ORDER AUTHORIZING CHAPTER 7 TRUSTEE TO ASSUME AND PERFORM ACQUISITION AGREEMENT, SELL THE REGULATED FUTURES COMMISSION MERCHANT BUSINESS AND ASSUME AND ASSIGN CERTAIN RELATED EXECUTORY CONTRACTS

Upon the emergency motion (the "Chapter 7 Sale Motion") of Albert Togut, interim Chapter 7 trustee (together with any successor, the "Chapter 7 Trustee") of the above-captioned debtor (the "Chapter 7 Debtor") for entry of an "Order Authorizing Chapter 7 Trustee to Assume and Perform Acquisition Agreement, Sell the Regulated Futures Commission Merchant Business and Assume and Assign Certain Related Executory Contracts;" the Court having considered the Chapter 7 Sale Motion and the Agreement¹ (annexed hereto as Exhibit 1), the objections and statements of counsel on the record at the November 10, 2005 hearing (the "Chapter 11 Sale Hearing") held in the chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") pending before this Court of the debtor-in-possession affiliates of the Chapter 7 Debtor (collectively, the "Chapter 11 Debtors" and together with the Chapter 7 Debtor, the "Debtors") to consider the similar order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases on November 14, 2005 (Docket No. 381) and the ¹ Headings shall not be construed to affect the substantive rights of parties, but are intended to serve as references only. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Agreement, dated as of November 13, 2005 by and among Man Financial Inc., as Buyer, and the Chapter 7 Debtor, Refco Inc., Refco Group Ltd., Refco Global Holdings, LLC, Refco Global Futures LLC, Refco (Singapore) PTE Limited, Refco Canada Co., Refco Overseas Ltd., and certain affiliates of the Chapter 7 Debtor as Sellers (the "Agreement").

Errata Order entered on November 15, 2005 (Docket No. 426) (collectively, the “Chapter 11 Sale Order”), and the modifications to and clarifications of the proposed Sale presented at the Chapter 11 Sale Hearing; and thereafter, the record at the hearing on the Chapter 7 Sale Motion (the “Chapter 7 Sale Hearing”) held by the Court on November 25, 2005, in this chapter 7 case (the “Chapter 7 Case”), and the record made by the Chapter 7 Trustee at the Chapter 7 Sale Hearing; and it appearing that the relief requested in the Chapter 7 Sale Motion is in the best interests of the Chapter 7 Debtor’s bankruptcy estate, its creditors and other parties-in-interest; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor;

THE COURT HEREBY MAKES THE FOLLOWING FINDINGS:

A. Jurisdiction and Venue. This Court has jurisdiction over the Chapter 7 Sale Motion under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and this matter is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A). Venue of the Chapter 7 Case and the Chapter 7 Sale Motion in this District is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

B. Statutory predicates. The statutory predicates for the relief sought in the Chapter 7 Sale Motion are sections 105(a), 363, 365, 721, 761 through 767, and 1146(c) of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1532 (as amended, the “Bankruptcy Code”), and Rules 2002, 6004 and 6006 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. 1 et. seq. (the “CEA”) and regulations promulgated thereunder at 17 CFR 190.01 through 190.10 (the “Part 190 Regulations”).

C. Procedures Order and Chapter 11 Sale Order. In the Chapter 11 Cases this Court has previously entered an “Order (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Establish Notice, Bid and Sale Procedures for the Sale of its Regulated Commodities Futures Merchant Business and the Assumption and Assignment of Certain Related Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and (B) Setting a Sale Hearing” (the "Bid Procedures Order") on October 26, 2005 and, at the request of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee"), an order clarifying certain aspects of the Bid Procedures Order on November 5, 2005 (the "Clarifying Order" and together with the Bid Procedures Order, the "Procedures Order"). The Bid Procedures Order and Clarifying Order have become final and non-appealable orders. In addition, on November 14 and 15, 2005, this Court entered the Chapter 11 Sale Order approving the sale of the Debtors' regulated futures commission merchant business and the assumption and assignment of certain related executory contracts and unexpired leases to be designated by Buyer (as defined below) pursuant and subject to the Agreement (the "Sale"). The consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Procedures Order and the Chapter 11 Sale Order, and the entry of the Chapter 11 Sale Order, were explicitly premised upon (a) the commencement of the Chapter 7 Case and the appointment of a chapter 7 trustee for the Chapter 7 Debtor, and (b) the filing of the Chapter 7 Sale Motion in the Chapter 7 case seeking expedited approval of the sale of assets of the Chapter 7 Debtor pursuant to the Agreement and the transfer of customer accounts consistent with 11 U.S.C. §§ 764(b) and 766(c) and (d), the Part 190 Regulations, the rules of the Chapter 7 Debtor's designated self-regulatory organization (i.e., the Chicago Mercantile Exchange (the "CME")), the rules of The New York Mercantile Exchange, Inc. (the "NYMEX") and the entry of this Order in the Chapter 7 Case.

D. Notice. As evidenced by the affidavits of service and publication filed with this Court and based on representations of counsel at the Chapter 11 Sale Hearing and the Chapter 7 Sale Hearing: (i) due, proper, timely, adequate and sufficient notice of the proposed Sale and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the transfer of customer accounts and the assumption and assignment to Buyer of executory contracts and unexpired leases of the Chapter 7 Debtor and the other Sellers to be designated by Buyer (as such terms are defined below), has been provided in accordance with Bankruptcy Code sections 102(1), 105(a), 363 and 365 and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004 and 6006 in connection with the Chapter 11 Sale Hearing; (ii) such notice was good, sufficient and appropriate under the circumstances and complied with the Procedures Order; (iii) notice of the Chapter 7 Sale Motion has been provided to certain parties in interest, including the Office of the United States Trustee, the Buyer, the Committee, the administrative agent (the "Agent") for the Chapter 11 Debtors' prepetition lenders (the "Bank Group"), the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC"), the CME, and parties in interest that have filed a notice of appearance and demand for service of papers in the bankruptcy cases of the Chapter 11 Debtors under Bankruptcy Rule 2002 who are receiving electronic notice pursuant to the electronic document filing ("ECF") system of this Court; (iv) further notice of the proposed Sale would be duplicative of notice already provided in connection with the Chapter 11 Sale Hearing, and would be impracticable or impossible in light of the exigencies of this case and the customer account transfer obligations imposed upon the Chapter 7 Trustee by sections 761 through 767 ("Subchapter IV") of chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Part 190 Regulations; (v) notice of the transfer of customer accounts has been or will be provided in accordance with the Part 190 Regulations; and (vi) no other or further notice of the Chapter 7 Sale Motion, the Chapter 7 Sale Hearing, the Sale or the transactions contemplated thereby, except as provided in paragraph 20 of this Order with respect to Contracts to be assumed and assigned, is, or shall be, required for the Court to approve the Sale.

E. Opportunity to Object. A reasonable opportunity to object and be heard with respect to the Sale and the relief requested in the Chapter 7 Sale Motion has been given to the creditors of the Chapter 11 Debtors. Further, the notice provided in connection with the Chapter 11 Sale Hearing afforded parties in interest in the Chapter 7 Case, including: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee; (ii) the Buyer; (iii) the Committee; (iv) the Agent; (v) all entities known to have expressed an interest in acquiring any of the Assets (defined below); (vi) all regulatory authorities or recording offices that have a reasonably known interest in the relief requested in the Chapter 7 Sale Motion; (vii) all known creditors of the Chapter 11 Debtors; and (viii) all other parties that had filed a notice of appearance and demand for service of papers in the bankruptcy cases of the Chapter 11 Debtors under Bankruptcy Rule 2002, a reasonable opportunity to object and be heard with respect to the Sale. In light of the exigent circumstances of the Chapter 7 Sale Motion and the notice already given in connection with the Chapter 11 Sale Hearing, interested persons and entities have been given a reasonable opportunity to object and be heard with respect to the Sale, and duplicative notice in the Chapter 7 Case is not required.

F. Chapter 11 and Chapter 7 Procedures. The Agreement contemplates the sale of assets (the "Assets") owned by certain of the Chapter 11 Debtors, the Chapter 7 Debtor, and non-Debtors Refco (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. ("Refco Singapore"), Refco Hong Kong Ltd. ("Refco Hong Kong"), Refco Overseas, Ltd. ("ROL"), Refco Taiwan, Ltd. ("Taiwan") and Refco Canada Co. (collectively, together with other Refco affiliates becoming Sellers pursuant to the Agreement, the "Sellers"), to Man Financial Inc. or its designee or designees (Man Financial Inc. and any such designee collectively, the "Buyer") and, in conjunction therewith, the entry of this Order.

G. Banking Arrangements. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("JPMorgan") has heretofore acted as the settlement and clearing bank for the Chapter 7 Debtor and, as such, has provided settlement and clearing services for the Chapter 7 Debtor in the ordinary course for transactions on commodities exchanges including, but not limited to, the CME, the NYMEX, the

New York Board of Trade and New York Clearing Corporation. It is critical for the closing of the sale transaction with Buyer and the preservation of the Debtor's estate that all outstanding commodities transactions for the Debtor be settled, cleared, charged and accounted for in the ordinary course of business without interruption. The Chapter 7 Debtor maintains certain Deposit Accounts (as defined below) with various banking institutions other than JPMorgan, the novation of which from Chapter 7 Debtor to Buyer is critical for the closing of the sale transaction with Buyer and the preservation of the Debtor's estate, and Buyer has consented to and desires to take assignment of such Deposit Accounts in accordance with the terms of this Order.

H. Free and Clear. Subject to the terms of this Order, the Chapter 7 Trustee shall sell the Assets owned by the Chapter 7 Debtor free and clear of all Interests (as defined herein) because each entity with an Interest in such Assets to be transferred by the Chapter 7 Trustee on the Closing Date: (i) has, subject to the terms and conditions of this Order, consented to the Sale or is deemed to have consented to the Sale; (ii) could be compelled in a legal or equitable proceeding to accept money satisfaction of such Interest; or (iii) otherwise falls within the provisions of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, and therefore, in each case, one or more of the standards set forth in section 363(f)(1)-(5) of the Bankruptcy Code has been satisfied. Those holders of Interests in the Chapter 7 Debtor's assets are adequately protected by having their Interests, if any, attach to the cash proceeds of the Sale ultimately attributable to the property of the Chapter 7 Debtor against or in which they claim an Interest, subject to the terms of such Interests with the same validity, force and effect which they have against such Assets as of the applicable Closing Date, subject to any rights, claims and defenses the Chapter 7 Debtor's estate may possess with respect thereto.

I. Sale in Best Interests. Good and sufficient reasons for approval of the Agreement and the Sale have been articulated, and the relief requested in the Chapter 7 Sale Motion is in the best interests of the Chapter 7 Debtor, the other Sellers, their respective estates, their creditors and other parties in interest. Without limiting the foregoing, the Court finds that the Chapter 7 Trustee's assumption and performance of the Agreement are in the best interest of the Chapter 7 Debtor's estate and its creditors and customers.

J. Business Justification. The Chapter 7 Trustee and the other Sellers have demonstrated both (i) good, sufficient and sound business purpose and justification and (ii) compelling circumstances for the assumption and performance by the Chapter 7 Trustee of the Acquisition Agreement and for the Sale other than in the ordinary course of business, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 363(b) and 766, the CEA and the Part 190 Regulations, in that, among other things, the immediate consummation of the Sale to the Buyer is necessary and appropriate to maximize the value of the Chapter 7 Debtor's estate and the Assets of the other Debtors and the non-Debtor Sellers; the Sale will provide the means for the Sellers to maximize distributions to all of their creditors and for the Chapter 7 Trustee to protect the Chapter 7 Debtor's customers accounts and property. Entry of an order approving the Agreement and all the provisions thereof is a necessary condition precedent to the Buyer consummating the transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

K. Arm's-Length Sale. The Agreement was negotiated, proposed and entered into by the Chapter 7 Debtor and the other Sellers and the Buyer without collusion, in good faith and from arm's-length bargaining positions after the conclusion of an open auction in which Buyer was the winning bidder. The Buyer is not an "insider" of the Chapter 7 Debtor or any of the other Sellers, as that term is defined in Bankruptcy Code section 101. None of the Chapter 7 Trustee, the Chapter 7 Debtor, the other Sellers or the Buyer has engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the Agreement to be avoided under Bankruptcy Code sections 363(n) or 764. Specifically, the Buyer has not acted in a collusive manner with any person and the Purchase Price was not controlled by any agreement among bidders.

L. Good Faith Purchaser. The Buyer is a good faith purchaser under Bankruptcy Code section 363(m) and, as such, is entitled to all of the protections afforded thereby. The Buyer will be acting in good faith within the meaning of Bankruptcy Code section 363(m) in closing the transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

M. Consideration. The consideration provided by the Buyer under the Agreement to the Chapter 7 Debtor's estate and the other Sellers (i) is fair and reasonable, (ii) is the highest and best offer for the Assets, and (iii) constitutes reasonably equivalent value (as that term is defined in each of the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act and Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code) and fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code and under the laws of the United States, any state, territory or possession thereof, or the District of Columbia.

