in resolving any such fiduciary duty claims against itself, and also claims against Mr. Denton, because GMGI has indemnified Mr. Denton.

GMGI and its directors and officers, and Mr. Denton, could defend those suits on the grounds, inter alia, that Gawker Media is a wholly owned subsidiary of GMGI, and actions taken were in GMGI's interest. As part of the Plan Settlements, GMGI is contributing $2.0 million to Gawker Media in settlement of all such claims, as well as taking all the other actions under the plan.

Substantive Consolidation, Veil Piercing, and Alter Ego

Gawker Media might argue that there should be no allocation of the purchase price, and instead that Gawker Media creditors should have recourse to, and obtain recoveries from, the value of assets of Gawker Hungary and GMGI. There are several legal theories that Gawker Media might assert, including substantive consolidation of the Debtors' estates, veil piercing or alter ego.

The theory of "substantive consolidation" refers to the merging of the assets and liabilities of distinct, bankrupt entities and the treatment of those assets and liabilities as if they belonged to a single entity. The two critical factors considered in assessing whether substantive consolidation is warranted are (i) whether creditors dealt with the Debtors as a single economic unit and did not rely on their separate identity in extending credit or (ii) whether the affairs of the Debtors are so entangled that consolidation will benefit all creditors, by the costs of disentangling them are so great that the cost outweighs the benefit to each affected party in interest. The second factor involves whether there has been a commingling of the assets and business functions and considers whether all creditors will benefit because untangling is either impossible or so costly as to consume the assets. Full substantive consolidation would result in General Unsecured Creditors receiving a relative distribution in excess of what the Plan Settlements provide if the litigation claims were allowed.

With respect to the first factor, the litigation creditors who are the principal creditors of Gawker Media do not have Allowable Claims against either of the other two Debtors; indeed in the lawsuit that resulted in a judgment against Gawker Media, Bollea voluntarily dismissed Gawker Hungary and did not amend his complaint to include GMGI within the final time period set by the Florida court. There is no "reliance" by these disputed, litigation creditors that would justify giving them recourse to the assets of the other Debtors. With respect to the second factor, the Debtors estimate that the cost of a full dispute regarding the purchase price allocation and intercompany matters would cost as much as $12.0 million. However, if the Gawker Hungary position is correct (that two-thirds of the purchase price is allocable to Gawker Hungary assets, and there are no material intercompany claims against Gawker Hungary), then there would be in excess of $26.7 million (after taxes) available first to GMGI creditors, and then to preferred shareholders, depending on the outcome of substantive litigation regarding certain indemnification claims. Thus the costs of the dispute do not exceed the amount at stake, and the estates cannot be substantively consolidated.

Regarding legal theories of alter ego and veil piercing, it may be the case that the financial books and records of Gawker Hungary and Gawker Media were not kept perfectly, and therefore creditors of Gawker Media, or the estate itself, could raise these claims. However, Gawker Hungary was formed at the outset of the company's operations, years before the (disputed) claims of current creditors ever arose. Gawker Hungary has since its inception had real business operations, including the primary activities relating to development of the Debtors' proprietary software; it maintained offices and a number of software engineers and other employees, and was not a mere vehicle for owning certain assets. Gawker Hungary itself bought various URLs, and registered the relevant trademarks under which various websites are operated. As a result, there would be a substantial and fact-bound trial of any alter ego or veil piercing claims, and Gawker Hungary would have very substantial defenses.

B. The Plan Settlements

The Plan Settlements consist of two separate settlements: the Second Lien Make-Whole Claims Settlement and the Intercompany Settlement.

Under the Second Lien Make-Whole Claims Settlement, in full and complete settlement, release, and discharge of, and in exchange for, any outstanding claims that the Second Lien Holder may assert arising from, or in connection with, the Second Lien Loan and Security Agreement, including, without limitation, any rights relating to the Second Lien Make Whole Provision, the Second Lien Holder agrees to receive the allowance and treatment of the Second Lien Make-Whole Claims provided for in the Plan. Specifically, the $3.75 million asserted Second Lien Make-Whole Claims will receive only $1.5 million in Cash on the Effective Date ($500,000 from each of the Debtors' estates), and the remaining amounts owed at each Debtor paid only on subordinated bases.

The Intercompany Settlement is among the three Debtors, and consists of the following integrated provisions:

1. The Unimoda Purchase Price will be allocated one-third to Gawker Media and two-thirds to Gawker Hungary.
2. Gawker Hungary will make a loan to Gawker Media of $12.5 million (the "Gawker Hungary Plan Loan"), with the proceeds held in escrow until the Gawker Media Distribution Date with such proceeds to be used only for making distributions to Allowed Claims in Class 2C and 2D.
3. GMGI will pay $2.0 million to Gawker Media, in settlement of all claims and causes of action that the Gawker Media estate has and could assert against GMGI and all officers and directors of any of the Debtors, and any indemnification claims of such officers and directors against GMGI solely to the extent they arise from claims of breach of fiduciary duty (and not indemnification claims arising from direct tort claims against such persons).
4. Gawker Hungary will waive all intercompany claims against Gawker Media, and each of Gawker Hungary and Gawker Media waive all intercompany claims they each have against GMGI.
5. Gawker Hungary will distribute to GMGI nearly all remaining cash and non-cash assets, including the Intercompany Notes and the Gawker Hungary Plan Loan.

The baseline net economic effect of this Intercompany Settlement is that the unsecured creditors of Gawker Media will have the amount against which they have recourse increased from approximately $16.0 million to at least $30.0 million.

The Debtors believe that this baseline benefit is higher. To the extent that the Committee does not expend amounts in challenging the Plan Settlements additional funds would be available to Gawker Media creditors. This amount could be as much as $5.0 million. In addition, the economic effect of Gawker Hungary's waiver of the Intercompany Obligations increases those recoveries; that benefit varies depending on the total amount of allowed claims at Gawker Media, but if the claims are as the creditors assert (approximately $180 million), this benefit would be in excess of $3.0 million as a result of the pool of Allowed Claims being reduced by $20.1 million. As a result, the structure of the Plan Settlements (including a Gawker Hungary post-confirmation loan and a GMGI contribution) provide the unsecured creditors of Gawker Media with nearly the same amount of potential recovery that they would have if the Unimoda Purchase Price were allocated one-half to Gawker Hungary and one-half to Gawker Media (assuming that payment of the Second Lien Make-Whole Claims Settlement is allocated to Gawker Media). The Plan Settlements do so in a structure that preserves the existing and beneficial tax structure of the Debtors' operations, for the circumstances (equally important in these cases because the creditor claims are heavily disputed) in which equity is in the money.

C. Bankruptcy Court Approval of the Plan Settlements

The Debtors propose to effectuate the terms of the Plan Settlements under the Plan in accordance with section 1123(b)(3)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code. At the Confirmation Hearing, the Debtors will request, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, that the Bankruptcy Court approve the Plan Settlements. Such approval by the Bankruptcy Court will entail consideration of certain factors to determine whether the Plan Settlements are in the best interests of the Debtors' estates. Among the determinative factors to be considered are:

- the probability of success in the litigation;
- the complexity of the litigation and the expenses, inconveniences and delays necessarily attendant to the prosecution of the litigation;
- the difficulties, if any, to be encountered in the collection of any judgment that might be obtained; and
- the interests of the Debtors' estates, including those of the creditors and other parties in interest and giving appropriate deference to the reasonable views expressed by them in relation to the proposed Settlement.

Based upon the factors set forth above – and considering in particular the uncertainty of the litigation outcomes and the relative cost of litigation compared to estates of this size – the Debtors believe the Plan Settlements fall well within the range of reasonableness and reflects a reasonable compromise of complex issues. As discussed above, the outcomes of the potential litigations being settled are uncertain. Moreover, litigation of the intercompany issues would result in protracted litigation requiring considerable time and expense. Litigation would result in a diminution of the estate because ultimately, regardless of the outcome, no additional funds will be brought into the estate. For all of the foregoing reasons, the Debtors believe that the Plan Settlements are in the best interest of the estates in these Bankruptcy Cases.

VIII. THE PLAN – OVERVIEW

A. Overview of Chapter 11

Chapter 11 is the business reorganization chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition to permitting debtor rehabilitation, chapter 11 promotes fair and equitable treatment for similarly-situated creditors and similarly-situated equity interest holders, subject to the priority of distributions prescribed by the Bankruptcy Code.

The Plan is a liquidating plan. As a result of the Unimoda Sale, the Debtors' business operations were terminated and the Plan provides for the liquidation of the Debtors' remaining assets and distribution of all sale proceeds after paying the costs and expenses of administering the Debtors' estates. The Plan provides for the payment in full to holders of Allowed Administrative Claims, Allowed Priority Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, and specified holders of Claims against or Equity Interests in Gawker Hungary. The Plan further provides for a recovery to the holder of Second Lien Make-Whole Claims against GMGI, Gawker Media, and Gawker Hungary. General Unsecured Claims against GMGI and Gawker Media, General Unsecured Claims-Bollea I Judgment Claims and Punitive Damage Claims against Gawker Media, Preferred and Common Equity Interests in GMGI and Membership Interest in Gawker Media. Confirmation and consummation of the Plan are contingent upon the satisfaction of all of the conditions precedent set forth in Sections 6.01 and 6.02 of the Plan, respectively, unless waived pursuant to Section 6.03 of the Plan.

The following summary is a brief overview of the Plan and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Plan itself, and the more detailed information and financial statements contained elsewhere in this Disclosure Statement.

B. Administrative Claims, Priority Tax Claims, and Other Unclassified Claims

1. Administrative Claims

Pursuant to Sections 2.05(a)(i), 2.06(a)(i), and 2.07(a)(i) of the Plan, each holder of an Allowed Administrative Claim shall receive, in full and final satisfaction and discharge thereof, Cash equal to the unpaid portion of such Allowed Administrative Claim (except to the extent such holder agrees to less favorable treatment thereof) on, or as soon as reasonably practicable after, the later of (i) the Effective Date, or (ii) the date such Administrative Claim becomes an Allowed Administrative Claim.

2. United States Trustee's Fees

Pursuant to Section 2.05(a)(ii), 2.06(a)(ii), and 2.07(a)(ii) of the Plan, the outstanding fees due to the United States Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930 (and any applicable interest pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 3717) shall be paid in full on or before the Effective Date. All fees payable pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930 (and any applicable interest pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 3717) after the Effective Date shall be paid by the applicable Debtor in accordance therewith until the earlier of the conversion or dismissal of the applicable Bankruptcy Case under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code or closing of the Bankruptcy Case pursuant to section 350(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. Professional Fees

Pursuant to Section 2.03 of the Plan, to the extent that a Professional's final fee application is Allowed by the Bankruptcy Court, or claims pursuant to sections 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in connection with the making of a substantial contribution to the Bankruptcy Cases are Allowed by the Bankruptcy Court, the requesting Person shall receive: (i) payment of Cash from the GMGI Professional Fee Claim Reserve, Gawker Media Professional Fee Claim Reserve and/or Gawker Hungary Professional Fee Claim Reserve, as applicable, in an amount equal to the amount Allowed by the Bankruptcy Court less all interim compensation paid to such Person during the Bankruptcy Cases, such payment to be made before the later of (a) the Effective Date or (b) three Business Days after the order Allowing such Person's final fee application, or (ii) payment on such other terms as may be mutually agreed upon by the holder of the Professional Fee Claim and the applicable Debtor (but in no event shall the payment exceed the amount Allowed by the Bankruptcy Court less all interim compensation paid to such Person during the Bankruptcy Cases).

