P & L GAS DISPENSERS, LLC § Case No. 16-30165-H5-11
§ (Chapter 11)
Debtor. §

DEBTOR’S SUPPLEMENT TO ITS SECOND
AMENDED PLAN OF REORGANIZATION
AND DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

1. P & L Gas Dispensers, LLC., Debtor herein hereby supplements its Second Amended Plan of Reorganization and Disclosure Statement by amending the language regarding the Claim and treatment of the Claim of Harris County, in Paragraph IV. 4 Class 4.

“Harris County is the holder of an allowed secured claim in the amount of $6,078.78. Interest shall be paid to claimant at 12% per annum from the date of the Petition until paid in full. Harris County shall retain its liens for personal and real property for both pre and post-petition taxes until the claims, including interest thereon is paid in full.

Taxes for the 2017 tax year do not require the filing of a request for allowance of an administrative expense. Debtor shall pay post-petition taxes in the ordinary course of business.

In the event of any failure of the reorganized Debtor to timely make its required plan payments to Harris County, or any failure to pay post-petition ad valorem property taxes owed to Harris County prior to delinquency, either of which shall constitute an event of default under the plan as to Harris County, and they shall send notice of such default to the reorganized Debtor. If the default is not cured within twenty (20) days of the date of such notice, Harris County may proceed to collect all amounts owed pursuant to state law without further recourse to the Bankruptcy Court. Harris County is only required to send two (2) notice of default and upon the third event of default, Harris County may proceed to collect all amounts owed under state law, without recourse to the Bankruptcy Court and without further notice.”