N. No Intentional Fraudulent Transfer. The Agreement was not entered into for the purpose of hindering, delaying or defrauding creditors under the Bankruptcy Code or under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia. Neither Buyer nor the Sellers are entering into the transactions contemplated by the Agreement fraudulently.

O. Free and Clear. The transfer of the Assets to the Buyer under the Agreement will be a legal, valid, and effective transfer of the Assets, and will vest the Buyer with all right, title, and interest of the Chapter 7 Debtor in the Assets free and clear of liens, mortgages, security interests, conditional sales or other title retention agreements, pledges, claims, judgments, demands, Excluded Liabilities, constructive trusts and encumbrances (including, without limitation, liens, claims, and encumbrances: (i) that purport to give to any party a right or option to effect any forfeiture, modification or termination of the Chapter 7 Debtor's interests in the Assets or the Buyer's interests therein after Buyer's purchase thereof from the Chapter 7 Trustee; (ii) in respect of taxes, restrictions, rights of first refusal, charges or interests of any kind or nature, if any, including, but not limited to, any restriction on the use, voting, transfer, receipt of income or other exercise of any attributes of ownership, or (iii) arising under or with respect to environmental laws) (collectively, the "Interests"), with all such non-assumed Interests to attach to the Chapter 7 Debtor's interest in the proceeds of the Sale (the "Sale Proceeds") with the same force and effect and in the same order of priority as they had as of the applicable Closing Date, subject to any rights, claims and defenses of the Chapter 7 Debtor's estate or the other Sellers (or their estates), as applicable, with respect thereto.

P. Trustee's Exercise of Care. In carrying out his statutory, fiduciary and other duties in connection with the Sale of the Acquired Assets, including negotiating the Agreement and seeking this Court's approval of such agreement, the Chapter 7 Trustee has exercised that measure of care and diligence that an ordinarily prudent person under similar circumstances would exercise.

Q. Consummation of the Agreement is a Reasonable Exercise of the Chapter 7 Trustee's Business Judgment. The Chapter 7 Trustee has demonstrated that approval of the Agreement and consummation of the Sale at this time is in the best interests of the Chapter 7 Debtor, its estate, its creditors and other parties in interest. The Trustee has advanced good, sufficient, and sound business justification supporting the sale of the Assets to the Buyer as set forth in the Chapter 7 Sale Motion and at the Chapter 7 Sale Hearing. It is a reasonable exercise of the Chapter 7 Trustee's business judgment to consummate a sale of the Acquired Assets on the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations thereunder.

R. Scope of Authorization. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Chapter 7 Trustee is not authorized to sell and is not selling any interests in assets in which the Chapter 7 Debtor does not hold an interest, and is authorized to sell and is selling only the Chapter 7 Debtor's interests in the Assets under the Agreement.

S. Not a Successor. The Buyer (a) is not a successor to the Chapter 7 Debtor or the other Sellers, (b) has not, de facto or otherwise, merged with or into the Chapter 7 Debtor or the other Debtors, (c) is not a continuation or substantial continuation of the Chapter 7 Debtor or the other Debtors or any enterprise of the Chapter 7 Debtor or the other Debtors, (d) does not have a common identity of incorporators, directors or equity holders with Chapter 7 Debtor or any of the other Debtors, and (e) is not holding itself out to the public as a continuation of the Sellers.

T. Prompt Consummation of Sale. The Sale must be approved and consummated promptly in order to preserve the viability of the businesses subject to the sale as going concerns, to maximize the value of the Chapter 7 Debtor's estate, to protect the interests of the customers of the Chapter 7 Debtor, and to preserve the integrity of the commodity futures market.

U. Additional Asset Sales. Authority under this Order for the Chapter 7 Trustee to enter into and consummate the Initial Closing and Subsequent Closings, as provided in the Agreement, without further Order of the Bankruptcy Court is a necessary condition precedent to Buyer consummating the transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

V. Contract Assignment in Best Interest. Subject to the right of any non-Debtor contract party to object to the assumption and assignment of its contract or lease, as provided herein, the Chapter 7 Trustee has demonstrated that assuming and assigning certain executory contracts and unexpired leases (the "Contracts") in connection with the Sale is an exercise of his sound business judgment, and that such assumption and assignment is in the best interests of the Chapter 7 Debtor's estate. The Contracts being assumed and assigned at the Initial Closing pursuant to this Order and the Chapter 11 Sale Order are those listed on Schedule I hereto, and no others.

W. Cure of Defaults. The assumption and assignment procedures (the "Assumption and Assignment Procedures") established in this Order provide adequate assurance of cure of any default existing before the date on which any such Contract is assumed and assigned, within the meaning of Bankruptcy Code section 365(b)(1)(A). The Assumption and Assignment Procedures further provide an adequate opportunity for non-Debtor contract parties to object to the proposed assumption and assignment of such Contracts and adequate assurance of compensation to any counterparty to such Contracts for any of their actual pecuniary losses resulting from any default arising prior to the date on which any such Contract is assumed and assigned, within the meaning of Bankruptcy Code section 365(b)(1)(B).

X. Personally Identifiable Information. The Sale may include the transfer of "personally identifiable information," as defined in Bankruptcy Code section 101(41A). However, no "consumer privacy ombudsman" need be appointed under Code section 363(b)(1) because the Buyer has agreed to adopt the Sellers' privacy policies.

Y. Authorization to Operate Business. Continued operation of the Chapter 7 Debtor's business for purposes of implementing the Sale and this Order is in the best interest of the Chapter 7 Debtor's estate.

Z. CFTC Approval. The Commodities Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC") has approved the transfer of customer accounts contemplated by the Agreement by a letter submitted to the Court at the hearing.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Motion is Granted. The Chapter 7 Sale Motion is GRANTED.
2. Chapter 7 Case. The Chapter 7 Trustee is authorized and directed to assume and perform the obligations of the Chapter 7 Debtor under the Agreement. Any performance or actions required under the Agreement on the part of the Chapter 7 Debtor may be performed by the Chapter 7 Trustee; provided, however, that the Chapter 7 Trustee shall not have any liability whatsoever for any representations and warranties required in the Agreement to be made by the Chapter 7 Debtor, any such representations and warranties being deemed to be made solely by the estate of the Chapter 7 Debtor and not by the Chapter 7 Trustee.
3. Objections Overruled. There were no objections to the Chapter 7 Sale Motion. Any objections to the entry of the Chapter 11 Sale Order or the relief granted herein and requested in the Chapter 7 Sale Motion that have not been withdrawn, waived, or settled, or not otherwise resolved pursuant to the terms thereof, were denied and overruled on the merits with prejudice.
4. Approval. The Agreement and all of the terms and conditions thereof, including, but not limited to, the sale of the Assets, execution of the Transition Services

Agreement, and the indemnification provisions in exchange for the purchase price, as set forth in the Agreement, are hereby approved.

5. Satisfaction of Requirements of Chapter 11 Sale Order. Each of the following has been or will be complied with:

A. The requirements of Subchapter IV necessary for the Chapter 7 Trustee to consummate the Agreement;

B. The applicable requirements of the CEA and the Part 190 Regulations; and

C. The applicable rules and requirements of the CME.

D. The applicable rules and requirements of the NYMEX.

6. Compliance with Regulations and Rules; Non-Avoidability. The transfer to Buyer of specifically identifiable customer securities, property, and commodity contracts to which customers are entitled under Subchapter IV and the Part 190 Regulations, in accordance with the Agreement, complies with Bankruptcy Code sections 766(c) and (d), is consistent with the Part 190 Regulations, and is approved and may not be avoided, in accordance with Bankruptcy Code section 764(b) and 17 CFR 190.06(g). All of the Customer Accounts included in the Sale are eligible for transfer under Section 764(b) of the Bankruptcy Code pursuant to 17 CFR 190.06. The Chapter 7 Trustee has notified the CFTC and the CME of the Chapter 7 Debtor's Chapter 7 filing and the Sale in accordance with to 17 CFR 190.02(a), the CFTC has approved the transfer of customer accounts in connection with the Sale and the CME has made a statement on the record in support of the Sale. No further notice is required to be given to any person or entity prior to the consummation of the Sale.

7. Authorization. The Chapter 7 Trustee is authorized under Bankruptcy Code sections 363(b) and (f) to consummate the Sale, pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement. It appears that the Chapter 7 Debtor does not hold, and accordingly cannot and shall not transfer or sell to the Buyer (and the term “Assets” herein shall not include), any securities (as defined in section 101(49) of the Bankruptcy Code), any customer property (as defined in sections 741(4) and 761(10) of the Bankruptcy Code), other similar instruments, futures, forwards and options or cash, owned or held by, or held on behalf of, directly or indirectly, Refco Capital Markets, Ltd. or Refco Securities LLC, wherever located. Delivery by the Chapter 7 Trustee or the Buyer (as Buyer may elect) of notice to the Chapter 7 Debtor’s customers and to the applicable governmental and regulatory authorities of the transfer of customer accounts to the Buyer, as required by the CEA and Part 190 Regulations, together with the notice described in paragraph D above shall constitute good and sufficient notice for all purposes of the Bankruptcy Code, including sections 363(f) and 365.

8. Implementation. The Chapter 7 Trustee is authorized to execute and deliver, and empowered to perform under, consummate and implement, the Agreement, along with all additional instruments and documents contemplated thereby or that may be reasonably necessary or desirable to implement the Agreement, and to take all further actions as may be requested by the Buyer for the purpose of transferring the Assets to the Buyer or as may be necessary or appropriate to the performance of the obligations contemplated by the Agreement, as soon as reasonably possible. The Chapter 7 Trustee is further authorized pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 721 to continue to operate the business of the Chapter 7 Debtor in order to effectuate the Sale and the terms of this Order consistent with the orderly liquidation of the estate.

9. Free and Clear. Except as expressly permitted or otherwise specifically provided for in the Agreement or this Order, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 363(f) and 105(a), the Chapter 7 Debtor's interests in the Assets shall be transferred to the Buyer and, as of the Closing Date, shall be free and clear of (a) all Interests, and (b) all debts arising under, relating to, or in connection with any acts of the Chapter 7 Debtor, Excluded Liabilities, claims (as that term is defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code), obligations, demands, guaranties, options, rights, contractual commitments, restrictions, set off or recoupment rights, interests and matters of any kind and nature, whether arising prior to or subsequent to the commencement of these cases, and whether imposed by agreement, understanding, law, equity or otherwise (including, without limitation, claims and encumbrances (i) that purport to give to any party a right or option to effect any forfeiture, modification, right of first refusal, or termination of any of the Chapter 7 Debtor's or the Buyer's interests in such Assets, or any similar rights, (ii) in respect of taxes, restrictions, rights of first refusal, charges or interests of any kind or nature, if any, including, but not limited to, any restriction on the use, voting, transfer, receipt of income or other exercise of any attributes of ownership) (collectively, "Claims"), with all such non-assumed Interests and Claims to attach to the Chapter 7 Debtor's interest in the sale proceeds, in the order of their priority, with the same validity, force and effect which they now have against the Assets as of the applicable Closing Date, subject to any rights, claims and defenses the Chapter 7 Debtor's estate may possess with respect thereto.

10. No Liability for Liens or Excluded Liabilities. Except for the Assumed Liabilities, none of the Buyer or its Affiliates, Members or Shareholders of the Purchased Entities or the Acquired Assets of the Chapter 7 Debtor will have any liability whatsoever with respect to Excluded Liabilities or Liens on such Assets arising in respect thereof, whether at law or in equity, whether by payment, setoff or otherwise, directly or indirectly.

11. Valid Transfer. The transfer of the Assets to the Buyer pursuant to the Agreement constitutes a legal, valid and effective transfer of the Chapter 7 Debtor's interests in the Assets, and shall vest the Buyer with all right, title and interest of the Chapter 7 Debtor's interests in and to the Assets free and clear of all Claims and Interests of any kind or nature whatsoever.

12. General Assignment. On and as of the applicable Closing Date, this Order shall be construed and shall constitute for any and all purposes a full and complete general assignment, conveyance and transfer of the Chapter 7 Debtor's interests in the Assets or a bill of sale transferring good and marketable title in such Assets to the Buyer. Each and every federal, state, and local governmental agency or department is hereby directed to accept any and all documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

13. Injunction. Except as expressly permitted by the Agreement or by this Order, all persons and entities, including, but not limited to, all debt security holders, equity security holders, governmental, tax and regulatory authorities, lenders, trade and other creditors, holding Interests or Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever against or in the Chapter 7 Debtor or the Chapter 7 Debtor's interests in the Assets (whether legal or equitable, secured or unsecured, matured or unmatured, contingent or non contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, senior or subordinated), arising under or out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to, the Chapter 7 Debtor, the Assets, the operation of the Chapter 7 Debtor's businesses before the Closing Date or the transfer of the Chapter 7 Debtor's interests in the Assets to the Buyer, shall be, and hereby are, forever barred, estopped and permanently enjoined from asserting, prosecuting or otherwise pursuing against the Buyer, its property, its successors and assigns, its affiliates or the interests of the Chapter 7 Debtor in such Assets, such persons' or entities' Interests or Claims. Following the applicable Closing Date, no holder of an Interest in or Claim against the Chapter 7 Debtor shall interfere with Buyer's title to or use and enjoyment of the Chapter 7 Debtor's interests in the Assets based on or related to such Interests or Claims, and all such Claims and Interests, if any, shall be, and hereby are transferred and attached to the Chapter 7 Debtor's interests in the Sale proceeds as provided in this Order in the order of their priority, with the same validity, force and effect which they have against such Assets as of the applicable Closing Date, subject to any rights, claims and defenses the Chapter 7 Debtor's estate may possess with respect thereto.