4. Priority Tax Claims

Pursuant to Section 2.05(a)(iii), 2.06(a)(iii), and 2.07(a)(iii) of the Plan, on, or as soon as reasonably practicable after, the later of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) the date on which a Priority Claim becomes an Allowed Priority Claim, each holder of an Allowed Priority Claim shall receive, in full and final satisfaction and discharge thereof, Cash equal to the unpaid portion of such Allowed Priority Claim or payment as agreed between the holder of the Allowed Priority Claim and the Debtors.

5. Bar Date for Administrative Claims

Pursuant to Section 2.04 of the Plan, requests for payment of Administrative Claims (other than Professional Fee Claims) must have been, or be filed (as applicable depending on the period incurred), and served on the Debtors pursuant to the procedures specified in the Confirmation Order and the notice of entry of the Confirmation Order no later than the Administrative Claims Bar Date. Holders of Administrative Claims that are required to, but do not, file and serve a request for payment of such Administrative Claims by such applicable date shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from asserting such Administrative Claims against the Debtors or their property and such Administrative Claims shall be deemed discharged as of the Effective Date. Objections to such requests, if any, must be filed and served on the applicable Debtor and the requesting party no later than the Administrative Claims Objection Deadline.

C. Classification of Claims and Interests

Section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires a chapter 11 plan to designate classes of claims and classes of interests. The Plan segregates the various Claims against and Equity Interests in the Debtors into various classes. The Bankruptcy Code also provides that, except for certain Claims classified for administrative convenience, the Plan may place a Claim or Equity Interest in a particular Class only if such Claim or Equity Interest is substantially similar to the other Claims or Equity Interests of such Class. The Debtors believe that all Claims and Equity Interests have been appropriately classified in the Plan. To the extent that the Bankruptcy Court determines that such classification is incorrect, however, the Bankruptcy Court could deny confirmation of the Plan.

If the Bankruptcy Court finds that a different classification is required for confirmation of the Plan, the Debtors may seek to (i) modify the Plan to provide for whatever reasonable classification might be required for confirmation and (ii) use the acceptances received from any holder of Claims or Equity Interests pursuant to this Disclosure Statement for the purpose of obtaining the approval of the Class or Classes of which such holder ultimately is deemed to be a member. Any such reclassification of Claims, although subject to the notice and hearing requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, could adversely affect the Class in which the holder of such Claim or Equity Interest was initially a member, or any other Class under the Plan, by changing the composition of such Class and the vote required for approval of the Plan. There can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court, after finding that a classification was inappropriate and required a reclassification, would approve the Plan based upon such reclassification. Except to the extent that modification of classification in the Plan adversely affects the treatment of a holder of Claims in a manner that requires re-solicitation, the Debtors likely will, in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules, seek a determination by the Bankruptcy Court that acceptance of the Plan by any holder of Claims or Equity Interests pursuant to this Disclosure Statement will constitute a consent to the Plan's treatment of such holder regardless of the Class to which such holder is ultimately deemed to be a member.

The Bankruptcy Code also requires that a chapter 11 plan provide for the same treatment for each Claim or Equity Interest within a particular Class unless the holder of a particular Claim or Equity Interest agrees to a less favorable treatment of its Claim or Equity Interest. The Debtors believe the Plan complies with the requirement of equal treatment for each Claim or Equity Interest of a particular Class.

Only Classes that are "impaired" (pursuant to section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code) under a chapter 11 plan are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, unless the Class is deemed to have rejected the Plan. As a general matter, a class of claims or equity interests is considered to be "unimpaired" under a chapter 11 plan if the plan does not alter the legal, equitable, and contractual rights of the holders of such claims or equity interests. Under the Bankruptcy Code, holders of unimpaired claims are conclusively presumed to have accepted a proposed chapter 11 plan. Holders of Claims or Equity Interests that do not receive or retain anything under a proposed chapter 11 plan are deemed to have rejected such plan.

The categories of Claims and Equity Interests outlined in the Plan and listed below classify Claims and Equity Interests for all purposes, including for purposes of voting, confirmation, and distribution pursuant to the Plan and pursuant to sections 1122 and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to Article 2 of the Plan, a Claim or Equity Interest is (i) classified in a particular Class only to the extent that the Claim or Equity Interest qualifies within the description of that Class and (ii) classified in a different Class to the extent that any remainder of such Claim or Equity Interest qualifies within the description of such other Class. A Claim or Equity Interest is also classified in a particular Class for the purpose of receiving distributions pursuant to the Plan only to the extent that such Claim or Equity Interest is an Allowed Claim or an Allowed Equity Interest in that Class and has not been paid, released, or otherwise satisfied prior to the Effective Date. Except as otherwise specifically provided for in this Plan, the Confirmation Order or other order of the Bankruptcy Court, or required by applicable bankruptcy law, in no event shall any holder of an Allowed Claim be entitled to receive payments that in the aggregate exceed the Allowed amount of such holder's Claim.

In accordance with Bankruptcy Code section 1123(a)(1), Administrative Expense Claims, U.S. Trustee Fees, Professional Fee Claims and Priority Tax Claims have not been classified.

The classification of Claims and Equity Interests pursuant to the Plan is as follows:

X. LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS

Section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that each holder of an Impaired Claim or Impaired Equity Interest that has not voted to accept the Plan must receive or retain under the Plan property of a value, as of the Effective Date, that is not less than the value such holder would receive or retain if the debtor was liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code (sometimes called the “Best Interests Test,” which is described in greater detail in Article 10 hereof). If all members of an impaired class of claims or interests have accepted the Plan, the “best interests test” does not apply with respect to that class.

The Debtors have already liquidated substantially all of their assets through the Unimoda Sale. The Debtors currently hold cash, the Gawker.com Assets and potential causes of action. In the Plan, Administrative and Priority Claims will be paid in full, as required by Bankruptcy Code section 1129, and the remaining funds will be disbursed in Cash on the Effective Date or through the Plan Administrator on the Gawker Media Distribution Date and GMGI Distribution Dates. The Debtors believe the Plan is the simplest and least expensive mechanism to distribute the Debtors’ remaining assets.

The Debtors believe that holders of Claims and Equity Interests will receive equal or greater value as of the Effective Date under the Plan than such holders would receive in a chapter 7 liquidation for several reasons. First, the Debtors believe a chapter 7 liquidation would take longer to resolve Administrative and Priority Claims than the Plan, delaying distributions to the holders of Impaired Claims and Equity Interests, and would incur more costs than the Plan. Second, in a chapter 7, it is likely that a chapter 7 trustee with no prior knowledge or experience with the Debtors or its operations would be appointed, increasing the time to resolve Administrative and Priority Claims. Third, a chapter 7 trustee would incur expenses in distributing the assets, which would likely include a percentage fee on assets distributed. This percentage fee, which could be significant in a chapter 7 case, will be avoided by the Plan.

More importantly, the Plan embodies the Plan Settlements among the three Debtor estates and the Second Lien Lender. In a chapter 7 liquidation, the estates would be required to expend significant additional expenses in litigating the allocation of assets among the Debtors' estates, potential claims relating to intercompany obligations, and Allowance of the Second Lien Make-Whole Claims. The Plan eliminates these expenses and yields more value to be distributed among holders of Claims against and Equity Interests in the Debtors.

In summary, the Debtors believe that chapter 7 liquidations of the Debtors would result in substantial diminution in the value to be realized by holders of Claims and Equity Interests entitled to distribution, as compared to the distributions contemplated under the Plan, because of, among other factors:

- the increased cost and expenses of liquidation under chapter 7 arising from fees payable to the chapter 7 trustee and the attorneys and other professional advisors to such trustee;
- additional expenses would be generated litigating over allocation of value among Debtor estates and allowance of Second Lien Lender make-whole claims, all of which would be entitled to priority (and expenses of the Second Lien Lender may also be entitled to priority if it prevails);
- additional expenses and Claims, some of which would be entitled to priority and which would be generated during the liquidation of the Debtor;
- the cost and expense attributable to the time value of money resulting from a potentially more protracted chapter 7 proceeding than the estimated length of the Bankruptcy Cases; and
- the application of the rule of absolute priority under the Bankruptcy Code to distributions made in a chapter 7 liquidation.

Consequently, the Debtors believe that confirmation of the Plan will provide a substantially greater return to holders of Claims and Equity Interests than a chapter 7 liquidation.

XI. RISK FACTORS

Holders of Claims and Equity Interests should read and consider carefully the risk factors set forth below before voting to accept or reject the Plan. Although there are many risk factors discussed below, these factors should not be regarded as constituting the only risks present in connection with the Debtors' Plan and its implementation.

A. Certain Bankruptcy Law Considerations

The occurrence or non-occurrence of any or all of the following contingencies, and any others, could affect distributions available to holders of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests under the Plan but will not necessarily affect the validity of the vote of the Impaired Classes to accept or reject the Plan or necessarily require a re-solicitation of the votes of holders of Claims or Equity Interests in such Impaired Classes.

1. Parties-in-Interest May Object to the Plan's Classification of Claims and Interests

Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a plan may place a claim or an equity interest in a particular class only if such claim or equity interest is substantially similar to the other claims or equity interests in such class. The Debtors believe that the classification of the Claims and Equity Interests under the Plan complies with the requirements set forth in the Bankruptcy Code because the Debtors created Classes of Claims and Equity Interests, each encompassing Claims and Equity Interests that are substantially similar to the other Claims and Equity Interests in each such Class. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion. If the Bankruptcy Court finds that the Plan does not satisfy such requirement, the Bankruptcy Court could deny confirmation of the Plan.

Issues or disputes relating to classification and/or treatment could result in a delay in the confirmation and consummation of the Plan and could increase the risk that the Plan will not be confirmed or consummated.

2. The Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date of the Plan May Not Occur

Although the Debtors believe that the Effective Date will occur soon after the Confirmation Date, there can be no assurance as to such timing. The effectiveness of the Plan is subject to a number of conditions precedent, as outlined in Section 6.02 of the Plan. The conditions to the Effective Date are discussed in further detail in Section 9.D.2. hereof. While the Debtors believe the conditions to the Effective Date will be satisfied or waived and the Plan will become effective, there can be no assurance that all such conditions will occur (or be waived in accordance with the terms of the Plan). If such conditions precedent are not met or waived, the Effective Date will not take place.

3. Failure to Satisfy Vote Requirements

If votes are received in number and amount sufficient to enable the Bankruptcy Court to confirm the Plan, the Debtors intend to seek, as promptly as practicable thereafter, Confirmation of the Plan. In the event that sufficient votes are not received, the Debtors may seek to confirm an alternative chapter 11 plan. There can be no assurance that the terms of any such alternative chapter 11 plan would be similar or as favorable to the holders of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests as those proposed in the Plan.

4. The Debtors May Not Be Able to Secure Confirmation of the Plan

Section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code sets forth the requirements for confirmation of a chapter 11 plan, and requires, among other things, a finding by the bankruptcy court that: (a) such plan "does not unfairly discriminate" and is "fair and equitable" with respect to any non-accepting classes; (b) confirmation of such plan is not likely to be followed by a liquidation or a need for further financial reorganization unless such liquidation or reorganization is contemplated by the plan; and (c) the value of distributions to non-accepting holders of claims and equity interests within a particular class under such plan will not be less than the value of distributions such holders would receive if the debtors were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

There can be no assurance that the requisite acceptances to confirm the Plan will be received. Even if the requisite acceptances are received, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan. A non-accepting holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest might challenge either the adequacy of this Disclosure Statement or whether the solicitation procedures and voting results satisfy the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rules. Even if the Bankruptcy Court determined that this Disclosure Statement, the solicitation procedures and voting results were appropriate, the Bankruptcy Court could still decline to confirm the Plan if it found that any of the statutory requirements for Confirmation had not been met.

Confirmation of the Plan is also subject to certain conditions as described in Article 6 of the Plan. If the Plan is not confirmed, it is unclear what distributions, if any, holders of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests would receive with respect to their Allowed Claims and Equity Interests.

