1. The Debtors have requested that the Banks consent to their limited use of Cash Collateral (as defined hereinafter) which the Debtors represent is necessary to fund their operations. For purposes of this Stipulation, "Cash Collateral" shall have the meaning ascribed to it pursuant to § 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and shall include the proceeds, products, rents, and profits of and from all Pre-Petition Collateral.

2. The budgets attached hereto as “Exhibit A” (collectively, the “Budget”) were prepared by the Debtors and enumerate in detail the Debtors’ projected collections and cash expenses of operations (collectively, the “Approved Expenses”) from the Petition Date through the Termination Date (as defined hereinafter).

3. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein (and contingent on the Debtors’ compliance herewith), and on the condition precedent that this Stipulation is approved by the Court, the Banks hereby consent to the Debtors’ use of Cash Collateral to pay only the Approved Expenses set forth in the Budget from the date this Stipulation is approved and entered as an order by the Court until the “Termination Date” which shall be the earlier of (a) 5:00 p.m. on December 20, 2013; or (b) the date upon which an Event of Default (as defined hereinafter) occurs. The Debtors shall be permitted to exceed Approved Expenses in the Budget by an amount not to exceed, on a weekly basis, either (a) five percent (5%) of the aggregate amount of Approved Expenses for such week or (b) as otherwise agreed to among the Debtors and Banks.

4. Nothing contained in this Stipulation shall be deemed to require the Banks to advance uncollected funds or otherwise make loans, advances, and/or extensions of credit to the Debtors.

5. The Debtors’ rights to continue to use Cash Collateral shall be contingent on the Debtors’ compliance with each and every provision of this Stipulation.

6. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, Cash Collateral shall not be used to (a) further investigate and/or contest any Pre-Petition Obligations, Pre-Petition Liens, or Pre-Petition Documents; (b) investigate and/or prosecute any claim, complaint, adversary proceeding, suit, demand, action, or cause of action against the Banks, which is covered by the release under Section C.4 above, or (c) seek to have the Court annul, modify, or amend any part of this Stipulation without the prior written consent of the Banks.

E. ADEQUATE PROTECTION

1. As adequate protection for any diminution in the value of the Pre-Petition Liens in favor of the Banks securing the Pre-Petition Obligations caused by the Debtors’ use of the Banks’ Cash Collateral, to the extent the Debtors’ use the Banks’ Cash Collateral and such use diminishes the value of the Pre-Petition Collateral:

a. The Debtors hereby grant to the Banks replacement liens on and security interests in all of the Debtors’ now existing and hereafter acquired real and personal property and assets, including, without limitation, equipment, motor vehicles, accounts, accounts receivable, deposit accounts, equipment, goods, inventory, contracts, contract rights, claims, chattel paper, notes, instruments, tax refunds, insurance proceeds, files, records, securities, general intangibles, investment property, deposits, cash, all actions against any person or entity that is or becomes obligated to any Debtor (whether such action is commenced in this Court or any other court), and all cash and non-cash proceeds thereof (collectively, the “Post-Petition Collateral”), which replacement liens and security interests shall be deemed to be effective from the Petition Date; provided, however, that such replacement liens and security interests shall not attach to any claims or proceeds of claims for relief obtained pursuant to Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code, if any.

b. Any diminution in the value of the Pre-Petition Liens in favor of the Banks securing the Pre-Petition Obligations caused by the Debtors' use of the Banks' Cash Collateral that is not compensated by Post-Petition Collateral or through Adequate Protection Payments (as defined hereinafter) shall constitute a cost and expense of administration in the Bankruptcy Cases in accordance with § 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and shall have a superpriority status pursuant to § 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and, thus, shall be paid ahead of all other costs and expenses of administration of the Bankruptcy Cases, including, without limitation, those specified in §§ 503(b) or 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; but not ahead of fees payable pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930.