14. No Successor Liability. Except for the Assumed Liabilities, the transfer of the Assets to the Buyer under the Agreement shall not result in (i) the Buyer having any liability or responsibility for any claim against the Chapter 7 Debtor or against an insider of the Chapter 7 Debtor, or (ii) the Buyer having any liability or responsibility to the Sellers except as is expressly set forth in the Agreement. Without limiting the effect or scope of the foregoing, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the transfer of the Assets from the Sellers to the Buyer does not and will not subject the Buyer or its affiliates, successors or assigns or their respective properties (including the Assets) to any liability for claims (as that term is defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code) against the Chapter 7 Debtor or the Chapter 7 Debtor's interest in such Assets by reason of such transfer under the laws of the United States or any state, territory or possession thereof applicable to such transactions. Neither the Buyer nor its affiliates, successors or assigns shall be deemed, as a result of any action taken in connection with the purchase of the Assets to: (a) be a successor to the Sellers; (b) have, de facto or otherwise, merged with or into the Sellers; or (c) be a continuation or substantial continuation of the Sellers or any enterprise of the Sellers. Neither the Buyer nor its affiliates, successors or assigns is acquiring or assuming any liability, warranty or other obligation of the Chapter 7 Debtor, including, without limitation, any tax incurred but unpaid by the Chapter 7 Debtor before the Closing Date, including, but not limited to, any tax, any fine or penalty relating to a tax, or any addition to a tax, whether or not previously assessed, fixed or audited, whether or not paid, and whether or not contested before and adjudicated by a judicial or administrative tribunal of competent jurisdiction, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Agreement.

15. Authorization to Release Liens. If any Person that has filed any financing statement, mortgage, mechanic's lien, lis pendens or other document or instrument evidencing liens or security interests or other encumbrances ("Liens") with respect to the Chapter 7 Debtor's interests in the Assets, shall have failed to deliver to the Chapter 7 Trustee and Buyer prior to the Closing, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate Person or Persons, termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, releases of all such Liens which such Person has with respect to such Assets, then the Chapter 7 Trustee is authorized to execute and file such statements, instruments, releases and other documents on behalf of such Person appropriately limited in scope to such Assets, and Buyer is authorized to file, register or otherwise record a certified copy of the Order, which, once filed, registered or otherwise recorded, shall constitute conclusive evidence of the release of all Liens on such Assets as of the applicable Closing Date.

16. Release of Liens. This Order is and shall be effective as a determination that, all Liens shall be, and are, without further action by any person or entity, released with respect to the Chapter 7 Debtor's interests in Assets as of the Closing Date.

17. Binding Effect of Order. This Order shall be binding upon and shall govern the acts of all entities, including without limitation all filing agents, filing officers, title agents, title companies, recorders of mortgages, recorders of deeds, registrars of deeds, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, federal, state and local officials, and all other persons and entities who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office, or contract, to accept, file, register or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments, or who may be required to report or insure any title or state of title in or to any of the Assets.

18. Exemption from Stamp Taxes. The transactions contemplated by the Agreement, and the execution, delivery and/or recordation of any and all documents or instruments necessary or desirable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Agreement shall be, and hereby are, exempt from the imposition and payment of all recording fees and taxes, stamp taxes, and/or sales, transfer or any other similar taxes, pursuant to section 1146(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, provided, and on the condition that, the Chapter 11 Debtors (and the Chapter 7 Debtor, if its case should be converted to a case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code) confirm a chapter 11 plan for which the Sale was a necessary predicate on or before a reasonable period after the closing of the Agreement. The instruments transferring the Assets, and the Other Assets shall contain the following endorsement:

"Because this instrument has been authorized pursuant to Order of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York relating to a chapter 11 plan of the grantor, it is exempt from transfer taxes, stamp taxes or similar taxes pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1146(c) to the extent provided by such Order."

19. Assignment of Contracts. Subject to the terms of the Agreement and this Order, in accordance with Bankruptcy Code sections 363, 365 and 105(a), the Chapter 7 Trustee is hereby authorized to assume and assign Contracts (other than customer account agreements) to which the Chapter 7 Debtor is a party to the Buyer in accordance with the procedures set forth in the immediately following paragraphs.

20. The Chapter 7 Trustee may provide notice, (together with the Notice of Assumption and Assignment of, and Amounts Necessary to Cure Defaults under, Contracts and Leases Proposed to be Assumed and Assigned to Potential Purchaser mailed on November 7, 2005 and November 8, 2005, an "Assumption Notice") to the counterparty to a Contract which the Chapter 7 Trustee seeks to assume and assign in accordance with the Agreement, which shall include the cure amount, if any (the "Cure Amount"), asserted by the Chapter 7 Trustee with respect to such Contract, and the effective date of such assumption and assignment (the "Assignment Effective Date"). The counterparty to such Contract shall have ten days from the date the Assumption Notice is served to object to the Cure Amount, if any, and to object to the assumption and assignment of the Contract. If the counterparty to the Contract does not file an objection by such deadline, the counterparty to the Contract shall be deemed to consent to (i) the Cure Amount, if any, and (ii) the assumption and assignment of the Contract, and the Contract shall be assumed and assigned as of the Assignment Effective Date. The Chapter 7 Trustee is authorized to and shall pay any Cure Amount due on, or as soon as practicable, after the Assignment Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the only Contracts of the Chapter 7 Debtor that are being assumed and assigned to Buyer at the Initial Closing are the Contracts specified on Schedule I.

21. Assumption and Cure Objections. In the event the counterparty to a Contract files an objection to the cure amount or to the assumption and assignment of a Contract, such objection shall be scheduled for a hearing at the convenience of the Court. The Chapter 7 Trustee shall request such a hearing date or dates (each, an "Assumption Hearing") from the Court, will provide any objecting party notice of such Assumption Hearing, and will state in the notice whether such Assumption Hearing will be a status conference or an evidentiary hearing subject to the Local Rules and calendar of this Court. In the event an objection is solely as to the appropriate Cure Amount, the Chapter 7 Trustee shall pay the undisputed portion of any Cure Amount upon, or as soon as practicable after, the Assignment Effective Date, the Contract shall be deemed assumed and assigned as of the Assignment Effective Date, and any disputed Cure Amounts shall be reserved pending final determination by the Court as provided herein.² The Chapter 7 Trustee shall fund a reserve (the "Cure Reserve") equal to the disputed portion of the cure amount, or such other amount as agreed to by the parties or set by the Court. The Chapter 7 Trustee and the Contract counterparties shall have 90 days from the date of assumption and assignment to informally resolve the cure dispute. If a resolution cannot be reached within such period, the Chapter 7 Trustee shall notice the cure objection for a status conference held at the convenience of the Court. The sole source of recovery for a Contract counterparty's cure claim shall be the funds reserved for such Contract in the Cure Reserve.

The consent of the Buyer to the procedures set forth in this paragraph and the preceding paragraph shall not affect any claim the Buyer may have under the Agreement relating to or arising out of a failure by the Chapter 7 Debtor to effectuate the assumption and assignment of any particular Contract.

22. Bankruptcy Code Sections 365(b)(1) and 365(f)(2). Subject to the consents or Court determinations provided in paragraphs 19-21 hereof, the requirements of sections 365(b)(1) and 365(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code are hereby deemed satisfied with respect to the Contracts.

² The Chapter 7 Debtors reserve the right to withdraw a request to assume and assign any Contract.

23. Ipso Facto Clause Ineffective. Upon the Chapter 7 Trustee's assignment of any Contract to the Buyer hereunder or pursuant to any further order of the Court contemplated by paragraphs 19 - 21, no default shall exist under any Contract, and no counterparty to such Contract shall be permitted to declare a default by the Buyer under such Contract or otherwise take action against the Buyer as a result of the Chapter 7 Debtor's financial condition, bankruptcy or failure to perform any of its obligations under the Contract, including any failure to pay any amounts necessary to cure any Debtor's defaults thereunder.

24. Transfer of Customer Contracts. In accordance with Bankruptcy Code section 766(c) and the Part 190 Regulations, the Chapter 7 Trustee is hereby authorized to transfer all customer accounts (including customer property) to Buyer, and to assume and assign all customer account agreements governing such accounts, to the Buyer in accordance with the Agreement.

25. Bankruptcy Code Section 363(n). The consideration provided by the Buyer for the Assets under the Agreement is fair and reasonable and may not be avoided under Bankruptcy Code section 363(n).

26. Good Faith. The transactions contemplated by the Agreement are undertaken by the Buyer in good faith, as that term is used in Bankruptcy Code section 363(m) and, accordingly, the reversal or modification on appeal of the authorization provided herein to consummate the Sale shall not affect the validity of the Sale to the Buyer, unless such authorization is duly stayed pending such appeal. The Buyer is a good faith purchaser of the Assets, and is entitled to all of the benefits and protections afforded by Bankruptcy Code section 363(m).

27. Retention of Jurisdiction. This Court retains jurisdiction to enforce and implement the terms of the Agreement, all amendments thereto, any waivers and consents thereunder, and of each of the agreements executed in connection therewith in all respects, including, but not limited to, retaining jurisdiction to (a) compel delivery of the Assets to the Buyer, (b) protect the Buyer against any of the Excluded Liabilities, (c) resolve any disputes arising under or related to the Agreement, except as otherwise provided therein, and (d) interpret, implement and enforce the provisions of this Sale Order.

28. Surrender of Possession. Subject to the requirements of Bankruptcy Code § 365 as to executory contracts and unexpired leases or as otherwise provided by this Order, all entities that are presently, or on the Closing Date may be, in possession of some or all of the Assets in which the Chapter 7 Debtor holds an interest hereby are directed to surrender possession of such Assets either to (i) the Chapter 7 Trustee prior to the Closing Date, or (ii) to the Buyer on the Closing Date.

29. Administrative Priority Expense. Any amounts payable by the Chapter 7 Debtor under the Agreement or any of the documents delivered by the Chapter 7 Debtor in connection with the Agreement shall be paid in the manner provided in the Agreement without further order of this Court, and shall not be discharged, modified or otherwise affected by any reorganization plan of any of the Sellers or Debtors, except by agreement with Buyer, its successors, or assigns. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Buyer's indemnities under and to the extent provided in the Agreement are hereby granted a superpriority lien pursuant to Section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code on all assets of the Chapter 7 Debtor, as well as a superpriority administrative claim against the estate of the Chapter 7 Debtor, subject only to a carve out for the fees and expenses of the Chapter 7 Trustee and to his counsel, including the bond premium, in an amount not to exceed $10,000,000 in the aggregate, which superpriority lien and superpriority claim shall be senior and prior to all Liens created on property of the Chapter 7 Debtor after the date hereof and all claims for expenses of administration of the Chapter 7 Debtor under Section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, however, that such superpriority liens and claims shall be subject and subordinate to all valid and perfected Liens existing on the property of the Chapter 7 Debtor as of the date of commencement of these cases or created under paragraphs 44 and 48 hereof, as well as any Liens and Claims provided as adequate protection therefore, including, without limitation, all Liens and Claims, if any, of the Bank Group. The aggregate amount of Buyer's indemnities over and above the escrow holdback shall be limited to the sum of (x) the Purchase Price, to the extent paid, (y) the $58,000,000 sum of the liquidated damages amounts that are estimates of liquidation costs for certain geographically delimited operations of the Sellers, and (z) an additional $100,000,000 estimate of the aggregate amount of absolute and contingent Assumed Liabilities, it being understood that Sellers shall have the right to seek a further determination from the Court as to the actual amount of such Assumed Liabilities, which shall be used instead of such estimate for this purpose if such actual amount is determined by the Court to be less than such estimate. For the avoidance of doubt, any superpriority granted pursuant to the preceding sentence will not adversely affect the priority of the Liens and Claims of the Bank Group in respect of their borrowers, their guarantors or the properties of the respective estates of their borrowers or guarantors, as set forth in the proviso to the second sentence of this paragraph 29.

30. Binding on Successors. The terms and provisions of the Agreement and this Sale Order shall be binding in all respects upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the Chapter 7 Trustee, the estate of the Chapter 7 Debtor, the Buyer and their respective affiliates, successors and assigns, and any affected third parties, notwithstanding any subsequent appointment of any successor or replacement trustee(s) of the Chapter 7 Debtor or any conversion of the case of the Chapter 7 Debtor, as to each of which such terms and provisions likewise shall be binding.

31. Bulk Sale Laws. No bulk sales law or any similar law of any state or other jurisdiction shall apply in any way to any of the transactions under the Agreement.