The Debtors, subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, reserve the right to modify the terms and conditions of the Plan as necessary for Confirmation. Any such modifications could result in a less favorable treatment of any non-accepting Class, as well as of any Classes junior to such non-accepting Class, than the treatment currently provided in the Plan. Such a less favorable treatment could include a distribution of property to the Class affected by the modification of a lesser value than currently provided in the Plan or no distribution of property whatsoever under the Plan.

5. Nonconsensual Confirmation

In the event that any Impaired Class of Claims or Equity Interests does not accept a chapter 11 plan, a bankruptcy court may nevertheless confirm a plan at the proponents' request if at least one Impaired Class has accepted the plan (with such acceptance being determined without including the vote of any "insider" in such class), and, as to each impaired class that has not accepted the plan, the bankruptcy court determines that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" with respect to the dissenting impaired classes. The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies these requirements, and the Debtors may request such nonconsensual Confirmation in accordance with subsection 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach this conclusion. In addition, the pursuit of nonconsensual Confirmation or Consummation of the Plan may result in, among other things, increased expenses relating to Professional Fee Claims.

6. The Debtors May Object to the Amount or Classification of a Claim or Equity Interest

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors reserve the right to object to the amount or classification of any Claim or Equity Interest under the Plan. The estimates set forth in this Disclosure Statement cannot be relied upon by any holder of a Claim or Equity Interest where such Claim is subject to an objection. Any holder of a Claim or Equity Interest that is subject to an objection thus may not receive its expected share of the estimated distributions described in this Disclosure Statement.

7. Risk of Non-Occurrence of the Effective Date

Although the Debtors believe that the Effective Date may occur quickly after the Confirmation Date, there can be no assurance as to such timing or as to whether the Effective Date will, in fact, occur.

8. Contingencies Could Affect Votes of Impaired Classes to Accept or Reject the Plan

The distributions available to holders of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests under the Plan can be affected by a variety of contingencies. The occurrence of any and all such contingencies, which could affect distributions available to holders of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests under the Plan, will not affect the validity of the vote taken by the Impaired Classes to accept or reject the Plan or require any sort of revote by the Impaired Classes.

The estimated Claims, Equity Interests and creditor recoveries set forth in this Disclosure Statement are based on various assumptions, and the actual Allowed amounts of Claims and Equity Interests may significantly differ from the estimates. Should one or more of the underlying assumptions ultimately prove to be incorrect, the actual Allowed amounts of Claims and Equity Interests may vary from the estimated Claims and Equity Interests contained in this Disclosure Statement. Moreover, the Debtors cannot determine with any certainty at this time, the number or amount of Claims or Equity Interests that will ultimately be Allowed. Such differences may materially and adversely affect, among other things, the percentage recoveries to holders of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests under the Plan.

9. Releases, Injunctions, and Exculpations Provisions May Not Be Approved

The Plan provides for certain releases, injunctions, and exculpations. However, such releases, injunctions, and exculpations are subject to objection by parties-in-interest and may not be approved.

B. Risks Related to Recoveries Under the Plan

1. Debtors Cannot State with Certainty What Recovery Will Be Available to holders of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests in Impaired Classes

The Debtors cannot know with certainty, at this time, the number or amount of Claims in Impaired Classes that will ultimately be Allowed. Accordingly, because certain Claims under the Plan will be paid on a Pro Rata basis, the Debtors cannot state with certainty what recoveries will be available to holders of Allowed Claims in Impaired Classes.

2. Actual Amounts of Allowed Claims May Differ from the Estimated Claims and Adversely Affect the Percentage Recovery on Unsecured Claims and Equity Interests

The aggregate amount of damages alleged by plaintiffs in Article Lawsuits and awarded in the Bollea Judgment that is under appeal exceeds $250 million. There may also be additional general unsecured litigation Claims asserted against the Debtors. All of these Claims are Disputed. While the Debtors believe that these Claims should be Allowed in the amount of $0, it is possible that the courts adjudicating the Article Lawsuits and the Bollea Claims or another litigation Claim may enter Final Orders awarding substantial judgments, or that such Claims will be settled for substantial amounts of Allowed Claims. The amounts of Claims ultimately Allowed against the Debtors on account of the Article Lawsuits and Bollea Claims will have a significant impact on the amount of distributions to holders of all non-priority Claims and Equity Interests against Gawker Media and GMGI.

3. If the Effective Date Does Not Occur Prior to December 31, 2016, the Percentage Recovery on Unsecured Claims and Equity Interests May Be Adversely Affected

The Debtors' projections incorporated in the Plan and Disclosure Statement assume that the Effective Date will occur prior to December 31, 2016. If the Effective Date were to occur on January 1, 2017 or later, it could have adverse tax consequences that would materially reduce the amount of cash available for distribution to, and recoveries of, holders of unsecured Claims and Equity Interests.

The information contained in this Disclosure Statement is for the purposes of soliciting acceptances of the Plan and may not be relied upon for any other purpose.

2. No Legal or Tax Advice Is Provided to You by this Disclosure Statement

This Disclosure Statement is not legal advice to you. The contents of this Disclosure Statement should not be construed as legal, business, or tax advice. Each holder of a Claim or Equity Interest should consult his or her own legal counsel and accountant with regard to any legal, tax, and other matters concerning his or her Claim or Equity Interest. This Disclosure Statement may not be relied upon for any purpose other than to determine how to vote on the Plan or object to Confirmation of the Plan.

3. No Admissions Made

The information and statements contained in this Disclosure Statement will neither (a) constitute an admission of any fact or liability by any Entity (including, without limitation, the Debtors) nor (b) be deemed evidence of the tax or other legal effects of the Plan on the Debtors, holders of Allowed Claims or Equity Interests, or any other parties-in-interest.

4. Failure to Identify Litigation Claims or Projected Objections

No reliance should be placed on the fact that a particular litigation claim or projected objection to a particular Claim or Equity Interest is, or is not, identified in this Disclosure Statement. The Debtors may seek to investigate, file, and prosecute Claims and may object to Claims after the Confirmation or Effective Date of the Plan irrespective of whether this Disclosure Statement identifies such Claims or objections to Claims.

5. No Waiver of Right to Object or Right to Recover Transfers and Assets

The vote by a holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest for or against the Plan does not constitute a waiver or release of any Claims, Causes of Action, including Causes of Action against any "insider" as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code, or rights of the Debtors, or the Reorganized Debtors (or any party in interest, as the case may be) to object to that holder's Allowed Claim or Equity Interest, or recover any preferential, fraudulent, or other voidable transfer of assets, regardless of whether any Claims or Causes of Action, including Causes of Action against any "insider" as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code of the Debtors or their respective Estates, are specifically or generally identified herein.

6. Information Was Provided by the Debtors and Was Relied Upon by the Debtors' Advisors

Counsel to and other advisors retained by the Debtors have relied upon information provided by the Debtors in connection with the preparation of this Disclosure Statement. Although counsel to and other advisors retained by the Debtors have performed certain limited due diligence in connection with the preparation of this Disclosure Statement, they have not verified independently the information contained herein.

7. Potential Exists for Inaccuracies, and the Debtors Have No Duty to Update

The statements contained in this Disclosure Statement are made by the Debtors as of the date hereof, unless otherwise specified herein, and the delivery of this Disclosure Statement after that date does not imply that there has not been a change in the information set forth herein since that date. While the Debtors have used their reasonable business judgment to ensure the accuracy of all of the information provided in this Disclosure Statement and in the Plan, the Debtors nonetheless cannot, and do not, confirm the current accuracy of all statements appearing in this Disclosure Statement. Further, although the Debtors may subsequently update the information in this Disclosure Statement, the Debtors have no affirmative duty to do so unless ordered to do so by the Bankruptcy Court.

8. No Representations Outside This Disclosure Statement Are Authorized

No representations concerning or relating to the Debtors, these Bankruptcy Cases, or the Plan are authorized by the Bankruptcy Court or the Bankruptcy Code, other than as set forth in this Disclosure Statement. Any representations or inducements made to secure your acceptance or rejection of the Plan that are other than as contained in, or included with, this Disclosure Statement, should not be relied upon by you in arriving at your decision. You should promptly report unauthorized representations or inducements to the counsel to the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to the Committee.

D. Liquidation Under Chapter 7

If no plan can be confirmed, the Debtors' Bankruptcy Cases may be converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, pursuant to which a trustee would be elected or appointed to liquidate the assets of the Debtors for distribution in accordance with the priorities established by the Bankruptcy Code. A discussion of the effects that a chapter 7 liquidation would have on the recoveries of holders of Claims and Equity Interests and the Debtors' Liquidation Analysis is described herein.

XII. SOLICITATION AND VOTING PROCEDURES

This Disclosure Statement, which is accompanied by a Ballot or Ballots to be used for voting on the Plan, is being distributed to the holders of Claims and Equity Interests in those Classes that are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. The procedures and instructions for voting and related deadlines are set forth in the exhibits annexed to the Disclosure Statement Order, which is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

The Disclosure Statement Order is incorporated herein by reference and should be read in conjunction with this Disclosure Statement and in formulating a decision to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

THE DISCUSSION OF THE SOLICITATION, AND VOTING SET FORTH IN THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT IS ONLY A SUMMARY.

PLEASE REFER TO THE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT ORDER ATTACHED HERETO FOR A MORE COMPREHENSIVE DESCRIPTION OF SOLICITATION AND VOTING.

A. Holders of Claims Entitled to Vote on the Plan

Under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, not all holders of claims against a debtor are entitled to vote on a chapter 11 plan. The table in Section 7.C. of this Disclosure Statement provides a summary of the status and voting rights of each Class (and, therefore, of each holder within such Class absent an objection to the holder's Claim or Equity Interest) under the Plan. As shown in the table, the Debtors are soliciting votes to accept or reject the Plan only from holders of Claims in Classes 1A, 1C, 1D(ii), 1E, 2A, 2C, 2D, 2F, 3A, 3D(ii) and 3E (collectively, the "Voting Classes").

The holders of Claims and Equity Interests in the Voting Classes are Impaired under the Plan and may, in certain circumstances, receive a distribution under the Plan. Accordingly, holders of Claims and Equity Interest in the Voting Classes have the right to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

The Debtors are not soliciting votes from holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 1B, 1D(i), 1F, 2B, 2E(i), 2E(ii), 3B, 3C, and 3D(i); however, the Debtors are sending a notice of non-voting status (the "Notice of Non-Voting Status"), to such holders.

B. Voting Record Date

The Voting Record Date is October 31, 2016. The Voting Record Date is the date on which it will be determined which holders of Claims and Equity Interests in the Impaired Classes are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan and whether Claims or Equity Interests have been properly assigned or transferred under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e) such that an assignee can vote as the holder of a Claim or Equity Interest.