2. The postpetition liens and security interests granted to the Banks pursuant to this Stipulation are perfected by operation of law upon the Court's approval of this Stipulation nunc pro tunc from the Petition Date without further action by the Banks. The Banks may, but shall not be required to, file any Uniform Commercial Code financing statements and record any additional documents in any jurisdiction or take any other or further action to validate or perfect the security interests and liens granted to them pursuant to and in accordance with this Stipulation. If the Banks deem it necessary or convenient, the Debtors shall execute and deliver to the Banks, or shall have executed and delivered to the Banks, all in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Banks, any other agreements, instruments, documents, or writings to evidence the terms of this Stipulation, the use of Cash Collateral, and/or the Banks' liens and security interests, and the Banks may request from time to time the execution and delivery of Uniform Commercial Code financing statements, continuation statements, amendments to financing statements, and any other agreements, instruments, and/or documents relating to the use of Cash Collateral and/or the security interests and liens granted hereunder. The Debtors authorize the execution and filing of all financing statements, amendments, continuations, and other agreements, instruments, and documents desired by the Banks for the perfection of the security interests and liens granted hereunder, and the Debtors agrees to a lifting of the automatic stay for the limited purpose of carrying out the purposes of this Section. Furthermore, the Debtors irrevocably authorize the filing of a carbon, photographic or other reproduction of this Stipulation as a financing statement and agree that such filing is sufficient as a financing statement subject to applicable state law.

3. All of the liens on and security interests in the Post-Petition Collateral granted hereunder are hereby deemed to be effective on and after the Petition Date, shall continue in full force and effect, and shall survive the termination of this Stipulation.

F. ADDITIONAL ADEQUATE PROTECTION

1. As additional adequate protection for the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral and as a further condition to the Banks' entry into this Stipulation:

a. The Debtors shall pay to the Banks all payments owed to the Banks as reflected on the Budget as and when due and payable (collectively, the “Adequate Protection Payments”), including, without limitation, (i) the regularly scheduled payments of interest on the Pre-Petition Line of Credit Loans at the applicable non-default rate of interest set forth in the Pre-Petition Line of Credit Loan Documents; (ii) the regularly scheduled payments of principal and interest on the Pre-Petition Term Loan in the amounts and at the applicable non-default rate of interest set forth in the Pre-Petition Term Loan Documents; (iii) the regularly scheduled payments of rent and/or principal and interest on the Pre-Petition Leases and/or Loans in the amounts and at the applicable non-default rate of interest set forth in the Pre-Petition Lease Documents; (iv) to the extent that the Debtors’ fail to maintain insurance on the Pre-Petition Collateral and/or Post-Petition Collateral, all insurance premiums and other payments reasonably incurred by the Banks to adequately insure their interests in the Pre-Petition Collateral and/or Post-Petition Collateral; and (v) to the greatest extent permitted under the Bankruptcy Code, the reasonable costs and expenses of the Banks incurred in connection with the Bankruptcy Cases, the Pre-Petition Obligations, the preservation of the Banks’ Pre-Petition Collateral and/or Post-Petition Collateral, the preparation and approval of this Stipulation, the preservation and protection of their rights hereunder, and the collection of the Indebtedness (as defined hereinafter) (collectively, the “Post-Petition Costs and Expenses”). As additional Adequate Protection Payments, the Debtors shall pay the Banks $2,000,000 on or before November 22, 2013 to permanently reduce the principal balance of the Line of Credit Loans and the Debtors may pay the Banks (but shall not be required to pay the Banks) additional principal reduction payments as the Debtors and the Banks agree, subject to notice and approval by the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors.

b. At the Banks’ request, the Debtors shall execute and deliver or cause to be delivered to the Banks and/or file with the appropriate offices, such documents, pleadings, instruments, agreements, financing statements, amendments, continuations, and/or other things reasonably deemed necessary by the Banks to implement the substance and intent of this Stipulation.

c. The Debtors shall continue to provide such annual, quarterly, and monthly reporting as they are obligated to provide the Banks pursuant to the Pre-Petition Documents. In addition, on each Friday, the Debtors shall provide the Banks, the United States Trustee and any Committee, if appointed, with a report listing (i) all of the Debtors’ outstanding accounts receivable, an aging thereof, and a record of collections from the immediately preceding week, (ii) all of the Debtors’ outstanding accounts payable, an aging thereof, and a record of payments from the immediately preceding week, (iii) an inventory report, and (iv) a cash flow statement showing actual operations on a weekly basis and comparing actual results to budgeted items of operation for all prior periods.

