As provided by 11 U.S.C. 1124, a class of claims or interests is impaired under a plan unless, with respect to each claim or interest of such a class, the plan

(1) leaves unaltered the legal, equitable, and contractual rights to which such claim or interest entitles the holder of such claim or interest; or

(2) notwithstanding any contractual provision or applicable law that entitles the holder of such claim or interest to demand or receive accelerated payment of such claim or interest after the occurrence of a default

(A) cures any such default that occurred before or after the commencement of the case under this title, other than a default of a kind specified in Section 365(b) of this title;

(B) reinstates the maturity of such claim or interest as such maturity existed before such default;

(D) does not otherwise alter the legal, equitable, or contractual rights to which such claim or interest entitles the holder of such claim or interest.

Ordinarily, but not in all circumstances, a plan may not be confirmed unless at least one impaired, assuming there is at least one impaired class, accepts the plan. A class has accepted the plan if such a plan has been accepted by creditors, other than those under 11 U.S.C. 1126(e), that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in amount and more than one half (1/2) in number of the allowed claims of such class held by creditors, that have accepted or rejected such plan, i.e., those actually voting for the Plan.