C. Voting on the Plan

The Voting Deadline is December 5, 2016, at 5:00 p.m. (New York Time). In order to be counted as votes to accept or reject the Plan, all Ballots must be properly executed, completed and delivered (either by using the return envelope provided, by first class mail, overnight courier or personal delivery) so that they are actually received on or before the Voting Deadline by the Debtors' Notice and Claims Agent at the following address:

DELIVERY OF BALLOTS AND ELECTION FORMS

If by Regular Mail, Hand-Delivery or Overnight Courier to:

Gawker Ballot Processing
c/o Prime Clerk LLC
830 Third Avenue, 3rd Floor
New York, NY 10022

D. Ballots and Election Forms Not Counted

No Ballot or Election Form will be counted toward Confirmation if, among other things: (i) it is illegible or contains insufficient information to permit the identification of the holder of the Claim; (ii) it was transmitted by facsimile, email or other electronic means; (iii) it was cast by an entity that is not entitled to vote on the Plan; (iv) it was cast for a Claim listed in the Debtors' schedules of assets and liabilities as contingent, unliquidated or disputed for which the applicable bar date has passed and no proof of claim was timely filed; (v) it was cast for a Claim that is subject to an objection pending as of the Voting Record Date (unless temporarily allowed in accordance with the Disclosure Statement Order); (vi) it was sent to the Debtors, the Debtors' agents/representatives (other than the Notice and Claims Agent), or the Debtors' financial or legal advisors instead of the Notice and Claims Agent; (vii) it is unsigned; or (viii) it is not clearly marked to either accept or reject the Plan or it is marked both to accept and reject the Plan. Please refer to the Disclosure Statement Order for additional requirements with respect to voting to accept or reject the Plan.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS ABOUT SOLICITATION, OR VOTING PLEASE CONTACT THE NOTICE AND CLAIMS AGENT TOLL-FREE AT (866) 692-6696. ANY BALLOT RECEIVED AFTER THE VOTING DEADLINE OR OTHERWISE NOT IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE SOLICITATION ORDER WILL NOT BE COUNTED.

XIII. CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

A. Requirements for Confirmation of the Plan

At the Confirmation Hearing, the Bankruptcy Court will determine whether the Plan satisfies all of the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors believe that: (i) the Plan satisfies or will satisfy all of the necessary statutory requirements of chapter 11; (ii) the Debtors have complied or will have complied with all of the necessary requirements of chapter 11; and (iii) the Plan has been proposed in good faith.

B. Best Interests of Creditors/Liquidation Analysis

Often called the "best interests" test, section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a bankruptcy court find as a condition to confirmation that a chapter 11 plan provide, with respect to each class, that each holder of a claim or an equity interest in the class either (i) has accepted the plan or (ii) will receive or retain under the plan property of a value that is not less than the amount that the holder would receive or retain if the debtors liquidated under chapter 7.

As set forth in Section X of the Plan, the Debtors believe that liquidation under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code of the Debtors' businesses would result in a substantial decrease in the value to be realized by holders of Claims as compared to distributions contemplated under the Plan. Consequently, the Debtors and their management believe that Confirmation of the Plan will provide a substantially greater return to holders of Claims than would a liquidation under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

C. Feasibility

Section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that confirmation of a plan of reorganization is not likely to be followed by the liquidation, or the need for further financial reorganization of, the Debtors, or any successor to the Debtors (unless such liquidation or reorganization is proposed in the Plan).

To determine whether the Plan meets this feasibility requirement, the Debtors have analyzed their ability to meet their respective obligations under the Plan.

The Plan contemplates the reorganization of the Debtors as a going concern and will significantly reduce the Debtors' long-term debt and annual interest payments. In addition, the Plan will result in a stronger, de-levered balance sheet for the Debtors while allowing creditors to participate in future upside in the Reorganized Debtors. Specifically, the Plan contemplates the conversion of most of the Debtors' current outstanding debt to equity. As such, the Debtors believe that the confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by a further financial reorganization and, therefore, is feasible.

D. Acceptance by Impaired Classes

The Bankruptcy Code requires, as a condition to confirmation, except as described in the following section, that each class of claims or equity interests impaired under a plan, accept the plan. A class that is not “impaired” under a plan is deemed to have accepted the plan and, therefore, solicitation of acceptances with respect to such a class is not required.⁴

Section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code defines acceptance of a plan by a class of impaired claims as acceptance by holders of at least two-thirds in a dollar amount and more than one-half in a number of allowed claims in that class, counting only those claims that have actually voted to accept or to reject the plan. Thus, a class of claims will have voted to accept the Plan only if two-thirds in amount and a majority in number actually cast their ballots in favor of acceptance.

E. Confirmation without Acceptance by All Impaired Classes

Section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code allows a bankruptcy court to confirm a plan even if one or more classes of creditors are impaired, and all creditor Classes have not accepted it; provided, that the plan has been accepted by at least one impaired class of creditors, without counting the accepting votes of “insiders” (the “Impaired Accepting Class Requirement”). Pursuant to section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, notwithstanding an impaired class’s rejection or deemed rejection of the plan, the plan will be confirmed, at the plan proponent’s request, in a procedure commonly known as a “cramdown” so long as the plan does not “discriminate unfairly” and is “fair and equitable” with respect to each class of claims or equity interests that is impaired under, and has not accepted, the plan. All holders of Claims and Equity Interests in Classes 1D(i), 1D(ii), 2E(i), 2E(ii), 2F, 3D(i), 3D(ii), and 3F are “insiders” under the applicable definition provided in Section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code. Although these Classes are Impaired, and will vote to Accept the Plan, only acceptance of the Plan by one Classes 1A, 2A, or 3A can satisfy the Impaired Accepting Class Requirement, unless there are no impaired classes of creditors.

If any Impaired Class rejects the Plan, the Debtors reserve the right to seek to confirm the Plan utilizing the “cramdown” provision of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. To the extent that any Impaired Class rejects the Plan or is deemed to have rejected the Plan, the Debtors will request Confirmation of the Plan, as it may be modified from time to time, under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors reserve the right to alter, amend, modify, revoke or withdraw the Plan or any Plan Supplement document, including the right to amend or modify it to satisfy the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

1. No Unfair Discrimination

The “unfair discrimination” test applies to classes of claims or interests that are of equal priority and are receiving different treatment under a plan. The test does not require that the treatment be the same or equivalent, but that treatment be “fair.” In general, bankruptcy courts consider whether a plan discriminates unfairly in its treatment of classes of claims of equal rank (e.g., classes of the same legal character). Bankruptcy courts will take into account a number of factors in determining whether a plan discriminates unfairly. A plan could treat two classes of unsecured creditors differently without unfairly discriminating against either class.

⁴ A class of claims is “impaired” within the meaning of section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code unless the plan (a) leaves unaltered the legal, equitable and contractual rights to which the claim or equity interest entitles the holder of such claim or equity interest or (b) cures any default, reinstates the original terms of such obligation, compensates the holder for certain damages or losses, as applicable, and does not otherwise alter the legal, equitable or contractual rights to which such claim or equity interest entitles the holder of such claim or equity interest.

2. Fair and Equitable Test

The “fair and equitable” test applies to classes of different priority and status (e.g., secured versus unsecured) and includes the general requirement that no class of claims receive more than one hundred percent (100%) of the amount of the allowed claims in the class. As to the dissenting class, the test sets different standards depending upon the type of claims or equity interests in the class.

The Debtors submit that if the Debtors “cramdown” the Plan pursuant to section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan is structured so that it does not “discriminate unfairly” and satisfies the “fair and equitable” requirement. With respect to the unfair discrimination requirement, all Classes under the Plan are provided treatment that is substantially equivalent to the treatment that is provided to other Classes that have equal rank. The Debtors believe that the Plan and the treatment of all Classes of Claims and Interests under the Plan satisfy the foregoing requirements for nonconsensual Confirmation of the Plan.

XIV. CERTAIN UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN

A. In General

The following discussion summarizes certain anticipated U.S. federal income tax consequences relating to the Plan. This summary is based on the Internal Revenue Code (“IRC”), U.S. Treasury regulations (proposed, temporary and final) issued thereunder and administrative and judicial interpretations thereof, all as they currently exist as of the date of this Disclosure Statement and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, so as to result in U.S. federal income tax consequences different from those discussed below.

The following summary is for general information only. The tax treatment of a beneficial owner of Claims or Equity Interests (each a “Holder” and collectively, the “Holders”) may vary depending upon such Holder’s particular situation. This summary does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to a Holder, including any alternative minimum tax consequences, and does not address the tax consequences to a Holder that has made an agreement to resolve its Claim or Equity Interest in a manner not explicitly provided for in the Plan. This summary also does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences to persons not entitled to vote on the Plan; Holders that are non-U.S. persons or Holders subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, such as brokers or dealers in securities or currencies, certain securities traders, tax-exempt entities, financial institutions, insurance companies, foreign persons, partnerships and other pass-through entities; Holders that hold Claims or Equity Interest as a position in a “straddle” or as part of a “synthetic security,” “hedging,” “conversion” or other integrated transaction; Holders that have a “functional currency” other than the United States dollar; and Holders that have acquired Claims or Equity Interest in connection with the performance of services. This summary does not address Hungarian or Cayman Islands tax laws and should not be construed as providing advice with respect to those jurisdictions. Holders subject to tax laws of those jurisdictions should consult with their advisors with respect to the application of those laws to the Plan. In calculating treatments and recoveries for purposes of this Disclosure Statement, the Debtors have relied on preliminary assessed basis and taxes potentially attributable to the Unimoda Sale. The following summary assumes that the Claims and Equity Interest are held by Holders as “capital assets” (as defined in the IRC) and that all Claims denominated as indebtedness are properly treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The tax treatment of Holders and the character, amount and timing of income, gain or loss recognized as a consequence of the Plan and the distributions provided for by the Plan may vary, depending upon, among other things: (i) whether the Claim (or portion thereof) constitutes a Claim for principal or interest; (ii) the type of consideration received by the Holder in exchange for the Claim or Equity Interest and whether the Holder receives distributions under the Plan in more than one taxable year; (iii) whether the Holder is a citizen or resident of the United States for tax purposes, is otherwise subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net basis, or falls into any special class of taxpayers, such as those that are excluded from this discussion as noted above; (iv) the manner in which the Holder acquired the Claim or Equity Interest; (v) the length of time that the Claim or Equity Interest has been held; (vi) whether the Claim or Equity Interest was acquired at a discount; (vii) whether the Holder has taken a bad debt deduction with respect to the Claim or Equity Interest (or any portion thereof) in the current or prior years; (viii) whether the Holder has previously included in income accrued but unpaid interest with respect to the Claim; (ix) the method of tax accounting of the Holder; (x) whether the Claim or Equity Interest is an installment obligation for U.S. federal income tax purposes; and (xi) whether the “market discount” rules are applicable to the Holder. Therefore, each Holder should consult its tax advisor for information that may be relevant to its particular situation and circumstances, and the particular tax consequences to such Holder of the transactions contemplated by the Plan.

THE FOLLOWING DISCUSSION IS INTENDED ONLY AS A SUMMARY OF CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN AND IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR CAREFUL TAX PLANNING WITH A TAX PROFESSIONAL. THE FOLLOWING DISCUSSION IS FOR INFORMATION PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT TAX ADVICE. THE TAX CONSEQUENCES ARE IN MANY CASES UNCERTAIN AND MAY VARY DEPENDING ON A HOLDER’S PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES. ACCORDINGLY, EACH HOLDER IS STRONGLY URGED TO CONSULT ITS TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, AND APPLICABLE NON-U.S. INCOME AND OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN.

TO COMPLY WITH INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE CIRCULAR 230, TAXPAYERS ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT (A) ANY DISCUSSION OF U.S. FEDERAL TAX ISSUES CONTAINED OR REFERRED TO IN THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT (INCLUDING ANY APPENDICES) IS NOT INTENDED OR WRITTEN TO BE USED, AND CANNOT BE USED, BY ANY TAXPAYER FOR THE PURPOSE OF AVOIDING PENALTIES THAT MAY BE IMPOSED ON A TAXPAYER UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE, (B) ANY SUCH DISCUSSION IS WRITTEN IN CONNECTION WITH THE SOLICITATION OF VOTES ON THE PLAN AND (C) TAXPAYERS SHOULD SEEK ADVICE BASED ON THEIR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISOR.

B. U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to the Debtors

1. Cancellation of Debt and Reduction of Tax Attributes

If there is a discharge of a debt obligation by a debtor (in the case of indebtedness with multiple obligors, indebtedness that is allocable to such debtor) for an amount less than the adjusted issue price (in most cases, the amount the debtor received on incurring the obligation, with certain adjustments), such discharge generally would give rise to cancellation of debt (“COD”) income, which must be included in the debtor’s income. Settlement of a guarantee should not give rise to COD.

