FINAL STATUS REPORT
Long Term Care Ombudsman Report
Country Care of Fair Play

On June 30, 2016, the owner of Country Care of Fair Play filed for Chapter 11 Bankruptcy protection. Prior to the July 19, 2016 appointment of Dale Watson, State Long Term Care Ombudsman, as the patient care ombudsman, Kim Bridges, Appalachian Region 1 Long Term Care Ombudsman, made a visit to the facility to ensure that patient care needs were being met. Since the appointment, a total of thirteen visits were made.

On April 9, 2017, the Administrator, Mary Dunmoyer, gave notice that as of April 7, 2017 the facility was officially closed.

On April 11, 2017, an email was received from Mary Dunmoyer, Administrator that all nine residents had been discharged from the facility. Eight of the residents were transferred to other facilities and one resident was discharged home.