32. Restricted Sale Proceeds. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Order and (after notice to the Creditors' Committee, the other Debtors and the Agent and a hearing) further Court order, the Chapter 7 Trustee shall deposit all amounts payable to Sellers under the Agreement (other than amounts to be deposited in the Escrow Account or the Excepted Account Escrow, as defined in the Agreement, or as security pursuant to Section 8.5 of the Agreement) into a segregated investment account (a "Proceeds Account") controlled by the Chapter 7 Trustee, and unless subsequently ordered otherwise (after notice to the Creditors' Committee, the other Debtors and the Agent and a hearing) such proceeds shall be invested, subject to the terms of this Order, in accordance with investment guidelines of the United States Trustee. Pending allocation of the proceeds of the Assets sold among the Sellers, as contemplated by paragraph 34 of this Order, the Chapter 7 Trustee shall be deemed to hold all such proceeds as custodian for benefit of the respective Sellers ultimately determined to be entitled to such proceeds.

33. Fund Disbursements. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or required or expressly permitted by this Order or the Agreement, the Chapter 7 Trustee shall not make any disbursements of funds, except the Chapter 7 Trustee may use the proceeds of Assets sold by him to Buyer to pay chapter 7 administrative expenses (including, without limitation, trustee's bond premiums and fees and expenses of the Chapter 7 Trustee and his counsel) and other amounts to the extent authorized to be paid by order of the Court (after notice to the Creditors' Committee, the other Debtors and the Agent and a hearing), including Cure Amounts.

Additionally, the Chapter 7 Trustee shall pay all Cure Amounts (as defined in the Agreement) related to the assumption and assignment of executory contracts (including leases) provided for herein, in the Chapter 11 Sale Order or in the Agreement, with such costs to be allocated to the Debtor or Debtors responsible for, or benefited by, such assumption, subject to notice, and a right to hearing.

34. Allocation. The rights of all parties in interest in respect of the proper allocation among the Sellers of proceeds of the Assets sold by each Seller and of the liabilities assigned to Buyer pursuant to the Agreement are reserved, as among themselves (and without impairing or affecting in any way Buyer's rights under the Agreement), subject to the further order of the Court. The Chapter 7 Trustee shall provide proper notice, including to the Committee and the Agent, of any proposed allocation of such proceeds or liabilities, and, in the event of any dispute in respect of any such allocation, the Chapter 7 Trustee shall seek a Court order approving such allocation on notice to all parties in interest.

35. Notice of Certain Transactions. Except as required by the Agreement, prior to any distribution of funds other than amounts permitted to be paid under this or any other Order, or in connection with other matters required to be heard by the Court in the Chapter 7 Case, the Chapter 7 Trustee will obtain Court approval on notice to parties in interest, including the Agent and the Committee.

36. Notice Pursuant to the Part 190 Regulations. The Buyer shall provide or publish notices required by the Part 190 Regulations to be provided by the Chapter 7 Trustee. To the extent the Part 190 Regulations require notice to be published, such publication is deemed sufficient by this Court if provided in the following newspapers: (i) USA Today, (ii) the national, international and Asia editions of the Wall Street Journal, (iii) the New York Times, (iv) the Financial Times, (v) the Times of London and (vi) the Singapore Straits Times.

37. Preservation of Certain Records. Subject to further order of the Court, the Chapter 7 Trustee, the Sellers and the Buyer are hereby ordered to take appropriate measures to maintain and preserve, until the consummation of any chapter 11 plan for the Chapter 11 Debtors or the filing of a final report in the Chapter 7 Case, as applicable, the books and records and any other documentation, including tapes or other audio or digital recordings and data in or retrievable from computers or servers, relating to or reflecting the accounts, property and trading records of the customers of the Chapter 7 Debtor whose accounts are a part of the Assets being sold pursuant to the Agreement. In addition, the Chapter 7 Debtor and the Committee shall promptly identify reasonable procedures for preserving information in the Chapter 7 Debtor's possession related to potential claims that the Chapter 7 Debtor may have against third parties, and the Chapter 7 Debtor and, to the extent required in the agreement, the Buyer shall maintain and preserve such information, subject to further order of the Court until the consummation of any plan for the Chapter 7 Debtor.

38. Accounting. The Chapter 7 Trustee shall provide to the Chapter 11 Debtors, the Agent and the Committee a monthly accounting of the cash and cash investments of, and of disbursements by, the Chapter 7 Trustee, including without limitation, cash and cash investments maintained in the Proceeds Account.

39. Sale Proceeds. Any and all valid and perfected Liens on Assets of any Seller as of the date of an applicable Closing shall attach to the proceeds of such Assets immediately upon receipt of such proceeds by such Seller (or any party acting on such Seller's behalf) in the order of priority, and with the same validity, force and effect which they have against such Assets as of the applicable Closing Date, subject to any rights, claims and defenses the Chapter 7 Debtor's estate or the Sellers, as applicable, may possess with respect thereto, and, in addition to any limitations on the use of such proceeds pursuant to paragraph 33 or any other provision of this Order, except as required by this Order or the Agreement, no such proceeds (whether maintained in a Proceeds Account or otherwise) shall be used by the Chapter 7 Trustee without the consent of the party or parties claiming an Interest therein or further order of the Court after notice (to all, inter alia, parties that claim an interest in such proceeds) and hearing, consistent with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code.

40. Non-material Modifications. The Agreement and any related agreements, documents or other instruments may be modified, amended or supplemented by the parties thereto, in a writing signed by such parties, and in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court; provided, that any such modification, amendment or supplement does not have a material adverse effect on the Chapter 7 Debtor's estate or the Bank Group and has been agreed to between the Committee and the Chapter 7 Trustee.

41. Subsequent Orders and Plan Provisions. Nothing contained in any chapter 11 plan confirmed in the cases of the Chapter 11 Debtors (a "Plan") or any order confirming any such Plan or in any other order in these cases (including any order entered after any conversion of the Chapter 11 cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or after any conversion of the Chapter 7 Case to a case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code) (a "Subsequent Order") shall alter, conflict with, or derogate from, the provisions of the Agreement or this Order. Notwithstanding any language in any such Plan or Subsequent Order no such Plan or Subsequent Order will be construed to alter, conflict with, or derogate from, the provisions of the Agreement or this Order without the Buyer's express written consent.

42. Failure to Specify Provisions. The failure specifically to include any particular provisions of the Agreement in this Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provisions, it being the intent of the Court that the Agreement be authorized and approved in its entirety; provided, however that this Sale Order shall govern if there is any inconsistency between the Agreement and this Sale Order. Likewise, all of the provisions of this Order are nonseverable and mutually dependent.

43. No Stay of Order. Notwithstanding the provisions of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(g) and 6006(d), this Order shall not be stayed for ten days after the entry hereof, but shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon issuance hereof. Time is of the essence in closing the transactions referenced herein, and the Sellers and Buyer intend to close the Sale as soon as practicable (subject to the conditions of the Agreement). Therefore, any party objecting to this Order must exercise due diligence in filing an appeal and pursuing a stay, or risk its appeal being foreclosed as moot.

44. Reserve and Lien Pending Account Reconciliations. Certain account records for customers of Cargill Investors Services were not reconciled as of midnight Monday November 21, 2005 and have not been reconciled as of the Initial Closing Date. Buyer asserts, and Sellers dispute, that such non-reconciliation caused the condition to closing set forth in Section 9.2(a) of the Agreement not to have been fulfilled as of midnight on Monday November 21, 2005 due to failure of the representation set forth in Section 5.12 of the Agreement to be correct as of such date. Buyer also reserves its right to contend, and Sellers reserve their right to dispute, that by midnight on Monday November 21, 2005 Sellers had not satisfied other of the additional conditions to be fulfilled prior to the Closing (other than the Chapter 11 Order or this Order becoming a Final Order). Buyer and Sellers have agreed to reserve their respective rights in respect of the foregoing matters, without prejudice to any other right or claim of Buyer under the Agreement in respect of such non-reconciled accounts or other matters or any defense of Sellers in respect thereof. Buyer is willing to close on the Initial Closing Date notwithstanding that reconciliation of the Cargill Investors Services accounts is not yet final but only on the terms set forth in this paragraph, which are hereby approved.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Agreement, this Order or the Chapter 11 Sale Order:

A. Until the account records of Cargill Investors Services that have not been reconciled as of the Initial Closing are reconciled and any amounts that are due to Buyer under the Agreement after giving effect to such reconciliation (the “Reconciliation Payments”) are paid in full in cash, a sum equal to the Chapter 7 Debtor’s Net Regulatory Capital as of the Initial Closing Date shall remain in the estate of the Chapter 7 Debtor and shall be subject to a superpriority lien pursuant to Section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code on all assets of the Chapter 7 Debtor, as well as a superpriority administrative claim, which superpriority lien and superpriority claim shall be senior and prior to all Liens created on property of the Chapter 7 Debtor after the date hereof and all claims for expenses of administration of the Chapter 7 Debtor under Section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, however, that such superpriority liens and claims shall be subject and subordinate to (1) all valid and perfected Liens existing on the property of the Chapter 7 Debtor as of the date of commencement of these cases and the Claims secured thereby, including, if any exist, Liens in favor of the Bank Group, as well as any Liens and Claims provided as adequate protection therefor, (2) the liens and claims created under paragraph 48 hereof and (3) a “carve-out” for the fees and expenses of the Chapter 7 Trustee (including bond premium) in an amount not to exceed $10,000,000 in the aggregate. The superpriority liens and claims created under this paragraph shall secure Buyer’s claim for Reconciliation Payments only. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties intend that such superpriority liens and claims shall only secure Buyer’s claim made in good faith in respect of the actual, unreconciled account balances at Cargill Investor Services. Buyer shall have no obligation to seek payment of such Reconciliation Payments from the hold-back escrow or other escrows created pursuant to the Agreement (it being agreed and understood that such escrows were not created or funded in anticipation of the need for a source of funds for possible Reconciliation Payments).

B. Buyer and Sellers anticipate that final reconciliation of the Cargill Investor Services accounts will take not more than ten days from the date of the Initial Closing. At any time (or times) after ten days have elapsed since the Initial Closing Date, if the Chapter 7 Trustee and Buyer are unable to agree in good faith on the maximum potential amount of Reconciliation Payments in light of account balances not yet reconciled, the Chapter 7 Trustee shall seek a determination of this Court as to such maximum amount. Upon a Final Order specifying such maximum amount the liens and claims created under clause (A) of this paragraph 44 shall be reduced to such maximum amount. Buyer agrees to cooperate in good faith with the Chapter 7 Trustee in seeking expedited determination of any dispute with respect to the Reconciliation Payments, including without limitation, from the Court and any applicable appellate court.

C. No further order of this Court or notice to or from any person or entity shall be required in order for the Chapter 7 Trustee to make Reconciliation Payments to Buyer; provided, that such payments shall not exceed $10,000,000 in the aggregate. Reconciliation Payments that are due to Buyer but are not made by the close of business on the second business day after request for payment thereof is received by the Chapter 7 Trustee shall accrue interest from the date requested at an annual rate equal to the prime rate as announced from time to time by the Wall Street Journal plus 4%, payable on demand.

45. Relief from Stay. The automatic stay is vacated to the extent necessary to permit JPMorgan to continue to clear, settle, charge, post and account for all transactions of the Chapter 7 Debtor that were pending or incomplete as of the commencement of the Chapter 7 Debtor's case and to charge the accounts of the Chapter 7 Debtor at JPMorgan for such transactions and accrued fees and expenses. The automatic stay is further vacated to the extent necessary to permit other clearing organizations to continue to clear, settle, charge, post and account for all transactions of the Chapter 7 Debtor that were pending or incomplete as of the commencement of Chapter 7 Debtor's case, and to set off against settlement receivables, guarantee deposits and clearing and other deposits of the Chapter 7 Debtor with respect to such transactions, including the payment of accrued fees and expenses associated therewith.

46. Order and Directive to Certain Refco Banks. Recognizing that the transfer of the Chapter 7 Debtor's customer accounts to Buyer and the continued operation and soundness of the Chapter 7 Debtor's business depend on the continuation of Debtor's banking relationships without interruption, whether such interruption is due to the commencement of the Chapter 7 Case or the Sale of the Chapter 7 Debtor's Assets to Buyer or any other matter, effective immediately and automatically upon the Initial Closing (a) all funds (in whatever currencies and whether cash, securities or other financial instruments) on deposit in the accounts of Sellers listed on Schedule II to this Order (the "Deposit Accounts"), and all funds in transit to such accounts, or at any time in the future deposited in such accounts or in transit to such accounts, or paid or payable as dividends, interest or other earnings in respect of such funds, and all proceeds thereof, in any form (collectively, the "Account Funds"), and the Deposit Accounts themselves, shall be and become property of Buyer without further act, deed or notice, and Buyer shall be entitled to exercise all rights of Sellers in respect of such Account Funds and Deposit Accounts, (b) the banks and other financial institutions in which such accounts are held (the "Account Institutions") are hereby ordered and directed to recognize Buyer as the owner of such Account Funds and Deposit Accounts for all purposes, (c) without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Buyer's designated signatories (the "Designated Signatories"), listed on Schedule III to this Order, shall have exclusive authority over the Deposit Accounts and the Account Funds from and after the Initial Closing Date (in lieu of any signatories or authorized account control parties otherwise designated by Chapter 7 Debtor or its Affiliates or by the Chapter 7 Trustee), (d) no Account Institution shall interfere with or restrain Buyer's exercise of the rights and ownership hereby granted with respect to the Deposit Accounts, (e) Buyer shall assume all obligations of Chapter 7 Debtor as holder of the Deposit Accounts required to be performed with respect to such Deposit Accounts and that accrue from and after the Initial Closing (including without limitation the obligation to pay fees under and on the terms set forth in the applicable account agreements) and shall provide notice of such assumption substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto, and (f) Buyer intends to, and is hereby authorized to, enter into customary bilateral agreements with each Account Institution in respect of the Deposit Accounts in due course and on such terms as may be agreed between Buyer and such Account Institutions, and when entered into by Buyer and such Account Institution, such agreements will supersede this paragraph 46 to the extent applicable. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this paragraph shall alter the economic substance of the Sale, or diminish in any respect the proceeds to Sellers of the Sale or the amount of funds that are to be retained by Sellers after giving effect to the Sale, nor shall anything in this paragraph impair any claim of any Person against the Chapter 7 Debtor or any obligation of the Chapter 7 Debtor to any Person, in each case in respect of the Deposit Accounts, to the extent such claim or obligation arises or relates to the period prior to the Initial Closing or alter any liability of the Buyer in respect of the Deposit Accounts after the Initial Closing. Buyer shall promptly remit to the applicable Seller the proceeds of any accounts receivable and other assets that are not Acquired Assets which are deposited after the Initial Closing into any such Deposit Accounts. The list of Deposit Accounts on Schedule II hereto may be amended without further order of this Court by joint notice from the Chapter 7 trustee and the Buyer to the applicable Account Institution.