The Debtors should be able to utilize a special tax provision which excludes from income COD income attributable to debts discharged in a chapter 11 case (the “Bankruptcy Exception”).

Under section 108(b) of the IRC and Treasury regulations that apply to members of a consolidated group, each Debtor that does not include COD income in computing taxable income under the Bankruptcy Exception will be required to reduce certain tax attributes, including consolidated attributes, such as net operating losses and net operating loss carryforwards (and certain other losses, credits and carryforwards, if any), attributable to such Debtor; attributes that arose in separate return limitation years of such Debtor (if any); and the Debtor’s tax basis in its assets (but not below the amount of its liabilities remaining immediately after the discharge of indebtedness), in an amount generally equal to the amount of such Debtor’s COD income excluded from income under the Bankruptcy Exception.

As a result of the required attribute reduction resulting from the discharge of indebtedness, the Debtors believe that, to the extent the Debtors have any remaining net operating losses (“NOLs”) and tax credit carryforwards after taking into account gains from the Unimoda Sale that closed in 2016, and any income or gain resulting from implementation of the Plan, such remaining NOLs and tax carryforwards (and alternative minimum tax NOLs) of the Debtors should be eliminated as of the end of the taxable year which includes the Effective Date of the Plan.

2. Taxable Income Resulting From the Unimoda Sale

The Unimoda Sale is expected to trigger income or gain recognition by the Debtors. However, the Debtors will not be able to determine the amount of such income or gain with certainty, and consequently will not be able to finally determine the U.S. federal income tax, if any, attributable to the Unimoda Sale, until the final allocation of sale proceeds is determined and pending litigation against Gawker Media is resolved. Under certain assumptions about the allocation of proceeds from the Unimoda Sale, the Debtors may incur regular U.S. federal income tax. Additionally, if the IRS were to prevail in assessing U.S. federal income tax for taxable years ending after the Petition Date, payments of such taxes could reduce the amounts otherwise available for distribution under the Plan.

3. Gawker.com Assets

The Debtors are still in the process of developing a plan for the maximization of value realizable from the residual Gawker.com Assets, and are considering various options with respect thereto. The Debtors may incur taxable income in connection with a disposition of the Gawker.com Assets, or the ongoing operation of the Gawker.com Assets, although the amount and timing of such taxable income will vary depending on the nature and timing of the plan of disposition, and the amount realized therefrom.

4. Limitation of NOL Carryforwards and Other Tax Attributes

Under section 382 of the IRC ("Section 382"), if a corporation (or consolidated group) undergoes an "ownership change," the amount of its pre-change losses (including NOL carryforwards from periods before the ownership change and certain losses or deductions which are "built-in" (i.e., economically accrued but unrecognized) as of the date of the ownership change) and tax credits that may be utilized to offset future taxable income generally is subject to an annual limitation.

Notwithstanding the general rule, if the corporation (or the consolidated group) does not continue its historic business or use a significant portion of its historic assets in a new business for two years after the ownership change, the annual limitation resulting from the ownership change is zero, thereby precluding any utilization of the corporation's pre-change losses (absent any increases due to any recognized built-in gains) or tax credits.

The Debtors do not expect to have NOL carryovers and other tax attributes available on the Effective Date, as a result of giving effect to income from the Unimoda Sale and other items of taxable income prior to the Effective Date. Moreover, to the extent the Debtors have NOL carryovers and other tax attributes available on the Effective Date, the Debtors do not expect to have any such NOL carryovers or other tax attributes remaining after implementation of the Plan, as a result of attribute reduction resulting from the Debtors' COD income excluded under the Bankruptcy Exception. Therefore, the Debtors could incur a federal income tax liability in connection with any income earned, including through the liquidation of the Debtors' remaining assets, if any, or the operation of a licensing entity after the Effective Date.

However, the amount of such NOL carryovers and other tax attributes that could be available following the Effective Date is based on a number of factors and it is impossible to determine with certainty at this time whether any NOL carryovers and other tax attributes will be available after emergence.

C. Professional Fee Claims Reserves

The Plan Administrator will create one or more reserve accounts for Cash held on account of Professional Fee Claims. Under the IRC, interest and other income earned on such accounts are subject to current tax. However, the U.S. Treasury Department has not issued Treasury regulations to address the U.S. federal income tax treatment of such funds that specifically applies in a bankruptcy context. Accordingly, the proper tax treatment of such funds is uncertain. Distributions from the Professional Fee Claim Reserves will be made to Holders of Professional Fee Claims when such Claims are subsequently Allowed and, if applicable, to other Holders when Professional Fee Claims are subsequently disallowed. The Debtors intend to treat the Professional Fee Claims Reserves as a disputed ownership fund, taxable as a separate entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Under such treatment, the Plan Administrator shall file all income tax returns with respect to any income attributable to the Professional Fee Claims Reserves and shall pay the federal, state and local income taxes attributable to the Professional Fee Claims Reserves using Cash available in the Professional Fee Claims Reserves, based on the items of income, deduction, credit or loss allocable thereto.

Holders should note the tax treatment of the Professional Fee Claims Reserves is unclear and should consult their tax advisors as to the tax consequences to them of the establishment of, the income on, and distributions from, the Professional Fee Claims Reserves.

D. U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders of Claims and Equity Interests

1. Generally

Generally, a Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest will realize gain or loss on the exchange under the Plan of its Allowed Claim or Equity Interest for Cash or other property, in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the sum of the amount of any Cash and the fair market value on the date of the exchange of any other property received by the holder (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim or Equity Interest for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Allowed Claim or Equity Interest exchanged (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income). With respect to the treatment of accrued but unpaid interest and amounts allocable thereto, please see Section XIV.D.4 (Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations — U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders of Claims and Equity Interests — Interest Income with Respect to Allowed Claims and Equity Interests). When gain or loss is recognized as discussed below, such gain or loss may be long-term capital gain or loss if the Claim or Equity Interest disposed of is a capital asset in the hands of the Holder and is held for more than one year. Each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest should consult its own tax advisor to determine whether gain or loss recognized by such holder will be long-term capital gain or loss and the specific tax effect thereof on such Holder.

2. Holders of Professional Fee Claims

Although not free from doubt, Holders of Professional Fee Claims should not recognize any gain or loss on the date that the assets of the Debtors are transferred to the Professional Fee Claims Reserves, but should recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to: (i) the amount of cash and the fair market value of any other property actually distributed to such Holder less (ii) the adjusted tax basis of its Claim. Holders of Disputed Claims should note the tax treatment of the Professional Fee Claims Reserves is unclear and should consult their tax advisors as to the tax consequences to them of the establishment of, the income on, and distributions from, the Professional Fee Claims Reserves.

3. Interest Income with Respect to Allowed Claims

Pursuant to Section 3.06 of the Plan, all distributions in respect of Allowed Claims will be allocated first to the principal amount of the Allowed Claim (as determined for federal income tax purposes), with any excess allocated to accrued but unpaid interest. However, there is no assurance that such allocation would be respected by the IRS for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, to the extent any amount received (whether stock, cash or other property) by a holder of a debt is received in satisfaction of accrued interest during its holding period, such amount will be taxable to the holder as interest income (if not previously included in the holder's gross income). Conversely, a holder generally recognizes a deductible loss to the extent any accrued interest claimed was previously included in its gross income and is not paid in full. Each holder of an Allowed Claim is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the allocation of consideration and the deductibility of unpaid interest for tax purposes.

E. Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

Under federal income tax law, interest and other reportable payments may, under certain circumstances, be subject to "backup withholding" at the then applicable withholding rate. Backup withholding generally applies if the Holder (a) fails to furnish its social security number or other taxpayer identification number, (b) furnishes an incorrect taxpayer identification number, (c) fails properly to report interest, or (d) under certain circumstances, fails to provide a certified statement, signed under penalty of perjury, that the tax identification number provided is its correct number and that it is not subject to backup withholding. Backup withholding is not an additional tax but merely an advance payment, which may be refunded to the extent it results in an overpayment of tax. Certain persons are exempt from backup withholding, including, in certain circumstances, corporations and financial institutions. These categories are very broad; however, there are numerous exceptions. Holders of Allowed Claims or Equity Interests are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding these regulations and whether the transactions contemplated by the Plan would be subject to these regulations and require disclosure on the Holders' tax returns.

In addition, Treasury regulations generally require disclosure by a taxpayer on its U.S. federal income tax return of certain types of transactions in which the taxpayer participated, including, among other types of transactions, certain transactions that result in the taxpayer's claiming a loss in excess of specified thresholds. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding these regulations and whether the transactions contemplated by the Plan would be subject to these regulations and require disclosure on the holder's tax returns.

THE FOREGOING DISCUSSION OF CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS IS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT TAX ADVICE. ACCORDINGLY, EACH HOLDER SHOULD CONSULT ITS TAX ADVISOR WITH RESPECT TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN DESCRIBED HEREIN AND THE APPLICATION OF FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX LAWS. NONE OF THE DEBTORS, THE CREDITORS' COMMITTEE OR THEIR RESPECTIVE COUNSEL, ADVISORS OR OTHER PROFESSIONALS SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY TO ANY PERSON OR HOLDER ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO THE U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN OR THE FOREGOING DISCUSSION.

XV. RECOMMENDATION

In the opinion of each of the Debtors, the Plan is preferable to all other available alternatives and provides for a larger distribution to the Debtors' creditors and equity holders than would otherwise result in any other scenario. Accordingly, the Debtors recommend that holders of Claims and Equity Interest entitled to vote on the Plan vote to accept the Plan and support confirmation of the Plan.

Gawker Media LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Gawker Media”), Gawker Media Group, Inc., a Cayman Island corporation (“GMGI”), and Gawker Hungary Kft., a Hungarian corporation (“Gawker Hungary”), propose the following joint chapter 11 plan of liquidation (the “Plan”) for the resolution of all outstanding Claims against and Equity Interests in the Debtors pursuant to section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are the proponents of the Plan within the meaning of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Only holders of certain Allowed Claims and Equity Interests specified in Section 2.10 are entitled to vote on the Plan. The Plan is the product of a preliminary analysis of intercompany claims and issues, and the Debtors have held significant discussion regarding the Plan with the Second Lien Lender, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”) and equityholders. A Disclosure Statement, distributed contemporaneously with the Plan, contains a discussion of the Debtors’ assets, liabilities, history, material asset sale and a summary of the Plan and the proposed settlements and distributions to be made hereunder.

Other agreements and documents supplementing the Plan and Exhibits to the Plan will be filed with the Bankruptcy Court. These supplemental agreements and documents are referenced in the Plan and the Disclosure Statement and will be available for review.

ALL CREDITORS AND HOLDERS OF EQUITY INTERESTS ENTITLED TO VOTE ON THE PLAN ARE ENCOURAGED TO READ THE PLAN AND THE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT IN THEIR ENTIRETY AND CONSULT WITH COUNSEL AND OTHER APPLICABLE PROFESSIONALS BEFORE VOTING TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE PLAN. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, ALL HOLDERS OF CLAIMS OR EQUITY INTERESTS ARE PARTICULARLY URGED TO READ CAREFULLY THE RELEASE, EXCULPATION, AND INJUNCTION PROVISIONS SET FORTH IN ARTICLE 9 BECAUSE SUCH PROVISIONS AFFECT NOT ONLY SUCH HOLDERS’ RIGHTS AND CLAIMS AGAINST THE DEBTORS, BUT, WITH RESPECT TO EXCULPATION, ALSO SUCH HOLDERS’ RIGHTS AND CLAIMS AGAINST CERTAIN NON-DEBTOR PERSONS IDENTIFIED IN SUCH ARTICLE. SUBJECT TO CERTAIN RESTRICTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS SET FORTH IN SECTION 1127 OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE, IN BANKRUPTCY RULE 3019 THE DEBTORS RESERVE THE RIGHT TO ALTER, AMEND, MODIFY, REVOKE, OR WITHDRAW THE PLAN PRIOR TO ITS SUBSTANTIAL CONSUMMATION.