d. The Debtors shall provide the Banks and the Banks’ consultants, if any, with full and complete access to all financial books, records, and files (whether such information is stored on any computer or disk) to, among other things, verify cash receipts, collateral levels, and results of operations, and the Banks and the Banks’ consultants, if any, shall be entitled to share such information with the Banks’ attorneys.

e. All Post-Petition Collateral and all Pre-Petition Collateral shall secure all Indebtedness. For the purpose of this Stipulation, “Indebtedness” shall mean all of the Debtors’ obligations to the Banks arising under this Stipulation and the Pre-Petition Documents, including, without limitation, the Pre-Petition Obligations, the Cash Collateral used by the Debtors, and the Post-Petition Costs and Expenses, specifically excluding default rates of interest, late fees, penalties, and similar default related charges.¹

f. Each Debtor hereby waives and agrees that it (and no entity or person claiming by, through, or under it or its estate) shall assert any claim whatsoever against the Pre-Petition Collateral and/or Post-Petition Collateral, either directly or indirectly, pursuant to § 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise.

1. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute an event of default hereunder (an “Event of Default”):

a. Any Debtor shall fail to keep, observe, or perform any of its agreements or undertakings hereunder including, without limitation, all payment and covenant requirements and reporting provisions contained herein;

b. Any Debtor shall knowingly furnish or knowingly make any false, inaccurate, or incomplete representation, warranty, certificate, report, or summary in connection with or under this Stipulation;

c. Any Debtor shall contest any Pre-Petition Obligation, Pre-Petition Document, or Pre-Petition Lien or other lien or security interest of the Banks, file any claim, complaint, adversary proceeding, suit, demand, action, or cause of action against the Banks, or shall seek to have the Court annul, modify, or amend any part of this Stipulation without the prior written consent of the Banks;

d. Any Debtor shall suffer the appointment of a trustee or examiner;

g. Any Debtor shall pledge or file a motion to pledge any of its real or personal property or assets to any entity other than the Banks, whether pursuant to § 364 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, or allow, voluntarily or involuntarily, any liens or security interests to attach to a material portion of their respective assets other than liens and security interests existing as of this Stipulation; or

Upon the Termination Date, the Banks may seek relief from any stay under § 362 or § 105 of the Bankruptcy Code or other restriction in the enforcement of their liens and security interests under the Pre-Petition Documents and/or this Stipulation. 2. The rights, powers, and remedies of the Banks provided in this Stipulation and the Pre-Petition Documents are cumulative and not exclusive of any right, power, or remedy provided by law or equity. No failure or delay on the part of the Banks in the exercise of any right, power, or remedy shall constitute a waiver of such right, power, or remedy.

3. This Stipulation constitutes the sole agreement of the Banks and Debtors with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all oral negotiations and prior writings with respect to the subject matter hereof.

4. No amendment or extension of this Stipulation, and no waiver of any one or more of the provisions hereof, shall be effective unless set forth in writing and signed by the Banks and Debtors.

6. The performance of the Banks and Debtors obligations under this Stipulation are expressly conditioned upon the approval by the Court of this Stipulation.

7. The Debtors and Banks represent and warrant to each other that this Stipulation has been duly and validly executed and delivered and that the Stipulation constitutes a valid and legally binding obligation subject only to approval by the Court.

8. No rights are intended to be created hereunder for the benefit of any third party, donee, creditor, or incidental beneficiary.

9. Except as expressly provided herein, the parties' execution of this Stipulation shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of any of their respective rights or remedies under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law. By way of amplification, but not limitation, the Banks are not waiving any of their rights and remedies with respect to any of their claims, rights, liens, security interests, or remedies under or contained in the Pre-Petition Documents. In addition, the Banks do not waive any right to seek additional adequate protection in the future or to object to, or refuse any request of the Debtors or any trustee appointed in the bankruptcy cases, for consent to, the use, sale, or other disposition of any Pre-Petition Collateral or Post-Petition Collateral, and/or the use, sale, or other disposition of other property or assets of the Debtors.

10. This Stipulation shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the parties agree that the Court shall have jurisdiction to interpret and enforce this Stipulation.