47. At all times prior to the Initial Closing, (i) all transactions conducted with respect to the Deposit Accounts are for the benefit of the Chapter 7 Debtor and (ii) all liabilities and obligations owed with respect to the Deposit Accounts are the responsibility of Chapter 7 Debtor. From and after the Initial Closing, (i) all transactions conducted with respect to the Deposit Accounts are for the benefit of the Buyer and (ii) all liabilities and obligations owed with respect to the Deposit Accounts are the responsibility of Buyer. To the extent that there are transactions which are posted to the Deposit Accounts after the Initial Closing which are related to transactions prior to the Initial Closing or to the extent any Account Funds or other funds on deposit in the Deposit Accounts represent Excluded Assets (which under the terms of the Agreement are due to the Chapter 7 Debtor), the Chapter 7 Trustee and the Buyer shall jointly determine in good faith the appropriate debits and/or credits, and any related transfer of funds, arising with respect to such transactions or funds, as the case may be, the Court to retain jurisdiction to resolve any dispute with respect thereto.

48. Security for Clearing Organizations. Prior to or contemporaneously with the Initial Closing, the Chapter 7 Trustee (or the Buyer, as may be agreed by the parties) shall implement Section 8.5(d) of the Agreement by depositing (out of the Purchase Price or otherwise) with any board of trade, derivatives transaction execution facility, derivatives clearing organization, securities exchange, electronic trading facility or other trading facility (each, a “Clearing Organization”) on account of membership interests or shares in or seats on such Clearing Organization (“Clearing Assets”) that are part of the Acquired Assets, an amount in cash equal to such Clearing Organization’s good faith estimate of the value of the Clearing Assets, as collateral to secure all of the Chapter 7 Debtor’s liabilities to such Clearing Organization or under such Clearing Organization’s by-laws, rules, regulations and procedures (“Rules”) in order to permit the delivery of such Clearing Assets to Buyer without a ten day waiting period and without resort to remedies available to them under the Rules free and clear of Liens and Excluded Liabilities as required by the Agreement. From and after the Initial Closing, each Clearing Organization is hereby authorized and directed (and the automatic stay is vacated to the extent necessary) to consummate the transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer and the withdrawal of the Chapter 7 Debtor from, and the termination of the Chapter 7 Debtor’s clearing and other related privileges on, such Clearing Organization, including the resolution of all disputes and claims asserted against the Chapter 7 Debtor in accordance with the procedures set forth in such Clearing Organization's Rules, and the application of all security deposits and other collateral held by each Clearing Organization to satisfy the Chapter 7 Debtor's obligations to such Clearing Organization or that are payable pursuant to the claims procedures set forth in such Clearing Organization's Rules, with the remainder, if any, of such security deposits and other collateral to be paid to the Chapter 7 Trustee as promptly as practicable following the expiration of the applicable claims period and the resolution of any claims made, in each case in accordance with the applicable Clearing Organizations's Rules.

49. Immunity to Chapter 7 Trustee. The Court having hereby granted the Chapter 7 Sale Motion and authorized the Chapter 7 Trustee to consummate the Sale on the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement and this Sale Order and to execute, deliver and perform the Chapter 7 Debtor's obligations thereunder, the Chapter 7 Trustee is granted the fullest measure of quasi-judicial immunity permitted by law. No Claim Holder or Interest Holder, or other party in interest, none of their respective agents, employees, representatives, financial advisors, attorneys or affiliates, and no successors or assigns of the foregoing, will have any right of action against the Chapter 7 Trustee, or any of the Chapter 7 Trustee's professionals or agents, and any of such parties' predecessors, successors and assigns, and all of their respective officers, directors, agents, employees and attorneys, for any act or omission in connection with, relating to or arising out of the consummation of the Agreement in accordance with its terms and conditions, and the terms of this Order, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

50. Reservation of Rights. The Buyer asserts, and the Sellers dispute, that Buyer has no obligation to pay the $5,000,000 Purchase Price increase specified in section 3.1(a)(ii) of the Agreement. The closing of the Sale on the terms and conditions specified in the Agreement (other than such provision) and any waiver of any applicable representations, covenants or warranties, or breaches thereof, shall not act as a waiver of Sellers' right to seek payment of the Purchase Price increase from Buyer, or as a waiver of any Buyer's defenses thereto.

51. Excess Segregated Funds. As a result of the exigencies presented by this case and the need for an immediate closing, the parties anticipate that the funds actually transferred to Buyer at the Initial Closing will exceed the amounts required to be so transferred in accordance with the Agreement. On or before 10:00 a.m. on Sunday, November 27, 2005, Sellers shall update the components of the Form 1-FR-FCM referred to in the Agreement (taking in account the amounts of customer segregated accounts, customer secured accounts, non-regulated "foreign-trading-foreign" accounts, selected house accounts, and the amounts required under Section 8.21 of the Agreement) and deliver to Buyer a written schedule showing the amount of funds that should have been transferred to Buyer in accordance with the Agreement including the components of such calculation referred to above in appropriate detail. Not later than 10:00 a.m. on November 28th, 2005 Buyer shall remit to the Trustee an amount equal to the excess of funds actually transferred to Buyer at the Initial Closing over the amount required to be transferred pursuant to the Agreement. The payments due from Buyer under this paragraph 51 shall be made without setoff or counterclaim for amounts that may be due to Buyer under any other provision or paragraph of this Order or the Agreement. Payments not made when due shall accrue interest at the rate of prime (as defined in paragraph 44(c) of this Order) plus four percent.

PURCHASE AND SALE OF ACQUIRED ASSETS

Section 2.1 Purchase and Sale of Acquired Assets. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including Section 2.4(b), (a) the Sellers shall (and Parent shall cause each of the Sellers to) sell, assign, convey, transfer and deliver to Buyer or its designees at and as of the Initial Closing (or, if applicable, any Subsequent Closing), the Acquired Assets, including all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of the Purchased Entities owned by the Sellers and set forth on Schedule 5.2 (the “Securities”), to be purchased at such Closing, all free and clear of all Liens and Excluded Liabilities; and (b) in exchange therefor, Buyer shall pay the Adjusted Purchase Price applicable to the Acquired Assets in accordance with Section 3.1 or 3.2, as applicable, and shall accept, assume and agree to pay, perform or otherwise discharge, in accordance with the respective terms and subject to the respective conditions thereof, the Assumed Liabilities to be assumed at such Closing. The Sellers shall pay all Cure Amounts in respect of the Assumed Contracts and Assumed IP Licenses and shall bear all Transfer Taxes related to the Sellers' sale of the Acquired Assets and the assumption of the Assumed Contracts and Assumed IP Licenses. After any Closing, Buyer shall be entitled to exercise all rights attached or accruing to the Acquired Assets purchased at such Closing, including the right to receive all dividends, distributions or any return of capital declared, paid or made by any of the Purchased Entities in respect of the Securities on or after the relevant Closing Date.

Section 2.2 Assets and Liabilities.

(a) Acquired Assets. For purposes of this Agreement, "Acquired Assets" means, subject to Section 2.3, (i) all of the assets, properties, rights, agreements and other interests of the Sellers (other than Contracts and Excluded Assets, but including the Securities), whether tangible or intangible, wherever located, that are used, useful or held for use in, primarily related to, material to or necessary for the operation or conduct of the Business by the Sellers, including those set forth on Schedule 2.2(a), as the same shall exist on the applicable Closing Date, and (ii) each Contract set forth on Exhibit 1 to Schedule 2.2(a). For the avoidance of doubt, if any Acquired Asset is not sold, assigned, conveyed, transferred or delivered to Buyer or its designees on the Initial Closing Date, whether pursuant to Section 2.3 or otherwise, such Acquired Asset shall be sold, assigned, conveyed, transferred or delivered as the same shall exist on the Subsequent Closing Date applicable to such Acquired Asset or, in the case of an Acquired Asset that is a Contract, as promptly as possible in accordance with the procedures for assumption and assignment of Contracts set forth in the Sale Order; provided, that with respect to any Acquired Asset that is subject to a right of first refusal or other option to purchase that predates the Cases and does not constitute a Lien of which the Acquired Assets may be sold free and clear pursuant to the Sale Order under applicable law, and provided such right or option is exercised, then the Acquired Assets shall include, in lieu of such Acquired Asset, all proceeds of the sale of any such Acquired Asset and such proceeds shall be conveyed to the Buyer as promptly as possible.

(b) Excluded Assets. The Subject Entities and Buyer hereby acknowledge and agree that Buyer shall not purchase, acquire or accept from the Sellers, any of the rights, properties, agreements or assets set forth in Schedule 2.2(b) as it may be revised from time to time pursuant to Section 2.3 (such rights, properties, agreements and assets being referred to herein, collectively, as the "Excluded Assets").

(c) Assumed Liabilities. For purposes of this Agreement, "Assumed Liabilities" means (i) all Liabilities of the Sellers that are required to be performed, and that accrue, on or after the applicable Closing Date under the Assumed Contracts and Assumed IP Licenses (but excluding any Liabilities of the Sellers in respect of a breach by any Seller or default by any Seller under such Assumed Contracts or Assumed IP Licenses prior to the applicable Closing Date), to the extent such Assumed Contracts and Assumed IP Licenses, and all rights of the Sellers thereunder, are effectively assigned to Buyer at such Closing, (ii) Liabilities for accrued vacation, sick time and time-off with respect to any Transferred Employee, as set forth in Section 8.17(c), and (iii) all Customer Account Liabilities as of the applicable Closing Date of the type required to be listed on Lines 22A through D ("Equities in commodity accounts”) of CFTC Form 1-FR-FCM (and comparable liabilities on the comparable form with respect to any foreign regulated FCM) with respect to any Customer Accounts that are conveyed to Buyer pursuant to this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, (1) Assumed Liabilities shall not include any Excluded Liabilities, and (2) Buyer shall not be responsible for any Liabilities resulting from the ownership, use, operation or maintenance of the Acquired Assets, or the conduct of the Business by the Sellers, prior to the Closing.

(d) Excluded Liabilities. The Subject Entities and Buyer hereby acknowledge and agree that Buyer shall not accept, assume, agree to pay, perform or otherwise discharge or satisfy or be liable for any Excluded Liabilities.

Section 2.3 Option to Modify the Asset and Liability Schedules. From and after the date hereof until 60 days after the Initial Closing Date (and solely in respect of Transition Leases, until the termination of the Buyer Transition Services Agreement), Buyer may by written notice to the Sellers amend or modify any of the Asset and Liability Schedules to include in or exclude from each Asset and Liability Schedule additional assets or additional Liabilities relating to the Business; provided, that in no event will Buyer have the right to amend Schedule 2.2(b) to remove any item included in Part I of such Schedule 2.2(b); provided, further that no Asset and Liability Schedule may be amended to exclude an asset (other than assets constituting “plant, property and equipment”) that was purchased at any Closing (or subsequently) or to exclude any liability that was assumed at any Closing or subsequently. For the avoidance of doubt, all Customer Accounts shall be Acquired Assets. The parties agree that the Purchase Price shall not be increased, reduced or otherwise amended on account of any election under this Section 2.3, it being understood and agreed that the Purchase Price entitles Buyer to accept and assume or reject such assets or liabilities of the Sellers as Buyer may in its sole discretion determine, other than the assets and liabilities set forth on Part I of Schedule 2.2(b). Buyer agrees that, provided that the conditions precedent to its obligation to close have been satisfied or waived (other than, with respect to the London Business, the receipt of all required Regulatory Consents), it shall at its election (solely as to London, the “London Election”) either (a) acquire all of the Acquired Assets (including all Leases) and assume the Assumed Liabilities associated with such Acquired Assets (other than Excluded Liabilities) with respect to the London Business and the Business in Canada and shall be responsible for all severance and termination costs associated with such Acquired Assets, or (b) pay the Take-or-Pay Fee with respect to such region, as set forth in Section 10.3; provided, that Buyer shall, by notice to the Parent, make the London Election no later than the date that is four weeks from the date hereof; provided, further, that if Buyer elects option (a) above with respect to the London Business and notifies the Parent of its intent that an entity other than Buyer or its Affiliates shall be Buyer’s designee for receipt of the Acquired Assets relating to such business, then Buyer’s obligation to close on the London Business shall be tolled until (and the Drop Dead Date as to the London Business shall become) the date that is 90 days from the date hereof. Once any such Acquired Asset has been acquired or liability assumed, that asset or liability cannot be transferred or otherwise conveyed back to Sellers.