The Plan Administrator may, in its discretion, dissolve Gawker Hungary (as required under the Unimoda APA) or Gawker Media following the Effective Date but prior to the final GMGI Distribution Date, upon the completion of Gawker Hungary or Gawker Media's duties and obligations under the Plan.

4.15 Dissolution of the Committee. On the Effective Date, the Committee shall dissolve and all members, employees, or agents thereof shall be released and discharged from all rights and duties arising from or related to the Bankruptcy Cases, except to the extent necessary to prosecute any appeals or other matters with respect to which they have been granted standing. ARTICLE 5 PROVISIONS FOR TREATMENT OF SUBSEQUENT PLAN DISTRIBUTIONS

5.01 Objections to and Estimation of Claims. After the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Plan Administrator shall have sole authority to object to the allowance of Claims and Equity Interests with respect to which they dispute liability in whole or in part. All objections shall be litigated to a Final Order; provided, however, that the Debtors or the Plan Administrator may compromise and settle, withdraw, or resolve by any other method approved by the Bankruptcy Court, any objections to Claims or Equity Interests. In addition, the Debtors or the Plan Administrator may, at any time, request that the Bankruptcy Court estimate any contingent Claim pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code regardless of whether the Debtors or the Plan Administrator has previously objected to such Claim. Except as otherwise provided by order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Debtors or the Plan Administrator may file an objection to any Claim or Equity Interest until 180 days after the Effective Date.

5.02 Professional Fee Claim Procedures. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan dealing with unclassified Claims, any Person asserting a Professional Fee Claim shall, no later than ten (10) days after the Confirmation Date, provide the Debtors and the Plan Administrator with a summary of the compensation for services rendered and expense reimbursement that such Person will seek to be allowed, on a final basis, as a Professional Fee Claim (which summary shall include, without limitation, a good faith estimate of accrued but unbilled fees and expenses through the Effective Date) (for each Person, its "Professional Fee Claim Summary"). All final requests for compensation or reimbursement of costs and expenses pursuant to sections 327, 328, 330, 331, 503(b) or 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code for services rendered to the Debtors or the Committee prior to the Effective Date must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on the Plan Administrator, Debtors, the Committee, their respective counsel, and the United States Trustee, no later than forty-five (45) days after the Effective Date, unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Objections to applications of such Professionals or other entities for compensation or reimbursement of costs and expenses must be filed and served on the Plan Administrator, the United States Trustee, and the requesting party no later than twenty (20) days (or such longer period as may be allowed by order of the Bankruptcy Court) after the date on which the applicable application for compensation or reimbursement was served.

5.03 Professional Fee Claim Reserves. On and after the Effective Date, the Plan Administrator shall set aside and withhold from distribution, the Professional Fee Claim Reserves. Amounts held in the Professional Fee Claim Reserves shall not constitute property of the Debtors, shall reflect the Plan Administrator's good faith estimate of the fees required to administer each of the Debtors after the Effective Date, and shall only be distributed in accordance with this Section 5.03. Each Person asserting a Professional Fee Claim against any of the Debtors shall be entitled to a maximum amount from the applicable Professional Fee Claim Reserve equal to the amount of the Professional Fee Claim Summary submitted by such Person with respect to the applicable Debtor, less all interim compensation paid to such Person during the Bankruptcy Cases. In the event there is a remaining balance in the GMGI, Gawker Media, or Gawker Hungary Professional Fee Claim Reserve after payment of all Allowed Professional Fee Claims against the applicable Debtor, in accordance with Section [2.03] of the Plan, such remaining amount, if any, shall be returned to the applicable Debtor for distribution pursuant to the Plan. For the avoidance of doubt, the amount reserved by the Plan Administrator pursuant to this Section 5.03 shall not be deemed an admission as to the allowability or amount of any Claim in whole or in part. To the extent that the Professional Fee Reserves prove insufficient to satisfy Professional Fee Claims, the Plan Administrator may pay Professionals from funds that might otherwise be available to distribute to holders of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests.

5.04 Payments and Distributions on Disputed Claims. On the Gawker Media Distribution Date and each GMGI Distribution Date, each holder of an Allowed Claim and Equity Interest shall receive all payments and distributions to which such holder is then entitled under the Plan. No partial payments and no partial distributions shall be made with respect to a Disputed Claim until the resolution of all Disputed Claims by settlement, Final Order, or other form of resolution of such Claim reasonably determined by the Plan Administrator.

ARTICLE 6 CONDITIONS TO CONFIRMATION AND EFFECTIVENESS OF THE PLAN

6.01 Conditions to Confirmation. The confirmation of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court shall be subject to, and conditioned upon, entry of an order by the Bankruptcy Court approving the Disclosure Statement.

6.02 Conditions to the Effective Date. The effectiveness of the Plan shall be subject to, and conditioned upon:

- (a) The Confirmation Order becoming a Final Order,
- (b) No request for revocation of the Confirmation Order under section 1144 of the Bankruptcy Code shall have been made or, if made, remaining pending, and
- (c) All other actions and documents necessary to implement the Plan shall have been effected or executed.

6.03 Waiver of Conditions to Confirmation or the Effective Date. The conditions to confirmation and the conditions to the Effective Date (other than the condition in Section 6.02(a)) may be waived in whole or part at any time by any Debtor without an order of the Bankruptcy Court.

6.04 Effect of Nonoccurrence of Conditions to the Effective Date. The Debtors reserve the right to seek to vacate the Plan at any time prior to the Effective Date. If the Confirmation Order is vacated pursuant to this Section [6.04]: (i) the Plan shall be null and void in all respects, and (ii) nothing contained in the Plan shall (a) constitute a waiver or release of any claims by or against, or any interest in, the Debtors or (b) prejudice in any manner the rights of the Debtors or any other party in interest.

6.05 Notice of Effective Date. The Debtors shall provide notice of the Effective Date of the Plan in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules and orders of the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE 7 TREATMENT OF CONTRACTS AND LEASES

The entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute the approval of the rejection of executory contracts and unexpired leases pursuant to this Section of the Plan and sections 365(a) and 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

7.02 Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. Claims created by the rejection of executory contracts and unexpired leases pursuant to Section [7.01] of the Plan, or the expiration or termination of any executory contract or unexpired lease prior to the Effective Date, must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on the Plan Administrator no later than thirty (30) days after the Effective Date. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease pursuant to Section 7.01 for which proofs of Claim are not timely filed within that time period will be forever barred from assertion against the Debtors, the Debtors' estate and their successors and assigns, and their assets and properties, unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court or as otherwise provided herein. Unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, all such Claims that are timely filed as provided herein shall be treated as General Unsecured Claims under the Plan and shall be subject to the provisions of Article 5 of the Plan.

ARTICLE 8 RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

8.01 Retention of Jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the entry of the Confirmation Order and the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Bankruptcy Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction of these proceedings to the extent legally permissible, including for the following purposes, among other things:

- (a) to determine any and all applications, adversary proceedings, and contested matters pending as of the Effective Date, if any;
- (b) to determine any and all objections to the allowance of Claims and Equity Interests, if any;

- (f) to enter such orders as may be appropriate in the event the Confirmation Order is for any reason stayed, reversed, revoked, modified, or vacated;
- (g) to determine the Debtors' motion, if any, to modify the Plan in accordance with section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code;
- (h) to issue orders in aid of execution of the Plan, to the extent authorized by section 1142 of the Bankruptcy Code;
- (i) to consider any modifications of the Plan, to cure any defect or omission, or to reconcile any inconsistency in any order of the Bankruptcy Court, including, without limitation, in the Confirmation Order;
- (j) to hear and determine disputes arising in connection with the interpretation, implementation, or enforcement of the Plan and any related documents;
- (k) to hear and determine any issue for which the Plan or any related document requires a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court;
- (l) to enter a final decree closing the Bankruptcy Case;
- (m) to determine any matter (1) under the Unimoda APA, (2) in connection with the sale of the Gawker.com Assets, and (3) resulting from any Gawker.com Asset sale agreement;
- (n) to enter such orders as may be necessary or appropriate to implement or consummate the provisions of the Plan and all contracts, instruments, releases and other agreements or documents entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, the

Disclosure Statement or the Confirmation Order, as well as to ensure that distributions to holders of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests are accomplished pursuant to the provisions of the Plan;

(o) to make such determinations and enter such orders as may be necessary to effectuate all the terms and conditions of this Plan, including distributions from the Debtors; and

(p) to establish the amount of any reserve required to be withheld from any distribution under this Plan on account of any disputed, contingent or unliquidated claim.

The foregoing list is illustrative only and not intended to limit in any way the Bankruptcy Court's exercise of jurisdiction. If the Bankruptcy Court abstains from exercising jurisdiction or is otherwise without jurisdiction over any matter arising out of the Bankruptcy Cases, including the matters set forth in this Article, this Article shall have no effect upon and shall not control, prohibit or limit the exercise of jurisdiction by any other court having competent jurisdiction with respect to such matter.

ARTICLE 9 INJUNCTIONS, RELEASES, AND EXCULPATION

On and after the Effective Date, all Persons are permanently enjoined from commencing or continuing in any manner any action or proceeding (whether directly, indirectly, derivatively or otherwise) on account of or respecting any claim, debt, right, or cause of action of the Debtors for which a Debtor retains sole and exclusive authority to pursue in accordance with Article [4] of the Plan.

9.02 Injunction Against Interference with Plan. (b) all Entities listed in the Debtors' Schedules as holding a noncontingent, liquidated, undisputed Claim as of the Voting Record Date, except to the extent that such Claim was paid, expunged, disallowed, disqualified, or superseded by a timely filed Proof of Claim prior to the Voting Record Date;

Holders of Claims and Equity Interests in classes that are Unimpaired will receive mailings with only the Confirmation Hearing Notice and the appropriate Non-Voting Status Notice.

3. Resolution of Disputed Claims for Voting Purposes; Resolution Event.

(a) The holder of a Claim or Equity Interest that is the subject of an objection as of the Voting Records Date will receive a Disputed Claim Notice, substantially in the form annexed as Exhibit 7 to the Proposed Disclosure Statement Order, together with the Solicitation Package.

(b) The holder of a Claim in a Voting Class that is the subject of a pending objection on a “reduce and allow” basis shall be entitled to vote such Claim in the reduced amount contained in such objection.

(c) If a Claim or Equity Interest is objected to after the Voting Record Date, such Claim or Equity Interest will be deemed temporarily Allowed for voting purposes unless the Bankruptcy Court enters an order at or before the Confirmation Hearing granting the Debtors’ objection. The Debtors may object to a Claim or Equity Interest no later than seven (7) days prior to the Voting Deadline. The hearing on any such objections shall be the Confirmation Hearing unless a Resolution Event occurs prior to that date.

(d) A “Resolution Event” means the occurrence of one or more of the following events no later than three (3) days prior to the Voting Deadline:

i. an order of the Court is entered allowing the Disputed Claim or Equity Interest pursuant to section 502(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, after notice and a hearing;

ii. an order of the Court is entered temporarily allowing the Disputed Claim or Equity Interest for voting purposes only pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a), after notice and a hearing;

iii. a stipulation or other agreement is executed between the holder of the Disputed Claim or Equity Interest and the Debtors resolving the objection and allowing such Disputed Claim or Equity Interest in an agreed upon amount;

iv. a stipulation or other agreement is executed between the holder of the Disputed Claim or Equity Interest and the Debtors temporarily allowing the holder of such Claim or Equity Interest to vote its Claim or Equity Interest in an agreed upon amount; or

v. the pending objection to the Disputed Claim or Equity Interest is voluntarily withdrawn by the Debtors.

(e) No later than two (2) days following the occurrence of a Resolution Event, the Debtors shall cause the Notice and Claims Agent to distribute via email, hand delivery, or overnight courier service a Solicitation Package and a pre-addressed, postage pre-paid envelope to the relevant holder.

4. Non-Voting Status Notices for Unimpaired Classes. Certain holders of Claims and Equity Interests that are not classified in accordance with 11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(1) or who are not entitled to vote because they are Unimpaired or otherwise presumed to accept the Plan under 11 U.S.C. § 1126(f) will receive only the Notice of Non-Voting Status with Respect to Unclassified and Unimpaired Classes Deemed to Accept the Debtors’ Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc., and Gawker Hungary Kft., substantially in the form annexed as Exhibit 5 to the Disclosure Statement Order. Such notice will instruct these holders as to how they may obtain copies of the documents contained in the Solicitation Package (excluding Ballots).

5. Non-Voting Status Notices for Deemed Rejecting Classes. Certain holders of Claims and Equity Interests that are not entitled to vote because they are deemed to reject the Plan under 11 U.S.C. § 1126(g) will receive only the Notice of Non-Voting Status with Respect to Impaired Classes Deemed to Reject the Debtors' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc., and Gawker Hungary Kft., substantially in the form annexed as Exhibit 6 to the Disclosure Statement Order. Such notice will instruct these holders as to how they may obtain copies of the documents contained in the Solicitation Package (excluding Ballots).

D. Voting and Tabulation Procedures

6. Holders of Claims Entitled to Vote. Only the following holders of Claims and Equity Interest in the Voting Classes shall be entitled to vote with regard to such Claims or Equity Interests:

(a) holders of Claims who, on or before the Voting Record Date, have timely filed a Proof of Claim (or an untimely Proof of Claim which has been Allowed as timely by the Court under applicable law on or before the Voting Record Date) that (i) has not been expunged, disallowed, disqualified, withdrawn, or superseded prior to the Voting Record Date; and (ii) is not the subject of a pending objection, other than a “reduce and allow” objection, filed with the Court at least seven (7) days prior to the Voting Deadline, pending a Resolution Event as provided herein; provided that a holder of a Claim that is the subject of a pending objection on a “reduce and allow” basis shall receive a Solicitation Package and be entitled to vote such Claim in the reduced amount contained in such objection;

(b) holders of Claims that are listed in the Schedules, other than Claims that are scheduled as contingent, unliquidated, or disputed (excluding such scheduled disputed, contingent, or unliquidated Claims that have been paid or superseded by a timely filed Proof of Claim);

(c) holders whose Claims arise pursuant to an agreement or settlement with the Debtors, as reflected in a document filed with the Court, in an order entered by the Court, or in a document executed by the Debtors pursuant to authority granted by the Court, in each case regardless of whether a Proof of Claim has been filed; and

(d) the assignee of a timely filed Claim or a Claim listed in the Schedules shall be permitted to vote such Claim only if the transfer or assignment has been fully effectuated pursuant to the procedures set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e) and such transfer is reflected on the Claims Register on the Voting Record Date.

7. Establishing Amounts of Claims and Equity Interests for Voting Purposes. The amount of a Claim or Equity Interest established herein shall control for voting purposes only and shall not constitute the Allowed amount of any Claim or Equity Interest. Moreover, any amounts filled in on Ballots by the Debtors through the Notice and Claims Agent, as applicable, are not binding for purposes of allowance and distribution. In tabulating votes, the following hierarchy shall be used to determine the amount of the Claim associated with each claimant's vote:

(a) the Claim or Equity Interest amount settled and/or agreed upon by the Debtors, as reflected in a document filed with the Court, in an order of the Court, or in a document executed by the Debtors pursuant to authority granted by the Court;

(b) the Claim amount Allowed (temporarily or otherwise) pursuant to a Resolution Event under the procedures set forth in the Solicitation Procedures;

(c) the Claim amount contained in a Proof of Claim that has been timely filed by the applicable Claims Bar Date (or deemed timely filed by the Court under applicable law), except for any amounts asserted on account of any interest accrued after the Petition Date; provided, however, that Ballots cast by holders of Claims who timely file a Proof of Claim in respect of a contingent Claim or in a wholly-unliquidated or unknown amount that is not the subject of an objection will count for satisfying the numerosity requirement of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and will count as Ballots for Claims in the amount of $1.00 solely for the purposes of satisfying the dollar amount provisions of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, and, if a Proof of Claim is filed as partially liquidated and partially unliquidated, such Claim will be Allowed for voting purposes only in the liquidated amount; provided further, however, that to the extent the Claim amount contained in the Proof of Claim is different from the Claim amount set forth in a document filed with the Court as referenced in subparagraph (a) above, the Claim amount in the document filed with the Court shall supersede the Claim amount set forth on the respective Proof of Claim; and

(d) the Claim amount listed in the Schedules, provided that such Claim is not scheduled as contingent, disputed, or unliquidated and/or has not been paid.

In the absence of any of the foregoing, such Claim or Equity Interest shall be disallowed for voting purposes.

8. General Voting and Ballot Tabulation Procedures. The following voting procedures and standard assumptions shall be used in tabulating Ballots, subject to the Debtors' right to waive any of the below specified requirements for completion and submission of Ballots so long as such requirement is not otherwise required by the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, or Local Rules:

(a) except as otherwise provided in the Solicitation Procedures, unless the Ballot being furnished is timely submitted on or prior to the Voting Deadline (as the same may be extended by the Debtors), the Debtors shall reject such Ballot as invalid and, therefore, shall not count it in connection with Confirmation of the Plan;

(b) the Notice and Claims Agent will date-stamp all Ballots when received. The Notice and Claims Agent shall retain the original Ballots and an electronic copy of the same for a period of one year after the Effective Date of the Plan, unless otherwise ordered by the Court;

(c) no later than December 6, 2016, the Debtors will file with the Court a certification of votes (the "Voting Report"). The Voting Report shall, among other things, certify to the Court in writing the amount and number of allowed claims or allowed interest of each class accepting or rejecting the plan, and delineate every Ballot that does not conform to the voting instructions or that contains any form of irregularity including, but not limited to, those Ballots that are late or (in whole or in material part) illegible, unidentifiable, lacking signatures or lacking necessary information, received via facsimile or electronic mail, or damaged ("Irregular Ballots"). The Voting Report shall indicate the Debtors' intentions with regard to each such Irregular Ballot. The Voting Report shall also certify to the Court in writing the amount and number of allowed claims or allowed interests of each class, and delineate every Ballot, that has opted not to grant the third party releases contained in Section 9.03 of the Plan. The Voting Report shall be served upon the Committee and the U.S. Trustee;

(d) the method of delivery of Ballots to be sent to the Notice and Claims Agent is at the election and risk of each holder, and except as otherwise provided, a Ballot will be deemed delivered only when the Notice and Claims Agent actually receives the original executed Ballot;

(e) an original executed Ballot is required to be submitted by the Entity submitting such Ballot, and delivery of a Ballot to the Notice and Claims Agent by facsimile, email, or any other electronic means (other than the online portal) will not be valid;

(f) no Ballot should be sent to the Debtors, the Debtors' agents (other than the Notice and Claims Agent), the Debtors' financial or legal advisors, the Committee, or the Committee's advisors, and if so sent will not be counted;

(g) if multiple Ballots are received from the same holder with respect to the same Claim or Interest prior to the Voting Deadline, the last properly executed Ballot timely received will be deemed to reflect that voter's intent and will supersede and revoke any prior Ballot;

(h) holders must vote all of their Claims or Equity Interests within a particular Class either to accept or reject the Plan and may not split any votes. Accordingly, a Ballot that partially rejects and partially accepts the Plan will not be counted. Further, to the extent there are multiple Claims within the same Class, the Debtor may, in its discretion, aggregate the Claims or Equity Interests of any particular holder within a Class for the purpose of counting votes;

(i) a person signing a Ballot in its capacity as a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, attorney in fact, officer of a corporation, or otherwise acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity of a holder of Claims or Equity Interests must indicate such capacity when signing;

(j) the Debtors, subject to contrary order of the Court, may waive any defects or irregularities as to any particular Irregular Ballot at any time, either before or after the close of voting, and any such waivers will be documented in the Voting Report;

(k) neither the Debtors, nor any other Entity, will be under any duty to provide notification of defects or irregularities with respect to delivered Ballots other than as provided in the Voting Report, nor will any of them incur any liability for failure to provide such notification;

(l) unless waived or as ordered by the Court, any defects or irregularities in connection with deliveries of Ballots must be cured prior to the Voting Deadline or such Ballots will not be counted;

(m) in the event a designation of lack of good faith is requested by a party in interest under section 1126(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court will determine whether any vote to accept and/or reject the Plan cast with respect to that Claim or Equity Interest will be counted for purposes of determining whether the Plan has been accepted and/or rejected;

(n) subject to any order of the Court, the Debtors reserve the right to reject any and all Ballots not in proper form, the acceptance of which, in the opinion of the Debtors, would not be in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules; provided that any such rejections will be documented in the Voting Report;

(o) if a Claim has been estimated or otherwise Allowed for voting purposes only by order of the Court, such Claim shall be temporarily Allowed in the amount so estimated or Allowed by the Court for voting purposes only, and not for purposes of allowance or distribution;

(p) if an objection to a Claim is filed, such Claim shall be treated in accordance with the procedures set forth herein;

(q) the following Ballots shall not be counted in determining the acceptance or rejection of the Plan: (i) any Ballot that is illegible or contains insufficient information to permit the identification of the holder of such Claim or Equity Interest; (ii) any Ballot cast by an Entity that does not hold a Claim or Equity Interest in a Voting Class; (iii) any Ballot cast for a Claim scheduled as unliquidated, contingent, or disputed for which no Proof of Claim was timely filed; (iv) any unsigned Ballot or any Ballot or lacking an original signature; (v) any Ballot not marked to accept or reject the Plan or marked both to accept and reject the Plan; and (vi) any Ballot submitted by any Entity not entitled to vote pursuant to the procedures described herein;

(r) after the Voting Deadline, no Ballot may be withdrawn or modified without the prior written consent of the Debtors; and

(s) the Debtors are authorized to enter into stipulations with the holder of any Claim agreeing to the amount of a Claim for voting purposes.

E. Amendments to the Plan and Solicitation Procedures

The Debtors reserve the right to make non-substantive or immaterial changes to the Disclosure Statement, Plan, Ballots, Confirmation Hearing Notice, and related documents without further order of the Court, including, without limitation, changes to correct typographical and grammatical errors and to make conforming changes among the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, and any other materials in the Solicitation Package before their distribution.

BALLOT FOR ACCEPTING OR REJECTING DEBTORS' JOINT
CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF LIQUIDATION FOR GAWKER MEDIA LLC, GAWKER MEDIA GROUP, INC., AND GAWKER HUNGARY KFT.

CLASS 1A: Second Lien Make-Whole Claim

THE VOTING DEADLINE TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE JOINT PLAN IS DECEMBER 5, 2016, at 5:00 P.M. (NEW YORK TIME).