Section 2.4 Assignment of Contracts and Licenses.

(a) Subject to the applicable provisions of the Sale Order and the other terms and conditions of this Agreement, as soon as possible (but in no event prior to the Initial Closing Date) after any Contract (including any IP License) is listed on Exhibit 1 to Schedule 2.2(a) (as revised from time to time pursuant to Section 2.3), (i) the Sellers that are Debtors shall assume and assign to Buyer or its designees, and Buyer or its designees shall take assignment of, all of each such Seller's title, right and interest in and to each such Assumed Contract, free and clear of any and all Liens and Excluded Liabilities, and (ii) the Sellers that are not Debtors shall assign to Buyer or its designees, and Buyer or its designees shall take assignment of, all of each such Seller's title, right and interest in and to each such Assumed Contract, free and clear of any and all Liens and Excluded Liabilities.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement shall not constitute an agreement to assign any Assumed Contract or Assumed IP License if pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (if applicable) or other applicable law, an assignment thereof requires the consent of a third party thereto and such consent is not obtained at or prior to the applicable Closing, in which case the provisions of Sections 2.7, 8.4 and 8.5(a) shall apply; provided, that (x) this sentence shall not limit or otherwise affect the terms of Section 5.5, and (y) the Sellers shall provide to Buyer, by whatever measures are necessary, the equivalent of the entire benefit Buyer would have realized from the assignment of such Assumed Contract or Assumed IP License to Buyer.

Section 2.5 Bill of Sale, Assignment and Assumption Agreements. At or as of the applicable Closing, Parent shall cause each Seller to deliver to Buyer or its designated Affiliate a Bill of Sale, Assignment and Assumption Agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit D.

Section 2.6 Intellectual Property Rights. With respect to any Acquired Asset consisting of Intellectual Property Rights owned by the Sellers or their Affiliates that are used or useful in the operation of the businesses of the Sellers or their Affiliates, (a) if such Intellectual Property Rights are not substantially related or material to the Business and are listed on Schedule 2.6 then, at the Sellers' option, the Sellers may retain all right, title and interest in and to such Intellectual Property Rights and shall grant to the applicable Purchased Entity and/or Buyer and/or one or more designees of Buyer a transferable, royalty free, worldwide, perpetual, irrevocable license to use such Intellectual Property Rights in the conduct of its business, and (b) for any Intellectual Property Rights for which the Sellers do not exercise the right described in clause (a) or which are substantially related or material to the Business, Buyer or the applicable Purchased Entity shall grant the Sellers and their Affiliates a non-exclusive, royalty free, worldwide, perpetual, irrevocable license to use such Intellectual Property Rights in the conduct of their respective businesses, but only to the extent the conduct of such business is not prohibited by this Agreement. Such license shall be transferable (per entire assignment in whole but not in part) and sublicenseable on an exclusive and perpetual basis but in each case only in connection with the divestiture, sale or transfer to a third party of business lines or Affiliates of Parent or Sellers after the Closing Date and only if such transferee agrees to such restriction. Any license to Intellectual Property Rights described in this Section shall be memorialized in a license agreement agreed upon by the parties (an "Intellectual Property License Agreement"), which shall include other customary terms and conditions to be agreed upon by the parties, acting reasonably and in good faith, to include disclaimers, indemnification and liability limitations.

Section 2.7 Transition Services Agreements.

(a) Pursuant to the Buyer Transition Services Agreement, Parent and the Sellers will (or will cause their Affiliates to) provide to Buyer, its designees and/or the Purchased Entities, for a term of 270 days after the Initial Closing, as reasonably requested by Buyer, such services (i) as Parent, the Sellers and/or their respective Affiliates currently provide to the Business, including the benefit of IP Licenses (including Assumed IP Licenses described in Section 2.4(b) until such IP Licenses can be assigned) that are not at the time Assumed IP Licenses, the benefit of real property leases of the Sellers necessary to permit the Buyer and its Affiliates (including the Purchased Entities) to conduct the Business as it has previously been conducted (including, without limitation, those leases set forth on Schedule 2.7) (the “Transition Leases”), access to software (including the Easyscreen software), data and communications services, and other administrative and information technology services, in each case to the extent currently provided to the Business, but excluding any services that the Sellers or their respective Affiliates are not reasonably able to provide due to the transfer of an Acquired Asset, Transferred Employee, Assumed IP License or Assumed Contract to Buyer or a Purchased Entity, and (ii) as may otherwise be agreed to by Seller upon the request of Buyer, such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld, including in connection with the transition of the services described in (i) above to the Buyer ((i) and (ii), collectively, “Transition Services”). The Buyer Transition Services Agreement shall provide that all Transition Services provided by Parent, the Sellers and/or their respective Affiliates shall be provided at cost (including costs and expenses associated with implementation and connectivity between the parties), and shall otherwise contain customary terms and conditions to be agreed upon by the parties, acting reasonably and in good faith, to include disclaimers, indemnification and liability limitations; provided, that such costs shall only reflect direct, out-of-pocket costs of providing the services covered thereby, such as (1) salaries, overtime, and benefit allocation of fully dedicated or portions of partially dedicated personnel, (2) costs of third parties, contractors or temporary employees, and (3) rent and utility costs based on the proportional usage between the employees who are fully dedicated to providing the services and the other employees of the Sellers; provided, further, that such costs shall not include (1) any allocation of overhead costs (such as human resources, legal, accounting, etc.), and (2) any severance costs related to the termination of any of the employees of the Subject Entities following the provision of the Transition Services. The Sellers shall bear all costs and expenses related to obtaining any consents required for the provision of Transition Services. The Buyer may terminate the Buyer Transition Services at any time in whole or in part and for any reason upon ten-days’ notice to Parent.

(b) With respect to any Acquired Asset consisting of an Assumed IP License or Assumed Contract that is used or useful in the operation of the business(es) of the Sellers and/or their Affiliates following the Closing, and solely to the extent the conduct of such business is expressly permitted in this Agreement, upon the Sellers’ request, Buyer and the Purchased Entities shall provide to the Sellers and their Affiliates the benefit of such Assumed IP License or Assumed Contract pursuant to the Seller Transition Services Agreement for a term of 270 days after the Initial Closing (or, with respect to such services, such shorter or longer period as Buyer and the Sellers may agree, such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld). The Seller Transition Services Agreement shall provide that all such services shall be provided at cost (including costs and expenses associated with implementation and connectivity between the parties), and shall otherwise contain customary terms and conditions to be agreed upon by the parties, acting reasonably and in good faith, to include disclaimers, indemnifications and liability limitations; provided, that such costs shall only reflect direct, out-of-pocket costs of providing the services covered thereby, such as (1) salaries, overtime, and benefit allocation of fully dedicated or portions of partially dedicated personnel, (2) costs of third parties, contractors or temporary employees, and (3) rent and utility costs based on the proportional usage between the employees who are fully dedicated to providing the services and the other employees of the Buyer; provided, further, that such costs shall not include (1) any allocation of overhead costs (such as human resources, legal, accounting, etc.), and (2) any severance costs related to the termination of any of the employees of the Buyer following the provision of the Transition Services. Buyer shall bear all costs and expenses related to obtaining any consents required for the provision of services under the Seller Transition Services Agreement. Parent may terminate the Seller Transition Services at any time in whole or in part and for any reason upon ten-days' notice to the Buyer. Section 3.2 Subsequent Closings. In the event that the Acquired Assets are sold in more than one Closing (i.e., there are Delayed Purchase Assets) the portion of the Adjusted Purchase Price payable in respect of the Acquired Assets to be sold on the Initial Closing Date and the portion payable in respect of the Acquired Assets to be sold at each Subsequent Closing shall be equitably determined in accordance with the guidelines set forth in Schedule 3.2 and shall be paid on the applicable Closing Date, in each case 75% direct to the Sellers in cash as above and 25% into the Escrow Account as above.

On the Business Day immediately prior to the applicable Closing Date (including any applicable Subsequent Closing Dates), the President or Chief Financial Officer of the Company shall deliver to Buyer no later than 12:00 noon, New York City time, a certificate (the “Purchase Price Adjustment Certificate”) setting forth (a) the Company’s good faith estimated calculation as of such Closing Date of the Segregated Account Balance on such Closing Date (the “Segregated Account Estimate”), and (b) an estimated calculation of the Adjusted Purchase Price (the “Sellers’ Price Estimate”). Following the delivery of the Purchase Price Adjustment Certificate to Buyer, the Sellers and Buyer shall discuss the Segregated Account Estimate and the Sellers’ Price Estimate and endeavor to resolve any differences. In the event of any disagreement as to any of the items estimated in the Purchase Price Adjustment Certificate or the calculation of the Adjusted Purchase Price, Buyer shall deliver to the Sellers Buyer’s good faith estimate as of such Closing Date of the Segregated Account Balance of the applicable Person(s) and a calculation of the Adjusted Purchase Price (the “Buyer’s Price Estimate”) and shall pay to the Sellers in accordance with Sections 3.1 or 3.2, as applicable, an amount equal to Buyer’s Price Estimate (or the applicable portion thereof) and shall deposit the difference between Sellers’ Price Estimate and Buyer's Price Estimate in a separate escrow account established specifically for such purpose.

Section 3.5 Post-Closing Adjustments.

(a) No later than the later of (i) the 20th day following the end of the calendar month in which the applicable Closing occurs and (ii) 30th day following such Closing Date, Buyer will prepare and deliver to the Company, a report of the successor in interest to the Company with respect to the Customer Accounts purchased from the Company as of such Closing Date (such report, the "Closing Report"), together with a statement (the "Closing Statement") setting forth Buyer's calculation as of such Closing Date of the Segregated Account Balance and a determination of the amount of the Adjusted Purchase Price. Buyer will prepare the Closing Report and the Closing Statement (including the determinations included therein) in accordance with Section 3.5(e). In the event Buyer shall fail to deliver the Closing Report and the Closing Statement within such 30-day period, the Purchase Price Adjustment Certificate will be treated as the Closing Statement for purposes of Section 3.1 or 3.2, as applicable.

(b) During the 20-day period immediately following the Company's receipt of the Closing Report and the Closing Statement, the Company and its representatives (i) will be permitted to review, during normal business hours and upon reasonable notice, the applicable successor's books and records and the working papers related to the preparation of the Closing Report and the Closing Statement (including the determinations included therein), and (ii) will be given reasonable access, during normal business hours and upon reasonable notice, to knowledgeable employees and accounting professionals of Buyer in order to facilitate the Company's review of the Closing Report and the Closing Statement; provided, however, that the review and access described in clauses (i) and (ii) will be conducted at times and in a manner that does not unreasonably interfere with the operation of Buyer's or any of its Affiliates' businesses. The Closing Report and the Closing Statement (including the determinations included therein) will become final, binding and conclusive upon Buyer and the Sellers (a) on the 20th day following the Company's receipt thereof, unless Buyer receives from the Company prior to such 20th day, written notice of the Sellers' disagreement (a "Dispute Notice") with any account or determination set forth in the Closing Report or the Closing Statement or (b) on such earlier date as the Company notifies Buyer that it does not dispute the Closing Report and Closing Statement. Any Dispute Notice will specify in reasonable detail the nature and dollar amount of any disagreement so asserted (collectively, the "Disputed Items"). Any account or determination set forth or reflected on the Closing Report or the Closing Statement that is not specifically objected to in the Dispute Notice will be deemed final, binding and conclusive upon Buyer and the Sellers upon delivery of the Dispute Notice. If Company timely delivers a Dispute Notice, then the determination of the Adjusted Purchase Price (in accordance with the resolution described in clause (x) or (y) below, as applicable) will become final, binding and conclusive upon Buyer and the Sellers on the first to occur of (x) the date on which Buyer and the Company resolve in writing all differences they have with respect to the Disputed Items or (y) the date on which all of the Disputed Items that are not resolved by the Buyer and the Company in writing are finally resolved in writing by the Independent Accountants in accordance with Section 3.5(c).