This Ballot is submitted to you to solicit your vote to accept or reject the Debtors' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc. and Gawker Hungary Kft., filed on September 30, 2016 (the "Joint Plan"), solely with respect to the plan of liquidation for Gawker Media Group, Inc. (the "GMGI Plan"), which is described in the Disclosure Statement for Debtors' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc. and Gawker Hungary Kft., filed on September 30, 2016 (the "Disclosure Statement") and is attached as Exhibit A to the Disclosure Statement. The Disclosure Statement has been approved by order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Disclosure Statement Order"). The Joint Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan of liquidation for each of Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc. ("GMGI"), and Gawker Hungary Kft. Capitalized terms used in this Ballot or the attached instructions that are not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Joint Plan or the Disclosure Statement Order, as applicable. References to the "Plan" in this Ballot shall refer only to the GMGI Plan, as incorporated in the Joint Plan.

The GMGI Plan can be confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court and thereby made binding on you if it is accepted by the holders of at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of the Claims in each impaired Class of Claims and at least two-thirds in amount of the Equity Interests in each impaired Class of Equity Interests who vote on the GMGI Plan and if the GMGI Plan otherwise satisfies the applicable requirements of section 1129(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. If the requisite acceptances are not obtained, the Bankruptcy Court nonetheless may confirm the GMGI Plan if it finds that the GMGI Plan (a) provides fair and equitable treatment to, and does not unfairly discriminate against, each Class rejecting the GMGI Plan and (b) otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If the GMGI Plan is confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, it will be binding on you, whether or not you vote.

BALLOT FOR ACCEPTING OR REJECTING DEBTORS' JOINT
CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF LIQUIDATION FOR GAWKER MEDIA LLC, GAWKER MEDIA GROUP, INC., AND GAWKER HUNGARY KFT.

CLASS 1C: General Unsecured Claims

THE VOTING DEADLINE TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE JOINT PLAN IS DECEMBER 5, 2016, at 5:00 P.M. (NEW YORK TIME).

This Ballot is submitted to you to solicit your vote to accept or reject the Debtors' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc. and Gawker Hungary Kft., filed on September 30, 2016 (the "Joint Plan"), solely with respect to the plan of liquidation for Gawker Media Group, Inc. (the "GMGI Plan"), which is described in the Disclosure Statement for Debtors' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc. and Gawker Hungary Kft., filed on September 30, 2016 (the "Disclosure Statement") and is attached as Exhibit A to the Disclosure Statement. The Disclosure Statement has been approved by order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Disclosure Statement Order"). The Joint Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan of liquidation for each of Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc. ("GMGI"), and Gawker Hungary Kft. Capitalized terms used in this Ballot or the attached instructions that are not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Joint Plan or the Disclosure Statement Order, as applicable. References to the "Plan" in this Ballot shall refer only to the GMGI Plan, as incorporated in the Joint Plan.

The GMGI Plan can be confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court and thereby made binding on you if it is accepted by the holders of at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of the Claims in each impaired Class of Claims and at least two-thirds in amount of the Equity Interests in each impaired Class of Equity Interests who vote on the GMGI Plan and if the GMGI Plan otherwise satisfies the applicable requirements of section 1129(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. If the requisite acceptances are not obtained, the Bankruptcy Court nonetheless may confirm the GMGI Plan if it finds that the GMGI Plan (a) provides fair and equitable treatment to, and does not unfairly discriminate against, each Class rejecting the GMGI Plan and (b) otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If the GMGI Plan is confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, it will be binding on you, whether or not you vote.

To have your vote counted, you must complete, sign, and return this Ballot to Prime Clerk LLC (the "Voting Agent"), so that it is actually received by December 5, 2016, at 5:00 P.M. (New York Time) (the "Voting Deadline"), at the applicable address indicated below. Ballots received after the Voting Deadline will not be counted.

BALLOT FOR ACCEPTING OR REJECTING DEBTORS' JOINT
CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF LIQUIDATION FOR GAWKER MEDIA LLC, GAWKER MEDIA GROUP, INC., AND GAWKER HUNGARY KFT.

CLASS 1E: Preferred Equity Interests

THE VOTING DEADLINE TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE JOINT PLAN IS DECEMBER 5, 2016, at 5:00 P.M. (NEW YORK TIME).

This Ballot is submitted to you to solicit your vote to accept or reject the Debtors' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc. and Gawker Hungary Kft., filed on September 30, 2016 (the "Joint Plan"), solely with respect to the plan of liquidation for Gawker Media Group, Inc. (the "GMGI Plan"), which is described in the Disclosure Statement for Debtors' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc. and Gawker Hungary Kft., filed on September 30, 2016 (the "Disclosure Statement") and is attached as Exhibit A to the Disclosure Statement. The Disclosure Statement has been approved by order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Disclosure Statement Order"). The Joint Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan of liquidation for each of Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc. ("GMGI"), and Gawker Hungary Kft. Capitalized terms used in this Ballot or the attached instructions that are not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Joint Plan or the Disclosure Statement Order, as applicable. References to the "Plan" in this Ballot shall refer only to the GMGI Plan, as incorporated in the Joint Plan.

The GMGI Plan can be confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court and thereby made binding on you if it is accepted by the holders of at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of the Claims in each impaired Class of Claims and at least two-thirds in amount of the Equity Interests in each impaired Class of Equity Interests who vote on the GMGI Plan and if the GMGI Plan otherwise satisfies the applicable requirements of section 1129(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. If the requisite acceptances are not obtained, the Bankruptcy Court nonetheless may confirm the GMGI Plan if it finds that the GMGI Plan (a) provides fair and equitable treatment to, and does not unfairly discriminate against, each Class rejecting the GMGI Plan and (b) otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If the GMGI Plan is confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, it will be binding on you, whether or not you vote.

To have your vote counted, you must complete, sign, and return this Ballot to Prime Clerk LLC (the "Voting Agent"), so that it is actually received by December 5, 2016, at 5:00 P.M. IMPORTANT INFORMATION

1. You should review the Plan and Disclosure Statement before you vote. The Plan and Disclosure Statement provide information to assist you in deciding how to vote. You may wish to seek independent legal advice concerning the Plan and the classification and treatment of your Equity Interest(s) under the Plan. Your Preferred Equity Interest has been placed in Class 1E under the Plan.
2. If you did not receive the Plan and Disclosure Statement with your Ballot, you may obtain copies by contacting the Voting Agent by mail at 830 Third Avenue, 3rd Floor, New York, NY 10022, by email at gawkerballots@primeclerk.com, or by phone at (855) 639-3375 within the United States or Canada, or outside of the United States or Canada by calling (917) 651-0323. In addition, the Plan and Disclosure Statement are available for review, without charge, at the Debtors' case website at <https://cases.primeclerk.com/gawker/>. Accordingly, if you return more than one Ballot voting different Equity Interests within a single Class and the Ballots are not voted in the same manner, such Ballots shall not be counted.
5. The Ballot does not constitute and shall not be deemed a proof of Equity Interest or an assertion of a Equity Interest.
6. If you cast more than one Ballot voting the same Equity Interest prior to the Voting Deadline, the last properly executed Ballot received by the Voting Agent on or before the Voting Deadline will supersede and revoke any prior Ballots with respect to such Equity Interest.

BALLOT FOR ACCEPTING OR REJECTING DEBTORS' JOINT
CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF LIQUIDATION FOR GAWKER MEDIA LLC, GAWKER MEDIA GROUP, INC., AND GAWKER HUNGARY KFT.

CLASS 2C: General Unsecured Claims

THE VOTING DEADLINE TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE JOINT PLAN IS DECEMBER 5, 2016, at 5:00 P.M. (NEW YORK TIME).

This Ballot is submitted to you to solicit your vote to accept or reject the Debtors' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc. and Gawker Hungary Kft., filed on September 30, 2016 (the "Joint Plan"), solely with respect to the plan of liquidation for Gawker Media LLC (the "Gawker Media Plan"), which is described in the Disclosure Statement for Debtors' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc. and Gawker Hungary Kft., filed on September 30, 2016 (the "Disclosure Statement") and is attached as Exhibit A to the Disclosure Statement. The Disclosure Statement has been approved by order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Disclosure Statement Order"). The Joint Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan of liquidation for each of Gawker Media LLC ("Gawker Media"), Gawker Media Group, Inc., and Gawker Hungary Kft. Capitalized terms used in this Ballot or the attached instructions that are not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Joint Plan or the Disclosure Statement Order, as applicable. References to the "Plan" in this Ballot shall refer only to the Gawker Media Plan, as incorporated in the Joint Plan.

The Gawker Media Plan can be confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court and thereby made binding on you if it is accepted by the holders of at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of the Claims in each impaired Class of Claims and at least two-thirds in amount of the Equity Interests in each impaired Class of Equity Interests who vote on the Gawker Media Plan and if the Gawker Media Plan otherwise satisfies the applicable requirements of section 1129(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. If the requisite acceptances are not obtained, the Bankruptcy Court nonetheless may confirm the Gawker Media Plan if it finds that the Gawker Media Plan (a) provides fair and equitable treatment to, and does not unfairly discriminate against, each Class rejecting the Gawker Media Plan and (b) otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If the Gawker Media Plan is confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, it will be binding on you, whether or not you vote.

The Disclosure Statement has been approved by order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Disclosure Statement Order"). The Joint Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan of liquidation for each of Gawker Media LLC ("Gawker Media"), Gawker Media Group, Inc., and Gawker Hungary Kft. Capitalized terms used in this Ballot or the attached instructions that are not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Joint Plan or the Disclosure Statement Order, as applicable. References to the "Plan" in this Ballot shall refer only to the Gawker Media Plan, as incorporated in the Joint Plan.

The Gawker Media Plan can be confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court and thereby made binding on you if it is accepted by the holders of at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of the Claims in each impaired Class of Claims and at least two-thirds in amount of the Equity Interests in each impaired Class of Equity Interests who vote on the Gawker Media Plan and if the Gawker Media Plan otherwise satisfies the applicable requirements of section 1129(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. If the requisite acceptances are not obtained, the Bankruptcy Court nonetheless may confirm the Gawker Media Plan if it finds that the Gawker Media Plan (a) provides fair and equitable treatment to, and does not unfairly discriminate against, each Class rejecting the Gawker Media Plan and (b) otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If the Gawker Media Plan is confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, it will be binding on you, whether or not you vote.

BALLOT FOR ACCEPTING OR REJECTING DEBTORS' JOINT
CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF LIQUIDATION FOR GAWKER MEDIA LLC,

CLASS 3E: Membership Interest

THE VOTING DEADLINE TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE JOINT PLAN IS DECEMBER 5, 2016, at 5:00 P.M. (NEW YORK TIME).

This Ballot is submitted to you to solicit your vote to accept or reject the Debtors' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc. and Gawker Hungary Kft., filed on September 30, 2016 (the "Joint Plan"), solely with respect to the plan of liquidation for Gawker Hungary Kft. (the "Gawker Hungary Plan"), which is described in the Disclosure Statement for Debtors' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation for Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc. and Gawker Hungary Kft., filed on September 30, 2016 (the "Disclosure Statement") and is attached as Exhibit A to the Disclosure Statement. The Disclosure Statement has been approved by order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Disclosure Statement Order"). The Joint Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan of liquidation for each of Gawker Media LLC, Gawker Media Group, Inc., and Gawker Hungary Kft. ("Gawker Hungary"). The Gawker Hungary Plan can be confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court and thereby made binding on you if it is accepted by the holders of at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of the Claims in each impaired Class of Claims and at least two-thirds in amount of the Equity Interests in each impaired Class of Equity Interests who vote on the Gawker Hungary Plan and if the Gawker Hungary Plan otherwise satisfies the applicable requirements of section 1129(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. If the requisite acceptances are not obtained, the Bankruptcy Court nonetheless may confirm the Gawker Hungary Plan if it finds that the Gawker Hungary Plan (a) provides fair and equitable treatment to, and does not unfairly discriminate against, each Class rejecting the Gawker Hungary Plan and (b) otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If the Gawker Hungary Plan is confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, it will be binding on you, whether or not you vote.