(c) During the 15 days following delivery of a Dispute Notice, Buyer and the Company will seek in good faith to resolve in writing any differences which they have with respect to all of the Disputed Items. Any Disputed Item resolved in writing by Buyer and Company will be deemed final, binding and conclusive on Buyer and the Sellers. If Buyer and Company do not reach agreement on all of the Disputed Items during such 15-day period (or such longer period as they shall mutually agree), then at the end of such 15-day (or longer) period Buyer and Company will submit all unresolved Disputed Items (collectively, the “Unresolved Items”) to one of the “big four” nationally recognized firms of independent certified public accountants with a nationwide audit and accounting practice as Buyer and Company may mutually agree (the “Independent Accountants”) to review and resolve such matters. The Independent Accountants will determine each Unresolved Item (the amount of which may not be more favorable to Buyer than the related amount reflected in the Closing Statement nor more favorable to the Sellers than the related amount set forth in the Dispute Notice) in accordance with Section 3.5(e) as promptly as may be reasonably practicable, and Buyer and Company will instruct the Independent Accountants to endeavor to complete such process within a period of no more than 15 days. The Independent Accountants may conduct such proceedings as the Independent Accountants believe, in their sole discretion, will assist in the determination of the Unresolved Items; provided, however, that, except as Buyer and Company may otherwise agree, all communications between Buyer, Company and the Sellers or any of their respective representatives, on the one hand, and the Independent Accountants, on the other hand, will be in writing with copies simultaneously delivered to the non-communicating party. The Independent Accountants’ determination of the Unresolved Items will be final, binding and conclusive on Buyer and the Sellers, effective as of the date the Independent Accountants’ written determination is received by Buyer and Company. The fees and expenses of the Independent Accountants will be borne one-half by Buyer and one-half jointly by the Sellers, and each of Buyer and the Sellers will bear its own legal, accounting and other fees and expenses of participating in such dispute resolution procedure.

(d) Upon final determination of the Adjusted Purchase Price pursuant to Section 3.5(b) or (c) (the “Final Purchase Price”), an adjustment to the Purchase Price will be determined and paid as follows:

(i) If the Estimated Purchase Price exceeds the Final Purchase Price, the Sellers (or their respective successors and assigns, including any post-consummation trusts formed to administer claims against the Debtors’ estate) shall within five (5) Business Days of the determination of the Final Purchase Price pay to Buyer the amount of such excess by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account specified by Buyer. Seller’s obligations pursuant to the preceding sentence shall constitute superpriority administrative claims and shall be secured by liens having the priority contemplated by Section 11.2 of this Agreement.

(ii) If the Final Purchase Price exceeds the Estimated Purchase Price, Buyer shall within five (5) Business Days of the determination of the Final Purchase Price pay the amount of such excess by wire transfer of immediately available funds, 75% to the Sellers and 25% to the Escrow Account, as above.

(e) For the purposes of this Section 3.5, each accounting term used herein will have the meaning that is applied thereto in accordance with Regulatory Accounting Standards and, to the extent consistent with Regulatory Accounting Standards, the accounting principles, policies, procedures and methodologies applied in preparing the Latest Regulatory Statements.

Each account included in the Closing Statement and the Closing Report will be consistent with the books and records of the Broker Entities and the definitions herein agreed; provided, that in no event shall any Excluded Liability be included on the Closing Report.

Section 8.13 Service. Each of Parent, the applicable Sellers and the Purchased Entities shall (and Parent shall cause its Subsidiaries to) timely serve notice of the Sale Motion and the Sale Notice (as defined in the Bid Procedures Order) on all Persons legally entitled to such notices and in a manner otherwise consistent with applicable Law.

Section 8.14 U.S. Tax Classification of the Purchased Entities. Schedule 8.14 lists current classification of each Purchased Entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes under Section 7701 of the Code and regulations thereunder and indicates whether such classification is other than the default classification.

Section 8.15 Group Relief. Where and to the extent that the Sellers would otherwise be liable to indemnify against or otherwise discharge Taxes of a Purchased Entity under this Agreement or the Sellers have agreed on or before the Closing Date to surrender a specific amount of losses (even if such amount is provisional) under a pre-existing contractual arrangement, the Sellers shall and shall procure that their Affiliates shall cooperate fully in surrendering to the Purchased Entities all group relief and consortium relief amounts, up to the amount for which the Sellers would otherwise be liable or which has been agreed to be surrendered, that such Purchased Entities are entitled to claim in accordance with the ICTA.

Section 8.16 Document Preservation. From the date hereof until the seventh anniversary of the Initial Closing Date each of Parent and the Purchased Entities shall and shall cause their respective Affiliates to maintain all books of account, financial records, minute books and all other records of or related to the Business prior to the Closing (including electronic files and correspondence) and shall not engage in the destruction of any such documents or issue any directive or request recommending or requiring such destruction.

Section 8.17 Employees.

(a) Buyer has delivered to Parent a schedule setting forth those categories of individuals whom Buyer has designated as continuing employees of the Business (the “Business Employees”). On and as of the applicable Closing Date, employees of Refco Canada, Refco Singapore and the London Business who are employed in the Business shall also be Business Employees. The parties hereto intend that there will be continuity of employment for all Business Employees following the applicable Closing Date. In order to effectuate such transfer of employment as of such Closing Date, except as otherwise provided herein, Buyer shall make a general offer of employment through a general notice of transfer to each Business Employee who is not an employee of a Purchased Entity (each an “Offer Employee”). Such general offer of employment will be deemed accepted by each Offer Employee unless (i) expressly rejected by the Offer Employee prior to the Closing Date or (ii) the Offer Employee otherwise indicates by his or her actions that such offer of employment has not been accepted (each Offer Employee who acts under (i) or (ii), a “Non-Acceptance Offer Employee”). For purposes of this Agreement, “Transferred Employee” shall mean each Offer Employee other than a Non-Acceptance Offer Employee; provided that, in the case of Offer Employees on short term disability or other approved leaves of absence, such employees must commence service with Buyer prior to the six-month anniversary of the Closing Date to become Transferred Employees. Any Business Employee who does not commence employment with Buyer as described above shall not be treated as a Transferred Employee. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 8.17, all Transferred Employees will cease to accrue benefits under and cease to participate as active participants in all Employee Benefit Plans as of the Closing Date and the Purchased Entities shall withdraw as participating employers from each Employee Benefit Plan as of the Closing Date. The parties will cooperate to comply with legal and regulatory requirements to accomplish the employment transfers described in this Section 8.17, including without limitation any requirements for Parent to terminate the employment of any Business Employee and for Buyer to make a specific employment offer to such Business Employees, and Parent will transfer any work permits or passes applicable to the Business Employees.

(b) For the one year period following the Closing, Buyer shall provide to Transferred Employees compensation and employee benefits comparable, in the aggregate, to the compensation and employee benefits provided by Sellers (or their Affiliates, as the case may be) to Transferred Employees as of immediately prior to the Closing. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 8.17 or under the terms of any employee benefit plans of Buyer providing benefits to Transferred Employees (the “Buyer Benefit Plans”) or applicable Law, Buyer shall be entitled to modify, amend, suspend, terminate or supplement any Buyer Benefit Plans in its sole discretion.

(c) The Buyer Benefit Plans shall credit such Transferred Employees (and their dependents) for any deductibles and out-of-pocket expenses paid under the applicable Employee Benefit Plans in the year of initial participation in the applicable Buyer Benefit Plans that are group health plans (within the meaning of Section 5000(b)(1) of the Code). Buyer shall provide each Transferred Employee with credit for the same number of vacation and sickness benefit days he or she has accrued but not used in the calendar year in which the Closing occurs, provided, that, to the extent required by law, such amount shall be paid by Buyer in cash.

(d) Buyer shall permit each Transferred Employee who is a participant in the Refco Group, Ltd. Employee Savings Plan (the “Seller 401(k) Plan”), and who elects to transfer his or her account balance under the Seller 401(k) Plan, to roll over his or her account balance (including any outstanding loans thereunder) to the Man Group USA Inc Savings and Investment Plan (the “Buyer Qualified Plan”), as soon as practicable following the Closing Date in accordance with the terms of the Buyer Qualified Plan. Parent agrees to use and to cause the Purchased Entities and the Sellers to use their best efforts to cooperate with Buyer, its agents and designees to ensure a smooth transfer of accounts, records and recordkeeping to effect the transfers described in the previous sentence. Parent further agrees to take and to cause the Sellers and Purchased Entities to take such actions as are necessary, including securing the cooperation of the recordkeeper, trustee and other service providers of Seller 401(k) Plan, to effect such transfers.

(e) Buyer will pay and provide to Transferred Employees whose employment terminates on or within twelve months after the Closing severance benefits under conditions and in amounts that are no less favorable to the employee than those provided to Transferred Employees as of immediately prior to the Closing under Parent's (or Parent's Affiliate's) severance policies; provided, that such amounts shall be without duplication of any severance payments required to be made by applicable law. Solely for purposes of determining eligibility, vesting and benefit accruals under the Buyer severance plans (and not for any other purpose), Buyer shall credit each Transferred Employee with his or her years of service with the Sellers and their respective Affiliates, and any predecessor entities, to the same extent as such Transferred Employee was entitled to credit for such service under any similar Employee Benefit Plan prior to the Transferred Employee's commencement of participation in the Buyer Benefit Plan, except that Transferred Employees shall receive no such credit to the extent that such credit would result in a duplication of benefits.

(f) Parent shall retain or assume liability for all claims under any welfare benefit plan ("Welfare Plan") as such term is defined in Section 3(l) of ERISA sponsored or maintained by Parent or any of its Affiliates which are incurred by any Transferred Employees prior to or on the date that such Transferred Employee becomes a Transferred Employee and any other current or former employee of Parent (and covered dependents and COBRA beneficiaries). Buyer shall assume liability for all claims under Welfare Plans which are incurred by Transferred Employees (and their covered dependents and COBRA beneficiaries) after that date. For purposes of this paragraph, the following welfare benefit claims shall be deemed to be incurred as follows: (a) life, accidental death and dismemberment and business travel accident insurance benefits, upon the death or accident giving rise to such benefits; (b) health, dental and/or prescription drug benefits (included in health benefits), upon the provision of services, materials or supplies relating to such claim; and (c) short-term disability and long-term disability benefits, upon the date on which an individual becomes disabled under the applicable disability plan.

Section 8.18 Non-Compete and Wind Down. The Subject Entities agree that following the final Closing Date until the fifth anniversary of the final Closing Date, except as required to provide services to Buyer or its designee under the Transition Services Agreement, the Subject Entities shall not, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries not to (i) directly or indirectly, operate, perform, control or engage in, manage or own a greater than 5% ownership in a business or Person that conducts any activities in competition with the Business, (ii) solicit, raid or knowingly entice, encourage or induce any Person that currently or at any time prior to or during the five year non-competition period is or was a client or customer (or is actively pursued as a potential client or customer) of any portion of the Business for activities which are the same as or competitive with the operation of the Business, (iii) interfere with, disrupt or attempt to disrupt, any relationship, contractual or otherwise, between the Business or Buyer or any of its Subsidiaries and any of their respective clients or customers, or (iv) cause or authorize any third party controlled by the Sellers to take any of the action described above. In addition, promptly after the Initial Closing, the Subject Entities, upon the request of Buyer, shall take all actions reasonably necessary to cause the Sellers' businesses (other than those businesses constituting Excluded Assets) to cease operations and wind down, including by terminating any and all Permits or IP Licenses other than those which are or may still become Assumed Contracts or Assumed IP Licenses pursuant to Section 2.3.

Section 8.19 Additional Sellers. Parent shall cause each of its Affiliates owning any Acquired Asset to execute a joinder to this Agreement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Buyer, as a “Seller” hereunder and to have all of the obligations and rights of a Seller hereunder as if such entity had executed this Agreement on the date hereof.

Section 8.20 Operations. Parent and the Sellers shall, and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to, take all actions necessary to continue the operation and performance in a manner consistent with past practice of the data processing, information technology, risk analysis and other operations currently conducted by the Sellers, including operations conducted at Sellers’ office located in Memphis, Tennessee.

Section 8.21 Agent for Excepted Accounts. From and after the Initial Closing, Buyer shall serve as the agent of the Sellers for purposes of administering the Excepted Accounts acquired by Buyer, which will include resolving, closing, liquidating, transferring or otherwise disposing of the Excepted Accounts and collecting and remitting within three (3) days after collection (subject to the terms of this Section 8.21) to the appropriate Sellers all amounts owed by customers in respect thereof in excess of amounts required to close out such accounts with no loss. All risk and benefit with respect to the Excepted Accounts shall be and remain for the account of the Sellers and Sellers shall pay (or reimburse to Buyer as a superpriority administrative claim and lien) all reasonable out of pocket expenses (but not a fee for agency services provided) associated with the administration by Buyer of the Excepted Accounts (including, without limitation, the expenses of counsel, it being understood and agreed that Buyer shall have not bring suit, in its own name or the name of any Seller, in conjunction with the collection or liquidation of any Excepted Account and Seller shall have the right to bring such suit, but only in its own name.). Buyer shall not settle or compromise any claim against any customer without the consent of the applicable Seller. In its capacity as administrative agent for the Sellers, Buyer shall take such steps, not inconsistent with the foregoing, as Parent or the applicable Seller may instruct from time to time; provided, (i) that such instruction shall not be in contravention of any applicable law, regulation or other order, directive or request of the CFTC, Chicago Mercantile Exchange, Monetary Authority of Singapore or other applicable governmental or non-governmental authority or any interpretation thereof; (ii) that Sellers acknowledge that Buyer may transfer any Excepted Account and the rights and obligations of Buyer in respect thereof, including Buyer’s interest in the applicable portion of the Excepted Account Escrow, to an appropriate third party selected by Buyer which has assumed the obligations of Buyer hereunder with respect to such account, with Parent’s or the applicable Seller’s consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; and (iii) that Buyer acknowledges that Sellers may direct Buyer to transfer any Excepted Account and the rights and obligations of Buyer in respect thereof to an appropriate third party which has assumed the obligations of Buyer hereunder with respect to such account, without any requirement of Buyer consent to such transfer. In connection with any transfer under either clause (ii) or (iii) of the preceding sentence, the Excepted Account Escrow balance applicable to the account so transferred shall be released to (a) the transferee, in the case of a transfer under clause (ii), or (b) the applicable Seller, in the case of a transfer under clause (iii), but in each case solely to the extent that Buyer shall be released of any liability with respect to such account upon such transfer. On or prior to the Initial Closing Date, the applicable Sellers shall establish a separate escrow account (the “Excepted Account Escrow”) into which account such Sellers shall deposit and in which account such Sellers shall at all times maintain liquid funds equal to at least the sum of (x) to the extent such amounts have not previously been deposited in the applicable Customer Accounts, the aggregate deficit of all Deficit Accounts that are Excepted Accounts, as calculated in accordance with the daily segregated funds computation as of the close of business on the day of determination, it being agreed that Sellers shall not take any action outside the ordinary course of business to withdraw assets from Customer Accounts in contemplation of Closing, (y) to the extent such amounts have not previously been deposited in the applicable Customer Accounts, the aggregate margin necessary to render all Undermargined Accounts that are Excepted Accounts no longer Undermargined Accounts, such margin amount to be determined by reference to applicable exchange minimums as in effect from time to time and (z) $12,000,000. Buyer shall have the right to direct the application of funds from the Excepted Account Escrow to such Excepted Accounts to cover any additional deficit or under-margin amounts in accordance with exchange minimums in effect from time to time or to satisfy any indemnity liability of the Sellers to Buyer in respect of the Excepted Accounts (notwithstanding any other limitation herein with respect to the source of funds for the Sellers’ indemnity obligations). The $12,000,000 additional escrow will be remitted back to Seller in the proportion of collected Excepted Accounts to total Excepted Accounts (line 9A, CFTC Form-1FR-FCM) as of the Closing Date. Any dispute with respect to the Excepted Accounts and/or any instruction given pursuant to this Section 8.21 shall be subject to resolution by the Bankruptcy Court. Buyer and the Sellers agree that it is their shared intention that the Excepted Accounts be collected, liquidated or otherwise resolved in a prompt and prudent manner, taking into account the likelihood that any deficit or under-margin circumstance will be resolved by the client in a timely manner in the ordinary course of business.

Section 8.22 Personally Identifiable Information. Buyer shall adopt the Debtors’ privacy policies with respect to personally identifiable information (as such term is defined in section 101(41A) of the Bankruptcy Code) of the Debtors’ customers whose Customer Accounts are conveyed to Buyer.

If on or prior to the Drop Dead Date (as it may be extended) (or earlier at Buyer's election) (a) all conditions precedent to Buyer's obligation to complete the purchase of such assets have been satisfied or waived by Buyer, other than the receipt of required Regulatory Consents, but Buyer has not purchased all Acquired Assets of the London Business and offered employment to substantially all employees in the United Kingdom, Buyer shall pay $37 million to Sellers (the "London Take or Pay Fee"), (b) all conditions precedent to Buyer's obligation to complete the purchase of such assets have been satisfied or waived by Buyer, but Buyer has not purchased all Acquired Assets of Refco's Singapore business, Buyer shall pay $7 million to Sellers (the "Singapore Take or Pay Fee"), (c) all conditions precedent to Buyer's obligation to complete the purchase of such assets have been satisfied or waived by Buyer, but Buyer has not purchased all Acquired Assets of Refco's Canada Business, Buyer shall pay $13 million to Sellers (the "Canada Take or Pay Fee") and (d) all conditions precedent to Buyer's obligation to complete the purchase of such assets have been satisfied or waived by Buyer, but Buyer has not purchased all Acquired Assets of Refco Hong Kong Ltd., Buyer shall pay $1 million to Sellers (the "Hong Kong Take or Pay Fee"); provided, that the London Take or Pay Fee shall in no event be due prior to the Drop Dead Date with respect to the London Business unless the applicable Regulatory Consents have been received. In no event shall Buyer or any of its Affiliates or representatives have any Liability to Parent, the Sellers or their respective Affiliates or any other Person hereunder in excess of the applicable Seller Liquidated Damages, and any claim, right or cause of action (including any claim, right or cause of action for willful breach of this Agreement) by Parent, the Sellers or their respective Affiliates or any other Person against Buyer or its Affiliates or representatives in excess of the Seller Liquidated Damages is hereby fully waived, released and forever discharged. No Claim may be asserted nor may any action be commenced against the Sellers pursuant to Section 11.2(a) unless written notice of such action is received by Parent on or prior to the date on which the representation or warranty is based ceases to survive as set forth in the prior sentence (it being agreed and understood that if a claim for a breach of representation or warranty is timely made, the representation or warranty shall, solely for purposes of such claim, survive until the date on which such claim is finally liquidated or otherwise resolved). No other Claim with respect to the representations and warranties may be asserted nor may any action be commenced against the Sellers pursuant to Section 11.2 unless written notice of such action is received by Parent on or prior to the relevant date described above.

(b) Except as otherwise provided herein, the respective covenants of the parties contained in this Agreement, or in any Related Documents shall survive the Closing indefinitely.

Section 11.2 Indemnification of Buyer by the Sellers.

(a) On and after the Closing Date, and notwithstanding any disclosure in this Agreement or Buyer's knowledge thereof or otherwise, the Sellers and their respective successors and assigns, including, but not limited to, any pre- or post-consummation trusts formed to administer claims against the Debtors' estate, shall, jointly and severally, indemnify, save, hold harmless, discharge and release each of the Buyer Indemnitees from and against any and all claims, demands, suits, actions, causes of actions, losses (including, for avoidance of doubt, loss of profits), costs, damages, liabilities and out-of-pocket expenses incurred or paid, including reasonable attorneys' fees (including such fees which are incurred in connection with a dispute of the provisions of this Agreement), fines, penalties, costs of investigation or settlement, other professionals' and experts' fees, and court or arbitration costs (but specifically excluding punitive damages and exemplary damages except to the extent (i) such damages specifically excluded herein are included and awarded to a third party or (ii) such damages are incurred as a result of fraud) (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Damages"), to the extent such Damages are determined to have arisen out of or to have resulted from, in connection with, or by virtue of (a) any facts or circumstances that constitute an inaccuracy, misrepresentation, breach of, default in, or failure to perform, any of the representations, warranties or covenants given or made by the Purchased Entities or the Sellers in this Agreement or in any of the certificates or other instruments or documents furnished by or on behalf of the Purchased Entities or the Sellers pursuant to this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date, including the covenant of the Sellers to deliver the Acquired Assets in consideration of the Purchase Price; provided, that for purposes of determining whether there has been any Company Breach (as defined), any knowledge qualification shall be disregarded, (b) any inaccuracy, error or omission in any of the books of account and other financial records of the Purchased Entities and the Sellers, (c) any legal, regulatory, investigative or similar proceedings relating to any pre-closing action, activity, occurrence, fact or event, (d) any Liability (i) arising from or attributable to the actions, failure to act, or profit or performance of or by a Person other than a Purchased Entity for which a Purchased Entity may otherwise be joint and severally liable under applicable common or statutory law or regulation, including applicable tax or environmental law, and (ii) for which any Purchased Entity is secondarily liable as a guarantor or surety to the extent Parent or any Affiliate of Parent is primarily liable for such Liability, (e) any Excluded Liabilities and (f) any Liability arising from or attributable to the Excepted Accounts, the agreements governing such Excepted Accounts or the customers with respect thereto other than any Liability arising from misconduct of Buyer (collectively, "Company Breaches"). All payments under this Article XI shall be treated for Tax purposes as adjustments to the Final Purchase Price and the Assumed Liabilities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, neither Parent nor the Sellers shall have any indemnification obligations hereunder to any Buyer Indemnitee unless and until the total amount of Damages for all Claims for which Buyer Indemnitees are indemnified hereunder exceeds $1,000,000. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that the Escrow Amount is the sole source of funding for any Claims for indemnification for the Buyer Indemnitees and under no circumstances shall any Buyer Indemnitees be entitled to be indemnified to the extent the Damages exceed the Escrow Amount, except to the extent such Damages (other than punitive damages) are incurred as a result of fraud in connection with or willful breach of this agreement. Buyer's Indemnitees are hereby granted a superpriority lien pursuant to Section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code on all assets of the Debtors, as well as a superpriority administrative claim against the estates of the Debtors, which superpriority lien and superpriority claim shall (except as hereinafter provided) be senior and prior to all liens created on property of the Debtors after the date hereof and all expenses of administration of the Debtors under Section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, however, that such superpriority liens and claims shall be subject and subordinate to (i) all valid and perfected Liens existing on the date of commencement of the Cases and the claims secured thereby, as well as any Liens and claims provided as adequate protection therefor, including, without limitation, the Liens and claims of the Debtor's pre-petition lending group and (ii) any post-petition financing providing new funds to the Debtors; provided, further, that if the Sale Order of the Company provides that Buyer's indemnities are granted a super-priority lien pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code on all of the assets of the Company, as well as a super-priority administrative claim against the estate of the Company, which lien and claim shall not be junior to any lien or claim against the Company, then the aggregate amount of Buyer's indemnities over and above the Escrow Amount shall be limited to the sum of (x) the Purchase Price, to the extent paid, (y) the $58,000,000 sum of the Take or Pay Fees provided for in Section 10.3 and (z) an additional $100,000,000 estimate of the aggregate amount of absolute and contingent Assumed Liabilities (it being understood that Sellers shall have the right to seek a further determination from the Bankruptcy Court as to the actual amount of such Assumed Liabilities, which shall be used instead of such estimate for this purpose if such actual amount is determined by the Court to be less than such estimate). For avoidance of doubt, any superpriority granted pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be without prejudice to the priority of the prepetition liens and claims of the prepetition lenders to the Parent in respect of their borrowers, their guarantors or the properties of the respective estates of their borrowers or guarantors, as set forth in the proviso to the second sentence of paragraph 26 of the Sale Order entered in the Case of the Parent.

(b) Damages in respect of any breach or violation of this Agreement shall be determined and computed in accordance with ordinary principles of contract law as applied in the courts of the State of New York.

Section 11.3 Notice of Claim.

(a) As used herein, the term "Claim" means a claim for indemnification by Buyer or any other Buyer Indemnitee for Damages under this Article XI. Any Buyer Indemnitee may give notice of a Claim under this Agreement, whether for its own Damages or for Damages incurred by any other Buyer Indemnitee pursuant to written notice of such Claim executed by Buyer (a "Notice of Claim") and delivered to the Sellers (such receiving party, the “Indemnitor”), after such Buyer Indemnitee becomes aware of the existence of any potential claim for indemnification under this Section 11.3 arising out of or resulting from any item indemnified pursuant to the terms of Section 11.2.

(b) No delay on the part of any Buyer Indemnitee in giving a Notice of Claim shall limit or reduce such Person’s right to indemnity hereunder, or relieve the Indemnitor from any of its obligations under this Section 11.3, unless (and then only to the extent that) the Indemnitor is actually and materially prejudiced thereby.

Section 11.4 Resolution of Notice of Claim. Each Notice of Claim given by any Buyer Indemnitee shall be resolved as follows:

(a) Admitted Claims. If, within 20 Business Days after a Notice of Claim is delivered to the Indemnitor, the Indemnitor agrees in writing that liability for such Claim is indemnified under Article XI the full amount of the Damages specified in the Notice of Claim is agreed to, and that such Notice of Claim is timely, the Indemnitor shall be conclusively deemed to have consented to the recovery by the Buyer Indemnitee of the full amount of Damages specified in the Notice of Claim in accordance with this Section 11.4(a).

(b) Contested Claims. If the Indemnitor does not agree in writing to such Notice of Claim or gives the Buyer Indemnitee written notice contesting all or any portion of a Notice of Claim (a “Contested Claim”) within the 20 Business Day period specified in Section 11.4(a), then such Contested Claim shall be resolved by either (i) a written settlement agreement executed by Buyer and Parent or (ii) in the absence of such a written settlement agreement, all Claims shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court as a section 101(5) claim against the Debtors’ estates or a court of competent jurisdiction.

(c) Manner of Payment. If a Buyer Indemnitee is entitled to the recovery of Damages pursuant to any Claim that is agreed to pursuant to Section 11.4(a), or a Contested Claim that is resolved by a court of competent jurisdiction, the Sellers and their respective successors and assigns, including, but not limited to, any post-consummation trusts formed to administer claims against the Debtors’ estate, shall pay the amount of Damages arising out of or resulting from each such Claim as so determined to Buyer by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated in writing by Buyer, or, if applicable, such amounts shall be released by the escrow agent by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated in writing by Buyer.
